INTERESTING LETTERS RESULT OF MOCK PARTY CONVENTIONS HELD

Members of C. P. S. Political Science Class Receive Replies from Party "Nominees"

A mock Democratic National Convention was held recently by the Political Science class of C. P. S. The candidates nominated were duly notified and the following interesting replies received:

April 28, 1923.

Dear Mr. Chuinard:

(Personal)

I have your kind letter of the 20th and feel unusually honored by the compliment paid me by the Political Science Class of the College of Puget Sound. Nothing could be more gratifying than this evidence of confidence you and your colleagues have manifested in me. I congratulate you heartily on the accomplishment of securing your quota of the million and a half endowment fund.

The next time I am in Tacoma, I shall hope to have the opportunity of meeting you and I shall not lose a chance to visit the College of Puget Sound.

Believe me, with warm appreciation, and best wishes to the members of your class,

Cordially yours,
W. G. McADOO,

Mr. Eldon G. Chuinard,
Permanent Chairman of Convention,

College of Puget Sound,
Tacoma, Washington.

April 11, 1923.
Mr. Charles T. Mentzer,
College of Puget Sound,
Tacoma, Washington.

My Dear Mr. Mentzer:

I have your interesting letter of April 6, and while I am not aspiring to political preferment, I am glad to know that I have some friends among the students of the College of Puget Sound. I congratulate the students of Political Science on undertaking this sort of practical experiment in the machinery of party government. Ours is a government by deliberative assemblies, and therefore obtaining an experience in parliamentary procedure and practice is essential for any student who wishes to do his duty as a citizen, or who ultimately may aspire to public office. In the days before the coming of the Primary, the District, County and State conventions held by the political parties were great training schools which not only gave the general public some insight into the machinery of parliamentary government, but helped to train in both parties leaders fit for ultimate responsibility. I think we must find some way to supply their places as to educational factors, and the method you have adopted is one of these.

Believe me,

Very sincerely yours,
JOHN W. DAVIS.

Plan Commencement Affairs

The Seniors are busy making preparations for Senior week, which will come the last week in May this year. The first of affairs to be given in honor of the graduating class will be the Senior banquet and reception, to be held May 23. On Monday, May 28, will be held Senior chapel. Monday evening, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, the students of the Conservatory of Music will give a recital at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Club. Friday, June 1, a presentation of work by the Public Speaking Department under the direction of Mrs. Lynette Hovious will be held in the college chapel. June 2 the Alumni Association will hold a business meeting in the morning, to be followed by a picnic lunch on the campus, and the color post ceremonial on the campus afterwards. In the evening the Alumni banquet and reception will be held. Sunday, June 3, the Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by President Edward H. Todd at the First M. E. church, and in the evening the annual sermon before the Christian Associations will be given at the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church. Monday the final chapter exercises will be held in the college chapel by President E. H. Todd. Tuesday there will be a meeting of the Board of Trustees, and Wednesday morning, June 6, the Commencement Day exercises will be held at the First M. E. church.

STUDENT BARELY ESCAPES WITH LIFE IN ACCIDENT

Member of Freshman Class Thrown From Bicycle By Bus

Merrill Ginn, a member of the Freshman Class at the College of Puget Sound, was the subject of much talk and consternation on the part of his friends and classmates Friday afternoon, when it was reported that he had been struck by a bus and knocked from his bicycle that morning when he was going down the Pacific avenue hill, returning from his paper route.

It was rumored that Merrill had suffered a cruel and untimely death and there was a shedding of tears and wringing of towels as the fair co-eds were thus informed that he of the Wallie Reid physiognomy had gone to tinkle the ivories with the winged host. The "Red One" was not thus to be deprived of one of his choice morsels, however, for who should come strutting up the campus Friday afternoon but Merrill himself newly coiffed and curled, and sporting a new straw lid, if you please. Standers by hastily drew forth their rabbit's feet and with glance of superstition at the phantom thus strolling before their eyes, they solemnly chanted their latest pitter-patter. They pittered slower and slower until finally, their superstition dropped from them and Dame Fortune smiled once more as they clasped Merrill's hands and were greeted by the well known smile.

Sad, isn't it, that only the good die young?

COLLEGE GLEE CLUB GIVES CONCERT

Glee Club boys of the College of Puget Sound presented a program at Eatonville Friday evening, under the auspices of the Eatonville Methodist church.

There were ensemble numbers by the entire club and specialties by the quartet. Miss Willabelle Hoage presented a piano group; Miss Joyce Glasgow read, and violin numbers were given by Miss Hilda Melin.

The club gave several numbers at the Elks' Club on Wednesday evening for the "Hard Time" party.

PHILO LAUNCH RIDE SATURDAY

The Philo launch ride is scheduled to take place Saturday evening, May 12th. Frank Pihl is in charge of affairs.

C. P. S. Men's Glee Club In Home Concert On 16th May

Aggregation Appears at First Christian Church

The home concert given by the Men's Glee Club under the direction of Prof. Paul A. Schilpp will be May 16th in the First Christian church.

An extensive ticket selling campaign is being carried on and it is reported that the club is working very hard to make the affair a success.

GIRLS GO TO SEATTLE FOR CONFERENCE

Five girls from C. P. S. went to Seattle to attend the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Training Conference at the University of Washington last Friday. The conference began with a reception at the Gamma Phi Beta House and lasted from Friday to Sunday.

The C. P. S. girls who attended were: Thelma Bestler, Ruth Hoage, Elinor Kerlick, Ellena Hart and Margaret Parkin. Three girls and their advisor were there from Bellingham. About twenty-five girls from the University of Washington attended regularly.

The ladies of the Y. W. C. A. Advisory Council who went were: Mrs. Dodds, Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Gulick.

WOMEN IN DEBATE FOR PRIZE

Since no intercollegiate debate was scheduled for the women's varsity team this year, the judges, Professors Robins, Hanawalt and Reneau, decided that the women should debate each other to decide the winner of the prize for the best woman debater in the college. The participants will be Helen Olson, Dorothy Wallace, Mildred Harper, and Joyce Glasgow. The debate will take place in the Chapel on Thursday noon, the proposition being "Resolved, That Ireland Should be Given Complete Independence from Great Britain." Elizabeth Reynolds and Carol Fay Hovious have already tried out for the prize in the intercollegiate Freshman debate with the University of Washington Athena Club. The fifty dollar prize which is given each year by Mr. Burmeister will be presented to the winner in chapel on Friday.

GLEE CLUB HAS A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Under the direction of Prof. Paul A. Schilpp the Men's Glee Club has had a most successful season.

They made their first public appearance December 15th at the college banquet. After that concerts were given at Wilkeson, Steilacoom, Burton, Mason Methodist church, Kiwanis Club, Junior Commercial Club, and Eatonville. The Club also sang for the Ledger Radio.

The members of the club are as follows:

"THE END OF THE TRAIL"

This edition marks the end of the publication of the Trail for this year. There have been many difficulties to overcome owing to the fact that this is the first year that the Trail has been published as a weekly. If the Trail has been a success, a large measure of the credit is due to Miss Reneau whose advice and help has been greatly appreciated by the Editor and Staff.

The Editor wishes to thank the members of the present Staff, and those who were forced by circumstances to resign at the end of the first semester, for their faithful and consistent work. Thanks is also due to those members of the Student Body who have so willingly contributed material from time to time.

Having sang our "Swan Song", we wish a bright and prosperous year for next year's Editor and Staff and hope they will put out a better and bigger Trail than we have done.

THE GLEE CLUBS' HOME CONCERTS

After having done our bit to put the play across successfully, it is only fair now that the Student Body give their unqualified support to the two Glee Clubs.

The women give their concert tonight in the College Chapel and the men will give theirs on May 16 in the First Christian church.

TENNIS ON THE INCLINE AT C. P. S.

This spring more tennis fans have turned out than any other year. There is no reason why we should not develop strong teams, both for men and women. The men's team has already been chosen and they are open to challenge. The team as chosen is as follows: Daniel, Hokenson, Newell, Ginn, and Vaughn. The women's team has not been chosen, but will be by the end of this week. Two of our dignified Seniors, Mary Anderson and Ermine Warren, appeared on the court last Friday. Best of luck to you both. As they are graduating this June and are entering into the College of Hard Knocks, it is very evident that they are getting into condition. It is rumored that Dorothy Newell will soon be seen on the tennis courts! Watch your step Roy!

The tennis tournament has dragged along long enough, so the surviving candidate, please snap it up and finish this week without fail.

THINGS SEEN, HEARD AND READ

(By W. S. D.)

Wandering out to the new campus one day I copied the inscription on the dedication stone of the new institution of learning soon to rise there in majesty and splendor.

"College of Puget Sound Campus, dedicated to the promotion of Learning

Good Government

Christian Religion

June 8, 1921."

In Wright Park on the monument of Henry Ibsen, erected by a Scandinavian countryman is the following inscription, worthy of a place in the life of every student: "Let your lives be pure and white Tablets whereon God can write."

The library of the late Senator Foster of Tacoma, member of the United States Senate, from 1899 to 1905, has been presented to the College of Puget Sound by Mr. Harrison Foster, son of Senator Foster. The total number of volumes presented is over 1,400. Many of these are of high value. Especially valuable are the more than 100 volumes of Union and Confederate War Records. This gift is an example of the growing interest of the people of Tacoma in our college.

The college year of 1922-23, now closing, is perhaps, all things considered, the most important in the history of our school. This importance comes from the success of the endowment campaign to secure the Rockefeller gift of one-quarter of a million. This triumph finally assures the success of the college. With those extra one-half million added to the previous endowment a real Liberal Arts College is assured.

THANKS EXTENDED FOR HELP ON COLLEGE PLAY

Our College Play took a great many committees to make it a success. On the property committee there were those who graciously gave their services and time. Miss Balcks prepared the dinner for the third act, and those who ate her corn bread remarked, "rather have it than cake." Ted Upton was some pusher when it came to getting the properties for the second act. Mrs. Cochran's artistry was much in evidence. Others who co-operated were Mrs. Langton, Inez Mickie, Margery Davisson, Margaret Parkin, Hilda Scheyer, Nan Tuell, Ella Purkey, Evelyn Ahnquist, Evelyn Backus, Katherine Fuller, Ruth Hoage, Florence Westenburg, Eleanore Kendrick, Clinton Hart, Paul Lund and Sam Warren.

The stores which loaned us properties were:

Schoenfeld, Samonian Oriental Rug Co., Davis & Son, J. O. Purkey, Rhodes Brothers and Dawson Hat Shop.

At Schoenfeld's was found warm friends of the College in Mr. Nettleton and Mrs. Butler.

For all this generous co-operation, I extend thanks.

FLORENCE TODD.

PEACE ORATORY PRIZE ATTAINED BY O. A. C. MAN

Willamette Collegian.—Before an audience that completely filled Willamette chapel Friday evening, Elmer Gaudy of the Oregon Agricultural College, leading a field of seven contestants from the chief colleges of Oregon, won the fourth annual Peace Oratorical contest. Second place fell to George Owen, of the University of Oregon, and third place to Leland Chapin of Willamette University. The winners of the first and second places will receive prizes of seventy-five and fifty dollars, respectively and the right to enter their orations in the national contest.

OUR FACULTY

Senator Davis took two higher Masonic degrees last week. They were the Mark and the Pastmaster's degrees, which is known as the York Rite.

Professor Slater took his Agricultural Botany class to Day Island last Thursday afternoon to study sea life while there was a minus tide.

The Faculty Club met with Miss Crapser and Miss Balcke on Monday night.

Prof. Weir, Dean Henry, President Todd and Senator Davis were in Olympia on Friday, May 4th, attending a Teacher's Conference. Professor Robins went down to Olympia on Saturday.

Professor Slater spoke to the Education Club last Monday evening on the subject of "Teachers' Health."

Miss Balcke and Miss Crapser went to Seattle on Saturday.

Miss Olive Brown was sick a part of last week.

Miss Budd spent the week end correcting themes—as usual—making a call on Prof. Schilpp's and going on a yacht ride with Dr. and Mrs. Rich.

ty of Oregon won the $40 prize in the Oratorical Contest there and will go to Moscow, Idaho, to represent the U. of O. in the Northwest Oratorical Meet on May 24.

The Senior class of the University of Oregon decided to drop campus clean-up day this year.

Spokane College surpassed Whitworth College in baseball on April 25, with a score of 11-7.

Society and Club Notes

TWO MEMBERS PLEDGED TO OTLAH

The Woman's Honorary Society at the College of Puget Sound formerly pledged two new members, Thelma Bestler and Nan Tuell, at chapel period Friday. This is the highest honor that can be conferred upon a girl at the college, and the membership is based upon "womanly character, scholarship and service to the college." To be eligible a girl must enter C. P. S. not later than her Sophomore year and have an average of 90% for the whole time.

Initiation took place Tuesday evening after a delightful appointed dinner was served in the Home Economics room in honor of the pledges. Places were laid for Thelma Bestler, Nan Tuell, Miss Balcke (faculty advisor for Otlah), Norma Lawrence, Ermine Warren and Phoebe Nicholson.

Both girls have been very active in college affairs during the three past years and have held many offices.

Thelma Bestler has an average of 90.9% for her three years' work and has held the following offices: In her first year she was a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet; in her second year she was secretary of her class, recording secretary of the Amphictyon Literary Society; in her third year she was corresponding secretary of the Lambda Sigma Chi Sorority, president-elect of the Scientitians Club, president of the Y. W. C. A., president of the Sorority Council, art editor of the Tamanawas, and secretary of the student body.

Nan Tuell has an average of 90.5% during her three years and has held the following offices: In her first year she was treasurer of her class, and was on the pageant committee; second year, a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, secretary of the Cappa Sigma Theta Sorority; third year, vice-president of the Kappa Sigma Theta Sorority, member of the Pan-Hellenic Council, and is editor-in-chief of the Trail for next year. The members of the Otlah Club who will graduate this spring are: Norma Lawrence, Phoebe Nicholson and Ermine Warren.

WEDDING TO BE IN JUNE

Betrothal of Miss Olive Balcke to C. R. Winslow Is Announced This Week

Interesting a wide circle of friends here is the betrothal of Miss Olive Balcke, who has made her home in Tacoma the last year, to C. R. Winslow, now of Boston, who was a member of last year's faculty staff of Lincoln high school.

Miss Balcke is in charge of the home economics department of the College of Puget Sound, a position which she has held for two years. She is actively connected with the college organizations and prominent in the Woman's College League.

The wedding will be an event of June, solemnized at Miss Balcke's former home, in Pekin, Ill., where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Balcke, reside.

Mr. Winslow is doing graduate work at Harvard this year, which he will complete in June. He is specializing in political economy. For the summer months the new home will be made in Billings, Mont.

Several affairs are being planned in honor of Miss Balcke before she leaves Tacoma the first of June, among which is a luncheon given within a fortnight by Mrs. Edward H. Todd, wife of the college president, which will also compliment Mrs. Eleanor Brooks Gulick, who will be a bride of August.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS AT PARTY

Miss Mildred Gast was hostess Thursday evening at an informal card and dancing party for a group of her College of Puget Sound friends. Late in the evening the hostess, assisted by her mother, served a supper to the following guests: Misses Beatrice Wahlgren, Marion Harding, Lucille McWilliams, Myrtle Balke, Marjorie Davison, Ella Miller, Annie Davis and Douglas Bowman, Paul Lung, Mayo Drisco, Guy McWilliams, James McAnally, Frank Pihl, Ted Upton and Edward Amende.

SHOWER FOR MISS THOMAS

Miss Dorothy DuBuisson and Miss Annie Davis will entertain at a shower Thursday evening in Miss DuBuisson's home on North J street for Miss Edith Thomas, who will be a June bride. Invitations have been extended to 25 girls of the College of Puget Sound.

AMPHICTYON

The Amphictyons are looking forward with great delight to their annual launch ride which is to be Saturday evening, May 12th. The party will leave on the steamer Vashon at 5:15 for Manzanita where a clam bake is being arranged for. Later in the evening a launch will come for the young folks and take them on a cruise around the sound.

Monday evening, May 7th, the Amphictyons enjoyed a trip "Around the World." The numbers composing this unique program were:

Reading	Joyce Glasgow
England	Glen Brown
France	Buela Reise and Ruth Bitney
China	Elsie Clevenger
Italy	Irene Owens
Piano Solo	Ellena Hart
Sweden	Emil Lindseth
Chile	Maynard Stowe

PHILO HOLDS MOCK TRIALS

The Philo meeting last Monday night was devoted to two mock trials. In the first Roy Morris and Dorothy Newell were tried for breaking Philo rules, and in the second, Frank Brooks was tried for assault and battery.

Bud Harris presided as Judge and Harley Notter acted as counsel for Deferse. In the first trial Frank Brooks was prosecuting attorney and in the second trial Roy Norris held that position. Max Vaughn was clerk.

A large number of visitors were present and seemed to enjoy the trials very much.

SIGMA MU CHI

The fraternity gave a program May 5th at the County Fair held under the auspices of the Fern Hill Epworth League at Fern Hill. Vaudeville acts, gymnastic stunts, and several musical numbers made up the program. Chadwick Christie is the program manager and this is the third program of which he has taken charge this year, each one being a success.

PUGET SOUND COLLEGE PLAY BIG SUCCESS

Amateur Cast Scores Heavily in Presentation of Thomas' Comedy

One of the most enjoyable amateur performances from every point of view that has delighted Tacoma theatregoers was given May 1 at the Tacoma Theatre by the students of the College of Puget Sound.

An audience that tested the capacity of the theatre was entertained royally by the presentation of A. E. Thomas' three-act comedy, "Come Out of the Kitchen," by a college cast under the competent direction of Mrs. Lynette Hovious.

The story, which has to deal with the leasing of a southern estate, to a northern bachelor, by an aristocratic family of Virginia, who are forced to permit strangers to occupy their ancestral home by dire necessity. The lease calls for the furnishing of four white servants and the failure of the arrival of the hired help forces the children of the family to temporarily take the place of the servants.

This circumstance is the web of deceit upon which the comedy is based and the three acts are full to overflowing with humorous situations that would tax the ability of many professional companies.

The four heirs of the Dangerfield family were in capable hands. Matthew Thompson proved his ability as a butler of decidedly English attributes. Ben Lanpher, as the kid brother in the role of "boots" boy was clever in his many scenes and broke dishes with a look of contrition that was simply immense. Carol Hovious carried the role of maid with exalted ideas to a successful termination and last but not least, Juliette Palmer as the other sister, proved herself a rare artist of mimicry in her delineation of the Irish cook.

Mary Donahue was excellent in a negro mammy role that everyone would have enjoyed had the role been of greater length. Edwin Newell was an acceptable agent of the family.

Now as to the northern contingent. Helen Small made a very good impression as an aristocratic woman of supposed wealth, and Willabelle Hoage got all that was possible out of the character of the daughter. Jess Mathis as Solon Tucker, an old fossil that "loved the ladies", did a clever piece of character work, and Richard Weir as the poet was pleasing.

Harley Notter made a handsome Burton Crane, and not only looked, but played the part with deep feeling and a personality that caught the audience from the go. His scenes with Miss Palmer were played with professional touches that made them most significant.

Agnes Hauge was displaying a beautiful lustrous diamond on her left hand presented to her by Don Wellman. But disillusionment came when Bark Holiday inspected it and claimed it to be an article of tin and glass. Alas!

He scorned her red lips, he ignored the appeal of her eyes. The delicate wax-like features, so regularly and beautifully molded left him unmoved. In no way could she attract him. But pause, gentle reader, it isn't so bad. You see, he was a window trimmer and she a wax figure.

Fire Prevention Hint
Always spread a newspaper in front of the fire place so if any sparks come out they won't get on the rug.

We read of a woman who didn't kiss her husband for ten years. He must have been dead or else she had money in her own name.

Student—This woman Salome must have been mean.
Prudent—Yes?
Student—I'll say so. This literary criticism says, "In the final analysis it was Salome that made Oscar Wilde."
—C-P-S—

Mrs. Coach—It looks like rain. You had better stay for dinner.
Daniel—Oh, thanks, but I don't think it is bad enough for that.
—C-P-S—

Eldon—What did you do after Amphic last night?
Chad—Nothing to speak of.
Eldon—Oh!

Harold Wade—I'm hungry for beautiful girls.
Merrill Ginn—So am I. But the beautiful girls are too hungry for me.
—C-P-S—

Davis—Who's the president of Mexico?
M. Peterson—Don't know. Haven't read the morning papers.
—C-P-S—

She—Is Ted Upton dead?
Her—Dead? Why I should say not.
She—Well, at the last track meet he was entered in the vaults.

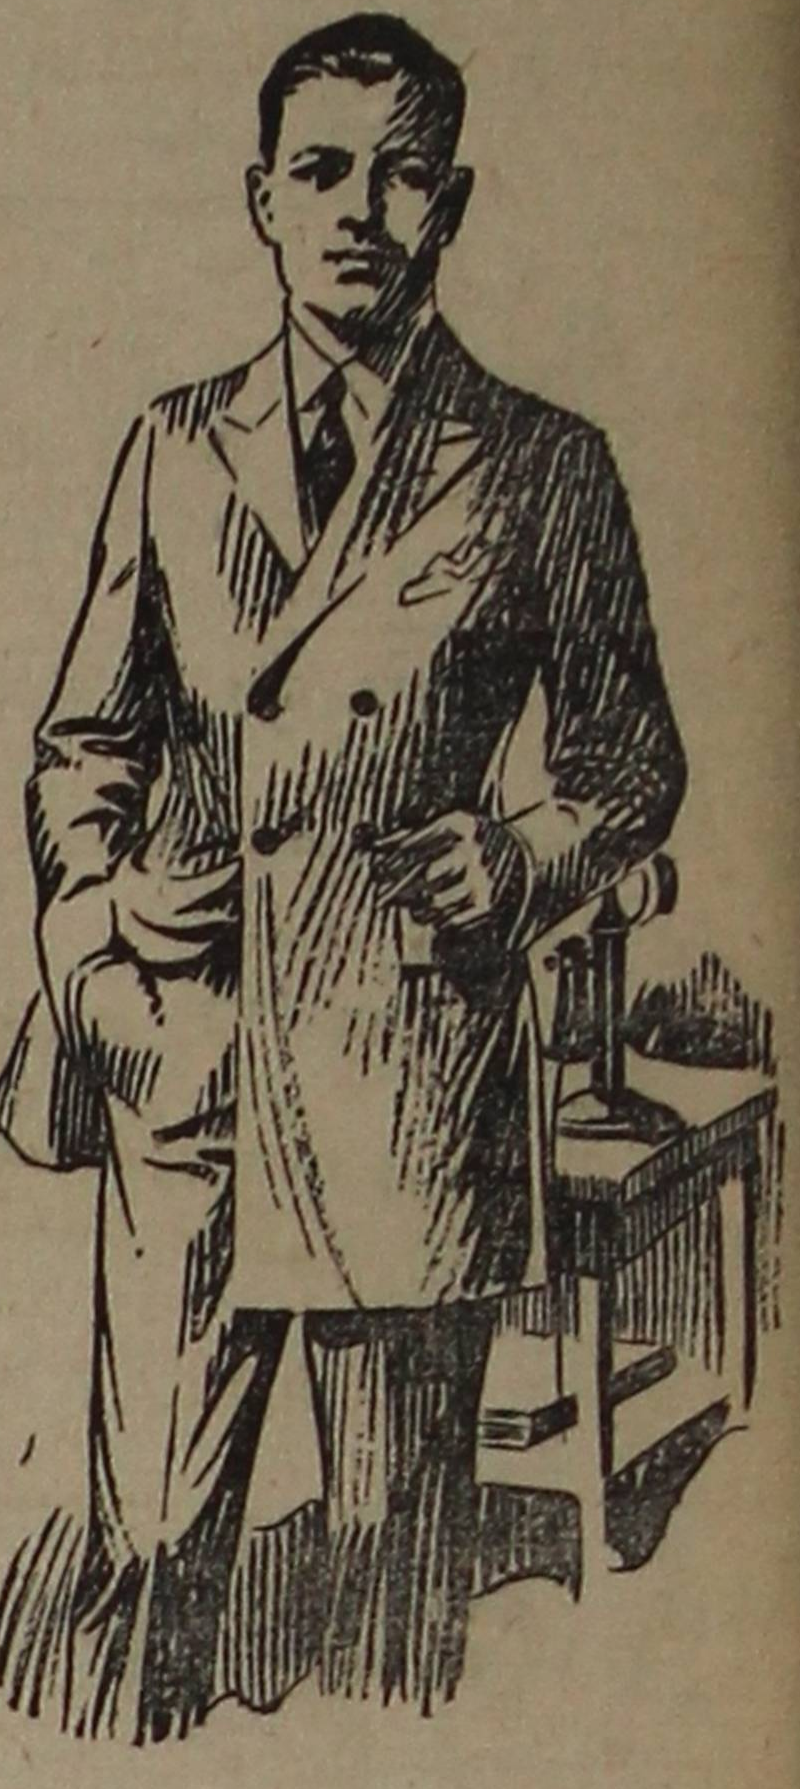

ASSUME THE PERSONALITY OF A STUDENT
The success of the all-college play was, according to Dr. Todd, largely due to the fact those who were in the play assumed the personalities of the characters whom they were trying to portray. They sacrificed their own personalities for the time being in order to make the play a success. Dr. Todd said there were thirty days' more in which to make the college year a success. In order to do so every Junior, Freshman, Sophomore and Senior must assume the personality of a student and so throw himself into the part that he will be one.

PUBLICITY
Our boys bucked up against the line,
Our cagers tossed the ball,
We've worked in every good design
That's been suggested in our hall;
Our matmen wrestled far and wide,
Debaters hardly ever lost;
But still we think, and can't decide
The proper method or the cost.
Our play has made a grand success,
The tennis rackets swing all day,
And yet it seems that we must guess
Or make or find a different way.
We'll have to pull some public theft
And drop the news about
Then when we have no honor left
They'll shoot some extras out!
We've tried in every worthy way
To make our school the rage,
But we always got a column inch
On everything we'd stage.
Then one of those birds who always hollers
About the size of his wage,
Blew open the safe for seventy-five dollars—
And C. P. S. took the front page!
