Y. M. HEARS TALK ON JAPAN YOUTH

Members of the Y. M. C. A. heard a talk on the youth in Japan, last Tuesday.
Mr. Chiyoto Taketa, speaker of the morning, discussed the three young people's movements of his own country. These are known as the National Young People's Association, the Young Men's Buddhist Association and the Young Men's Christian Association. All the young men of Japan are eligible to membership in these organizations.
The Y. M. C. A. has the fewest but draws the membership from among the best educated youths. These three groups stress compulsory military training, and in addition to this, every man when he approaches the age of 20 has to give two years to the national army.
According to Mr. Taketa, the aim of all three movements is to further education among the young people of Japan.

ANNUAL PLAY IS SCHEDULED FOR COMING FRIDAY

Committee in Charge of Affairs Appointed by Prof. Holcomb

ONE PERFORMANCE

Edith Jones and Ernest Miller Will Manager Production

By Wilma Zimmerman
A week from tonight is the date that has been set for the all-college play "Not So Fast." Contrary to former years, the play will be presented only one night, Friday, May 20. Managers have been put in charge of the various committees and departments, and are working out the details of the presentation.

The coaching is in charge of Professor C. Sheldon Holcomb, and he expresses satisfaction of the manner in which the production is shaping itself. This is the largest piece of work that has been put into Professor Holcomb's hands, and his experience with professional artistry is doing much toward giving the play a professional savor.

Miss Edith Jones, the dramatic manager in charge of the presentation, and is being assisted by Ernest Miller as business manager. Other departments include: properties, Douglas Hendel, chairman, assisted by Mary Lou Bechaud, and Winifred Gynn; stage manager, Gordon Tatum, with Kenneth Harding and Van Spencer McKenny; publicity manager, Wilma Zimmerman, with Crawford Turnbull, and Robert Burrows; electricians, John Todd and Wendell Jonts.

NEW BUILDING RAPIDLY TAKING SHAPE; CLOISTER TO BE BUILT

Connecting Way Between Jones and Science Halls Will Be Constructed With Building

By Albert King
Students who enjoy strolling around the campus in groups of two will no longer be hampered by bad weather. No longer will hungry freshmen be forced to scurry from hall to hall when the rain is pouring down, with coats pulled over their heads and shoes sloshing in the mud. For according to Mr. Tom Kane, in charge of the present work on the Science building, along with the new structure, a covered walk, properly termed a "cloister" will also be built, joining the two buildings and sheltering students from the rain when they wish to pass from one to the other.

The plans for the building, according to Mr. Kane, include everything from an enlarging room for photography to a moving picture projection booth. The basement, first and second floors will contain laboratories, lecture rooms, store rooms and miscellaneous rooms, and will house all of the science department.

27 Men Working
With about 27 men working on the job at present, Mr. Kane plans to start pouring concrete for the walls in two weeks. Forms are going up rapidly and the shape of the finished structure can already be discerned on the first floor at least.

In the basement of Science Hall all the physics laboratories will be lodged. There will be an advanced physics lab on the east side, where the biology department does its work at present.

The Commons will continue where it is at present until another building is constructed. Where the domestic science room is at present, the advanced physics work will be carried out and the space occupied by the chemistry laboratories will be taken up by lecture rooms and

TAMANAWAS TO BE OUT NEXT WEEK

Preston Wright, editor of The Tamanawas, has announced that the yearbook will be given out to the students some time next week.

Only those students who have paid all their dues to their organizations and whose organizations have paid their Tamanawas bills will receive the books. Organizations are urged to pay their bills at once, in order that their members will not be inconvenienced.

NEW SCHEME FOR COLORS ON MAY DAY

PURPLE, GOLD TO BE USED

Old-Fashioned Costumes to Be Worn by Queen, Duke and Heralds

The color scheme to be used in the Spring Festival this year will be different from any employed in previous years. All decorations will be carried out in purple and gold, the colors of royalty. The queen and her attendants will wear old-fashioned, Kate Greenaway dresses. The Duke and his heralds will wear white trousers and dark coats.

Plans for the festival are practically completed and the program, which will last from three until five o'clock, has been definitely arranged.

Miss Mildred Hawksworth, the May Queen, will be preceded by two small girls who will strew flowers on her path. Virginia Emley and Violet Kane will be flower girls and Lois Lemon, daughter of Dean Lemon, will carry the crown on a satin cushion. Robert Simpson and Gregor Thompson have been chosen to carry the Queen's train.

Music will be played by the college orchestra throughout the program. As the feature of the afternoon, Miss Hawksworth will be crowned May Queen and deliver an address to the court.

BANQUET FOR '27 DEBATERS TO BE MAY 21

PI KAPPA WILL INITIATE

Debate Awards Will Be Given in Student Assembly to Fourteen

Varsity and freshman debaters will meet around the banquet table in the Winthrop hotel on May 21, according to the present plans of Signe Johnson, debate manager. While the debaters will be the guests of the evening, all others interested in forensics are invited to attend.

The program will be fairly short since the all-fraternity dance is scheduled for the same evening. Initiation of the new members of Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary debate fraternity, will occupy the most important part on the evening's program, although several toasts will also be given, with the manager as toastmistress.

Pres. and Mrs. Todd, and the three coaches, Professor Holcomb, Dean Lemon and Professor Battin, will be guests also.

Debaters will be awarded their pins and certificates in the near future, according to the manager, although the actual date has not been settled upon as yet. Presentation will probably be in student assembly.

Awards to be given are: Three-year pin—Mildred Hawksworth; two-year pins—Lillian Burkland, Franklin Manning, Torrey Smith and Elverton Stark; one-year pins—Margaret Haley, Signe Johnson, Marshall McCormick and John Rademaker.

TWENTY-FIVE WOMEN TO GO TO SEABECK

COLLEGE IS REPRESENTED

Puget Sound Students Hold Important Positions at Conference

Twenty-five women from the College of Puget Sound have already signed up for the Northwest Student Conference, to be held at Seabeck, Washington, June 21 to July 1. A goal of thirty-five women, twice the number who attended last year, has been set by the college Y. W. C. A.

Puget Sound women should be especially interested, because of the fact that one of their number, Miss Evalyn Miller, has been appointed as general chairman of the Conference. Miss Erma Coffman, too, will have charge of the Worship services, and Miss Lois Berringer will be the official pianist.

Speakers of international prominence, including Dr. Marvin, Bruce Curry, Miss Winifred Wybal, Margaret Gordon, Mrs. Fertig, Dean of women at W. S. C., Ruth Fertig, Louise Flemming, of the University of Washington and Dr. Harold Bowen of Portland, will be at the conference for lectures, discussions, and personal interviews.

One of the attractive features of the conference will be the fact that the afternoons will be devoted to different forms of recreation, including tennis, swimming, boating, and hiking.

Women Named

The women who are going are: Jane Campbell, Erma Coffman, Lois Berringer, Evalyn Miller, Lucile Veatch, Ruth Long, Ruth Monroe. (See page 4, Col. 3)

PUGET SOUND TO HELP EDUCATE ARMENIAN BOY BY CONTRIBUTIONS

$200 Being Raised to Support 15-Year-Old Youth for One Year in School Near Beirut; Tom Swayze Makes Plea

Through the efforts of Tom Swayze, Puget Sound alumnus and Tacoma's Golden Rule ambassador to the Near East, the student body of the College of Puget Sound passed a resolution to support an Armenian boy in a school near Beirut.

Kurken Bardaxanian is the name of the boy chosen by Mr. Swayze. It costs $200 for the support of one student at the college at Beirut which this boy is now ready to enter.

Pledges Made
For the purpose of raising this amount for Kurken, who will use his education for the benefit of other individuals in like circumstances, pledges were made in chapel on Monday by both students and faculty.

The sum pledged, however, totaled only $124.75 of which $71.35 was collected by Wednesday noon. Those who have not yet paid their pledges or who did not make a pledge but feel like contributing something to this cause may do so this afternoon or Monday morning. The Spurs are collecting for this fund and contributions may be made to any member of that organization.

Swayze Speaks of Near East
Monday chapel period was given to Mr. Swayze who gave an account of part of his journey to the Near East and told his audience of Kurken whom he picked out to be edu-

LOGGERS CRUSH NORMAL SCHOOL IN TRACK MEET

Puget Sound Cinder Squad Defeats Northern School by 90-41 Count

IS EASY VICTORY

Six Conference Records Fall; Tatum Takes High-Point Honors

By Elverton Stark
The College of Puget Sound track team took everything but the gymnasium in the track meet Wednesday afternoon with Bellingham Normal School, which the local squad won by a count of 90 to 41.

The Logger cinder artists clearly outclassed their northern rivals, taking 14 out of 15 first places, the normal men coming out ahead only in the javelin throw. Six Northwest Conference track records were broken in the course of the meet and some good records were hung up by the Tacoma men, in spite of the fact that a drizzling rain fell all afternoon.

Don Darrow set up the best record of the day when the fast sprinter covered the 100-yard dash in 10 seconds flat. Darrow later came through to win the 220 in 22.6 seconds.

Tatum and Fassett Win
Tatum took both the quarter and the half in easy fashion, distancing his nearest rivals in both events. Fassett again shone in the mile and two-mile runs, taking both events in fast time.

Carruthers took the high hurdles and set up a new conference record when he stepped the distance in 16.1. Amos Booth contributed his share by capturing the low hurdles in 26.4. The discuss record was broken when John Garner threw the Greek platter for a distance of 129 feet 3 inches. Garner also took the shot with a heave of 36 feet 9 inches.

Tatum was high point man of the meet with 17 points. The victory was especially pleasing to the Logger men as the Bellingham tracksters defeated Puget Sound last year by a large score.

Summary Given

The summary follows:
100-yard dash—Darrow, C. P. S., first; Meek, N., second; Van Patter, C. P. S., third. Time, 4:39.4 minutes.

the college established and operated in Beirut by almost entirely American capital and people.

According to the speaker, Kurken is a boy having remarkable qualities of leadership and a fine character in every way. He is one for whom the students of this college should be glad and proud to provide a higher education, aided by this student body.

This Armenian lad, along with many others of his country, was made an orphan by the war. It has been the task of Near East Relief workers in those eastern countries to provide food, clothing and shelter for the parentless children and to give them sufficient education and training that they may become capable of self support and followers of some honorable trade or occupation.

Armenian Boy to Enter College

Kurken, the special charge of Puget Sound, is fifteen years old, although his picture, given to the students by Mr. Swayze, would lead one to believe him older. He is attending a boys' school not far from Beirut and has been head of all the boys there, who range in age from three or four years to fifteen or sixteen, and has acted as assistant to the head of the school. He has finished his work at this institution and is ready to enter

OTLAH PLEDGE SERVICE HELD LAST FRIDAY

Nine Junior Women Are Chosen for Upperclass Honor Society

Of outstanding interest to the student body and to women of the junior class in particular, was the pledging service for the new members of the Otlah club. Last Friday's chapel was given over to the affair, when nine women received the coveted pledge insignia. This is one of the largest groups ever pledged by Otlah.

The women pledged included: Mrs. Ruth Bethel, Signe Johnson, Ruth Monroe, Katherine Hammerly, Ruth Dively, Catherine Strahorn, Alice Rockhill, Dora Burrill and Ruth Sherrod.

Genevieve Stowe, Otlah president for this year, was chairman of the service, and introduced Miss Georgia Reneau, who is advisor for the group. Miss Reneau told something of Otlah's beginning in 1922, and of the ideals and meaning of Otlah.

Qualifications Read
 Before the pledges were announced, Miss Stowe read the list of qualifications of an Otlah member. Women are pledged at the end of their junior year and the outstanding requirement is scholarship. The student must have maintained an average of B in her work. Other qualifications are womanliness and service to the school.

As each woman's name was called, her activities were read and she was escorted to the front of the room where she received the insignia, a red carnation.

After the pledging, Dean Lemon, spoke a few words congratulating the women on having attained this high honor. Otlah is characterized as the highest honor that the College of Puget Sound can bestow on any girl.

The present members of Otlah are: Genevieve Stowe, president; Erma Coffman, Edna Knappe, Evelyn Miller, Winifred Longstreth and Ina Hagedorn. These girls were assisted in the pledging service by Miss Marcia Edwards, an Otlah alumna.

ALPHA BETAS HOLD SPRING INFORMAL

With the Peacock Room of the Tacoma Hotel as their setting, Alpha Beta Upsilon was hostess last Friday evening, from nine to twelve, to more than 30 of its friends at a spring dance.

The Beta colors of lavender and yellow were carried out in the decorations of lilac, iris and yellow doroconcam; in the French favors used for favor dances; in the programs and in the yellow rose ices served at midnight.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening were: Dean and Mrs. Allen C. Lemon, Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. C. Battin and Mr. and Mrs. R. Lester Kelly.

BILLSBORROW IS SECOND IN ORATORY MEET

Syverson of Southern California Is First at Corvallis

George Billsborrow, Puget Sound and Washington representative in the national intercollegiate oratorical contests, took fourth place in the semi-finals held at Corvallis last week.

Billsborrow was sent as Puget Sound representative to the state finals held recently at Washington State College at Pullman. Here he took first place, and as a result was the Washington representative in the coast finals.

Arthur Syverson, representative of the University of Southern California, took first place in the contest held at Corvallis. Syverson was one of the two debaters from Southern California who met Puget Sound varsity debaters in a debate here recently.

In the high school semi-finals, Robert Evans, a junior at Stadium High School who had previously won the state championship in his division, was defeated at Kansas City last week.

HEREDITY DISCUSSED IN WEDNESDAY CHAPEL

Professor Slater spoke on inheritance of abilities and weaknesses in chapel Wednesday.

The speaker said that it has been definitely proved that good qualities as well as insanity may be inherited.

He also stated that a minister's son has one chance in 20 to get his name in Who's Who as compared to a laborer's son who has only one chance in 1600.

BASEBALL MEN WORK HARD TO WIN BIG GAME

MEET PACIFIC ON MAY 20

Practice Tilts Planned for Diamond Artists of Puget Sound

Although the Oregon trip of the Logger baseball nine was unsuccessful, the squad still has chances of bringing in some victories this season.

Coach Hubbard now has his cohorts hard at work in preparation for the coming battles.

Last Wednesday the team traveled to Lacey and clashed bats with the strong St. Martin's outfit. A couple of weeks ago the local collegians registered a win over the Catholic school.

Pacific Game May 20

The game toward which the College slabsters are pointing is the clash with Pacific University to be played here on Friday, May 20. The Badgers have as sweet a looking ball club as there is in the conference and the game should be a big treat to the fans. Pacific has a team of veterans and every man knows his position. Ranno, the big portside hurler is a product of the timber league and is plenty good. He is being touted as all conference material. The Oregonians managed to squeeze through a win in the ninth inning last week so the Loggers will be out for revenge.

Clare Guest, the Methodist's pitcher, will probably do the mound duty for Puget Sound. Guest showed his iron man ability by hurling in three games in as many days. The Loggers feel confident that they can send the Badgers back home without the bacon, so a real battle is anticipated.

BASEBALL SQUAD IS DEFEATED ON SOUTHERN TRIP

Loggers Lose All Four Contests, Three by One Run Only; Outthit Opponents

Eierman, Ferguson and Guest All Pitch Good Ball in Games

By Fred LePenske

Although losing four games out of four played on the trip to Oregon last week, the Logger baseball team outthit their opponents and were prevented from winning in three of the games only by the bad breaks and hard luck encountered. The Loggers returned from a one week's invasion of the Southern schools last Saturday evening.

The disastrous week started with the first game on Wednesday when the Loggers met the Willamette Bearcats, and were given the worst defeat of the trip by losing the game 6 to 1. In this game the Loggers really were not playing up to snuff and it was easy to see that they were at a decided disadvantage because of the heavy Oregon skies which made it doubly hard to judge flies and to judge their hitting.

In this game the Loggers got 8 hits while the Bearcats garnered 9 off the offerings of Guest and Eierman. Ledbetter for the Bearcats pitched good ball for nine innings and was never in a really serious hole.

Loggers Lose by One Run
In the second game with the Willamette crew on Thursday the Loggers were defeated 7 to 6, after leading most of the game. The Bearcats came thru in the last half of the ninth and copped the winning run. Guest pitched the entire game and was in good form, allowing only 7 hits while the Loggers copped 15 hits from the southpaw Ellis.

Ledbetter came in during the eighth inning for the Bearcats and stemmed a hitting spree, setting the Loggers down three straight in the final frame. Outthitting the Bearcats as they did, the Loggers could not win the game, hard luck on a wet muddy field causing 6 infield errors. In the fourth frame of this game Wilson hit a long bingle over the left field fence for a home run, with one on base.

The third game, with Linfield on Thursday, was the fastest and best game of the entire trip. Morehouse from Linfield pitched a wonderful game until the ninth inning, when the Loggers reached him for three hits to score three runs, and tie the score. Linfield, however, came thru in the last of their part of the inning and with one hit and three infield errors squeezed over the winning run, making the score 4 to 3.

Ferguson Hurls Well
Ferguson pitched for seven innings and was hurling a wonderful game, until his arm got sore in the seventh inning and he retired in favor of Eierman who pitched four balls to retire the side with three easy infield outs. Guest was rushed in in the ninth inning to hold off the Wildcats but errors by Wilson, Ginn and Kepka filled the bases and a scratch hit shoved over the winning run.

Determined to beat Pacific, the

RACKET MEN DEFEAT LACEY

Win First Match Easily But Drop Second

The Puget Sound singles and doubles team overwhelmingly defeated the St. Martin's racqueters in the first of two tournaments held last Saturday and Tuesday, but the Lacey men came back and split the second meet by copping two singles and one doubles match. The poor condition of the St. Martin's courts was the main reason for the weaker showing of the Maroon men on the second day.

In the first meet, the winners dropped only one set out of the six matches and but one of these went to three sets. In the return match, however, Frank Johnson and Walt Anderson lost their singles matches, the former by a close score.

The teams have been picked by the challenge method and further changes may take place before the season is over as numerous matches are being played every week among the ranking players and several have moved either up or down on the list. The results: Saturday singles (played at the Point Defiance courts)—M. Johnson defeated Wippel, 6-4, 6-0; F. Johnson beat Rosellini, 14-12, 6-2; Thomas defeated Webster, 6-4, 6-2; R. Johnson beat Bird, 7-5, 6-2. Doubles—F. Johnson and Thomas defeated Webster and Rosellini, 6-2, 5-7, 6-4; R. Johnson and M. Johnson beat Wippel and Bird, 6-0.

Tuesday (played at St. Martin's): singles—M. Johnson defeated Rosellini, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3; F. Johnson lost to Webster, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5; Thomas won from Wippel, 6-0, 6-0; Anderson lost to Bird, 6-2, 6-3. Doubles—M. Johnson and F. Johnson beat Rosellini and Webster, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3; Thomas and Anderson lost to Schram and Bird, 6-3, 5-7, 11-9.

WOMEN ALSO WIN

The women's team of the college defeated the Parkland Lutheran College squad Saturday in two singles matches and doubles engagement. Mabel Bennett conquered her opponent 6-3, 6-4, and Margaret Alleman won, 7-5, 6-3. Elva Belfoy and Leonora Bloomquist composed the winning doubles team.

Loggers played the Badgers on Saturday morning, and started out in great style. The Loggers leadoff man walked, and scored on a hard hit for the first run. In the next inning Ruffo was walked, Eierman doubled and Ruffo went to third, LePenske doubled to score Ruffo and Eierman. Ginn sacrificed LePenske to third but he died on the bases on the next two easy infield outs.

In the fourth Eierman cracked another double to score on another hit by LePenske, Ginn hit and Kepka repeated to score the two men ahead of him. However, in the seventh and eighth innings the Pacific crew, led by the hitting of Dreezen, evened up the score. In their half of the ninth the Loggers scored two runs to lead by that margin, but the Badgers came back to score three runs on four hits and win the game, 9 to 8.

Eierman Goes Well
Eierman pitched fine ball and was supported all through by errorless ball until the ninth inning. The Logger hurler surprised onlookers by his excellent performance. The Loggers garnered 12 hits to 11 for the Badgers.

THIS LOOKS GOOD TO US

It is indeed with satisfaction and pleasure that we once more hear the sound of workmen's hammer in the vicinity of Science Hall, when we realize that it is at least on the road to completion.

It is over three years since the first shovelfull of dirt was turned, to make room for the science building. How many times have we gazed upon that squat, ugly, rough-looking concrete structure rising only a few feet above the ground, that we were told was Science Hall in its infancy. How much we hoped that we would someday have the privilege of seeing, in place of the crude, unfinished basement, a large, beautiful structure such as Jones Hall, adequately equipped and ready for use.

At last our wish is to be realized, thanks to the splendid efforts of the administration of the College, for they tell us that by the first of September we shall be able to walk through the halls of a finished science building.

This is characteristic of the constant advance and progress being made by the College of Puget Sound, in every way, scholastically, materially and in athletics. We are eagerly looking forward to the time when still more buildings will make their appearance on the campus.

TAKE IT SERIOUSLY

(From The Indiana Daily Student)

An undeniable tendency exists among the undergraduates to scoff at the student who takes his education seriously, who makes a conscientious effort to gain a thorough knowledge of the subjects he is studying, instead of devising means to "get by" with a minimum amount of effort.

The majority of students come to college with some idea, surely, of obtaining an education. Many, as soon as they arrive, try to dodge as much of it as possible. If a professor has not arrived at a class by two and one-half minutes after the hour, the whole class departs precipitately, praying that they can get down the back stairs of the building before he can get up the front ones. If a few students evince a desire to wait until the entire three minutes required by university ruling have elapsed, they become the objects of scorn and derision.

If it is worth while to spend four years in pursuit of an education, surely it is worth the extra effort necessary to get the best of it, not a superficial smattering of miscellaneous information. The student who is covertly laughed at now for his conscientiousness is likely to have the last laugh in the years to come.

EARLY SPECIALIZATION IN COLLEGE

(Minnesota Daily)

Early specialization by the college man is, it seems to us, being worshipped far beyond its deserts. It is encouraging to discover that President Rightmire of Ohio State has attempted to dissuade the students of this institution from choosing their vocations until they have had at least two years of general college work.

One of the first questions asked of a college man is "What are you specializing in?" Sometimes this query is a simple matter of polite interest; too often it is the prelude to advice to select a vocation as soon as possible and commence studying for it.

The business or professional man, his own selection far behind him, remembers merely that he spent much time with study courses he apparently makes no use of now. He forgets the perplexity of the situation which faced him as it faces the undecided student he now advises.

If a college man is firmly decided upon the branch of work he will take up, specialization from matriculation onward is expected. The vast majority are not so situated. The matter to them is a very grave and ponderous problem; their whole happiness and success may depend upon it. To advise a student to settle that problem definitely before he has fairly found himself, before he has ascertained with some degree of certainty his own tastes and talents, is to advise unwisely if not foolishly. College is expected to do many things for college students. Certainly it ought to serve first foremost as a vehicle of orientation.

MATH CLUB DIGS INTO RELATIVITY

Members of the Mathematical Round Table attempted to grasp some of the principles of relativity at their meeting held Tuesday at the home of Albert King. Ernest Miller and Fred Gysin gave talks on the subject and Professor Hanawalt helped clear up the matter later with a discussion of his own.

Installation of officers was one of the important matters accomplished after business meeting.

Ethel Trotter, retiring president, installed the new head of the organization, Evelyn Bjorkman as well as the secretary, Harold Skramstad, the treasurer, Fred Gysin and the sergeant-at-arms, Albert King. The new president then installed Miss Trotter as vice-president.

The matter of club colors was laid on the table and will be taken up next year. It was also voted to have a picnic some time after the semester is up and Norval Norton was appointed chairman of a committee in charge.

Mr. Miller's paper, although it took up the phase of the philosophy of relativity, nevertheless interested the math students considerably. Mr. Gysin continued the subject by presenting some further phases in his talk.

Professor Hanawalt brought out especially the fact that Einstein did not set Newton aside by his theory, but that both continued to be correct. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

ALTRUI PROGRAM IS 'COLLEGIATE'

Short, but much enjoyed was Altrurian's "Collegiate" program

Edgar Haley reviewed the history of Puget Sound in "The Development of the College." The quartet, Lowell Wilson, Mary Van Sickle, Mary Kizer and Helen Graham Johnson, vocalized with "Strains from Other Campuses," singing traditional songs of Yale, Harvard, and other old colleges. Lottie Lancaster entertained with a talk on "Colleges for Women." "Peculiar Traditions of Other Colleges" proved to be especially interesting viewed through Marshall McCormick's eyes. More "Strains" by the quartet concluded the program.

The election of officers was the business of the evening.

'COLOR' SUBJECT OF AMPHICTYON

A unique idea was portrayed in Amphiectyon's clever program of "Color" last Monday evening. The entertainment was in charge of the Sophomores and Juniors.

"The Chemistry of Color" was discussed in a scientific way by George Durkee. Elverton Stark read "Colorful Incidents in History" from an elongated parchment diary written by such notables as Brutus and Plato. "Colorful Harmonies" was a delightful duet by Genevieve Bitney and Alice Rockhill.

Luella Baldwin redeemed a fine talk and a practical lesson "From the Scrap Bag." Mixing humor with facts, Margaret Haley interestingly instructed the audience concerning "The Psychology of Color." John Sharp expressed what the "Green and Gold" meant to him. The program was concluded with a skit "Local Color at C. P. S." with Josephine Day in charge.

Paul Armour and Nyall and Marvin Steinbach were initiated in the business meeting.

Durkee, treasurer; Elverton Stark, corresponding secretary; Albert King, historian; Harwood Tibbits, financial chairman; Douglas Hendel, social chairman, and Ralph Brown, sergeant-at-arms.

times are being planned in conjunction with one of the modistes of Rhodes Brothers Department Store. It is through the courtesy of this store that the smart costumes are being obtained.

All of the Theta Alpha Phi members are taking an active part in the production of the play, and each in his department is planning novel effects.

"Not So Fast" was written by Conrad Nestervelt, and has been successfully produced in several large cities under the title of the "Blump." The plot is intriguing, and carries enough of old fashioned melodrama to give it a spice amny of the modern plays lack. The love interest is enjoyable, and promises to keep the audience guessing up to the end.

Lines Are Clever

Much of the comedy will be carried by Leonora Bloomquist, as Rose Standish, and Sam Pugh, as Sylvester Vane, the young college freshman. However, practically all the lines are clever and snappy, and the story does not drag.

Gordon Tatum, as stage manager, is securing some new scenery, and is working on some unusual effects for the apartment scene. John Todd, the electrician, is working in conjunction with him to achieve the best possible lighting effects.

Since this is a modern play, and seems to be the sort of thing the students have been wanting to present, all are working hard towards its production. With the time and energy being spent in working out the effects, it promises to be a most interesting presentation.

MRS. TOPPING IS HOSTESS FOR ALPHA BETAS

Members of Alpha Beta Upsilon were guests a week ago at the home when Mrs. Topping, Mrs. Hanscom entertained the sorority for the afternoon.

Games and short talks filled the social hour which preceded the serving of refreshments by the hostesses.

During the business meeting officers for next year were elected, the place of president going to Audrey-Dean Albert, a charter member. Other officers elected were: Lucile Veatch, vice-president; Betty Gilbert, secretary; Wilma Zimmerman, treasurer; Inez Johnson, chaplain; Mary Kizer, historian, and Marian Johnson, sergeant-at-arms.
