MEN'S GLEE CLUB SCHEDULES TEN APPEARANCES FOR COMMING SEASON

Nine Outside Programs and Home Concert Will Be Included

IS BIG SCHEDULE

Vocal and Instrumental Quartet, Play and Features On Program

By Maurice Farmer
Ten dates will be included in the final schedule for the Men's Glee Club of the college. Plans which have just been completed call for appearances at Ashford on February 7; Mineral, February 8; Morton, February 9; Randle, February 10; Napavine, February 11; Chehalis, February 12; Sumner, February 25; Elma, April 15; and Hoquiam, April 16. The home concert will be given here March 23.

This is a much heavier schedule than the club has ever embarked upon before. Last year, the first in which any trips were made, only three regular programs were given outside the city, with four full concerts in all.

A new feature has been added in the instrumental quartet made up of four members of the club, Earl Helander and Lloyd Hague playing trumpets, Don Searing, trombone, and Franklin Johnson, violin, is the personal of the quartet. They will play an important part of the program.

A one-act comedy written by Wendell Brown is to be given. The cast will be as follows: Spike, Walt Anderson; Jim—Earl Helander; The Dean of Men—Don Searing; Cutie—Leo Durkee; Joe—Wendell Brown.

It is a college play combining the wit and realism of college life to make a very interesting comedy. The male quartet composed of Earl Helander, first tenor; Jack Naess, second tenor; Paul Luns, baritone; and Preston Wright, bass, will appear several times in the program.

DISCUSSION IS PROGRAM AT Y

Various Matters Considered by Local Y. W. C. A.

The treasurer reported that finances were low at present, because of the steady drain while no money comes in, except through special drives. Some of the heaviest expenses are the national dues, outside speakers, upkeep of the Y. room, and the cost of social functions.

Those who plan the weekly programs pointed out the difficulty of securing good material. The questionnaires used in Chapel expressed a general desire for more outside speakers.

Service Committee Reports

The service committee has three girls with classes at the Community House. Programs are presented at local institutions. At present the greatest need is for leaders of Girl Scouts and Girl Reserves.

The Y. W. C. A. is planning to pay the expenses of twelve girls for a week at Seabeck. Last year sixteen girls spent an entire week at camp and many others were there

MRS. TODD HURT

Reports Thursday evening stated that Mrs. Edward H. Todd, who was badly injured in a fall Tuesday afternoon, was resting better.

Mrs. Todd was hurt when she fell from the top step of the basement stairs in her home at 1604 North Alder Street. Three ribs were broken and she was severely bruised, but as yet the full extent of her injuries has not been determined.

FROSH DEBATE TEAM TO MEET TWO COLLEGES

VARSITY SQUAD WORKING

Women's Varsity Meets U.B.C. Feb. 3; Men's Teams Are Selected

Debates with the Universities of Washington and British Columbia for the freshman and women's teams respectively, are the only two forensic contests definite scheduled for the College in the near future.

The freshman meet, arranged for Jan. 18, will consider the right of cities to sell power outside their corporate limits. It has not yet been definitely settled as to which team will travel. The affirmative, as arranged at present, consists of Bob Johnson, Albert King and Marshall McCormick; the negative, John Rademaker, Lloyd Dymant and William Law. Three of these freshmen are also on the varsity squad.

The women's debate is scheduled for Feb. 3, but is on another question, one somewhat different in character from those which have been argued here so far: "Resolved, that Mussolini has evolved the best form of government."

Martha Haworth and Lillian Burkland will travel to Vancouver, while Signe Johnson and Margaret Haley will meet the Canadians here.

Varsity Squad Busy

The varsity squad has already begun work on their new subject of foreign intervention in China. Coach Holcomb has divided up the work of collecting material between the six members of the squad to prevent duplication of effort. Tentative teams have also been arranged as follows: First, Franklin Manning, Torrey Smith and Marshall McCormick (alternate); second, Elverton Stark, John Rademaker and Albert King (alternate).

ART PLAYERS IN BARRIE PLAY AT LEE AUDITORIUM

"What Every Woman Knows" To Be Given This Evening by Dramatists

The Radford Art Players, of the Radford Drama School will present Sir J. M. Barrie's play, "What Every Woman Knows," at the Jason Lee Auditorium.

The Radford Players are a repertory group interested in the presentation of the very best drama. In their future work they hope to attain the standard of such groups as the Moroni Olsen Players.

"Disraeli" was given earlier in the season. So popular was the play that it was repeated twice. It was also given by the Radford Players at Bellingham Normal.

Wednesday in chapel, two members of the group, Miss Margaret Phillips and Mr. Ingwald Hennesberg, gave a program to advertise the play. Miss Phillips told of the development of the dramatic group, and about the play, "What Every Woman Knows." The four-act comedy is regarded as "Barrie at his best," and differs from the usual English drama in that it deals not with the nobility, but concerns the middle class type. The play is guaranteed to produce

EXAMINATIONS

By Dean Allan C. Lemon

Examination time is a feverish time, especially if the preparation during the semester has not been regular and consistent. There are three things to consider in preparing for and writing examinations: 1. Organization and review of the subject-matter, 2. Keeping in good physical condition during the examination period and 3. Writing the examination.

In the preparation of the subject-matter it is well to make a systematic outline of the semester's work. Get a bird's-eye-view of the subject. Dr. May says, "The worm's-eye-view is dangerous in an examination." It is also helpful to make a list of questions on the work of the semester and to seek answers to these.

To keep in the best physical condition, avoid physical fatigue, avoid drugs or stimulants, eat sparingly, get outdoor exercise, and don't worry.

Before writing the examination one should be sure he knows the nature of the examination and also what the instructor desires.

The technique of writing the examination should include the following points:

1. Read all questions before starting to write.
2. Apportion the time for each question.
3. Answer the easiest questions first.
4. Have each question clearly in mind.
5. Have the paper neat and well written.
6. Do not try wit or sarcasm.
7. Do not "bluff" or pad the paper.
8. A partial answer is better than none.
9. Jot down ideas on questions other than the one you are answering whenever they occur to you.
10. Keep writing, do not dream or hesitate.

DR. E. S. MEANY GIVES COLLEGE SET OF BOOKS

Collection Includes History of Pacific Northwest; Set Is Valuable

By Tamsan Snyder

Dr. Edmond S. Meany, Prof. of History at the University of Washington, has given the College of Puget Sound library a complete set of his historical productions. The collection does not include Dr. Meany's History of the State of Washington, since the Puget Sound library already has a copy of this work.

The set of books is valuable because they all deal with the history of the Pacific Northwest, and several of these publications are even now difficult to obtain. The library was particularly fortunate to receive a practically complete set of the publications of the Washington Historical Society Bulletin, from 1907 to date, of which Dr. Meany is the editor.

The books which Dr. Meany presented to the library are: Vancouver's Discovery of Puget Sound; Origin of Washington Geographic Names; Our Constitutions, National and State; Mount Rainier, (A Record of Explorations); Mountain Camp Fires (Poems); Governors of Washington; Newspapers of Washington Territory, (Reprinted from Washington, Historical Quarterly for the School of Journalism of the University of Washington); Prophecy Fulfilled—(Address before the Tulalip Indians December 21, 1920).

WILL ERECT NEW TACOMA COLLEGE

Catholics Plan to Build in Vicinity of Puget Sound

Students of Puget Sound were interested to learn of the contemplated establishment of another college in Tacoma. The announcement comes from the Rev. Father McAstocker of St. Leo's parish. Twenty acres have been purchased in the vicinity of Puget Sound, at South 23rd and Union Ave.

It is planned to start with a high school and gradually erect buildings for a college, which shall be known by the name of Bellarmine College. The institution will embrace polytechnic subjects as well as liberal arts.

The founding of this college marks another step in establishing Tacoma as a center of education. Puget Sound will benefit indirectly by the increase in educational prestige of the city.

DR. WHEELER TO TAKE CLASSES OF SEN. DAVIS

Local Pastor Conducts Classes During Legislative Session

Dr. Edgar C. Wheeler, well-known Tacoma pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational Church has taken over Senator Davis' classes in history and political science at the College of Puget Sound for the sixty days that the Senator will attend the State Legislature.

The Wheeler family are pioneers of Tacoma, having lived here for 37 years and it was Dr. Wheeler's father who founded the Wheeler-Osgood Company in 1889.

Dr. Wheeler went east to College and received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Beloit College, Wisconsin, where he graduated in 1893. In 1893 he received his bachelor of divinity degree from Yale University and was given his doctor's degree by the College of Puget Sound in 1920.

From 1909 until 1915, Doctor Wheeler held the pastorate of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, then for seven years he gave up this position. In 1922 he again took up the pastorate, which he holds at present.

PEP RALLY HELD FOR BASKETBALL

Coach Hubbard Introduces Team to Student Body

An enthusiastic demonstration of cheering was given in the PEP rally in the student assembly Thursday morning, in preparation for the coming games with Whitman scheduled for tonight and tomorrow night.

Coach "Cac" Hubbard talked to the students on boosting the College of Puget Sound and its activities. He emphasized the fact that more boosting will result in a "bigger and better year" for Puget Sound. He said that the students should take a more aggressive attitude in their support of the College. The enthusiasm of the attitude of the community, especially in regard to athletics.

The new Johnson Cox Inspirational Trophy, which was presented at the All City Football Banquet at Amos Booth, was displayed before the student body.

The men of the basket ball squad were introduced and a number of yells were given.

Van Spencer McKinny gave a detailed announcement of the Freshman Jinx which will follow the Whitman game Saturday night.

CLASH MARKS FIRST CONFERENCE GAME AT COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND

WHITMAN COLLEGE SENDS ATHLETIC TEAM TO TACOMA FOR FIRST TIME

Visitors Have a Better Pre-Season Record Than Puget Sound But Loggers Have Improved Lately

By Minard Fassett Sports Editor

In the first conference contest of the season for the College of Puget Sound the Logger hoop five meets the Whitman quintet tonight and tomorrow night in the Collebe gym. Both contests are called for 8 o'clock but this evening at preliminary fray.

These games mark the first time that a Whitman athletic team has engaged the College of Puget Sound in Tacoma. The odds are on Whitman as a result of a very creditable pre-season record, but the Logger teams are noted for spilling the dope and the local school may record a victory in one or both of these contests.

ANNUAL GLEE TAKES PLACE NEXT MARCH

PUGET SOUND TRADITION

Is Combined With Oratorical Contest; Open To All

The combined Annual Glee and Oratorical Contest will be held the second Friday of Next March. These contests have long been traditional at Puget Sound. At this time, each class presents a song, original in both words and music. The numbers of the class winning the contest are placed on the Annual Glee Pennant. The songs composed for these contests have become a part of the group of Puget Sound college songs that are sung on special occasions.

Contestants in the oratory composition must write a twelve hundred word oration which must be submitted to a faculty committee. Six of the best papers turned by the students are given in an open forum by the respective candidates before a set of outside judges who shall judge on delivery only. There is a large prize awarded by Attorney Burmeister to the first and second best orations.

Contest Open To All

Any student who is interested in oratory may compete, as the contest is open to all regular students of the College. Prof. Holcomb is willing to explain the contest to any student who cares to write a paper.

Arthur Allsworth and Ruth Dively won first and second places respectively last year. Mr. Allsworth wrote on the Economic Phase of Progress" and Miss Dively spoke on "The Upper Room."

PRESIDENT TODD SOON TO RETURN FROM THE EAST

Will Speak at Inauguration at Kimball School of Theology at Salem

President Edward H. Todd of the College of Puget Sound will return to Tacoma, January 19, from the East, where he has been since the first of the year.

Before arriving in Tacoma, President Todd will stop at Salem, Oregon, to be present at the inauguration of Dr. John M. Canse, the new president of the Kimball School of Theology. Dr. Hicks, lately the head of the school, has accepted the pastorate of a Methodist church in the East.

President Todd will be in Salem as a representative of the College and also of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He will deliver one of the principal addresses.

MISS VAN DEN STEEN SINGS

Wilhelmina Van den Steen assisted on the program for a tea given by the women of the First Congregational Church Wednesday afternoon. She was accompanied on the piano by Grace Van Vechter.

Whitman Is Strong

The visitors last year held an undisputed claim to the conference title and this year they have beaten Gonzago, Montana and the College of Idaho. Their battle with the University was close and those who saw the meeting say that the Husky was extremely fortunate to pull out with a win.

The Logger pre-season record is not so impressive. Two practice games have been lost, one to Stadium High School and the other to the Cluquot Club five. The high spots of the early games were those with the Elks and with the Teamster cage squad. The college of defense, which has not been working to perfection has improved in later games and perhaps a real opponent will bring the desired co-ordination.

Logger Defense Weak

The Maroon and White attack has been built around the ability of Frank Wilson, all-northwest forward, and if going right should prove a winner. The defense is the weak spot and the Loggers' hope seems to be to outscore their opponents rather than to try to hold them down.

The five who will start has not been announced but it is certain that Frank Wilson will jump center. The forwards will be picked from Gilhan, Swan, Smith and McKenny. Hannus and Samuelson seem to be the first choice at guards.

The Whitman lineup will have Woods and Beck at forwards, Holmgren, center, and Buck Neilson guards.

"IF WISHES WERE HORSES" IS THETA PROGRAM

"If wishes were horses, then beggars would ride" was perhaps the Himerick which entered the minds of the program committee of Kappa Sigma Theta when they prepared last Wednesday's program.

"Wishes" was the subject and several wishes and lucky signs were brought to the attention of members and pledges.

Nadine Purkey told the story of "The Wishing Stone." "Alladin's Lamp," the ever popular mysterious child's tale was related by Ruth Eyer and "The Lucky Horse-shoe" was given by Florence Bronson.

The story of "The Magic Cloak" that will allow one to do what he desires without being seen was told by Edith Jones, and Dorothy Leatherwood next was heard in her topic, "If Wishes Were Horses."

The program was concluded by Vivian Krusner who made "A Theta's Wish."

'CLOSED PERIOD' STARTS NEXT MONDAY

"Closed Period" is arriving next Monday on the Puget Sound campus. This event is known and appreciated by all the old students of the college and will soon be known and appreciated by freshmen and new students. The purpose is to give students time to prepare for the semester examinations, scheduled for Jan. 26 to 28.

The closed period includes the week of final examinations and also the week preceding. At this time no special activities and no society meetings will be held. This is the time when everyone "digs in" and learns what they should have learned during the semester.

The closed period applies to meetings of literary societies, fraternities, sororities, and orchestra rehearsals and any other activities of this nature.

SOCIETY INSTALLS ALTRURIAN HEADS

Elmer Austin Now President and Ward, Vice President

The newly elected officers who will conduct the affairs of the Altrurian Society for the next term were installed last Monday night by the retiring president, George Ward. The new officers are:

President, Elmer Austin; vice president, George Ward; secretary, Signe Johnson; treasurer, Inezetta Feroglia; corresponding secretary, Edna Knappe; sergeant-at-arms, Harold Nutley; chaplain, Ruth Monroe.

Before the installation a program was given centering around "The Seven Wonders of the Medieval World," a continuation of the preceding meeting.

The first number, given by Esther Rarcy, was "The Colosseum at Rome." Marshall McCormick discussed the "Chinese Wall," and Mrs. Ruth Bethed gave a realistic description of the "Catacombs at Alexandria."

Mary Van Sickle sang a solo, "Sittin' and Thinkin'." Leonard Farsvedt discussed "The Leaning Tower of Pisa," and De Los Wesley described "The Porcelain Tower of Nankin." George Firth pictured the beauties of the "Mosque of St. Sophia in Constantinople," and Mae Anderson concluded the program with a description of Stonehenge.

LITERARY SOCIETY DISCUSSES PAST

All the past activities of the Philomathean Literary Society were discussed at the society's regular meeting last Monday night.

Frank Rostedt's orchestra opened the meeting with several selections of popular music. "The Historian Book," by Marian Gynn described the past activities of Philomathean. Mary Glenn in "The Program Book" revived the society's past programs. Sam Pugh told of past "Initiation Stuff." Jennie Dougan read, "Miscellaneous" letters from old members of Philomathean.

Torrey Smith presented a clever skit entitled, "Viewing the Remains." Helen Ohlson and Lois Berringer supplied the music for the "funeral." "We are the Philomatheans all," sung by the members, concluded the program.

AMPHICTYON HAS MYTH PROGRAM

Last Monday evening members of the Amphictyon Literary Society were entertained by an interesting program on old Grecian and Roman mythology. One of the outstanding features of the evening was an extempo entitled "The Pipes of Pan." Elverton Stark gave a clever piano interpretation of this subject much to the amusement of his audience.

Other numbers included "Cupid and Psyche" by Martha Hawksworth; "Song of the Sirens," vocal solo, by Lucile Davenport; "The Trojan War," by Josephine Day; "Perseus and Andromeda" by Audrey-Dean Albert; "The Nibelung Lied" by Dorn Brown; "Ballads of Old England" by Grace Link; and "Modern Monsters, of the Adventures of Freddy Fiddlestick" by Albert King.

several days. The College of Puget Sound led the delegation from the smaller schools.

The finance committee manages the various drives for special funds. Cake, pie and popcorn sales were held this year. Money must be raised for the "Friendship Fund," used for the education of foreigners. Exhibit Is Planned

A world-fellowship exhibit is planned for the near future. Many college students are corresponding with foreign students in Japan and Germany.

Usual discussion groups are planned for the second semester. There will be a study group which will use a textbook, a discussion group for freshman and sophomore women only, and a mixed group which will meet in the evenings.

The Y. W. C. A. has already given a bean feed and a mixer. Lack of funds has presented further social events. More mixers and swimming parties are being arranged for next semester.

The deputation workers have rendered a real service to the community. The programs at city churches have been well-received, and lead to greater interest in the college.

MAKES ANNUAL WINTER VISIT

Mr. A. B. Brooke Returns for Seventeenth Time

For the seventeenth consecutive year Mr. Alexander B. Brooke, alumnus of the College of Puget Sound, owner of a fruit ranch near Hood River, Oregon, has returned to continue his studies at the college.

Eighteen years ago Mr. Brooke met two men from the college Y. M. C. A. who were attending a convention at Olympia. He became so interested in their descriptions of their Alma Mater that the following year he made a trip to the college and took several subjects. Since that time, every year when the work on his ranch is least pressing, Mr. Brooke makes this pilgrimage to Puget Sound.

During the rest of the year, Mr. Brooke is busy with business affairs. Besides his ranch, he owns a broom factory, and these two businesses take a great deal of work. However, he finds time to do some studying now and then, and often takes his books apart and carries a few pages around with him to read in odd moments. He also finds time to send boxes of apples and other fruit, as well as some of the products of his broom factory, to Senator Davis, Amphictyon Literary Society (of which he is a member) and to other friends at the college.

Mr. Brooke has specialized in history to a large extent in his studies, but this year is branching out more into other lines of work. His schedule includes philosophy, political science, business law and biology. He plans to remain here until the first of March.

PLEDGES RECEIVE "THIRD DEGREE"

The "Third Degree" initiation of the Philomathean Literary Society is an event to be long remembered by those who participated in it Friday, Jan. 7.

Thirty or more pledges, anxious and frightened, gathered at the home of Miss Mary Glenn. Before leaving Miss Glenn's home each pledge was blindfolded and painted gay colors. Then the members of the society led their pledges into dark alleys; and ditches, up against holly trees and lamp posts, each one chanting as he went along, until the procession reached the Epworth Methodist Church, where the remainder of the initiation was held.

Stunts that will be long remembered continued throughout the evening until every pledge was badly in need of a soft place to lay a tired body.

Refreshments were served and pledges were placed on kitchen duty immediately after initiation.

MATH OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

A simple, impressive installation of officers was carried out Tuesday night for the first time at the monthly meeting of the Mathematical Round Table. Other important business as well as a talk on the fourth dimension completed the program.

During the installation, the retiring president, Inezetta Feroglia, welcomed her successor and assistants and administered the pledge of office. The club hopes to make this ceremony one of its traditions in the future.

After a great deal of argument and various proposals, a pin was finally adopted by the club. It will consist of an ellipse with the letters Mu Alpha Theta engraved on it and a guard in the form of the Greek letter Pi.

A talk on the fourth dimension by the host, Albert King, and a piano number by Evelyn Bjorkman, made up the first part of the program. Mr. King explained some of the more simple properties of the dimension and attempted to give the club members a fair understanding of the much-disputed subject.

ERMA COFFMAN TELLS BETAS OF TRIP EAST

Alpha Beta Upsilon sorority members were entertained and enlightened Wednesday afternoon by an extensive report given by Erma Coffman, one of their members who attended the C. C. A. Convention at Milwaukee during the holidays. The other number on the program was a piano solo by Helen Graham Johnson.

FROSH JINX TO BE HELD SAT.

Professional ballet members from the Venetian Garden and Olympic Hotel in Seattle will be the main feature in the Freshman Jinx given tomorrow night after the Whitman-Puget Sound basket ball game.

The rest of the program will include a skit by Ed Coy, well-known Tacoma, a dancing act by Alice MacLean, a piano solo by Helen Ohlson, and other musical numbers.

This is the first time that the Freshman Class has entertained for the rest of the college and a large attendance is desired. No admission will be charged. Van Spencer McKenny heads the committee arranging the affair.

Meredith Smith, Marie Tromer and Charles Anderson are looking after the publicity end, and the entertainment committee include John Gardener, Evelyn Bjorkman, Dorn Brown, Billie Lathrop and Orville Wiltse.

LAMBDA SIGMA CHI MEET AT MRS. GOULDER'S HOME

Lambda Sigma Chi sorority held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ernest P. Goulder, an alumna, Wednesday afternoon.

The time was spent in an impromptu program consisting of clever speeches, freak debates, piano solos and such, which were arranged by Isabel Rosmond. Following the program, the regular business meeting was held.

SECOND-YEAR MAN IS AGAIN FIRST IN RUN

Juniors Place First In Hill and Dale Event With 117 Points

Breaking his former record by 19 seconds, Yates Van Patter won for the third time the cross-country run Wednesday afternoon. John Sharp, junior, was second, followed closely by Ray Docken, freshman.

The order and time of finishing were: Yates Van Patter, 10:30; John Sharp, 10:37; Ray Docken, 10:39; Frank Pollack, 10:47; Dong Hendel 11:19, George Diehl. The juniors won the meet with 117 points; freshman second, 50 points; sophomores third, 40 points.

No seniors entered the race.

It is hoped that there will be a better turnout for the third cross-country run, to be held February 19. Post, Spencer, and Hedges, who finished second, third, and fourth, respectively, in the first cross-country run this year, were unable to enter the second race, but all expect to run the third.

RESERVE TEAM IN SECOND WIN IN "Y" LEAGUE

FINAL SCORE IS 25 TO 17
Beats Presbyterian Church Five In Fast Game Friday Night

Easily taking their second victory in a week the College of Puget Sound reserve squad won their game in the Y. M. C. A. league with the First Presbyterian church Tuesday night, 25-17. The Logger babes, while not working as well as the week before, were good enough to pull out of the game with little trouble. Seaborn Smith and Al Hotchkins starred for the college squad. Balcom for the church men played a stellar game.

The refereeing did not please all the spectators, but the game was fast and at times very close. The reserves, however, once they got started, were never headed. The score at the end of the first half was 13-8. In the second-period Hotchkins was put in for Ginn and he proceeded to score ten points.

About twenty-five are reporting to Dean Lemon every day now and competition for places on the squad is keen. The reserve aggregation is a success from the standpoint of getting more men to turn out. So far no games have been lost. P. S. Reserves Lineup Frst. Pres. Platt (2) F Thernell Ellinger (2) F (2) Balcom Tatum (7) C (3) I. Smith Smith (3) G Lindstrom Hendel G Green Substitutions: C. P. The College of Puget Sound reserve squad, coached by Dean Lemon meets Buckley High School in the preliminary fray tonight. The third string has been going great guns in the Y. M. C. A. league having won its first two games by large scores. The first combination of Platt, Ellinger, Tatum, Smith and Hendel have been working well together and ought to furnish the prep school boys a real battle.

PUGET SOUND SHOULD MAKE BID FOR SECTIONAL BASKET TOURNEY

Is Opportunity For College To Serve Community And Also To Receive Beneficial Advertising

By Tom Dodgson
The College of Puget Sound, with its new gymnasium and good equipment, should be one of the main bidders this year for the sectional basketball tourney that is held annually as the elimination playoff for the State meet in Seattle.

The Logger gym, one of the best in Tacoma, has ample floor space and seating capacity to handle the crowds that such a tournament would draw. Besides being able to seat the crowds, the school has the shower and locker room accommodations to take care of the visiting players.

College Would Benefit
By holding the meet the College would be the main benefactor of such a program, as many prospective students and athletes would be given a chance to see the school and campus and meet the undergraduate body. The citizens of Tacoma would also benefit by bringing the players and visitors here, but not to such an extent as the College.

The teams playing here would represent quite a section of country, as this district includes King, Pierce and the Peninsular counties.

Business Men Favorable
The idea of Puget Sound trying for this meet has been favorably received by many of the business and professional men of the city. Dan Walton, sporting news editor of the Ledger, in one of his articles says, "The College of Puget Sound should make a bid for this tournament. Other colleges of the state have cooperated with the high schools of the district in staging these meets and the results have been more than satisfactory to all concerned. Washington State College stages a tournament for the high schools in eastern Washington. Ellensburg normal holds a similar meet, and I believe that Bellingham normal does too. The College of Puget Sound should make a determined effort to land the district tournament."

The last sentence of Mr. Walton's article expresses the opinion of the Puget Sound students, and every effort will be made to get the meet for Tacoma and the College of Puget Sound.

VARSITY HOOP SQUAD LOSES TO STADIUM

Loggers Off Form; Are Defeated by Score of 34-33

A decidedly "off form" College of Puget Sound basket ball team bowed in defeat before a very excellent Stadium high school squad last Thursday, 34-33. The collegians couldn't seem to get started and the high school men were dropping them in from anywhere.

Wilson, as usual, starred for the Loggers, but he had to concede equal honors to Frank Gillman who ran up 14 points. Anderson, high point man, starred for Stadium. He rang up 16 markers. The Blue and Gold squad exhibited decided ability to sink their long shots, and were faster than the Loggers.

MAROON SQUAD IS DOWNED BY BANK PLAYERS

FINAL SCORE IS 55 TO 38
Loggers Improve in Second Half; Ginn and Wilson Star

Pouncing upon the Logger second team, the Brotherhood Bank basketball squad ran up 27 points to their opponents' 2 in the second quarter, and earned enough counters to win the game Wednesday night between the bank players and Puget Sound, despite the gallant efforts of the college men in the second half. The final score of the contest was 55 to 38.

Loggers Better in Second Half
The second half marked the first time this season that the Maroon quintet has really found itself. Starting the last half 32 points behind their opponents, the Loggers began dropping in two baskets to the bank team's one, and made the score assume a closer aspect. One of the most satisfactory features of the game was the showing made by Dale Ginn in the last quarter. Ginn, who has not been showing the form that has made him a two-year letterman, came to life and played a stellar game. In one period he rang up 12 markers and played a good floor game.

Frank Wilson, as usual, starred, and while his eye was not on the basket, played a wonderful all-around style of basketball. For the bankers Harris and Swindland starred. Rick Johnson was high point man with 19 counts. Harris' shooting was checked but his floor work left nothing to be desired. He is an expert passer and can pass accurately from any position.

HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATED IN RETURN TILT

Varsity Averages Former Stadium Victory By 25-16 Score

Avenging their defeat of a few days before, the Logger varsity hoop squad took the Stadium High School five into camp to the tune of a 25-16 score last Saturday. The college, while showing improvement was not what it should have been. The high school did not sink them as they had done before and the end of the game saw them on the short end of the score.

Frank Wilson was high point man, with 11 points. Anderson totaled the most for the Stadium squad, ringing up 7. The prep men seemed to lack some of the speed that they had shown in the first meeting, but the Loggers were out for blood.

PUGET SOUND PERSONALITIES

Students Active At College

GENEVIEVE STOWE

By Wilma Zimmerman

With a vision of true worth, Genevieve Stowe has become one of Puget Sound's leaders. Her work throughout school life spells capability, and her activities have been many.

During this time the entire campus was quarantined. After her course at Pullman, Miss Stowe did secretarial work for two years in Portland, Ore., and Vancouver, Washington.

The year 1921 found her in Nome, Alaska, in charge of a boys' and girls' home of seventy live youngsters. This was a Methodist orphan's home. She went up in June and by December was able to come back to the States again.

GREEN SLIVERS WILL MEET ONLY DURING 6 WEEKS

The Green Slivers were converted into an organization for all freshman girls, meeting the first six weeks of the fall semester, or until the sororities pledge, was the vote of the freshman girls at a meeting last Monday in room 203.

FIRE IS SUBJECT OF CHAPEL TALK

"Fire" was the subject of Dr. Simmons' talk in Chapel last Friday morning. Dr. Simmons likened religious experience to fire, in that they both supplied energy and warmth, revealed power and were purifying agents.

CONFERENCE FINDS THAT GOD CAN BE KNOWN THRU CHRIST

Our Place Is to Show Forth Christ and His Gospel to the Whole World; Discussion Groups Held

When asked for her views on the C. C. A. conference at Milwaukee, Erma, Coffman said, "The Milwaukee conference was a great experience. It was a time when we saw with a new clarity the world in which we live contrasted with the world as it should be."

A HOPEFUL SIGN

Puget Sound was fortunate in being able to send delegates to the conference held recently in Milwaukee by the Council of Christian Associations. The students from this college who attended have come back with a realization of higher "ideals, convictions, and principles of life."

It is a significant fact that 3,500 Christian students, representing a large number of the institutions of higher learning in the United States, have chosen to gather together in a great convention for the purpose of earnestly discussing the problems that confront the college student of today.

It is such conventions as these and the ideas gleaned there that will help to make the college students of today the world leaders of tomorrow.

TRIBUTE TO DEAN LEMON

(From the CAPITAL CITY COLLEGIAN)

ALLEN C LEMON

We as individuals and as a school are prone to forget those to whom we are most indebted. The history of Intermountain and of old Montana Wesleyan is the story of noble sacrifice by a few men and women to keep this institution in existence and put it where it is today.

In debate his success was equally noteworthy. The debate teams he coached were undefeated not only in the state but were victorious over some of the largest schools in the country.

Many a man who thought opportunity was knocking at his door found that it was only temptation.

WANTED—MORE COLLEGE RADICALS

(McGill Daily)

A McGill professor once defined an Arts Faculty as a place to breed radicals. There is no other justification for a liberal arts school. We heartily concur with this view.

It was once the legend that the young man, newly-B.A.'d, enters into life with the intention of reforming it to his own conception. But the legend was taken up by the cartoonists and the motion pictures and it was ridiculed to death.

A college must breed radicals. It must turn out young men and women who can penetrate the shams of humbug and be prepared to fight them. Professors who dogmatize and present only one side of the case are worthless in their calling.

SOPHS AND FROSH PLAN PARTY FOR SPRING

The sophomores and the freshmen are planning for the spring semester, a party which will include only members of those two classes. Plans were discussed during the fall semester by both classes to have some kind of evening party, but no time has been available for such.

DEPUTATION MEN AND WOMEN LEAD CHURCH VESPERS

A group of young people from the College of Puget Sound had charge of the service at the First Evangelical Church last Sunday evening, while a similar group were at St. John's Episcopal Church.

The general theme which was presented at the Evangelical Church was "The Christian's Call to Service." Winifred Longstretch spoke on the subject, "Christianity's Challenge to Youth."

At St. John's Church Sam Pugh addressed the congregation on the subject, "The Meaning of Christianity in the Lives of Young People Today."

Students from the College of Puget Sound go regularly to various churches in the city and the towns near by, presenting helpful messages.

Kathleen Westwood, graduate in the 1926 Normal Class, visited College of Puget Sound.

BEWARE DEBATERS.

Flunking time is only two weeks off.

Ina Coffman, a sophomore, at Puget Sound, has been ill the past week with tonsillitis.

Noble Chowning, former Puget Sound student and basket ball star, is in business now at Dryad, Washington.
