VOLUME I.

TACOMA, WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1923

NUMBER 18

WHO WILL WIN? VOTES 1C EACH

Every Student Should Support His Class Candidates

The four classes of C. P. S. have chosen as their representatives for the popularity contest the following: Frosh, Betty Reynolds and Kenneth Warner; Soph, Ella Miller and Ed Amende; Juniors, Helen Pangborn and Dick Wasson; Seniors, Esther Graham and Wilbur Daniel; Faculty, Miss Crasper and Mr. Schilpp. Now that you know who they are and that they are the best possible candidates, it is up to each and everyone of you to get behind your class candidates and show him that you think he is the most popular one in school. When the polls are opened next Thursday and Friday, come in and vote at a penny a vote. "A penny well invested is a penny saved."

The money raised in this way will be used to help pay off the athletic debt.

All-College Play Is Chosen by Committee

"Come Out of the Kitchen", by A. E. Thomas, based on the story by Alice Duer Miller, has been selected by the play reading committee as the all-college play, to be presented at the Tacoma Theatre April 10. Any student in the college may try out for parts in this play; the try-outs will be held February 14.

Ruth Chatterton has made this play famous by starring in it, and it was released for the first time last fall for production by amateurs. Several eastern colleges have selected "Come Out of the Kitchen" as their all college play this year, and it is a play which will draw the public.

ORTING HIGH BEATS FROSH

In a fast game, the Orting High School basket ball team defeated the Frosh by a 14 to 10 score.

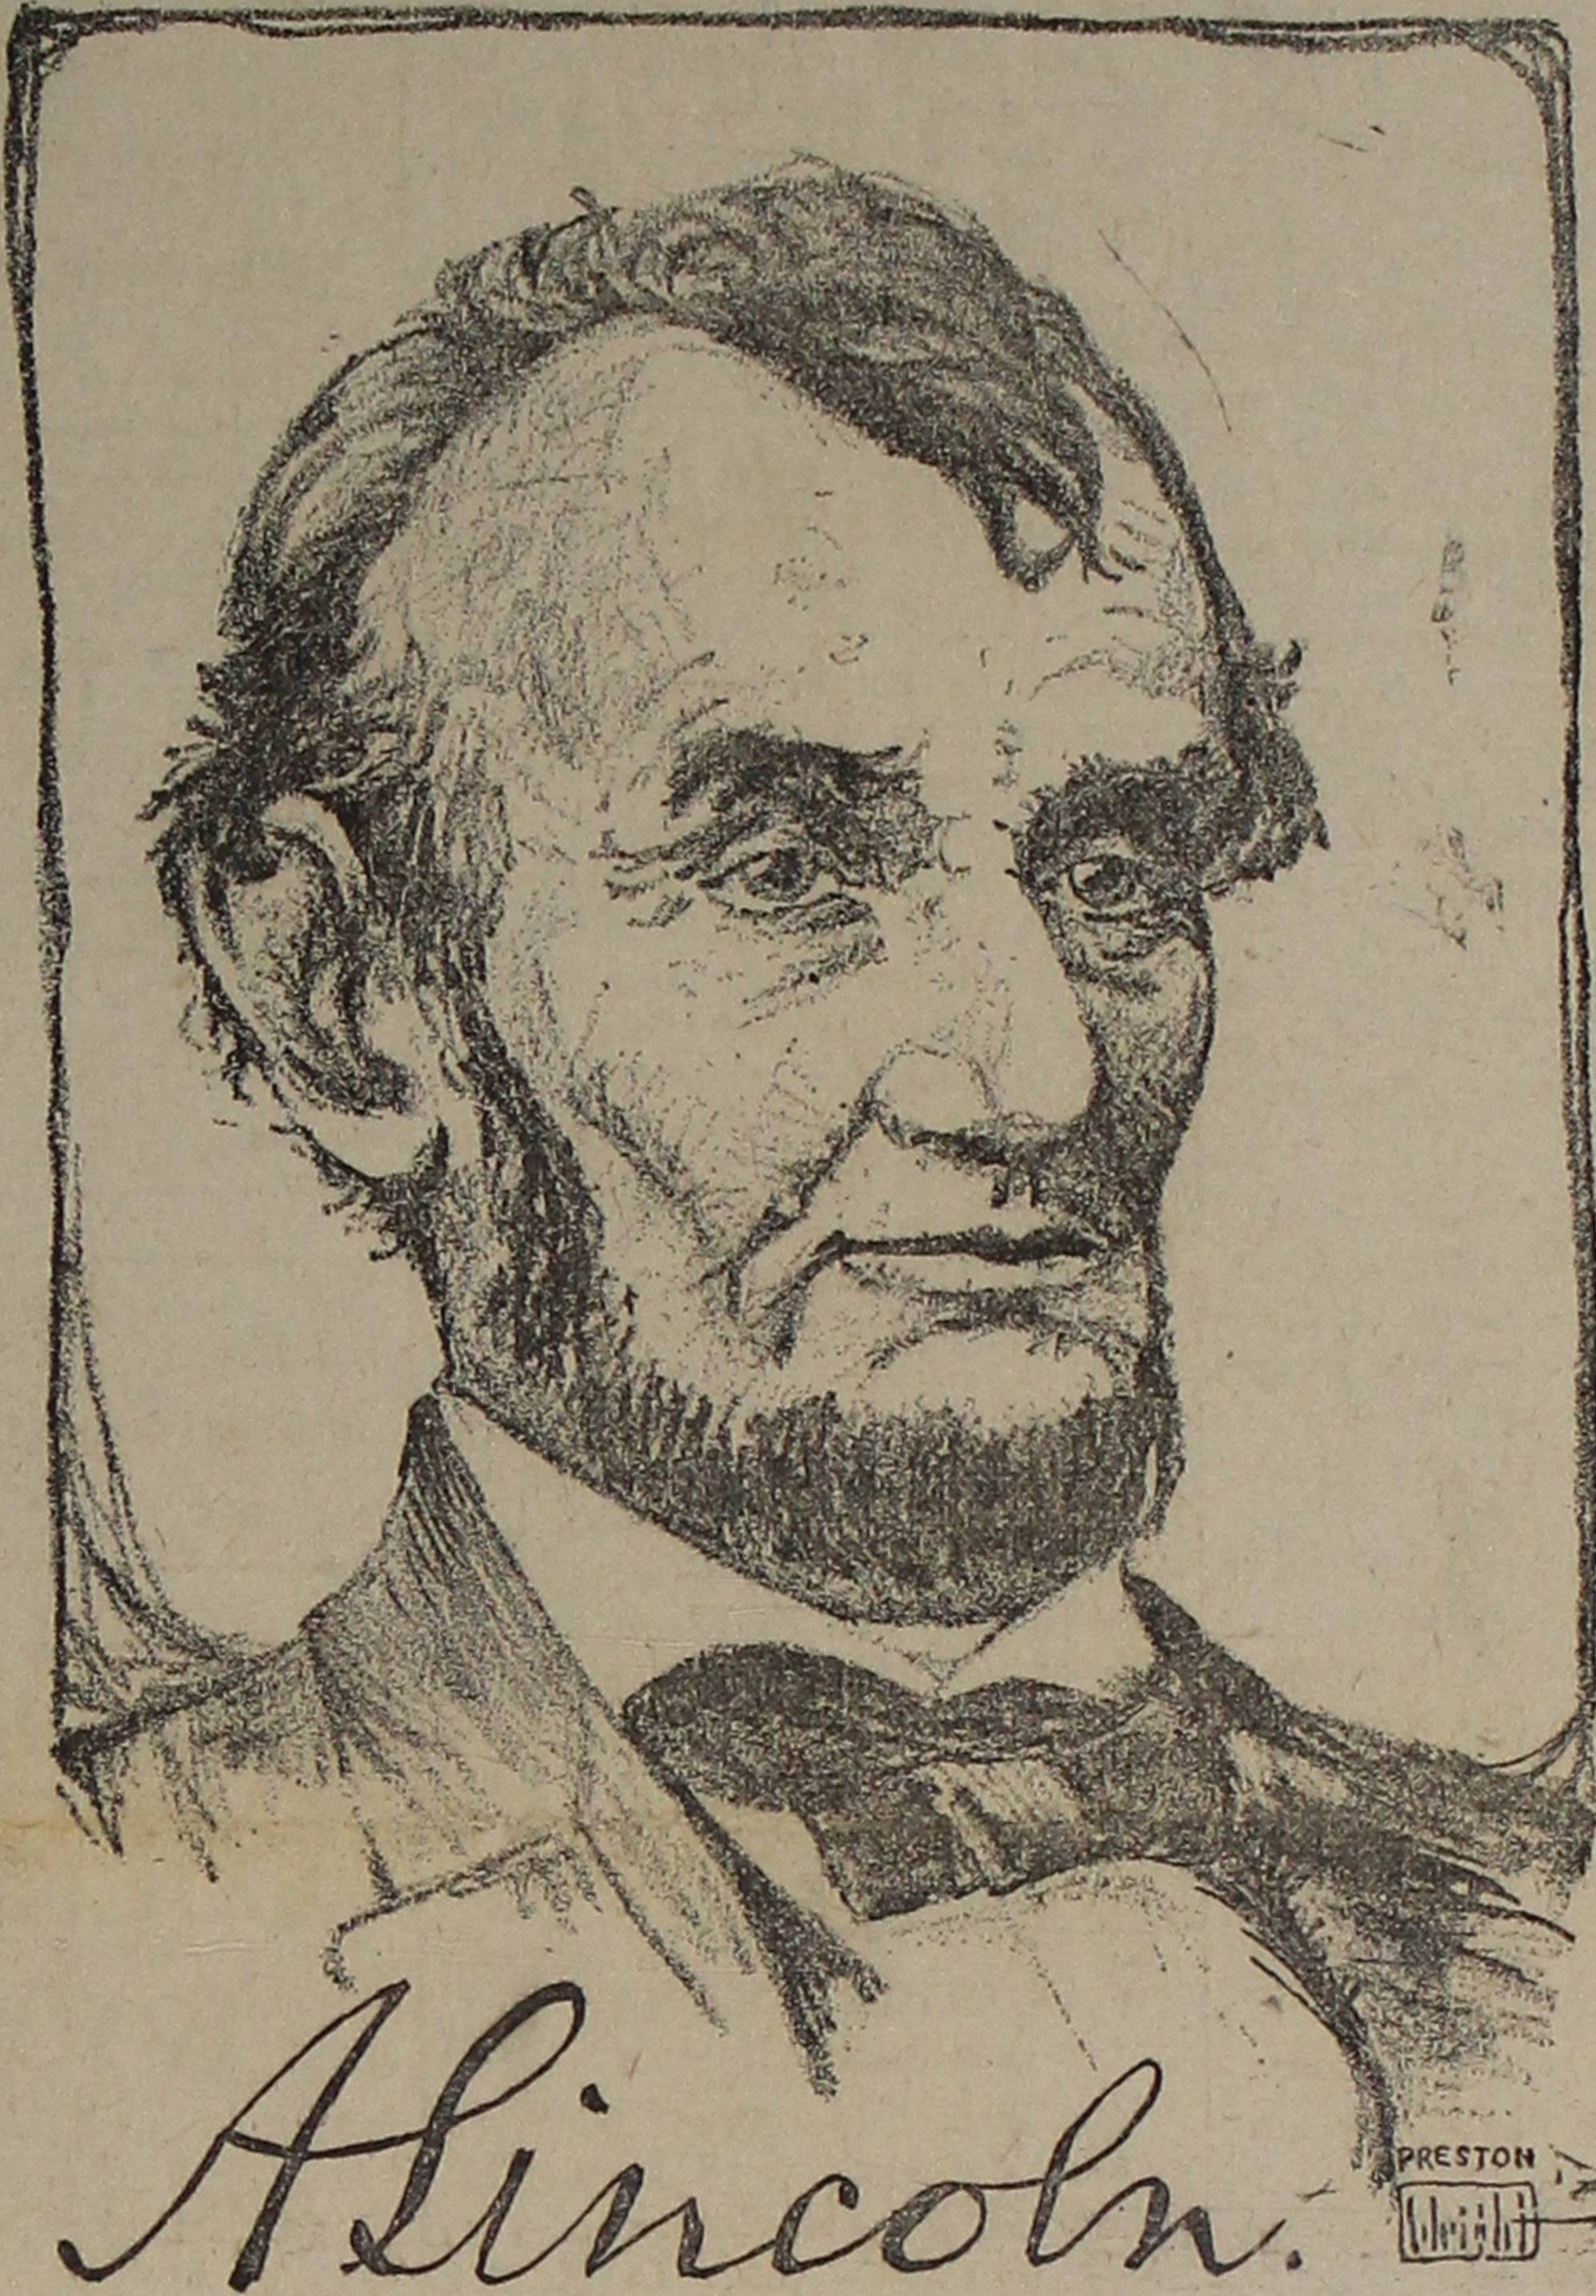

The Orting team is a stronger one. They held the Famous Orting Cardinals to a 13 to 10 score.

Those going to Orting were:

SORORITY GIVES SKETCH

The Lambda Sigma Chi Sorority gave a very "interesting" sketch during chapel period Friday, called, "Absolute Co-operation". It was instructive in the extreme; the girls in the audience learned the most scientific method of "hooking" a man, and the men learned just what kind of a "rep" they had with the fairer sex. Some rare bits of information were gleaned from a Scandal Sheet, and from a "nice" gossipy letter. If there is anything interesting you would like to know about yourself, apply to the Lambda girls; you'll be sure to get your money's worth.

Abraham Lincoln.

LINCOLN

*A broken thought, a broken heart.
A broken home had ruled the land,
When like a spark from out the dark
There came a leading man.*

*A strength was his, a force was his,
And yet the humble kind,
To sooth the cause with human laws...
That only love can bind.*

*There was no West that he loved best,
But all his country's realm;
A God-sent man, his dextrous hand
Was quickly at the helm.*

*With awkward grace he freed a race,
Although the price was war;
Again the stars, and not the bars,
Were flying as before.*

*To still the strife, he gave his life—
A martyr laid to rest;
The judgment slate has marked him great—
A man who met the test.*

—Eldon G. Chuinard.

LOGGERS LOSE TO CAMP LEWIS

15 to 13 Final Score in Game With Sixth Engineers

The Varsity Five lost to the Sixth Engineers at a basket ball game played last Thursday evening at Camp Lewis by a 15 to 13 score.

The game was fast in every way and at the end of the first half the loggers were ahead by a 9 to 7 score. The C. P. S. team had opportunities in which they shot many more baskets than the Engineers, but they could not put the ball where it belonged.

The feature of the game was that it was the cleanest game played by C. P. S. this year.

The line up for C. P. S. was as follows: Daniel and Brooks forwards, Enocks center; Bleavens and Mathis guards. Wellman, substitute for Brooks in last half.

Mrs. Gulick Entertains Exec. Council

Mrs. Gulick gave a delightful luncheon for the girls of the executive council at Rhodes Brothers yesterday. The tea was appropriate to Valentine Day. Those present included Hilda Sheyer, Thelma Bestler, Helen Brix, Mary Anderson, Ellena Hart, Ermine Warren, Evelyn Ahnquist, Ida Convis, Phoebe Nicholson, Agnes Hauge, Norma Lawrence.

ENOCKS PICKED FOR ALL STAR CITY LEAGUE FIVE

Harry Enocks who is now playing center on the basket ball team for C. P. S. has been chosen for center on the all star quintette for the City League.

Enocks made a good record this season while playing on the Majestic Team. He made 32 points while his opponents only made 8 points off of him. He was also highly recommended for his clean as well as fast playing.

FRESHMEN TO PLAY STADIUM HIGH SATURDAY NIGHT

Saturday night the Freshman basket ball team will play Stadium High School at seven o'clock in the Stadium gym as a curtain raiser to the Varsity and Mecca game.

The first team will play the Meccas of the City League at 8:00 o'clock. The Meccas were third in the league and a stiff game is expected.

SIXTH ENGINEERS TO PLAY RETURN GAME FRIDAY NIGHT

The Sixth Engineers of Camp Lewis will play the Varsity basket ball team a return game Friday night at eight o'clock in the College gym.

The Varsity is out to turn the tables on the Engineers for the 15 to 13 defeat that was handed them last Thursday.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

(Editorial written at the request of Prof. Schilpp).

Who said: "Music hath charms?" Right at this time the College of Puget Sound Men's Glee Club is tottering on the brink of oblivion. If the Glee Club fails, it will be due, directly to the failure of the male student body of this institution to keep up its one and only music activity.

Referring to the Willamette University: we beat 'em in foot ball We beat 'em in debate. But how about music? The Willamette Men's Glee Club, now touring this section of the state, gave an extremely interesting and pleasing musical program at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. There is no reason why we cannot produce a Glee Club just as good, if not better. A tour is assured IF a Glee Club composed of enough good male voices can be gotten together regularly.

We need speak of the advertising power of a Glee Club on tour; for it is generally recognized that Music is second only to Athletics when it comes to advertising an institution.

This is a plea in behalf of the Men's Glee Club of the College of Puget Sound. And as we close this editorial we hear the voice of an imaginary bell-hop yodeling: "Call for Charles Mentzer, Clinton Hart, 'Vas' Olene and others."

UNIVERSAL FELLOWSHIP VERSUS DOGMATIC FORMS

During His ministry on earth, Jesus taught that human needs were paramount; that where the welfare of individuals came in conflict with the dogmatic forms of the day the dogma was to go. In this respect, He created a revolution in the religious circles and brought upon Himself condemnation from many sources.

The idea is illustrated by the parable of the Priest and the Levite and the Good Samaritan. It was not good form for the Priest and the Levite to aid the unfortunate man who fell by the wayside, a victim of thieves. The Good Samaritan, however, guided only by a pure and holy motive, immortalized himself and his like by putting the principle of the universal fellowship into practice.

The same idea was again pictured by Jesus in the story of the Pharisee and the Publican. The Pharisee was bound by an environment of dogma and ritual and abstraction to such an extent that he could say nothing else but, "I thank Thee, Lord, that I am not as other men." The Publican had not lived in the same world as the Pharisee and was free to express the longings of his soul: "Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner."

Public Sales

We have purchased 122,000 pair of U. S. Army Munson last shoes, sizes 5½ to 12, which was the entire surplus stock of one of the largest U. S. Government shoe contractors.

This shoe is guaranteed 100 percent solid leather, color, dark tan, bellows tongue, dirt and water proof. The actual value of this shoe is $6.00. Owing to this tremendous buy we can offer same to the public at $2.95.

Send correct size. Pay post-man on delivery or send money order. If shoes are not as represented we will cheerfully refund your money promptly upon request.

NATIONAL BAY STATE SHOE COMPANY

The thing that should be avoided is that very natural tendency that we all have when we become too engrossed in study and too interested in doctrines, and dogma, and forms.

Dogmatic forms are all right in their place; but an overemphasis of them leads one to become in time more or less like the Pharisee and the Priest and the Levite.

The world is full of the appeals to the young fellow of altruistic motives. I believe that the Levite was not a bad fellow at heart, but he was just lost in abstraction. His sense of right and wrong were colored by the dogma in which he was reared and in which he believed. It was not altogether his fault. But it certainly will be the fault of any person of this day and age who allows himself to be lost among the staid and sombre dogmas of his church or of society and thus indifferently and unconcernedly passes by on the other side while a needy world dies for lack of a Good Samaritan.

Some men always will be Pharisees, they are born that way. But a vast majority may develop the spirit of the Good Samaritan by busying themselves with the great human problems that confront mankind. These problems are legion, they range from the great appealing subject of world peace down to that of saving an individual soul. The actual doing of these things, as Jesus did and taught, will save one from the pitfalls of too great an emphasis upon forms and dogma, and will, when enough people do it, actually save the world.

NEW BOOK IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PRODUCED

President Arlo Ayres Brown of the University of Chattanooga has written "A History of Religious Education in Recent Times", which the Addington Press has just published.

Mr. Brown presents a clear and forceful interpretation of this phase of modern church history.

Juliette: "Why did you let that young army officer kiss you?"
Charlotte: "Why, it is against the law to resist an officer."

CHRIST DIFFERENT FROM ANY OTHER MAN

(Says Dr. Martin)

"No person can put his finger on a single mistake which Christ made," said Dr. Martin in an address to the students, Wednesday morning. Christ himself said, "Which of you convicteth me of sin?" No other man has been able to ask such a question.

There have been some who have claimed that Christ was an invented character. It would be nothing short of a miracle if ignorant peasants such as the disciples of Christ could create the one perfect character of all history.

It is impossible to explain Christ and his influence on ancient and modern times, on music, art, literature, and commerce in any other way that he represented God, that he was God in human form.

To live life in the right way one must learn to know Christ as a living reality.

WHAT ARE THE DURABLE SATISFACTIONS OF LIFE

"It is better to be a man dissatisfied than a pig dissatisfied", were the opening words of an address given by Dr. Rhodes at the College chapel, Friday morning. It is not a good thing to be too easily satisfied, but it is a bad plan to practice dissatisfaction. One should learn to recognize perfection.

Paul, one of the greatest men in history, found some "durable satisfactions" in life, one of which was the acquisition of a competent creed which resulted in a firm faith.

No man should take his religion second hand. He should fight to know whom he has believed. God is with the man who is struggling for the truth and that man will be delivered if he keeps steadfast. There is sometimes more faith in honest doubt than in many creeds. A man's faith must be his own if he would find satisfaction in it.

IN OTHER COLLEGES

The women's team of the University of Oregon is to debate the subject of the cancellation of the allied war debts with O. A. C. on March 7.

On Feb. 1st the celebration of the eighty-first anniversary of the founding of Willamette University was observed. The rebuilt Waller Hall was constructed almost sixty years ago.

The Willamette's Men's Glee Club is now making a three weeks' successful tour of Oregon and Washington. They appeared at the First Christian church in this city last evening, February 13th.

The Women's Glee Club of Willamette is just completing a ten-day trip throughout Southern Oregon.

Linfield College at McMinnville, Oregon, reports an enrollment of two hundred and fifty-two this semester. One of our last year students, Miss Ruth Thacker, is now attending Linfield College. Miss Thacker was recently a member of a party which went to Cottage Grove to witness a basket ball game with Pacific University.

The Willamette basket ball team left Saturday for an eight-day trip They will play the Multnomah Club at Portland, Whitman, Idaho, Washington State and Gonzaga. The team had lost five games before starting on the trip, the victors being Whitman, Idaho, University of Washington, O. A. C., and Pacific.

Dr. Randall Williams, a local dentist, gave the fraternity an interesting talk on the life of Lincoln at the meeting Monday evening. This is the first time the fraternity has had the pleasure of listening to Dr. Williams and hopes to have the opportunity of hearing him again.

PHILOS ENTERTAINED

The Philomathean Literary society was entertained by several of its members last Monday evening at the home of the Misses Gladys and Marion Harding. The time was spent informally with games and music, and a supper was served later on in the evening.

"COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN" AT U. OF O.

University of Oregon.—The first student play to be staged on a large scale this college year is slated for Thursday, February 15, when an all star student cast will present "Come Out of the Kitchen", a sparkling three-act comedy, written by A. E. Thomas.

WELL KNOWN EDUCATOR DIES

Dr. Henry Solomon Lehr, 85, founder of Ohio Northern University, and a widely known educator, died at his home in Ada, Ohio, on January 29, following an illness of three months.

U. OF W. TO HAVE NEW LIBRARY

University of Washington.—The new library for the University of Washington will be the largest of its buildings. If about 20 feet were sliced off Education Hall, the largest of the present buildings, it could be placed inside the reading room of the new library, when it is built. Construction of the new library will start in April, 1923, and the building will be ready for occupancy in September, 1924. The general form of the new library is that of a triangle with the base at the front. Two oblong sections extend back, almost meeting in the rear. Light courts between the front and side sections make it possible for every room to have outside light from two sides. The building will be in the center of the campus.

The Christian faith is big and broad. It was the nucleus of what Paul believed.

Another thing which brought satisfaction to Paul was his alliance with a capital cause. The cause of Christ is the greatest cause on earth.

"The Genius of Christianity is a Friendship". Paul found durable satisfaction in a close companionship with Christ.

LAMBDA SIGMA CHI

Last Wednesday the new girls at the college were entertained informally. Two musical numbers and a stunt were given by the Misses Kennrick, Hart, Graham, Miller and Bitney.

Plans are being completed for a Valentine's party next Wednesday evening to take the place of the sorority's regular meeting.

THE OXFORD CLUB

The Oxford Club has its first regular meeting for this semester Monday at 12:15. At the meeting the following men were elected into membership:

As active members: Ralph Brown, Richard Yost, Harold Nelson, Stanley McKee.

As associate members: Mirt Humphries, Lyle Andrews.

It was decided that the Club should meet every Monday instead of once a month as heretofore. The programs are to be varied. One week there will be a sermonette or a talk with discussion and the next week directed discussions. In this way the men will get needed experience and that value that comes in having their talks picked to pieces. All are looking forward to the discussions with interest as they believe that great good will be derived from them.

After the business meeting a paper was read by Tom Swayze.

HIGH SCHOOL CONFERENCE TO BE HELD AT UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

The delegates to the Oregon High School Press Association and the Oregon Association of High School Presidents and Secretaries met February 2-3 at the University of Oregon in Eugene for a State Conference. Approximately three hundred and fifty were registered at the convention. It was believed that much value was derived from the meetings and the High Schools of the State would be benefited thereby. On Friday evening the University of Oregon students presented "College Night" to give the High School visitors a glimpse of real college life.

On one of the tombstones in Old New England cemetery appears the following inscription:

STUDENTS HIKE TO SALMON BEACH

A long hike across country proved to be a very enjoyable outing for a number of college students, Saturday afternoon.

Leaving the college about four-thirty in the afternoon, the party hiked out beyond the pavement on Sixth avenue. They then left the highway and made their way across the open country toward Salmon Beach. Soft ground, blackberry vines, and fallen trees lent interest to the trip.

A difficult descent along a narrow ridge was accomplished before the hikers could reach the beach where they spent a delightful evening around a bonfire.

The party returned by way of Point Defiance. Those who participated in the hike were: Helen Erix, Marjorie Davison, Grace Fuller, Catherine Fuller, Thelma Hastings, Helen L. King, Alba Jensen, Ermine Warren, Douglas Bowman, Ed. Newell, Mat Thompson, and Allison Wetmore.

NEW PEOPLE ON TRAIL STAFF

Owing to the resignations of Esther Osborne, Associate Editor, Esther Graham, School Affairs, and Douglas Wight, Religious Activities, Dorothy Wallace, Carolyn Somers, and Stanley McKee have been appointed to take their respective places on the Trail staff.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN

A farewell party was given at the Girls' Dorm Monday evening honoring Margery Anderson and Mr. Alexander Brooke. Appropriate Valentine decorations were carried out and a box was opened during the evening. Music and games were enjoyed, and a late supper was served.

FACULTY NOTES

Thursday mornings Mrs. Gulick is conducting a Current Topics class at the home of Mrs. Albert Sutton on Prospect Hill. Mrs. Sutton's husband is the architect for our new campus buildings. Mrs. Gulick's course is a series of ten discussions on live topics of the day.

Mrs. Hovious and Miss McDonald were among the hostesses for the Soiree Club, Saturday evening, February 10.

Miss Crasper reports that social activities are dull for the faculty.

Dumb: "When you laugh, you show your teeth."
Worse: "When you laugh, you show your ignorance."

FOUR ONE-ACT PLAYS PRESENTED FRIDAY ARE VERY SUCCESSFUL

The second public appearance of the class in educational dramatics was greeted with great success Friday evening, when they presented four one-act plays in the college chapel.

In order of their presentation, the plays are: "Pierrot of the Minute", by Ernest Dawson; "The Mirage", by George Baird; "Columbine", by Colin Clements; and "The Trysting Place" by Booth Tarkington.

The setting for "Pierrot of the Minute" was the moon-lit temple of Venus, with the God of Love in attendance. Evelyn Ahnquist and Lorene Bonds were the only characters in this play, and they handled their parts well. The stage setting and the different lighting effects enhanced the atmosphere.

"The Mirage" had for the setting adobe hut of the Hopi Indians. A white man had been found on the desert some months before by the Indians, and was being cared for by three Indian women, the youngest of whom he had espoused as his wife. He had developed amnesia and could not remember anything of his former life. Ben Lampher took this part, and Willabelle Hoage took the part of the young Indian woman. Non Tuell and Helen Small were the other two Indians and Howard Roben and Florence Davis were the whites who came in search of their missing relative.

Some very clever acting was done in "Columbine", in which Juliette Palmer and Inez Micki took the parts of two shop girls. The scene was laid in their hall bedroom, and great contrast was shown between the sophisticated shop-girl, Miss Palmer, and the dream-girl, Miss Micki.

The last play presented, "The Trysting Place", was a delightful comedy and the scene was laid in an up-to-date hotel. Four different pairs of lovers had arranged to meet in a certain room, and an amusing situation arose when each couple endeavored to secure the "privacy" of the room for themselves. Ben Lampher took the part of the typical Booth Tarkington hero to perfection, and the other characters were well impersonated by Nan Tuell, Dorothy Jones, Helen Small, Ed Newell, Kenneth Warner and Harley Notter.

DORMITORY TO CLOSE

The Women's Dormitory will close February 15. A number of the girls will move to Mrs. Clark's or South Ainsworth.

By going through the ads carefully you will discover letters missing that put in correct order will spell an article of vital importance to C. P. S. The first correct answer presented to the Business Manager receives seventy-five cents credit at P. K. Pirret & Co.

Marquette College, Feb. 1.—Marquette students think they have prepared a list of questions that will put Thomas Edison on his mettle.

If he can answer the questions prepared for him and stand by the results the Marquette men have promised to answer his and admit his contentions as to the lack of brains of college men.

Just a few of the new intellectual ticklers are:

At what age does a man become childish? How old are you?

Who was Thomas Edison, and if so, why?

Are the inhabitants of Mars annoyed by college yells?

In what year was the battle of the Broiled Baby Lobsters fought?

If a small boy wins ten marbles in one day, and it takes four eggs to make a certain cake, how long will it take a cross-eyed cricket to lick a cockroach with a cork leg? Why?

A well known admiral—a stickler for uniform—stopped opposite a very portly sailor whose medal ribbon was an inch or so too low down. Fixing the man with his eye, the admiral asked: "Did you get that medal for eating, my man?"

On the man replying: "No, sir," the admiral rapped out: "Then why do you wear it on your stomach?"—Selected.

"New do you know how uncle gets milk?" asked Jonny's aunt.

"Sure," he answered. "He gives her some breakfast food, then a drink of water and drains her crank case."

NEW YORK ACADEMY OF MEDICINE TO HAVE NEW SKYSCRAPER

The New York Academy of Medicine is planning the erection of a ten or twelve story building in New York City, which will be its new home and also a center for the continuous instruction of medical men in the advancement of their science. The Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation are reported to have contributed $1,000,000 apiece toward the extension program of the academy.

Important as the work of the academy has been to physicians, it has been realized that it has been done on a comparatively small scale, and has been seriously hampered by lack of facilities. The library, which is the second largest collection of medical works in the country, will, in the new building, be available to a greater number of readers, and the information will be classified so as to give information on any subject on short notice.

DEPAUW STARTS PROJECT FOR ENDOWMENT

In connection with the celebration of the eighty-fifth anniversary of its founding, which occurs on February 22, DePauw University will start a project to raise one million dollars for endowment and a half million for buildings and equipment. A banquet and a presentation of a historical pageant will be the features presented on this occasion.

Bishop Frederick D. Lee of the Methodist Episcopal church, Edward Rector of Chicago, founder of the Edward Rector Scholarships at DePauw, and a trustee of the University, ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge, Senator-elect Samuel M. Ralston, and President George R. Grose will be the speakers at the banquet. The pageant was written by Miss Katherine Thompson, a sophomore, whose manuscript won the $25 offered by the pageant committee for the best dramatization of DePauw's history.

STUDENTS' WEEKLY TO CELEBRATE FORTIETH BIRTHDAY

The Albion College Pleiad, the student weekly will celebrate its fortieth birthday this December. This is conceded quite a record for a college publication.

The initial number appeared in December of 1883 under the supervision of Editor Charles H. Gordon, '86, now head of the geological department of the University of Tennessee. One of the features of the Pleiad in those days was the staff of correspondents in other Michigan colleges which it maintained to keep the students at Albion in active touch with their neighboring institutions. Homer Folks, present head of the present board of charities, New York City, and Owen R. Lovejoy, of the National Child Labor Committee, both graduates of Albion, were one time editors of the Pleiad.

What a queer bird the frog are. When he sit he stand, almost. When he hop he fly, almost. He ain't got no sense, hardly. He ain't got no tail hardly, either. He sit on what he ain't got, almost.
—Composition in a Chicago night school.

"Did you ever wear a dress suit to them parties in the East?" asked Piute Pete.

"Only the first one," replied Cactus Joe. "I could see my friends and relations was disappointed at he way nobody noticed me. So I went out and rented a cowboy suit and was the hit of every occasion."—Washington Star.
