C. P. S. DEFEATS FOREST GROVE IN DEBATE HELD HERE

TOTAL SCORE SHOWS C. P. S. LEADS BY TWO POINTS

A unanimous victory for the affirmative team was the verdict by the judges Friday evening, February 23, when the college varsity debate teams clashed with Pacific University in their first debate of the season. The negative team, which traveled to Forest Grove, met defeat at the hands of the Oregonians with a verdict of two to one, thus giving the College of Puget Sound four points over the two made by Pacific.

The question up for debate was "Resolved, that the direct primary system of nominating candidates for office should be abolished." Harold Nelson and Ralph Brown upheld the affirmative for the college against Verne Bright and Lester Talbot from Pacific. Edwin Newell and Harley Notter, composed the college negative team traveling to Forest Grove. Judges for the occasion were Blanche F. Miller, justice of the peace, and Superior Judges M. L. Clifford and E. M. Card.

This is the second year in which we have debated with Pacific University, and marks our second victory over them in debate.

GIRLS' TEAM WINS WITH 24-10 SCORE

The College of Puget Sound girls' basket ball team took the Pacific Lutheran Sextette down the line by a 24 to 10 score Wednesday night in the college gym. This makes the third straight win of the season for the girls. Floberg and Meyers, working at the forward positions, each made 12 points. Helen King at side center for C. P. S. was one of the features of the game. She was everywhere at once.

The C. P. S. girls that played were: Floberg, Meyers, Brix, King, Micke, Davisson, Vernhardson and Palmer.

VARSITY TO MEET ELK QUINT HERE

Last Game of the Season to Be Played in College Gym.

The Tacoma Elks will invade the Loggers' camp Friday evening for a basket ball game. This game is drawing considerable attention and a large crowd is expected to be present.

The Elk's team that is to play C. P. S. consists of practically all the all-stars of the City League teams with the exception of Harry Enocks who is playing for the Loggers.

PRESIDENT HUGHES FAVORS SMALL COLLEGES

Oxford, O., Feb. 15—A division of the larger American universities into colleges made up of groups of students not exceeding 220, is being advocated by President R. M. Hughes, of Miami University here. President Hughes, nationally known as an educator, is offering his plan as a solution of the colossal problem of the cumbersome size of the American University.

In announcing his plan for a division of large universities into college in order to attain better educational results, Mr. Hughes said he was convinced that a plan of organization must be developed in the larger institutions that will assure the same personal acquaintance of faculty and students that exists in the small colleges if the real worth of the universities is to continue. President Hughes's plan is closely modeled after the English plan at Oxford and Cambridge.

THE SIX "NATIONAL" COLLEGES

Austin, Texas.—Dr. Albert Bushnell Hart of Harvard has selected Harvard, Yale, Columbia, Michigan, and Cornell as being "national" universities. In the opinion of Professor Hart, only these six institutions have had sufficient influence upon American history, offer adequate enough curricula, and draw the student bodies from territories sufficiently diffused, to be worthy of being termed "national."

ENTERTAINS AT PARTY

Miss Ellena Hart entertained a number of students at her home Thursday evening, honoring Miss Margaret Ryan, daughter of Representative C. W. Ryan, of Vancouver, and Miss Jesse Cox, daughter of Senator Cox. The evening was spent informally and supper was served to the Misses Margaret Ryan, Jesse Cox, Ruth Hoage, Willabelle Hoage, Dorothy Wallace, Ellena Hart, and Maude Dawley of Olympia; Messrs. Edward Amende, Eldon Chuinard, Clinton Hart, Allison Wetmore, Warren Short-hill and Richard Yost. The Misses Ryan and Cox were the house-guests of the Misses Hoage and Wallace.

NEW MUSICAL CLUB TO BE FORMED

A mandolin and guitar club is being formed, and anyone playing the mandolin, guitar, banjo, ukelele, banjo-mandolin or kindred instrument, should hand his name to Carol Hovious or Carolyn Somers this week.

FORMER STUDENT IN TACOMA TO ATTEND WEDDING

Among the former students who visited C. P. S. on Washington's birthday was Miss Lucille Keller of Hoquiam, who came to Tacoma for the wedding of her brother, who was married to Miss Marie Pedersen, a graduate of the C. P. S. Normal Department.

During her stay in Tacoma Miss Keller was the guest of Phoebe Nicholson.

LOGGERS QUINTET HAVING A STREAK OF WINNING LUCK

Run Up 121 Points to Opponent's 46 In Three Games

Last Tuesday night the Varsity team defeated the 10th Field Artillery of Camp Lewis by a 51 to 17 score in the college gym. Daniel and Enocks were high point men for C. P. S. Brooks and Van de Vanter were put into the game in the last part and made a splendid showing.

On Wednesday night the Fauntleroy Athletic Clubs' Basketeers of Seattle went down to defeat before the Loggers in the college gym by a 47 to 18 score.

Enocks starred for C. P. S. making 19 points. He made many long shots. The close checking of McArthur and Blevins in the first half and Olene and Mathis in the second half accounted for the low number of baskets for the Seattle forwards. Brooks, who substituted for Daniel was second highest point man.

The third victory for the week was made Friday night at Camp Lewis when the Varsity defeated the special Troops by a score of 23-11.

The special Troops won the Camp championship. The game was one of the hardest and roughest played by C. P. S. this season. The whole C. P. S. played a whirlwind of a game.

Wellman was high point man, having ten tallies to his credit. Temple made the 11 points that were made by the special Troops.

MARCH FIRST IS FINAL DATE FOR ORATION THEMES

Students interested in the Oratorical contest must have their papers typewritten and in the hands of Mrs. Hovious by noon, March first.

STADIUM WINS MAT TOURNEY

North End High School Grapplers Take Five Matches in Triangular Meet

Stadium High school's mat team Saturday night won the first triangular wrestling meet with five decisions in its favor. The College of Puget Sound grapplers followed close on the heels of the high school team with four decisions. The Y. M. C. A. wrestlers brought up the rear with two decisions.

The meet was the first of its kind to be held in Tacoma and will probably be made an annual affair. The idea of the triangular meet originated with Claude Turley, assistant physical director at the Y. M. C. A. and instructor of the C. P. S. grapplers. Four hundred and twenty-five fans were on hand to see the meet. The results were

PEOPLE ARE LIKE STRINGS OF VIOLIN, SAYS MISS RENEAU

"People are like the strings of a violin," said Miss Reneau in the College Chapel where she spoke Friday morning. The "G" and the "D" strings represent the men. The "A" and the "E" strings represent the women. The "E" string is the finest and has the greatest tension. It has to be renewed very often. The next to break is the "G" string, then the "A" string. The "D" string rarely breaks. It often lasts a life time.

Solos played on the "G" string are very pleasing. The tones are big, round, and rich. The "G" string alone, however, would tire one much more quickly than the "E" string. "G" and "E" are the most beautiful. It takes a first class player to play on an "E" string.

Women are finer strung than men: they live on a higher tension. Take the three Bible characters, Miriam, Moses and Aaron. Miriam may be likened to the "E" string, Moses to the "G" string and Aaron to the common-place "D" string.

Miriam and Aaron were both jealous of Moses because he had married an Ethiopian woman and because he stood better with God and the children of Israel than they. Miriam was punished for her sin while Aaron seemingly was not. This was probably due to the fact that Miriam had finer sensibilities than Aaron. She was capable of greater suffering. She was afflicted with "Soul Leprosy."

Moses spoke with God face to face. In order to do this one must know what God is. The idea of God has made great progress since the time of the Greeks who conceived of many gods who were exaggerated human beings. The highest stage which has been reached is the conception of God as a Spirit. There need be no veil before the face of God unless the individual puts it there.

It was not profession which qualified Moses as worthy of speaking face to face with God. Miriam was an artist and Aaron was a preacher, but Moses was a lawyer who lacked eloquence. It was his sweet, big, calm, childlike spirit which made it possible for him to come into intimate relationship with God. He who would speak to Christ should live a quiet, gentle, golden life.

DONAHUE AND DANIEL CARRY CONTEST HONORS

SEN. DAVIS LEADS FACULTY IN POPULARITY VOTE

Mary Donahue was conceded the most popular girl in college by virtue of receiving the highest number of votes in the popularity contest held Thursday, Friday and Monday. Miss Donahue was put up on a "sticker" ticket, running a close race with Esther Graham, the Senior girl candidate.

Miss Donahue is a member of the Sophomore class, and is very active in school affairs. Her home is at Camp Lewis.

Wilbur Daniel won the most votes for the most popular man in school. He is a football and basket ball star, is from Albany, Oregon, is affiliated with the Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity, and is a member of the Senior class. Senator Walter S. Davis received the highest number of votes for the faculty, with Miss Reneau coming in as a close second.

A total of $18.50 was taken in from the contest, each vote costing one cent, and this sum will be used to help pay off the athletic deficit.

W. S. C. WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB COMING HERE ON TOUR

Pullman, Wash.—The Women's Glee Club leaves on the first annual tour March 9. Programs will be given in Spokane, Yakima, Prosser, Auburn, Bellingham, Seattle, and Tacoma. Twenty-one girls will make the trip.

An important feature in the program is an Indian scene, which will be presented complete with campfire, tepee, woods, and papoose. In this number, two Indian songs, "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water" and "The Moon Drops Low," are given. Charles Wakefield Cadman, after hearing the Women's Glee Club sing these two songs which he had written, said, "Any organization that can sing 'The Moon Drops Low' as the Women's Glee Club sang it shows the most careful training and serious and careful work on the part of the women themselves."

FORMER STUDENTS VISIT C. P. S.

Maude Shunk, '21, Helen Murland, '22, and Dorothy Michener, '22, were among the former students who visited C. P. S. on Washington's Birthday.

MISS NEWELL ENTERTAINS

Lucille Keller was the honor guest at a charmingly appointed luncheon given by Dorothy Newell at her home on Oakes streets, February 22. The guests included Lucille Keller, Gladys Harding and Phoebe Nicholson.

STUDENT GOES HOME FOR WEEK-END

Wilbur Daniel spent the week-end visiting in his home town, Albany, Oregon.

THE COLLEGE PLAY

The cast for the play, "Come Out of the Kitchen," by A. E. Thomas, to be presented by the students at the Tacoma Theatre, April 10, was chosen Wednesday afternoon in the final try-outs. The judges for the occasion were: the Rev. C. O. Johnson, Mrs. Eleanor Brooks Gulick, Mrs. Lynette Hovious, and Miss Mary Sudd. This cast will be as follows: Olivia, Juliette Palmer; Elizabeth, Carol Hovious; Mrs. Faulkner, Helen Small; Cora, Dorothy DuBoisson; Amanda, Mary Donahue; Crane, Harley Notter; Charles, Joe McArthur; Tucker, Jess Mathis. The three other male characters have not been definitely chosen.

Work is being begun this week on the all-college play, and under the direction of Mrs. Hovious will soon be whipped into shape.

The students have voted to put this undertaking across, and it is up to them now, to get behind and PUSH. Get all your cousins, aunts and uncles to buy a ticket and we'll have the house sold out in no time. Here's the chance to show your school spirit. WHAT IS YOUR ANSWER?

RINGERS

By Coach McNeal

An article dated New York, Feb. 20th, recently appeared in local papers which read as follows:

"For using two ineligible players, a freshman and a post graduate, the hockey team at Columbia University has been disbanded and its coach, Tom Howard, released. Student Manager Gatley and Captain Walker have been suspended from further participation in athletics in the school."

It is indeed gratifying to those who have the interest of American college athletics at heart to know that authorities in some of our colleges have at last begun to realize that athletic control must be in their hands. There has been a strong undercurrent of dissatisfaction among faculties and conscientious coaches all over the land and this has been caused primarily by outside pressure being placed upon the coaching staff by a minority of alumni and would-be sports. These men have through some misdirected freak of reasoning concluded that their teams must win, regardless of the cost of scholarship, standing in amateurism and sportsmanship. Faculties have hesitated to stand between these men and the coaches simply because most faculties were still holding to the "ante bellum" idea that sports were not a part of the college curriculum and therefore should not be given any place in the consideration of the faculty. Again, we say, it is extremely gratifying to those interested, to see that at last faculties are recognizing sports as a part of the school work and as such directly under their control.

The idea of faculty supervision perhaps originated in the "Big Ten" of the middle west. And throughout the past few years the teams of this association have surpassed, on the average, the teams of any other section of the U. S. In the Big Ten were such coaches as Williams, Stagg, Zuppke, Jones, Yost and others not so well known, who although they trained men to fight to the last inch in a contest, fully realized the place of sports in education. These men refused to overstep the bounds of fair play to win games. They worked hard in hand with their faculties to place athletics upon a higher plane. They succeeded beyond the expectation of their most sanguine supporters. And now the Eastern faculties are beginning to open their eyes.

The proper way to put a stop to unfair methods in intercollegiate competition is to "fire" the coach who allows an ineligible man to compete. This is a direct method and as such will get results. The method used in the Big Ten is to disqualify the college—not the individual—but the College. This is also direct and effective but punishes all athletes for the offense of one coach. Therefore it seems a little harsh. The first procedure is just as effective and punishes the man guilty without inflicting hardship on others.

If it is necessary to resort to such methods as were used at Columbia then Columbia is to be congratulated that they had a faculty willing to assume the responsibility.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

What is the secret of success," asked the sphinx.

"Push," said the button.
 "Never be lead," said the pencil.
 "Take pains," said the window.
 "Always keep cool," said the ice.
 "Be up to date," said the calendar.
 "Never lose your head," said the barrel.
 "Make light of everything," said the fire.
 "Do a driving business," said the hammer.
 "Aspire to greater things," said the rutmeg.
 "Be sharp in all dealings," said the knife.

CORNERSTONE OF METHODIST BUILDING AT NATIONAL CAPITAL IS LAID

The cornerstone of the new white stone building which is to be the center of the Methodist interests in the Nation's Capital was laid on January 28th by the resident Bishop, William Frazier McDowell, D. D., LL. D., with a large crowd in attendance, despite the inclement weather.

As the Bishop placed the copper box in the cornerstone, the rain clouds parted and the sun touched the act with a benediction of golden glory.

The cornerstone contains the Holy Bible, the American flag, the prohibition laws and various documents of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is erecting the building and in which will be its headquarters. From this building will radiate the work and influence of the Board in 21 countries.

Short addresses were made by Representative Addison T. Smith of Idaho; Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Dr. Francis Burgett Short and Bishop McDowell.

PROFESSOR BELIEVES ACTIVITIES ARE GOOD FOR STUDENTS

Dr. Edwin T. Holde, professor of geology at the University of Oregon believes that activities are good for college students, as quoted by the Oregon Sunday Emerald for February 18.

"It has been said that activities are taking too much time, and are therefore detrimental to the college student who nowadays is almost compelled to go into some work other than his course of study. However, I can't wholly agree with this view. There has been a cry for more leisure on the part of the student. It is said that he has not time to peruse the latest novels of the day—and to browse intellectually as he desires, but it is my opinion that students would not take proper advantage of more leisure time. It would permit more time for shows, more time for the non-intellectual conversations about the fireplace. For it is true, the more work a man does, the more he will do. Conversely the less he does, the less he will do."

Bellingham Normal defeated Ellensburg Normal in basketball last Tuesday by a score of 26 to 22.

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO TO FILM STUDENTS WHO FLUNK STUDIES

CHICAGO, Feb. 24—When a student fades out from the campus life at the University of Chicago, he will make his get-away from now on under the eye of another fade-out—that of the cinema. The flowing blur of a film will be his final test.

For, henceforth, the motion picture will be used to detect faulty methods of study by delinquent students. The rear-flunker will be "shot" while at alleged study—a close-up with a "Prof." for a director and fellow failures as extra men. An inspection of the film, it is hoped, will tell whether the flunker is really studying, and it not—why not.

"The three main reasons for student failures," asserts Dean Robertson, "are unintelligent reading, inadequate preparation and lack of purpose."

Remember March 1 is the last day you can submit themes for the $100.00 prize oratorical contest.

The anniversary of the birth of George Washington was observed by the Amphics Monday evening, Feb. 19th. The program included papers, talks, musical numbers by the mixed quartet and a clever stunt.

Thursday, Feb. 22, the Amphics put on their program in Student Assembly. Chadwick Christine and Merrill Ginn presented several clever skits. Other numbers included a piano solo by Miss Eleanor Kenrick, a vocal solo by Miss Ruth Bitney and an original poem "Cherry Red," by Eldon Chuinard.

As classes were held Thursday the annual Washington birthday hike was given up. In the afternoon, however, a group of Amphics went to Salmon's Beach for a cabin party. Plans have been made to have a hike in the future.

LAMBDA SIGMA CHI

The Lambda Sigma Chi Sorority entertained at an open house Valentine party, last Wednesday afternoon. Games, stunts and music were enjoyed, after which dainty refreshment were served.

Saturday evening, at nine o'clock, the pledges were initiated at the home of Miss Helen Pangborn, on North 14th Street. After the impressive ceremony, a social hour and spread were enjoyed.

Lambda Sigma Chi announces the initiating of the following girls into full membership: Ruth Bitney, Elsie Clevenger, Ella Miller and Julia Landis.

After the business meeting on Monday night the following paper was read:

"WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST?"

WHOSE SON IS HE?

This question is old and new. It is the pivotal question of the present religious controversy. Was Christ the Son of God? Was He God while here on earth, or but a good and true man?

I believe that if we can believe the Bible at all it proves that Christ was God dwelling here on earth in the form and fashion of man or else He was the biggest imposter that the world has known.

Why do I believe this? Because of the following plain teachings of scripture:

I. The Humanity of Christ is shown by (a) A human parent; (b) He grew as other human beings do. (c) He had the appearance of a man. (d) He was possessed of body, soul and spirit and in other ways partook of humanity.

II. The Deity of Jesus Christ. 1. Divine names are given Him. (a) He is called God. John 1:1. Heb. 1:18, John 20:28:1, John 5:20. 2. He is called the Son of God. The Synoptic Gospels accuse him of claiming this title; Matt. 27:20-23; Luke 22:20.

In John's Gospel He calls Himself the Son of God. 5:25; 10:36. Priests claim it blasphemy when the title is so used Matt. 26:61-62. Others are sons of God by this signifies a special relationship for Christ is called the "Only begotten." Here also, in John 5:18. The Jews sought the more to kill Him because He said also that God was His Father making Himself equal with God. Evidently the Jews took this in a unique and solitary way and Christ knowing this was either what he claimed to be—God—or an imposter.

He was called Lord in a term then used only of Deity.

Divine Worship is Ascribed to Jesus Christ. In Matt. 4:10 Christ exhorts to worship God only.—In the face of this if He accepts worship and is not God, He is a deceiver. Herod met an awful fate thru accepting worship, he being a man. Why then did Christ escape? Yet Christ accepted worship. Matt 14:33. God commands to worship Him the Son, John 5:23.

III Christ was God for he possesses the qualities and properties of Deity.

(a) Pre-existence, John 1:8-9, John 17:5.

(b) Self-Existence and Life Giving Power, John 5:21,26; 1:4, 14:6; Heb. 7:16.

(c) Immutable Heb. 13:8.

IV Divine Offices are ascribed to Him.

(A) Creator John 1:3. (B) Upholder of all things. (C) Forgiver of sins, which is the right of God only, and as a result, was charged with blasphemy.

(D) He raised the bodies of the dead. John 6:39.

(E) He is to be the Judge of all men. Matt. 25:31.

V. Divine Attributes are Possessed By Him.

(A) Omnipotence. Matt. 28:18.

(B) Omnipresence. Matt. 28:20.

VI. His name is coupled with that of God the Father in such a way as to denote the identity of Power and substance.

VII Christ is self-conscious of His Person and Work. Luke 2:41-52. Also baptism and Temptation.

Why did the God of Heaven come to earth?

In order that He might die. Heb. 2:14.

This is one grand theme of Heaven. Rev. 5:8-12.

Those redeemed in Heaven are they which came out of great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb. Therefore, because of this washing are they before the throne of God.

This is the Cry of all men, My Lord, and My God.

For those further interested in the subject we would refer you to an article in the Jan.-Feb. number of the Methodist Review on page 117 entitled "The Problem of the Person of Christ", by Edwin Lewis of Drew Theological Seminary.

THE ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Last Monday night in the Camp Lewis gymnasium was held one of the most magnificent, all-around athletic conferences ever staged. Each athlete representing a kind of exercise, was a specialty in himself; the combination surpassed all expectations. Using the nom de plume of basket ball, the conference opened with ten men on the floor, and three ladies on the side-lines—as spectators. While the men are too numerous to mention, the ladies aren't, and C. P. S. was represented by Helen Brix, a chauffeur and athlete herself, Alba Jensen, who speaks for herself, if you give her a chance, and Camp Lewis.

When the referee, who in this job would have made a good street car conductor, rang the gong, the onslaught onslaught. First honors of the evening were won by Horse Blevens, who true to his name, gently tucked the ball under his wing and galloped from one basket to the other. This he did as many times as possible. The next stunt was a hundred yard dash, with Enochs high point man, since he dashed the hundred yards more than once, and did it in eleven flat. Harry was nicknamed at this time "Little Danny Grown Up", because of his supernatural powers in making baskets on fouls. The referee, his attention being diverted by the members on the sidelines, did not see him until one of the enemy players tapped him for a goal. Don Wellman took the field for ten minutes practicing the pole vault. He would gently thrust his hand on Frank Brook's shoulder, gasp, leap, and throw the ball. This muscular display did not meet with approval from our worthy opponents, who began to really fight for baskets. Such actions caused Van Der Vanter's "Irish" to come to the surface to such an extent that he neatly kicked four of five men in the stomach, grabbed the ball, tore up the splinters, and nearly made a basket. Then Jesse Mathis, becoming bored with the monotony of the affair, gathered a little group around him and with the aid of whistles and combs performed the Valentino tango, with a waltz in between halves. A general riot took place and the game just escaped the jaws of the Terepsichorean demon.

The referee called this a foul. For while peace reigned; this was in between acts and while the boys rested by playing games of hopscotch, marbles and checkers. With the beginning of the fourth act a crisis was apparent. Suddenly, a formidable blonde figure cast himself into the onrush of the game, seized the ball, dodged several guards, and played blackjacks with it down to our baskets. For his Olene was penalized by being struck off the floor where he joined the standing army. Meanwhile on the sidelines the spectators held a beauty contest and unanimously elected Ed Amende as "Venus De Milo" of the evening.

The conference closed with several knockouts by our team and the game ended with a score of 23 to 11.

Refreshments were served in town and the crowd dispersed when Harold Fretz passed his hat.

Mary Donahue, Chief Linesman.

SORORITY HOLDS SPREAD

The Delta Alpha Gamma Sorority held a spread in their house Friday afternoon.

The Methodist Church, which you remember was to be ruined because it advocated prohibition, gained 119,007 new members in 1922. It now has approximately 1,600,000 members. This does not include various other branches of Methodism.

OUR FACULTY

Mrs. Gulick has been quarantined for a few days as her youngest son is having a light attack of the scarlet fever. The boy has been taken to the quarantine Hospital.

Miss Crasper and Miss Balck accompanied the Theta girls on their week-end house party.

Senator Davis was here for a short time this week end. He posted a few of the prominent bills before the Legislature on his bulletin board. In less than two weeks he will be back with us again.

Mrs. Cochran will entertain the faculty club at a dinner party next Monday evening.

Miss Jean McDonald took part in the one-act play, "Ashes", presented by the Drama League last Monday evening.

COLLEGE WOMEN LIVE LONGER THAN OTHER WOMEN

College women live longer than other women, according to a study made by Myra N. Hulst of the American Red Cross, and published in the Quarterly Publication of the American Statistical Association.

Among 15,561 graduates of three women's college, the death rate between the age of 20 and 64 years, was only 3.24 per 1,000. For college women between 25 and 34 years the death rate was 2.77 per 1,000, while for women in the general population it was more than twice as high, namely, 6.19 per 1,000.

It was also found that professional occupations, such as college women usually engage in, have fewer risks than the industrial and other occupations of the non-college women. Fifty-eight per cent of the college graduates in the colleges studied, were engaged in teaching. "School Life," published by the United States Bureau of Education makes the following comment on these figures:

"Such favorable figures for college graduates are not surprising when it is considered that as a rule, only the physically fit continue through the four years to graduation. Physical and medical examinations given to all students bring to light remediable defects and lead to improvement. Favorable living conditions, such as college women are likely to encounter, prescribed physical exercise and general physical education add to the high level of health."
