DEAN GULICK AND DEAN HENRY ANNOUNCE THEIR ENGAGEMENT

POPULAR MEMBERS OF C. P. S. FACULTY WILL WED FIRST WEEK IN AUGUST

To the wide circle of friends in Tacoma who have known Mrs. Eleanor Brooks Gulick since she came to the Sound more than 15 years ago, the news of her engagement to Prof. G. F. Henry, dean of the College of Puget Sound, is an announcement of the greatest interest. Mrs. Gulick has been dean of women at the school the past year, and in that capacity has made a great success personally of her work in the academic duties entailed as head of the department of English.

At the close of the college year Mrs. Gulick will go East to attend the 25th anniversary reunion of her class at Wellesley. She will visit in the East and in Canada for approximately two months and will then return for her marriage which will be celebrated at Dean Henry's home on North Washington and 30th streets the first week in August. She expects to continue her work at the college as dean, and will teach in place of English one class only in German.

Mrs. Gulick was born in Magnessia, Asia Minor, and lived until she was 17 in Constantinople. Her father was the Rev. C. H. Brooks who spent many years in Bulgaria and Turkey doing missionary educational work. During her visit East she will be for much of the time with her mother, whose home is in Canada.

Saturday, April 7, at her home on North Washington street, Mrs.

Gulick was hostess at one of the larger teas of the spring, entertaining 200 guests in honor of Mrs. Edward H. Todd, who has recently been in Honolulu.

The rooms were a glory of yellow bloom in daffodils, and the hostess, charming in a gown of King's blue satin and georgette, received informally with her guest of honor. Through the rooms the assisting hostesses were Mrs. Frederick W. Keator, Mrs. Charles Mason, Mrs. R. Lester Kelly, Mrs. A. R. McCurdy, Mrs. J. H. Walter, Mrs. J. C. McMillan of Seattle, and Miss Doris May Budd of the C. P. S. faculty. Two young girls took the cards, Elizabeth Keller, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Keller, and Yvonne Nicolle.

Calling hours were from 3 to 6 and presiding at the tea table at different times were Mrs. R. L. McCormick, Mrs. J. P. Weyerhaeuser, Mrs. A. Praper Coale, Mrs. Albert Sutton, Mrs. Edgar C. Wheeler, Mrs. W. W. Parker, Mrs. Joseph Griggs, Mrs. Edwin Janes, Mrs. W. Carr Morrow, Mrs. Marc W. Graff, Mrs. Willard Little and Mrs. Hunter Kennard. The girls assisting were members of the executive council at C. P. S., Norma Lawrence, Helen Brix, Thelma Bestler, Phoebe Nicholson, Ellena Hart, Evelyn Anquist and Mary Anderson. Three younger girls assisted with the serving, Helen Kennedy, Gretchen Wolbert and Dorothy Henry.

C. P. S. GIRL ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Miss Edith Thomas Makes Known
Her Betrothal to Puyallup Man

At an attractive announcement party on Wednesday last Miss Edith Thomas made known to friends among the girls and young matrons her engagement to Agastus K. Partridge, son of Mrs. M. A. Coole of Puyallup. The party was a tea at the family home on North Oakes street, complimenting a company of the college and sorority friends from the C. P. S.

Miss Thomas wore a charming frock of rose-gray crepe with pink rosebuds as a corsage and received informally with her mother, Mrs. E. A. Thomas. She chose a novel mode of announcing the news by the use of small corsage bouquets concealing the tiny scrolls bearing her own and Mr. Partridge's name. These were distributed by little Beatrice Eberly.

Mrs. Cole, mother of Mr. Partridge, presided at the tea table with Mrs. B. R. Chester. There were rosebuds in a mass of lovely color at the center and the appointments were attractive in silver and fine china, sorority sisters of the bride-to-be, Miss Katherine Chester and Miss Dorothy Floberg, assisting in serving. During the tea an informal program of readings and music was given by Mrs. Lynette Hovious and Miss Ruth Hoage, accompanied by Miss Ruth Skewis.

Mr. Partridge and his fiancée are well known among popular students at the College of Puget Sound. Miss Thomas is graduating in June and her marriage will be an event a few weeks later.

Mr. Partridge was a former student at the college, affiliated with Sigma Zeta Epsilon. Miss Thomas is a Delta Alpha Gamma.

COLLEGE SAFE BLOWN; $75.00 AND SEVERAL CHECKS TAKEN

DEBRIS COVERS OFFICE FLOOR AS RESULT OF NITRO-GLYCERINE CHARGE

Using a small charge of nitro-glycerin that completely shattered the front of the office safe, cracksmen who entered the College of Puget Sound through a window in the chemistry laboratory in the basement during Friday night, April 6, were successful in obtaining approximately $75 in cash, it was said by school officials.

A number of checks, most of them undorsed, were also removed from the safe by the prowlers, but it was reported that some of these had been found among the debris caused by the force of the explosion. The total value of the checks in the safe at the time of the robbery was about $300, but it thought that most of these were discarded by the prowlers.

The robbery was first discovered at 5.30 Saturday morning by James T. Swayze, janitor of the building, who found the office door standing open as he went through the building.

Several persons living near the school said that they had heard an explosion between 11 o'clock and midnight Friday night, but that they had supposed it was an automobile back-firing.

The lock on the basement window had been pried off by the robbers, who were also forced to "jimmy" the office door after forcing their way into the building, it was found by Detectives L. L. Berquest and Robert Francher, who arrived on the scene shortly after 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

The officers stated that it is their belief that the cracksmen wore gloves of some sort, as imprints on the safe clearly show the mark of hands but no fingerprints that might eventually lead to the identity of the thieves.

STUDENT ENTERTAINS AT HOUSE PARTY AT BURTON

Mr. Aaron VanDevanter proved to be a perfect host at a pleasant house party at his delightful summer home "Alco Hall" at Burton, last week.

Mr. VanDevanter received the guests in a charming suit of lemon fiber crepe wool with entrancing purple suspenders and light orange cigarette holder. The house was prettily decorated with poison ivy and black sunflowers.

The guests were the Messrs. Roben, Weisel, McKenzie, Johnston, Hockanson, McArthur, Hageness, Weir, and Lanpher. Outdoor sports were enjoyed of which the most popular proved to be hunting geo-ducks. None were found. Mr. Weir maintains that he noticed a number of feathers which were undoubtedly those of the elusive geo-duck, although they might have been just plain chicken feathers, as Mr. Lanpher says that he noticed some chickens burrowing under the rocks on the beach.

In the evening the group gathered around a camp fire with reinforcements to keep off marauding star-fish. When the fierce animals had been frightened away, a number of clever imitations were given by the guests. Mr. Hockanson gave a splendid imitation of Rudolph Valentino. Mr. Roben did very well in a living picture entitled "He Travels Fastest who Travels Alone."

The affair was decidedly THE event of the season. A very good time was had by all. Some exclusive photographs will soon be ready for publication.

THETAS TO STAGE SPRING VAUDEVILLE

Annual Show To Be Put On This Thursday

Every spring Theta puts on their famous Vaudeville and this year will be no exception. All women of the college and friends are invited. The small admission of 15 cents will be asked and the Sorority promise you an afternoon of fine entertainment at four o'clock on Thursday, the 19th. The programme includes the following numbers.

- I. Musical Comedy.
- II. One Act Play "The Stress of Dualism."
- III. Acrobatic Act.
- IV. Minstrel Show.
- V. Dance and Song Act.

MISS DONAHUE ENTERTAINS AT CAMP LEWIS HOME

Miss Mary Donahue entertained a number of college students at her home at Camp Lewis Saturday evening, April 7, with a theater party and dance. They saw Thomas Meighan in "Back Home and Broke" at the Green Park theater and then dancing was enjoyed at Miss Donahue's home until the wee sma' hours. A delightful waffle supper was served during the evening, and everyone did justice to Mrs. Donahue's waffles. Places were laid for the Misses Ruth Wheeler, Juliette Palmer, Inez Micki, Helen King, Jean Van Zante, Ella Purkey, Mary Donahue and Carolyn Somers; the Messrs. Bruce Blevins, Melvin Olene, Edward Amende, Matthew Thompson, Ber Lanpher, Clinton Hart, Everett Buckley and Paul Lung.

COLLEGE PICNIC WILL BE FRIDAY

Steamer Leaves For Burton At 2 O'Clock Sharp

According to reports Tuesday morning the all college picnic will be held Friday afternoon. A large number of students have purchased tickets.

A baseball game will be one of the features of the afternoon. There will be a number of freak races after the ball game. After the sports there will be a clam bake. Everyone will be allowed to eat all the clams that he will want. Coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts will be served at a small price.

At 8 o'clock the Men's Glee Club will give a concert at the Burton High School. After the concert will come the "Moonlight excursion".

The Str. Vashon will leave the Municipal dock at 2 o'clock sharp.

STUDENTS HIKE TO TITLOW BEACH

Instead of their regular meeting, about twenty-five Philos hiked to Titlow Beach Monday night and enjoyed a "hot dog" and marshmallow roast.

WILLAMETTE DEBATERS WIN FIVE OUT OF SIX DEBATES ON EASTERN TRIP

Salem, Oregon, April 5—The men's debate team returns tomorrow evening with five victories and only one defeat on its slate. Willamette upheld the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that the United States should join the League of Nations."

The first scheduled debate with the University of North Dakota was cancelled because the train was delayed by snow drifts at Essex, Montana. The men proceeded directly to St. Peters, Minn., where, they defeated Gustavus Adolphus College with a critic judge.

The next debate, with Lawrence College at Appleton, Wis., went to the opponents with a 2 to 1 score. Lawrence College has not been defeated in six years.

On March 24, Wheaton College at Wheaton, Ill., was met and Willamette was again victor by decision of a critic judge. Wheaton had had no defeats for two years.

From Chicago, the men traveled to Arizona where they defeated the University of Arizona at Tucson.

The University of Redlands of Redland, Cal., also gave Willamette the decision.

Four men made the trip, Robert Notson, Robert Littler, Rodney Alden and Ward Southworth. The debates were all three man teams, the last two men alternating contests.

PHILOS ENJOY HOUSE PARTY

Thirty-Four Enjoy Outing At Indian Point

Thirty-four Philos, chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. Schilpp went to Indian Point on Vashon Island for their annual spring houseparty, the majority of the party going Wednesday and returning Saturday.

Hiking, swimming, target practice, rowing, baseball, cards, bonfires and a clam bake proved unequalled features of the outing, while "Dare To Do" seemed to be the motto of the party. Prof. Slater worthily upheld his title as the champion pancake maker of the outfit.

Numerous snapshots were taken, but not as many as were intended, thanks to Mrs. Schilpp's vigilance and kindly darkness. College songs entertained the crowd on the trip home while it is hinted that Ermine Warren accompanied them on the ukelele.

The chief thrill of the affair occurred when the engagement of Dorothy Newell to Roy Norris was announced at dinner the last evening.

"THE PLAYS THE THING"

The spring play, "Come Out Of The Kitchen" will be presented at the Tacoma Theatre, May 1, exactly two weeks from last night, and the cast is putting the finishing touches on the production. They are doing their part to make this undertaking a success. What are YOU doing to put the play across? The students pledged themselves to put the play on, and each and every one has been given tickets to sell. Now is the time to get out and sell them! Sell them to your family, to your boss, if you have one, to your Sunday school teacher, to your pastor, to your doctor, to your postman, to your next-door-neighbors, to your uncles and aunts, to everyone you know, and when the night of the play arrives you will be one of the lucky few who will sit in the seat of honor, the box seat. Can't you see yourself being pointed out as the member of the student body who sold the most tickets for the play? As the student of the college displaying the most school spirit? Get to work and sell your tickets NOW. It takes school spirit to put across a thing like this and we are going to show that we have school spirit by putting this play across BIG.

There will be a dramatic manager in the Trail room every day at noon and the captains of the teams will report there daily. More tickets will be given out at this time, and each team is out for the coveted prize, so sell the tickets you have and get some more and sell them. Up to date Erma Eagan's team leads, with Ed. Amende and Thelma Bestler coming in next. LET'S SEE SOME MORE RIVALRY.

In chapel today, prizes were given for the best poster made in the Art class for advertising the play. Marion Harding was awarded the first prize of a five-pound box of candy, Myrtle Garges won a two-pound box, and Edith Thomas won third prize of a one-pound box.

AUDIENCE TO BE JUDGE OF CONFERENCE DEBATE

University of Washington—P. I. N. S., April 9, 1923. Winners of next year's conference debates will be elected by ballot by the audience that hears the debate, instead of by the judges, according to the decision reached at the debate conference held March 24 and 25, at the University of California. Formation of the Pacific Coast forensic conference with a membership of eleven colleges was accomplished at the meeting. The conference brought out the general belief that students, as represented by the students' associations, should have more to say about the debate. Such timely questions as the University of Washington had on light wines and beers for the past year were unanimously endorsed. Federal suppression of the Ku Klux Klan and alien exclusions were chosen as the conference questions for next year. The establishment of intra-mural debating was also decided upon.

The eleven institutions which are charter members of the league and which were represented at the conference are, University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, University of Southern California, Oregon Agricultural College, Washington State College, Stanford University, Reed College, Whitman College, University of Idaho and University of British Columbia, Canada.

HERE AND THERE

The University of Oregon will have its first baseball games of the season with the University of Idaho this Friday and Saturday, April 20 and 21, at Eugene.

A new athletic association was formed at Salem, Oregon, by the Linfield College, Pacific College, and Albany College. Willamette, Pacific University, and Monmouth Normal are to be asked into the conference, the former two having virtually accepted.

Whitworth College girls' basketball team won over the Spokane College girls' team by a score of 17-16 in a recent contest.

United States Senator C. C. Dill delivered an address on April 5 to the Spokane College students on the subject of "Habits"—The habit of being healthy, the habit of developing brain power, and the habit of acquiring worthy ideals.

A favorite subject for spring conversation, college gossip, front-page headlines, and editorials just now is that of clean-up days, Campus days, May days, and the like. Apparently all the colleges and universities have the fever. Fall in step—"Everybody's doing it."

The following papers have been received by the exchange department recently. They are all splendid papers and we all hope they will come again.

WHAT THE FACULTY DID DURING VACATION

Mrs. Gulick, accompanied by her two sons, Luther and Howard, and Miss Budd, drove down to Pacific Beach Thursday, and on their return trip Friday they stopped in Elma and had dinner with Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Cary.

Mrs. Hovious wrote a play for Tacoma Night, and rehearsed for the spring play.

Miss Crasper and Miss Balche enjoyed a trip up Hood's Canal and up Crescent Lake with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bell. The trip took four days and the party slept out all the way.

Miss Reneau reports that she stayed home and worked in her flower garden.

Miss Budd spent the first part of the week visiting in Vancouver and Victoria, and took the trip with Mrs. Gulick to Pacific Beach the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Burnside and Miss Brown had only one holiday, Saturday, and they stayed home and worked then, they say.

Senator Davis stayed home and did the spring clearing in his classroom.

Coach McNeal mailed 320 copies of the Sporting Edition of the TRAIL to high school graduates of southwestern Washington, and wrote to sixty schools in Western Washington concerning the track meet to be held at Puyallup May 12. He also took a trip to Seattle and visited the zoo.

"Doc" Harvey stayed at home and "did nothing worthy of report."

Dr. Weir went to Seattle one day, and he also spent one day visiting high schools of the vicinity.

Prof. and Mrs. Schilpp and family went on the Philo house-party, the children acting as chaperons, he reports.

Prof. Slater was one of the Philos who enjoyed their annual spring house-party.

Mr. Robbins went fishing in Lake Patterson near Olympia.

Mr. Kelly stayed at home during vacation, with the exception of one trip to Seattle.

Miss Mills reports that she stayed at home, too.

WHERE SOME OF US SPENT OUR VACATION

Elizabeth and Russell Anderson spent their vacation at their home at Ashford.

Hilda Scheyer spent the holidays with her family in Puyallup.

Dennis Schenk was in Centralia during spring vacation.

Fraternities - Sororities - Societies

GAMMA

Didn't you have a grand time? Everyone we know loved vacation, the only trouble was that it was together too short. We had our annual Faculty-Parent reception last Friday night, a week ago. The program included reading by Mrs. Hovious, solos by Willabelle Hoage and a whistling solo by Sue Mitchell.

Good times were in vogue among us.

At a tea Edith Thomas made a formal announcement of her engagement.

Mildred Eaton entertained at Centralia.

And there have been lots of tennis, fudge and good time parties.

Florence Todd spent the week at Bellingham Normal visiting Greta Miller who is matron of Kamola Hall, the girls' dormitory. She was honored by a breakfast the morning she left.

Gertrude Conrad visited her aunt and uncle in Aberdeen, making the trip by auto.

Alice Olson spent the week in Ethel with her parents.

Charlotte McCool visited with Catherine Dishman, daughter of Major Dishman, at Camp Lewis.

Dorothy Floberg visited Mildred Eaton at her home in Centralia.

Stanley McKee also visited in Centralia.

Carolyn Somers spent the week visiting in Portland and at Pacific University in Forest Grove.

Gladys Harding spent part of the week visiting in Bremerton.

THETA NOTES

The Thetas are very busy getting ready for the Vaudeville. So the Theta Alumni are going to put on the programme Wednesday afternoon at the regular Theta hour. A real treat is anticipated and the girls are looking forward to meeting the Thetas of past years. No hint has been given out as to the programme to be given.

Y. W. C. A.

Devotions were lead by Miss Alice Morgan, followed by a prayer by Ermine Warren. Miss Anita Greenlaw gave us a delightful solo which was followed by a very broad talk by Miss Reneau on many mansions in God's house.

Somers Sleep spent the week visiting relatives in Portland and Rockaway, Oregon.

Stella Eide and Dorothy DuBuisson were among those who went over to the University of Washington Saturday evening to attend the Cadet Ball.

Agnes Hauge spent the week at her home in Port Angeles.

TREASURES ARE HIDDEN

"Most of the treasurers of the earth are hidden," said Dr. Warner in an address to the students in the college chapel, Monday morning. Most of the treasures in human character are hidden too, and sometimes they are not discovered for many years.

The thing which is of most vital interest to everyone is how to obtain these treasures. Sometimes they are obtained as the result of long search and sometimes people just stumble onto them.

Dr. Warner believes that the best method is to get possession of the field in which the treasure is hidden and then the person may hope to find the treasure. Edison, for instance, was acquainted with the field of science before he made his discoveries. Dr. Warner closed his address with a warning against throwing money away on fields in which there is no treasure.

NEWS FROM OTHER COLLEGES

Ellensburg Normal reports an enrollment for this spring quarter of 455, with 45 new students.

In a triangular debate between Spokane University, Whitworth College and Spokane College, Whitworth College took the championship honors by two victories.

It is expected that 170 students will graduate from Bellingham Normal in May.

The debating team of Bellingham Normal lost both of the debates in which it engaged in a trip to Oregon, the last of March, the victors being Pacific University at Forest Grove and Linfield College at McMinnville. However, the Bellingham coach, Mr. Rahnkopf, reports that he was well pleased with the trip.

The journalism department of the University of Oregon moved into their new home on March 24, the day after its dedication by the State Editorial association, who presented to the school of journalism a new copy-desk.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL RECEIVES GIFT FROM FOUNDER

A gift of $100,000 from Elbert H. Gary of New York is announced by the Northwestern University Law School, of which Judge Gary is an alumnus. Judge Gary has for many years been personally interested in the development of the library and has donated various sums for both upkeep and new volumes.

The Gary Law Library at present housed in Northwestern University's downtown building at Lake and Dearborn streets, Chicago, was founded in 1903 with funds provided by Judge Gary. His intention is to ultimately acquire a complete collection of the laws and jurisprudence of all the countries of continental Europe. At present twenty-two independent countries are represented, and the material is arranged under a quadruple classification which makes for easy access to this valuable information. It is frequently consulted by lawyers and judges from every jurisdiction in the United States and supplies material not otherwise obtainable in the United States to legislators interested in legislation involving the study of comparative law or the development of some specific art of legislation.

In the absence abroad of Dean John H. Wigmore of the Law School, the gift was accepted by Frederick B. Crossley of the School who has been librarian since the foundation of the library.

THE GROWTH and development of the great old line legal reserve life insurance companies of America have been the marvel of the financial world. They stand today unexcelled for strength, stability, and absolute ability to fulfill all policy contracts. There is no safer or surer investment under the sun than life insurance in such a company.

Life insurance is a great co-operative institution growing out of our modern civilization. It provides a scheme whereby many people join together in systematic and equitable annual contributions to a common fund—and out of which fund substantial payments are made to the dependents of those overtaken by misfortune or untimely death. All payments are made in proportion to what is put in, and provide, also, funds to meet the needs resulting from old age and physical disability.

Life insurance proper provides for dependents, is a sure and safe investment, and meets the financial needs of old age.

Accident and death insurance, and the disability clauses attached to regular life insurance, safeguard earning power and provide permanent income.

Group insurance lessens labor turnover, increases efficiency of workmen, provides for dependents of deceased workmen, provides permanent income to disabled workmen, and creates a new and better spirit of fellowship and co-operation between workmen and employers.

The Missouri State Life writes all that is modern, and up-to-the-minute in all types of Life, Accident, Health and Group Insurance.

How does it happen Prof. Schilpp, that Phoebe Nicholson brought twenty matches to class?
—C-P-S—

Erma Egan: "I lost my umbrella."
Hilda Scheyer: "Did it have a hooked handle?"

Erma: "You poor fish, the whole darned thing was hooked."

FASHION NOTES

Latest Excerpt from Bunkonia
This is the season for diamond rings. It is proper to wear them on the second finger of the left hand.

SC IEN TI CIAN S

How delightful it is to be entertained by our president, Miss Anderson, at 324 E 28th street. We were all delighted to go for we've been invited to Mary's house before. After a lovely chicken dinner served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Anderson, we spent a very enjoyable evening.
It was an interesting diversion from the usual formal program to indulge in an informal discussion while we sewed.
Those who were present were: Miss Warren, Miss Wheeler, Miss Balke, Miss Murland, Miss Meader, Miss King, Miss Lawrence, Miss Bestler, Miss Pangborn, Miss Ohlson, and the hostess, Miss Anderson. Those who were not present have much to regret.
The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Pangborn on Wednesday, April 25th.

Swanson reports that he is leaving C. P. S. at the end of this year to attend a girls' seminary.

WITH THE CAMPUS JOKSTERS

Pleasant Polly (entertaining big sister's beau)—Oh, Adolphus, guess what father said about you last night.
Adolphus—I haven't an idea in the world.
Pleasant Polly—Oh shame! you listened.
—Willamette Collegian.

Yale Weekly Please Note
We—Who is that fellow with the long hair?
She—He's a fellow from Yale.
We—Oh, I've often heard of those Yale locks.
—College of the Pacific Weekly.

"I had an awful fright last night."
"Yes, I saw you with her."
—Iowa Wesleyan News.

"The next person who interrupts the proceeding will be sent home," declared the irate Judge.
"Hurray!" yelled the prisoner.
—Upper Iowa Collegian.

A group of men were sitting in a hotel lobby talking. As most of them were salesmen, the conversation ran towards selling methods. There happened to be a college professor there. Someone turned to him and said: "What is your line? What do you sell?"
"I am a professor, I sell brains," was the reply.
"Well, you're the first salesman that I've ever seen that doesn't carry a sample of his goods with him."
—Mt. Union Dynamo.

First Farmer—Oh, yes; tell 'em all you know, it won't take very long.
Second Farmer—I'll tell 'em all we both know; it won't take any longer.
—College of the Pacific Weekly.

Rastus—Yo' done said yo' could lick me.
Jasper—Umhum, I sho' did; want me to demonstrate?
Rastus—No, indeed; I'se jest gathering statistics.

Men Who Know the Value of Good Tailoring are Invited to Pass Opinion on the Spring Showing of Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

Clothing for men and young men that has been lifted from the commonplace by expert hand-tailoring; that will fit and retain its shape throughout its entire season of wear, because it has been made as good clothing should be made.

Made from fabrics chosen for quality and dependability of weave—for character of pattern and appropriate colorings. Clothing with the finer embellishments of style and needlework, taping and lining which lift the garment from a mere utility to a sheer luxury.

Stein-Bloch Clothing is not expensive—certainly not if you measure by length of service and personal satisfaction. Sizes 34 to 50. Priced, $35 to $50.

Suits with an Extra Pair of Trousers for the Young Fellows

Suits of Norfolk and sports models that appeal for smart appearance and perfect fitting lines, and are developed of serviceable materials.

Shown in grays, tans and heather mixtures in all sizes. Priced $25, $30 and $35.
