STUDENTS SHOW ENTHUSIASM AT BIG HOMECOMING

Three Plays, Football Game and Bonfire Important Events

HOLD PEP PARADE

Many Alumni Return to Puget Sound for Annual Celebration

The Homecoming celebration of 1926 is history now, and school affairs have resumed their everyday atmosphere. That the program was a complete success has been proved by the co-operation and spirit shown by the whole student body.

Many alumni from out of town were welcomed back to the campus over the week-end. The guests seemed to enjoy the parts of the program arranged in their honor.

The Freshmen and Knights of the Log erected a massive bonfire on the athletic field. The glowing blaze illumined the skies for a long time. The slender form of "Venus" suspended from the telephone pole, also did her part to make the affair a success, although she was only a dress-form. Clifford Dowell, a freshman, won the prize for the craziest costume.

The night shirt paraders, led by Walter Anderson, assisted by members of the Knights of the Log, wound their way through the city, through the lounge of the Winthrop Hotel, and down to Pacific Avenue where they met the members of the Pacific team who had just arrived in town.

The championship game with the Badgers in the Stadium on Saturday was the high point in the two days celebration. In spite of the drizzle of rain, a large crowd of Logger fans cheered the Maroon and White team until the last minute of play. At the alumni banquet in the commons, Saturday evening, a drive for $50,000 to endow a chair of history to be called the Walter Scott Davis chair was successfully launched.

The plays Saturday night were well received by one of the largest audiences that has ever turned out to amateur productions in C. H. Jones Hall. The work of Prof. Holcomb and his players was artistic and in all other ways pleasing. Everyone is anticipating more dramatic productions of this kind.

DELEGATES SELECTED TO GO TO CONVENTION

Evelyn Miller and Harold Huseby are the two delegates who were chosen yesterday to attend the C. C. A. conference, to be held in Milwaukee December 28, 1926, to January 1, 1927. They will be sent from this college as representatives of the student body.

Four alternates were also chosen in case either of the two delegates should not be able to go. The alternates, in the order of preference, are Winifred Longstreth, Morton Johnson, Margaret Haley and Sam Pugh.

FOOTBALL MEN ENJOY ANOTHER THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving was over for most folks last Friday, but the football men had a second Thanksgiving feast Wednesday evening when Coach and Mrs. Hubbard and Dean and Mrs. Lemon were hosts to the squad at a turkey banquet give at Coach Hubbard's home.

This dinner has been due the members of the squad since the Willamette game, because Dean Lemon promised the team a turkey for each touchdown. Last night the men ate this bird—also one or two more—at the banquet.

Places were set for 23. Those attending the banquet were Frank Wilson, Frank Gillman, Bert Kepka, Amos Booth, Morton Johnson, Leroy Browning, Seaborn Smith, Dave Ferguson, Ralph Brear, Captain Mike Thornley, Onnie Hannus, Ernest Miller, Harlan Leatherwood, Ted Bankhead, Norval Norton, Fred LePenske, Gordon Tatum, John Gansero, John Gardner, Manager Clare Guest, Mr. A. L. Denman, Professor McMillan and Coach Hubbard.

The eating championship of the squad was in doubt all evening, and it was not until the last few minutes that the winner could be predicted. At that time Captain Thornley, Ernest Miller, Frank Wilson and Leroy Browning began to forge ahead without weakening. One by one these contestants dropped out until only Captain Thornley was left eating. Mike was among high class competition, but pulled through to the 1926 banquet championship.

The meal was served by Mrs. Hubbard, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Denman, Mrs. Frank Gillman and Mrs. F. A. McMillan.

ORCHESTRA USES NOVEL MUSICAL TOYS IN PIECE

One would think, upon visiting the all-college orchestra at its weekly practices, that he had blundered into a toy shop. About half of the members have discarded their customary instruments and have adopted various other outlandish noise-making machines. Among the playthings are cuckoos, nightingales, quails, toy horns and other instruments usually played only by childish musicians.

However, the orchestra is not quite as juvenile as may seem, for they are now practicing on a new piece. These strange instruments will be used in the "Toy Symphony," a real piece, in which they play an important part. The only instruments which perform their usual functions are the piano, violins and drums.

INTERPRETER OF LIFE APPEARS ON CHAPEL PLATFORM

The chapel service Monday, November 27, was characterized by an unusual feature in the presence of Miss Frances Nack-a-wa-yah, a very talented interpreter. Miss Nack-a-wa-yah, who is a Canadian Indian, was adopted and educated by an English lady.

In chapel Miss Nack-a-wa-yah gave a portion of the "Song of Hiawatha" and the "Song of My Paddle" and an encore she read "Cuddle Doon," a Scotch piece.

MRS. HUBERT LEAVES

Miss Alice Hubert, Mr. Spragues' secretary has left Puget Sound to take a position in Portland, so as to be with her husband who is attending the Portland Dental College. Miss Mamie Steeves is taking her place.

ALUMNI LAUNCH DRIVE TO ENDOW A CHAIR IN HONOR OF SENATOR DAVIS

Plans Are to Raise an Endowment Fund of $50,000 by 1932 for Chair of Political Science

The Alumni Association of the College of Puget Sound has unanimously adopted a resolution to launch a drive for $50,000 to endow a chair of political science in honor of Professor Walter Scott Davis. This campaign will be concluded in 1932 when Professor Davis will have completed 25 years' service in the college.

The fund, which is to be known as the Walter Scott Davis Endowment Fund, will be raised by subscription. The matter of establishing the fund was presented to the association on June 5 of this year. The association approved but voted that it be submitted to the alumni at the homecoming meeting, which was held November 11.

The statement issued by the officers of the alumni reflects the progressive spirit of the association.

"Increasingly the public will look to the alumni of our college to set the pace of her program of progress. The raising of this endowment will give evidence of our loyalty and inspire public confidence in the stability of our college.

"We alumni need some challenging interest to vitalize our growing body. Goliath was big, but David was great. The bigness of our alumni body is assured by the growth of our college, but greatness can come to us only as we undertake some great task. The raising of this endowment offers the task."

ANNUAL ALUMNI ASSEMBLY HELD

President of the Puget Sound Alumni Visits Here

The Alumni assembly was held on Friday, November 19, with Dr. T. G. Gambell, president of the Alumni Association as speaker.

Dr. Gambell spoke on the "Object of Homecoming," giving several personal experiences which he has had at various homecomings and reunions. He emphasized the necessity of contact between the alumni and the student body.

Dr. Gambell's talk was preceded by a hymn and prayer, the latter being led by Rev. J. F. Long, pastor at St. Paul's Church, who is also a former Puget Sound student.

Announcement has been made that tickets for the concert by Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Lieurance will be sold to college students for 75 cents. The concert is being presented at the First Christian Church Monday, under the auspices of the St. Cecilia Club.

Two other concerts will also be held in the near future. On Wednesday, December 15, Mrs. Edward McDowell, the wife of the famous American composer, will appear under the direction of the Ladies Musical Club. Student tickets for the concert will be 25 cents. Prof. Hanscom also invites everyone who is interested to a recital of his own piano pupils at his home next Tuesday.

THANKS, STUDENTS

The committee in charge of Homecoming wishes to thank the student body and faculty for their generous cooperation which were in a large measure responsible for the success of the traditional program.

Onslaught on Innocent Turkey and What Befell Are Related in Student's Diary

By Harold Nutley

Last minute reports indicate that the observance of Thanksgiving was an entire success. The tales of hardy adventurers are filled with great deeds performed at the dinner table. Family gatherings all over the land have strengthened anew the ties of love and kindred. The whole nation has united in offering up thanks to a benevolent creator. Everywhere the duties and cares of life are being resumed.

As we take up our arduous studies, it might be well to glance back and see what was done, so that future generations may be guided thereby. To begin with, there were two days vacation, something to be thankful for. Now that most every student is again able to attend school, it would seem that the vacation may be summarized in somewhat the following manner:

Up early and to church, being careful to refrain from breakfast. There did solemnize the day in time-partake of breakfast. It seems the family has quite a stock of turkey hash and cranberries, and did decide to buy my lunch at school for the next week.

In the afternoon, did visit divers persons and did gravely advise pastor oil in most cases. In the evening, dusted off some textbooks and penetrated several pages, but

NEWS BUREAU IS VALUABLE

Secures Much Publicity For Puget Sound

One of the most valuable organizations of the Associated Students of the college is the News Bureau, of which Elverton Stark is managing editor. This bureau was established for the purpose of giving publicity to Puget Sound, and its value is unquestioned.

Each week letters are sent out to 50 newspapers throughout the state, giving brief news items about the most important events at the college. News of local men and women who are attending Puget Sound is especially stressed, thus making the news of more interest to the out-of-town papers.

That the work of the News Bureau is accomplishing results is shown by the letter received from The Puget Sound Herald. The letter states, in part: "I am having an annual subscription to The Herald sent to you. I will have a good head made under which to group your notes, which we shall be glad to print."

Publicity of this kind, in which the college is continually brought to the notice of the readers of the paper, is worth a great deal to Puget Sound.

Stark is assisted in the work of the bureau by Genevieve Stove, Harold Huseby and Wilma Zimmerman. He requests that all others interested in working on the bureau see him at once, as there is room for several more members.

WORKING IN MONTESANO

Miss Margaret Rosmond, who completed three semesters of work here, was a visitor in town Armistice Day. She is now working in the postoffice at Montesano.

PIE AND CAKE SALES PROFITABLE

Men of the college were given a good opportunity to decide for themselves whether or not there are any good cooks at Puget Sound at the Y. W. C. A. pie sale held Thursday. Pies and cakes of all shapes, flavors and degrees of perfection were served to the hungry students at the very nominal price of 10 cents. Twelve dollars was made on this sale, making a total of $38 cleared on the two sales. The first sale netted $26.

The money will be used to send a delegate to the C. C. A. convention at Milwaukee.

Y. M.-Y. W. PARTY IS ENJOYED BY MANY STUDENTS

Last night the Y. M.-Y. W. party was held at the Central association building. It was a good party on the floor, but when it came to the big pool there was no question of the success of the venture. Following the swim was a short program in the lobby where refreshments were served. A good attendance was on hand and everyone had an enjoyable evening.

METHODIST MEN MEET IN SEATTLE

A Methodist Men's Christian Council is to be held in Seattle December 7. This will be one of a series of councils which have been arranged by the Methodist Church to arouse and organize manhood for the furtherance of Christianity. The slogan of the movement is "A Million Methodist Men Making the Mind of the Master their Main Motive and Mission."

The council has no financial objectives. The aim is not to enlist purse but personality. Out of the council will grow a definite plan for an all-year intensive development of men's work.

A number of international speakers will address the council. Great laymen who have studied the movement consider it of supreme value in vitalizing Christian manhood. Senator Fess of Ohio, calls it the "most promising movement of our time."

STUDENTS HEAR TALK ON CHINA

Speaker Discusses Misunderstanding Between Races

Last Tuesday in the joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., students were privileged to hear Mr. Hayes, the national secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association in China.

Mr. Hayes is a graduate of the U. of Mich., earned his degree at Columbia and has taken additional work at a theological seminary. He was born in China and has had a large experience in that country so he is highly qualified to speak of student problems in that country and in this.

He discussed the misunderstanding between the white and the yellow races, a misunderstanding which he claims is largely our fault. That the European powers and our own country are using unjust methods in relation to China is self-evident, as Mr. Hayes clearly showed in many instances. China is fair and even holds a regard for us, despite ill usage. It is up to America, especially the Pacific coast, he said, to meet that great nation half way.

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR CHEST GOOD

According to Mr. Topping, this year is the best and worst for the chest. The college raised $450 of which the faculty contributed $240. This is more than last year but the number of contributors was less. In the last issue Franklin Manning's name was omitted; he was adjutant general and one of the most efficient workers.

FIRST PRACTICE IN HOOP SPORT HELD THIS WEEK

Four Varsity Lettermen Have Returned to Help Win Championship

FORTY MEN REPORT

Coach Will Use Oregon Aggie Style of Play; Several Teams to Be Formed

By Dale Ginn

The first official Logger basketball practice was held last Monday in the gymnasium under the direction of coach "Cac" Hubbard. Only a relatively small number of candidates turned out for the first practice but as the week progressed the number has been swelled to about forty.

Coach Hubbard will have four lettermen from last year's squad around which he hopes to build a winning team, and incidentally a Northwest Con-Frank Wilson, the lanky player of football fame, is the classiest forward in the league. Last year he was one of the heaviest scorers in the conference.

Dale Ginn, the diminutive forward, is back fighting for his place. He handles the ball nicely and is a clever floor man. Onie Hannus, flashy little guard and Clare Guest, center are both in suits again this year. The place of Horse Blevins, all conference guard, will be a big gap to fill.

Uses "Aggie" Style of Playing
The new coach is bringing with him the Oregon Aggie style of play. This is entirely different from the style used by the former Puget Sound hoop teams which means that "Cac" will have to start from the very bottom to teach his cohorts the strange style. Besides the varsity team, Coach Hubbard hopes to have a freshman team to play high school and club teams and if possible a super- varsity team to play either in the commercial or city league.

Men from last year's freshman team who are making a bid for varsity berths are Glenwood Platt, Seaborn Smith, and Bert Kepka. The most promising looking freshman is Van Spencer McKenney. Last year while playing for Roosevelt High in Seattle, he made all-star forward of that city. Other frosh who show ability are Don Darrow, ex-Summer High School guard; Darrel Swan, who hails from Wisconsin, Meredith Smith, the Pasadena High player. Coplan looks like the best bet for the center position until Addison Shaw, veteran pivot man returns at the beginning of next semester.

There is still room for a few more candidates and Coach Hubbard wants men who have had any basketball experience at all to turn out and help make a winning combination.

SENIORS REVIVE FAMOUS CHARACTERS

Famous people from olden time came to life and performed in student assembly Thursday when "The Houseboat on the River Styx" paid a visit to Puget Sound. The event was the annual Senior Program, and was given entirely by members of the Class of '27. The result was a vast but delightful mixup.

Poor Captain Kidd became seafleck, although he was accompanied by Queen Elizabeth. Napoleon brought Carmen to the party, while Marie Antoinette came with Moses. King Arthur and Elaine made their appearance upon the scene together, and Joan of Arc was accompanied by Cleopatra. Vergil was the escort of Lady Macbeth, who was somewhat delayed due to the fact that Lady Macbeth had consumed all of the stain remover and she could not get the blood off of her hands.

Finally dinner was announced by the tall scandinavian, Lief Ericson, and the seasick Captain Kidd made a dash for the rail. When the Lief informed the crowd that "Juterisk" would be served for dinner he was promptly mobbed, and the party ended.

STUDENTS TAKE PART IN CHAPEL

Thanksgiving Assembly Held Friday Morning

A chapel service in which the students took an active part was the feature of the meeting a week ago Wednesday, which was in the form of a Thanksgiving service. Two numbers by the Women's Glee Club were especially well-received by the students. Announcement that the alumni of the college planned to raise $50,000 to endow a chair in political science for Senator Davis was made by Pres. Todd. Prof. Topping announced that the Community Chest drive had been very successful at the college. Prof. Robbins, Ernest Goulder, Ina Coffman, Prof. Simmons, Sam Pugh and Harry Parker also took part in the program.

AMPHIC PROGRAM GIVEN AT PHILO

Beginning last Monday night, what is hoped will become a custom in the future, Amphictyon and Philomathean Literary societies exchanged programs and officers. This idea is being promoted by the two societies with the thought in mind that the membership of the two clubs will be brought in closer friendship and understanding with each other.

The title of Amphic's program was "Homes" and the first number presented to the Philos was "Houses and Homes" in which Lucy Wittine cleverly explained the difference between the two. David Taff in his speech, showed "The Family at Home."

An example of home music was given by a vocal trio composed of Alice Rockhill, Francis Martin and Genevieve Bitney. Louise Wilson explained to her audience "Mother's Place in the Home."

Two numbers which stirred the listeners to laughter were those given by Elverton Stark and Lucille Davenport. They were entitled, respectively, "All Women Want Homes" and "All Men Need Homes."

Douglas Babcock presented as a piano solo, "Melody of the Keys." The concluding number was "O-Na-Home" by Neva Bailie.

BETAS PLEDGE 12 WOMEN TO SORORITY

The Alpha Beta Upsilon sorority held the pledging service for their new members last Wednesday afternoon at the Coffman residence on North Ninth street. Twelve women were received into membership.

The pledges are: Bertha Mills, Lucille Veatch, Helen Graham Johnson, Ruth Long, Geraldine Gaspar, Beatrice Schumacher, Betty Gilbert, Marian Johnson, Alice Johnson, Margaret Taylor, Inez Johnson and Grace Link.

Irma and Ina Coffman were hostesses for the afternoon.

Alpha Beta Upsilon also wishes to announce at this time several new additions to their list of sponsors. They are as follows: Dean and Mrs. Allan C. Lemon, Prof. and Mrs. Battin of the faculty; and Dr. and Mrs. Grigsby of the First M. E. Church.

DEBATE ON PIE AT LIT SOCIETY

The Altrurian program last Monday evening centered around Thanksgiving. "How It Feels to Be a Cranberry," was the first number on the program, discussed in a capable manner by Lowell Wilson. Wilma Zimmerman gave one of her much appreciated readings entitled, "After Thanksgiving." The next number was a piano solo "Turkey in the Straw," played by Harold Skramstad.

Doris Wilson gave an interesting resume of the "History of Thanksgiving," and as the final number Cora Tolles and Signe Johnson debated the question, "Resolved: that pumpkin pie is better than mince." Miss Tolles quoted authorities to prove her point while Miss Johnson attempted to prove her side of the case by showing that the unknown is better than the known.

SIGMA MU CHI HAS DINNER IN HONOR OF ALUMNI

The Sigma Mu Chi Fraternity gave an informal homecoming banquet in honor of its alumni members, on Sunday afternoon, November 21, at Gosser's. Eight alumni and twelve regular members were present. Senator Walter S. Davis was a guest of the organization at the banquet.

Eldon Chuihard, a member of the class of '26 and president of the A. S. C. P. S. last year, acted as toastmaster for the occasion.

The alumni members present were Chester Blesen, Clyde Kinch, Anton Erp, Herold Wade, Eldon Chuihard, Nelson Pierce, Harold Pretz and Harry Thorsen. Short speeches were given by every alumni member present and also by Senator Davis. Nelson Pierce, the founder of the Sigma Mu Chi fraternity, is now pastor of the Fern Hill M. E. Church. He expects to attend Puget Sound again next semester.

PLEDGES GIVE PROGRAM FOR THETA MEMBERS

Lillian Burkland's home was the scene for a pledge's program Wednesday afternoon when she was hostess to old and new members of Kappa Sigma Theta.

A quartette composed of Evelyn Dahlstrom, Ruth Eyre, Florence Palmer and Madge Miller sang several numbers with ukelele accompaniment.

Rose Phelan, Margaret A. Miller, Marie Ponts, Eloise Sanders, Mae and Betty Anderson presented an original stunt and thus concluded the program.

Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

ABSENCE RECORDS

A record of excused and unexcused absences is to be kept on file in the registrar's office from now on. The professors now fill out individual blanks for each student's absences. These are turned in to the registrar's office where they are filed for reference at the end of the semester. It is important that students fill out excuse blanks if the absences are not to count as "unexcused." All work missed should be made up with the instructors.

Puget Sound Handbook Published in 1916 Much Smaller Than the Present Edition

Perhaps the first handbook that the College ever issued was published by the Associated Students in 1916. It is a little gray booklet, paper-covered, and made up of 20 pages.

This handbook was divided into three departments. The first section gave the constitution of the Associated Students as it had been revised in March, 1916. The second part gave some of the yells of the college and the third part included some of the old songs.

Among the yells are the good old sky-rocket and the locomotive. Then there is one called "Walla Walla West," one "Elec Cozan" and several others. Some are rather amusing.

The songs are better. "There is a School on Puget Sound" is the first one. Then there is one entitled "Oh, C. P. S. Rah Rah." One called "Student Days" is sung to the tune "Heidelberg," another to music chosen from a hymnal. Still another song, "A Fine Old School," is sung to the old tune "My Merry Oldsmobile." There is one written to the Yale Boala tune, and several others to songs that most of the students here now have probably never heard of.

STUDENTS PLEDGE THETA ALPHA PHI

The Washington Alpha Chapter of the Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatic fraternity, has recently announced the pledging of the following people to its membership: Winifred Gynn, Edith Jones, Wilma Zimmerman and Crawford Turnbull.

These students have been very active in dramatics at the College of Puget Sound, and have been instrumental in promoting the drama at Puget Sound.

In order to be eligible for membership in Theta Alpha Phi the student must take certain major or minor parts in plays; or he must take charge of ticket sales, be property manager or stage manager for a certain number of productions.

Since the Washington Alpha Chapter has been chartered at Puget Sound the dramatic department of the College has forged ahead. The only active member on the campus at present is Wendell Brown, but after pledging the new students Theta Alpha will continue to promote the drama and the production of amateur plays.

GAMBILL VISITS TOPPING'S CLASS

Dr. T. J. Gambill, president of the College of Puget Sound alumni association, gave a very interesting talk to Prof. Topping's third-hour sociology class a week ago Friday morning.

Dr. Gambill is the Methodist pastor of the Wilkeson-Buckley parish, and has been doing an extensive work among the miners there. In his talk he discussed some of the problems with which he is confronted in his work, and some of the results which he has been able to accomplish there.

LIGHT OPERA

Students may look forward to something new in the way of entertainment. Under the direction of Professors Holcomb and Hanscom a light opera will be presented in the near future. Further plans will be announced later.

VOICE CLASS ORGANIZED

A new class in voice training under Prof. Holcomb has been organized. The work includes exercises in breathing, tone production, enunciation, interpretation, and platform work. This class offers a splendid opportunity for training along this line. It meets every Wednesday at 12:05.

Down The Trail With Our Alumni

James E. Milligan, '08, is pastor of Queen Anne M. E. Church in Seattle.

R. E. Cook, '07, is principal of Lincoln High School in Tacoma.

Professor Samuel Dupertius, '14, is professor of French in Boston University.

Dr. W. O. Pfbaum, '09, is director of Iquiqui Boys' School under the Board of Foreign Missions, in Iquiqui, Chile.

Arthur L. Marsh, '08, who used to be Dean Marsh, is Executive Secretary of the Washington Educational Association, editor of the Washington Educational Journal and president of the National Association of various states of the Union.

Reverend Roy L. Sprague, '21, is Field Secretary of the College of Puget Sound and Secretary-Treasurer of the alumni association.

Mr. George F. Johnson, 1900, is conducting a music business under the name of G. F. Johnson Piano Co., Portland, Oregon, and elsewhere.

Rev. George Arney, '98, of Pasadena, California. Arney is a retired Methodist minister, a member of the Puget Sound Conference. Health compels him to reside in California, but he retains a very active interest in the affairs of the Alumni Association.

Rev. A. J. McNemie, '94, Langley, Washington. McNemie, known as "Brother Mack," is one of the pioneer preachers of Puget Sound. He is now retired and is enjoying a well earned rest. He has published a little book called "Brother Mack" telling of his life work.

AMPHIC ENJOYS PHILO PROGRAM

Several members of Philomathean, led by their president and secretary, gave a "Collegiate" exchange program before the Amphictyon Literary Society last Monday night.

Robert Johnson impersonated, "Gulliver traveling to 'C. P. S.'" Helen Ohlsen carried out the Collegiate atmosphere with "College Notes," a piano solo.

Douglas Tilton, Frank Rostedt, and Robert Leatherwood proved a clarinet trio that, "Music Hath Charms."

"Literary societies past and present," were described by Mildred Martin, Dorothy Leatherwood presented some gossip about "Our Faculty." Evalyn Miller in an impromptu told about "Old College Days." Winifred Gynn proved that "The Woman has the last word." "If You Are One of the Kind That's Discouraged," was sung by the entire society.

VIOLET CLIFF HOSTESS TO GAMMA SISTERS

Violet Cliff was hostess last Wednesday afternoon to sorority sisters of Delta Alpha Gamma at her home on North 26th Street.

During the social hour musical numbers by Lois Huston and readings by Pauline Voelker were given and refreshments served by the hostess.

A business meeting concluded the afternoon.

LAMBDA SIGMA CHI ENJOYS POT LUCK MEETING

Lambda Sigma Chi members and pledges were entertained at Josephine Day's home in Puyallup last Wednesday afternoon.

A "Pot Luck Supper" and a "Pot Luck Program" were the features of the meeting.

THANKSGIVING IS THEME FOR Y. W.

Evalyn Miller Leads Discussion in Very Impressive Service

Thanksgiving was the theme of the Y. W. C. A. meeting held Tuesday morning in the little chapel. Evalyn Miller led the service in a charming manner, bringing out especially the simple blessings of everyday life for which thank should be offered. The quietness and sincerity of the service were very impressive.

Miss Dorothy Magee sang Thanksgiving hymn as a special number, accompanied by Miss Bernice Sprinkle.

BADGER DEFEATS LOGGER MACHINE IN SEA OF MUD

Heavy Pacific Squad Slides Through Mud to Win Over Puget Sound 15-0

Defeat Puts College in Second Place in Conference; Idaho Champions

Jupiter Pluvius and the weather man conspired against the College of Puget Sound to deprive them of a tie with the College of Idaho for first place in conference standings. The game with Pacific University was played in a sea of mud and in a downpour of rain that only let up between halves and the Loggers lost 15-0. In spite of this, the Puget Sound line, supposed to be decidedly inferior to the Badger's forward wall, performed better than ever before and thoroughly stopped the Pacific line-plunging attack. The Badger gains were made on end runs which worked infrequently and the Loggers tallied seven first downs to the opponents five.

Although outpacing their opponents, it was the failure of the overhead attack that lost the game for the Loggers. The field, slushy and soggy, was too slow to allow the ends and backs to get down to Frank Wilson's almost perfect passes. If a pass did come within reaching distance the ball generally was too slippery to hang on to. However Puget Sound completed five passes.

The Pacific scores were all made in the last quarter. The first came when one of Dave Ferguson's punts was blocked and recovered in front of the goal posts. Hoag place kicked for three points. A few minutes later a Pacific man intercepted a Maroon pass and raced 25 yards for a touchdown. The last score came when a Badger slipped over on an end run following the intercepting of a pass on the 15-yard line.

Place Kick Attempted

The real Puget Sound offensive started in the third quarter, when Gillihan returned a Pacific punt to the 22-yard line. Tatum plunged the line for two and Onie for three yards. A pass gave four and "Red" filtered through the line for first down. Tatum then plunged off-tackle for six yards followed by a rush through center for three. Tatum was then held and the Loggers passed for their first down. "Red" then dented the line for one yard and Wilson gained another on an off-tackle smash. The ball was on the 25-yard line and an off-side penalty gave the Loggers another

LOGGERS PLAN HEAVY SEASON FOR FOOTBALL

Tentative Schedule Calls for Five Conference Games

By Tom Dodgson

The Puget Sound football schedule next year will be one of the heaviest in years, if the tentative program outlined by Prof. Robbins, Coach Hubbard and Prof. McMillin is passed by the representatives of the Northwest Conference, meeting in Portland Friday, December 3.

Only two games are assured up to date and these are the Puget Sound-W. S. C. game at Pullman, September 24; and the University of Washington mix October 8, at Tacoma. The tentative schedule follows:

University of Washington at Tacoma.
W. S. C. at Pullman.
Whitman at Tacoma.
Pacific at Forest Grove.
Willamette at Tacoma.
Linfield at Portland.
College of Idaho at Caldwell.

This meeting of the college representatives will probably make out the baseball, basketball, track and tennis program as well as billing next year's football games. The conference track meet is billed for Tacoma this spring, but there is said to be opposition to having the meet held here. The Puget Sound men will have their hands full fighting to keep the arrangement intact.

Each school is allowed one voting representative. The Maroon and White man having the vote is Professor Robbins. Dean Erickson will watch over Willamette's interest. Dean Davis from Whitman and Mr. Hopkins from Pacific will act on behalf of their respective schools.

first down. A place kick failed and the Loggers' only serious threat was ended.

Tatum, although handicapped by the mud finally got away for 25 yards on the last play of the day. "Red" had played one of his best games to average over four yards every time he took the ball. Dave Ferguson performed in a stellar fashion and out-punted the Pacific kicker.

Badgers Play Fine Game

The Badgers displayed a fine outfit that played good football. They were fighting from the word go and deserved the breaks they got.

The game ended the Northwest Conference season for the College of Puget Sound. It was one of the most successful in her history and one that reflected glory on the new coach "Cac" Hubbard. The final standings saw the College of Puget Sound in second place in standings and prospects for next season look bright for a conference championship.

COLLEGE Y. M. TO ORGANIZE TEAM FOR BASKETBALL

At a meeting of the "YM" cabinet Tuesday morning plans were made providing for the entrance of a college Y. M. C. A. basketball team into the city "Y" league.

There is enough material at the college to insure a winner and that is the aim of the association. It will be good advertising for the school and will give more men an opportunity to play organized ball. All "Y" men are eligible except those who are on the varsity squad.

Deputations Working

There are two deputation teams organized and doing effective work. Lorin Lindstrom, chairman of deputation, made the report. He is anxious to get the names of churches desiring this service.

The cabinet nominated four men to be the "Y" candidate to the C. C. A. convention.

COLLEGE VISITED BY LIONS CLUB

In order that the Lions Club of Tacoma may become better acquainted with the College of Puget Sound and its activities, that organization was shown the college buildings yesterday morning and later had lunch in the commons. The meeting was arranged by Mr. Beidelman of the faculty.

During lunch period speeches were made by Dr. Todd, Dean Lemon, Coach Hubbard and Harold Huseby, who spoke on various phases of college life.

POSITIONS ARE EARNED; NOT GIVEN

Business men complain that many young men seeking to enter the realms of finance and commerce upon completion of college courses feel that only executive positions of the higher order are worthy of their talents. This is unfortunate, particularly for such young men themselves. Higher education is estimable, but often the office boy in a business enterprise has more practical knowledge of value in that particular business than has the college graduate. The possibilities of ultimate attainment are greater for the college man because he has an asset in education, which broadens, and he can obtain the knowledge of the particular business he enters that will make him worth while to it. But he should be well grounded in it. That means starting at the bottom and proving his metal. Business wants producers, not figureheads. The man who can produce, and that means sell, bring in the dollars, is the man who ordinarily is slated for advancement. And a college education helps—From the Northwest Banker Investor.

WOMEN'S HOOP TEAMS NOW IN CLASS CONTESTS

Good Material Here This Year; Form Four Teams; Upper Classmen Lead

The competition and enthusiasm for women's sports is greater this year than ever before owing to the fact that a large number of good basketball players entered Puget Sound this year from various high schools. Four teams have been chosen and each team is to play all of the other three. Three games have been played.

Rose Phelan's freshman team played Alice Gartrell's upper class team. The sextettes were well matched and the score was 21 to 16 in favor of the upper classmen.

The second game played off the same day was a battle between Evelyn Bjorkman's Wildcats and Fritzie Goff's Lions. The game resulted in a score of 15 to 8 in favor of the upper classmen. The third game between the two freshman teams was won by Evelyn Bjorkman's team with a score of 36 to 10.

The upper class teams are: Alice Gartrell and Ruth Fadness centers, Evelyn Miller and Florence Bronson guards, and Genevieve Stowe and Helen Jensen forwards; "Goose" Phillips and Gertrude Hess centers. "Leo" Bloomquist and Fritzie Goff, forwards, and Elva Belfoy and Mildred Martin guards. Dorothy Pollock substituted for Mildred Martin.

The freshman class teams are: Evelyn Bjorkman and Teresa Maruca centers, Margaret Allean and Martha Hawksworth forwards, and Kappy Reese and Peggy Campbell guards. Margaret Swanson substituted for Peggy Campbell in the third game; Rose Pheland and Betty Pugh centers, Marjorie Welch and Evelyn Simon forwards, and Marian Cleveland guards. Madge Miller substituted for Marian Cleveland.

There are three more games to be played off. The basketball season for the women will come to an end next week but volley ball will follow close after it.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN SCHEDULED FOR WEDNESDAY

Twenty Men Take Part in First Race of the Year; Two More Runs in January

Purposes Of Races Is to Find Track Material; Course to Be Same as Last Year

The second season of cross country running in the College of Puget Sound will be inaugurated Wednesday Dec. 8 at 3:30 when approximately twenty runners from the four classes trot down the road in the first race of the year.

Two other runs are planned, one to occur in the middle of January and the other in the last of that month. It is hoped by these races to bring out any dormant track material that there may be in the college and also condition the men for the early meet with British Columbia.

The course will be the same as last year, going from the gym west to Stevens street where it turns to the right for three blocks. From that point the runners may take any course home that they want but must finish the race with a lap around the track.

Last year the innovation, for such it was then, worked out very well. Several men were discovered through its means and the meet with British Columbia, held in March, was lost by the narrow margin of the relay.

Those who have signed up for the first hill and dale effort are: Freshmen: Randall, Peers Smith, Docken, Wallace, Rumball, Le Penkse, Coplan, Post, Anderson, Marcy, Pollock, Rush, Nicholas, Hotchkin, Henry; Sophomores: Van Patter, Booth, Thorn, Norton, Caruthers, Bankhead, Tupper, Hedges, Gysen, Brown; Juniors: Sharp, Johnson, Pugh, Brown, Hendel, Manning, Nordstrum, and Larson; Seniors: Mort Johnson, Lung, Sleep, Miller.

PAUL REAGOR IS CHAPEL SPEAKER

That success is of two kinds, material and genuine, and that the genuine kind is big enough to satisfy the needs of a man's soul was the statement made by Paul Reagor, pastor of the First Christian Church, in chapel Wednesday. Mr. Reagor went on to state that many of the men whom the world considers successful are in reality failures, while many so-called failures are really successes.

Mark White, who attended Puget Sound last year as a sophomore, is now working on his fruit ranch near Yakima. Mr. White was enrolled at Ellensburg during the summer session, but the work on his ranch is keeping him busy at present.

GOOD SUPPORT

In spite of the drizzling rain a fine crowd of Tacoma townspeople helped the students of Puget Sound support the Loggers in the game with Pacific, on Saturday, November 20.

Furthermore, the three leading newspapers of the city gave the college splendid publicity concerning the game. This is also true concerning all the other games played so far this season.

The firm of Brown & Haley, candy makers, bought nearly sixty tickets to the Pacific game, in order that all of their employees might attend. No better spirit could be asked than this, and perhaps more concerns will consider doing the same next year. If a few more firms in the city would do this it would add materially to the attendance at the games, especially if season tickets could be bought.

These are instances of the splendid support which the city of Tacoma has given the college this year. Others might be mentioned, such as the various business men's clubs and other organizations in the city and the firms who advertise in the college's publications. This support from the people of Tacoma is increasing each year, as the College of Puget Sound grows in size and importance. They are realizing that the college is not only an important factor in education in the Northwest but is a great asset to the community.

But the year is not yet over by any means. The basketball season is just beginning and baseball is yet to be played, track meets will be held, besides events in other college activities such as debate and dramatics. These latter activities are worthy of just as much backing as is football and also promise to be successful. With a continuation of the fine support given thus far this year the outlook for the rest of the season is promising.

HERE'S HOPING

The pep rally and parade Friday night before the game with Pacific was fairly well attended, but some of the students did not attend in the right way.

Instead of marching around in the serpentine with the rest of the loyal Puget Sound students and yelling themselves hoarse, they showed their school spirit by remaining comfortably seated in their motor cars, driving around and casually looking on as if they were merely disinterested spectators.

Perhaps this criticism is unjust. It was a chilly night, and one is apt to catch cold, chasing around the streets and becoming overheated and then cooling off rapidly in the cool November atmosphere. Besides, these rowdy serpentine are rather hard on one's wearing apparel, especially when one is all dressed up to enjoy an evening at Ingleside. Furthermore, one must never let college affairs interfere with one's social engagements.

Yes, of course this was not a lack of so-called school spirit, but merely an exaggerated precaution. That is a much nicer way to look at it. No doubt if the weather is warmer this time next year, and the serpentine is not too silly and there is no attraction at Ingleside, and we are not ashamed of our College—then every member of the student body will take part in the parade. Won't that be nice?

FRIENDS

Friendship is one of God's greatest gifts to man. To have a friend is to have one of the best things that life can bring; to be a friend is to have a solemn and tender education of the soul from day to day. It costs to be a friend or to have a friend. It costs in time, affection, strength, patience, love, sometimes a man must lay down his life for his friends.

No other place on earth is so well fitted for making lasting friendships as is a college. Any person who goes through college without making, cementing, and fortifying friendships, has lost one of the big things in college life.

How important a matter is the choosing of friends! True friendship must be founded upon respect. If you want the best friends, do the things and be the kind of a man that the best men respect.

"Those friends thou hast and their adoption tried, Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel." Prove friendship. Help your friends to be worthy of positions of influence and honor—whether they occupy the positions or not is a minor matter.

Look upon their lives in the light of their possibilities as well as their actualities.

The highest friendship can exist only in the unselfish heart. The greatest and most wonderful example of friendship is Jesus Christ, the Great Friend.

U. C. S. B. TEAMS WILL BE KNOWN AS BRUINS

Last year considerable controversy was held between the associated student bodies of the Southern Branch and Montana over the question of names for their respective teams. The name "Grizzlies," which has always applied to University of Montana athletic teams, was assumed by the Californians, and vigorous objection took place on the part of students and fans of Montana.

To meet this difficulty, the executive committee of the associated student body of the University of California, Southern Branch, suggested the name of "Bruins" for the southern athletes. Its acceptance has given the Montana athletes the sole right to the name of "Grizzlies," and the University of Southern Californians have become "Bruins."

ALUMNI HOTELS

Through the Intercollegiate Movement, of which 80 college alumni bodies are participants, 33 hotels in the principal cities over the country have been designated as Intercollegiate Alumni Hotels.

At each hotel belonging to the association, the traveler will find a card index of the graduates of each college who are living in that city. Possibly he will meet other nomadic alumni willing to swap stories about the dear old Alma Mater. And if he finds no congenial graduate willing to take in the show around the corner or discuss football scores he may, at least, spend the evening reading the latest number of his college paper, conveniently placed on file at the hotel.

YELL CLASSES AT O. A. C.

An amendment to the constitution of the associated students of Oregon Agricultural College, providing for classes, for yell leaders has been presented. Each year all sophomores will have an opportunity to attend the classes given by the incumbent yell leaders. They will have opportunity to try out before the student body at various events and the squad shall be cut to six of the best men. That group

2 LOGGERS NOW AT U. OF OREGON

Johnson and Erickson Enroll in Medical School

News that Fordyce Johnson and Arthur Erickson, former students here, have entered the University of Oregon medical college and have made an excellent start, was received in a letter to Preston Wright from Everett Buckley, former president of the A. S. C. P. S. and Logger athlete and now an upper classman in the Oregon medical college.

The letter read, in part: "Knew the folks up around school would be interested in knowing about how Fordyce Johnson and Art Erickson are getting on down here. They both are making an excellent start and have pledged Nu Sigma Nu Medical Fraternity and are living at the Nu Sigma Nu House."

Fordyce Johnson was a member of the Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity here and last year was business manager of the Puget Sound Trail. Art Erickson graduated from Puget Sound in 1925. He was a member of the Sigma Mu Chi fraternity here and was active in the Science Club. Everett Buckley, in his undergraduate days here, made his letter in football in his first year and played on the first squad in basket ball. His athletic activities came to a sudden halt when he broke his collar bone. He had it operated upon but it was rebroken in a freshman-sophomore scrap. The injury has kept him out of any further team sports. Everett Buckley was yell king in 1922-23 and student body president in 1923-24. He was also president of Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity.

MISS BECHAUD ATTENDS "U"
Mr. Arnold Warren, '13, is connected with the sugar industry in the Philippines, where he has rendered conspicuous service to the industrial world.

Miss Marilou Bechaud, a junior at the college last year, is attending the University this year. Miss Bechaud was very prominent in dramatics here, and last spring was elected to the office of Dramatic Manager.

will then be voted upon at the student body elections in May.

RACE OF MOUSTACHES

Students of Occidental College, in Los Angeles, are staging a unique "moustach" contest.

All participants in the contest fall into one of the three main divisions which have been decided upon to further a spirit of competition. The three winners in Class A will be picked by a group of coeds for the best-looking moustache of any description. The winners of Class B will be chosen for the most massive moustache; that is, for the longest. The winners of Class C will be chosen by certain faculty members for the most novel or unique moustache.

Prizes for the contest have been donated by three of the leading men's furnishing firms in Los Angeles.

A booby prize will also be donated to the person who, in the eyes of the judges, has shown the least progress of any.

WALTER CAMP MEMORIAL

Friends, admirers, universities, colleges and schools of the United States are gathering funds for a Walter Camp memorial. It will stand in the midst of the Yale Athletic fields, and will take the form of a monumental gateway, with enclosures, designed by John W. Cross of Yale.

It was on Yale athletic field that Walter Camp laid the foundation of his national fame. He is a well known figure to all United States football followers and has well earned his title of "Father of American Football."

The cost of the memorial has been estimated at approximately $300,000. Of this amount, the committee of the National Collegiate Athletic association, on behalf of universities, colleges and schools other than Yale, has undertaken to raise one-half. The Yale committee is asking Yale men to contribute the other half.

Man-power

Four millions of the best man-power of Europe perished in the Napoleonic conquests. Military conquest is non-creative, while industry is always creative.

In the last ten years one American manufacturer—the General Electric Company—has created machines having a man-power forty times as great as that of all the lives lost in the Napoleonic wars.

In the years to come, when the college men and women of today are at the helm of industry and of the home, it will be realized more and more that human energy is too valuable to be wasted where electricity can do the work better at lower cost.

The laboratories and shops of industry are the sources of many of the enduring attainments of our times. In the General Electric organization is an army of 75,000 persons, co-operating to make electricity do more and better work for humanity.

A series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-18.
