PUGET SOUND DEBATERS MEET U.S.C. HERE TONIGHT

HEATED ARGUMENT IS EXPECTED BETWEEN LOGGERS AND TROJANS

Rademaker and Crippen to Represent College in Major Encounter With Strong Southern California Team; to Argue Temporary Insanity Question

Jones Hall will be the scene Friday night of one of the most important debates of the year, when the varsity debate squad of the College encounters the forensic talent of the University of Southern California, in a debate upon the official subject, "Resolved, that the plea of temporary insanity in defense of crime should be prohibited by law."

Puget Sound will be represented by a team composed of Sam Crippen and John Rademaker. Crippen is participating in college debate for the first time this season, having come from Stadium High School this year with an excellent record.

Rademaker Three Year Debater

John Rademaker, of course, has been proved in many elocution encounters for Puget Sound, having debated three years here. Together the two are popularly conceded an excellent chance with their Southern rivals.

The California squad is a formidable rival, coming to the fracas with an imposing string of victories. The U. S. C. debate teams are among the best in the country, according to Dean Allan C. Lemon, and this one appears to be no exception to the rule. The University of Arizona. This squad is coached by the president of the Pacific Coast Forensic League, and should present an excellent debate. The question is to be on temporary insanity pleas, the official question for the association.

To Meet U. of Wyoming

The following week-end there will be two debates on a different subject. Resolved that a substitute be found for trial by jury. These debates are to be with Baylor College of Waco, Texas, and the University of Wyoming. Wyoming comes with the unusual record of having won 19 straight debates.

"These debates," says Bill Law, "are going to be some of the best that the season affords, and everyone is advised to attend."

TEACHERS TO HEAR LEMON

Dean of College to Address County Association

Dean Allan C. Lemon of the College of Puget Sound will speak Saturday to the King County teachers at Bothel, Washington. His subject is to be "Character Education." On the same program W. F. Martin, assistant to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will deliver an address on "State Educational Needs and Recent Legislation." There will be incidental music and entertainment.

It is conceded generally that Dean Lemon is an authority on his chosen subject, and the importance of the meeting amply accries out the assumption.

The session is to discuss the problems of High School and grade school administration and extra-curricular activity.

Trail Feature Writer Reviews

Book; Inclined to Pan Author

BY RICHARD BREON

Recommended for those suffering from spring fever is the book, "The Theory of the Leisure Class," a new novel in our library. The author, Thorstein Veblen, a distinguished economist, uses a great number of 12 cylinder words to express a four cylinder idea, but seems to have his literary motor well timed and working smoothly, fables of the idle rich have disappeared of been altered since the book was written. Among these constricted waist lines and the like.

cropped lawn is beautiful to the eyes of people whose inherited bent is to find pleasing in the sight of a well kept pasture, Mr. Vein.

Discusses Imitation

"Public parks of course fall in on and so on, ad infinitum.

THREE PLAYS ARE GIVEN

Enthusiastically Received by Audience

The three one-act plays, presented Friday night by the dramatics department under the direction of Professor C. Sheldon Holcomb, a large audience which filled Jones Hall. The parts were well taken and the plays were presented with a smoothness which speaks well for the training and ability of the participants. During intermission between the plays several special acts were given, and were well received.

Opens With Tragedy

The first play was "The Shoes That Danced" by Anna Hemstad Branch, and was of a tragic nature. The scene was laid in the studio of Watteau in the 18th century, and the action was played by the following cast; Janice Wilson, Reitha Gehri, Alice Johnson, ohan, Minabel Stevens, Margaret Miller and Theo Barwick.

The second play, acted by Florence Willson, Gertrude Bauman, William Law and James Skewis, was "Mr. Meredew's Right Hand" by the popular English writer, A. Hamilton Gibbs. It was of a farcical turn and was enjoyed.

The final play, "Evening Dress Indispensable," was written by that bright wag, Roland Pertwee. It had to do with the romanticism of old age and the desire for ser-surprise ending which was evidently heartily enjoyed. The cast playing in the final selection was: Cioma Norton, Betty Martin, Bernice Sprague, Henry Gilbert and Guy Hughes.

LONG HAIR AT IDAHO

College of Idaho (NIP)—It's long hair for the women at the College of Idaho. It isn't dame fashion that so decrees, but the greater authority, Prof. F. F. Beale, director of the annual opera. The opera, "Iolanthe" has a fairy chorus, and, according to Prof. Beale, bobbed hair is not permissible in fairy land, so to get the right effect, he says no more haircuts until April 26, when the opera will be all over. It was a hard on the barbers.

GLEE UNDETERMINED

Due to the change in vacation the Women's Glee Club will present their home concert at a date yet to be determined. The date depending upon the date of Spring vacation.

It will be set either on Saturday April 13th, or on Thursday, April 14th, before vacation. However the information will be out very soon along with details of the concert.

The girls are working intensely and are looking forward to the best program ever presented by the club since its organization.

SENIORS TO TAKE FINALS AS USUAL; RULES OUTLINED

Examination Periods 3 Hours; Last Over Five Day Period, Decries Faculty Committee

Plans Outlined to Minimize Cheating Say Take No Books to Class

Seniors at the College of Puget Sound will not be exempt from final examinations this year, according to announcement made by Dean Allan C. Lemon, Thursday, following a meeting of the faculty of the school. This statement comes at the same time as does the word of an entirely new final examination plan which has been formulated for this spring.

Examination periods will be three hours long and the finals will extend over five days instead of three as has been the practice previously. All professors are prohibited by the new ruling to give any tests during the week preceding the final quizzes.

Anti-cheating rules were passed by the faculty which include the handing out by the instructor of all paper or examination books used. Under this plan the students will be allowed to take no books or papers into the room with them. In those classes so crowded that students must sit in adjacent seats during the final alternate examination questions will be given. These questions are to be written out or mimeographed. In those courses where the registration is so large that several sections are necessary, the same tests will be submitted to all sections.

As has been stated no students will be exempt from the finals for any reason and all profs are limited to three hour quizzes but are not compelled to use all of that time.

PUGET SOUND TO BE SCENE OF CONTEST

Pierce County Musical Contest to Be Held Here Saturday, May 4

That the College of Puget Sound will sponsor a county wide musical contest open to all high schools and junior high schools in Pierce county, was the announcement made this week by Dean Allan C. Lemon.

The contest under the management of Professor John Paul Bennett is being held in an effort to encourage musical activities in the high schools and junior high schools by affording an opportunity for comparison of work, also the establishment of high standards.

SORORITIES DRAW TEAMS

In chapel Friday morning the sororities drew from a hat the teams which will represent them in the relays held on the College of Puget Sound track April 5th.

That captained by Amos Booth will represent the Lambda Sigma Chi sorority. Ray Croxall will lead the destinies of the team running for Alpha Beta Upsilon. Minard Fasset and his cohorts will trot for Kappa Sigma Theta and Onie Hannus will lead his men in a valiant attempt to capture the title for Delta Alpha Gamma. A trophy goes to the sorority whose team captures the title.

AMENDMENTS PRESENTED TO STUDENT BODY

Many Changes Suggested for Student Constitution, Eligibility and Powers

Certain amendments to the constitution of the ASCPS are under consideration at this time; the students will vote on them next Thursday. The proposed changes were read and explained during student assembly this week, and will be read again next week in compliance with a constitutional rule. The following changes are being considered:

Article II, Sect. 2. Admission: "Freshmen and new students shall be admitted to participation in the enjoyment of membership at the Color Post Ceremonial, provided that they shall not be eligible to vote on constitutional amendments or in special elections or hold an ASCPS office until they have spent one semester in college."

The wording shall be changed in latter part to read:

"constitutional amendments or in regular or special elections."

Article II, Sect. 1. Dealing with regular meetings will be changed so that the second regular business meetings shall be the first assembly in May instead of in April.

Change of Eligibility

The change in article IV, Sect. 2. (b) that concerns the eligibility of editors of publications to hold office will be changed so as to include the managers in every case also, including the manager of women's athletics.

Section 3, of the same article that reads:

"Nomination for president, vice-president, and secretary shall be in writing and signed by at least ten members of the Associated Students," shall be changed so as to include the nomination of yell king also.

Section 4, which includes the appointment of a board of election judges, shall be changed so that chairman of this board shall be the vice-president of the Associated Students in every case.

Article V, Sect. 1, is to be amended also. It now reads:

"Each class in College shall elect"

FACULTY INTRODUCES NEW PLAN FOR SENIOR HONOR COURSES HERE

Swarthmore College System Adopted Here, Allowing Upperclassmen to Do More Seminar Work; Requires B Average in Major; Class Attendance and Examinations Not Necessary

A new system of study, intended to create interest in the honor courses, was announced Thursday by the faculty of the College of Puget Sound through the office of Dean Allan C. Lemon. This plan calls for a possibility of 16 hours of seminar work for upperclassmen who have attained a certain grade average. Class attendance for this 16 hours of credit will not be considered necessary.

This plan is based upon the one worked out at Swarthmore College in Swarthmore, Penn., and will go into effect next year, according to the Dean's office.

Plan to Create Interest

WILLAMETTE WOMEN SING

Oregon Methodist Club Heard Here

The Willamette Women's glee club appeared in Student Assembly Thursday morning. It is a rare thing for the club of one school to sing in another school, but the Puget Sound student body seemed to find it an idea decidedly worth continuing.

The visitors sang "A Bird Flew" and "Lindy Lou" and several college songs.

An example of the respect with which Puget Sound regards Willamette was the spontaneous way in which the audience arose for the singing of Willamette's Alma Mater song. If the Willamette club cares to return, they are assured of a welcome.

The Willamette girls are on a week and a half trip which takes them to through Bremerton and Seattle and back through Centralia, Vancouver and Portland. They report that their concerts so far have been a success, and we can readily believe it, judging by the sample given us in chapel and the concert at Mason Church Wednesday evening.

SUBJECT OF YWCA TEA IS SEABECK

"And we got up at 5 o'clock and started to look for the free love colony; but all we found was said Dorothy Raleigh, telling of some thrilling experiences that happened to her at Seabeck last summer. The audience was a group of Y. W. girls who gathered in the Home Economics Suite to attend the Seabeck meeting last Tuesday.

"Camp is perfectly thrilling," said Martha Ann Wilson, who lead the discussion. "Sometimes last summer we held devotional services in the open air. These were especially inspirational."

Tea was poured by Dean Stevens and Mrs. Hallen, and the cinnamon toast, was served to the girls as they heard the accounts given of Seabeck.

An urgent plea for the paying of dues was made by Dorothy Raleigh who said that only sixty had paid for last semester and ten for this.

IDAHO EDITOR ELECTED

College of Idaho (NIP)—Roger McConnell, Caldwell, was elected editor in chief of The Coyote, student newspaper, at A. S. C. I. meeting last Friday.

FREDERICKS IS CHAPEL SPEAKER ON WEDNESDAY

Am I in the world for what I can get out of it or for what I can put into it? Does the world owe me a living or do I owe the world a life? Have I been sent into a finished world to enjoy it, or into an unfinished world to complete it? Is "Safety first" or "Safety last" to control my life? Do I think of My life as a career or as a mission? These were the questions presented by Prof. A. L. Fredericks who led chapel service Wednesday, March 20.

SPRING VACATION SECOND WEEK IN APRIL

At a faculty meeting Thursday the date of the spring vacation was not changed and it will be the second week in April as scheduled.

Dean Lemon, in an interview with a Trail reporter, indicated that the honors now offered by the college have not attracted many, and pointed out that a scheme such as the one outlined would increase the interest.

The innovation in detail, allows a student with a B average in his major subject and a C in other grades to elect independent study with oral examination in 16 of his remaining hours. Such students will be released from all obligation of class attendance and current examinations in those subjects. They are subject, however, to a final written examination and an oral quiz in the field.

Another proviso of the proposed change is a clause which makes it necessary for all candidates for honors to come from among the group who have elected independent study.

Must Submit Thesis

Further than this, all such seekers for honor degrees must submit to the faculty a thesis written as the result of research.

The subject of this thesis is to be submitted by the 15th of May of the candidate's junior year.

This plan, in effect, brings the methods of graduate study into undergraduates years. Some of the irksomeness of dull class regularity is done away with for those whose grades warrant increased liberties, and besides this a much deeper knowledge of a major subject is obtained.

MAROON HUE ADOPTED BY ORGANIZATION

Women's Letter Club Changes Sweater Color

In the meeting of the Women's Letter Club last Tuesday, plans were made to change the style and color of the sweater awarded to all second, third and fourth year letter winners.

The present award is a light weight, white, collarless sweater with maroon stripes on the left sleeve. Because of the thinness and impractical color for school wear, a heavier maroon sweater with white stripes was chosen. This will be the second and third year award, but a heavy white sweater with a collar will be the fourth and last presentation.

All of those who have heard of the new plans, agree that the change is a welcome one.

Freak Bets in Evidence at Glee

Contest on Willamette Campus

Willamette University Mach 4 (NIP)—Wheelbarrow rides, mill-race plunges, walking marathons, pajama clad students attending classes, clothing worn backwards, and peanuts propelled down the walk by rapidly redding noses are all among the more conspicuous results of Freshman Glee in evidence on the campus today. Before the event member of every class was sure of victory of his or her class song, and the only proper and traditional way of backing up this assurance is by a freak bet. Today the losers are paying and paying. There are many interesting cases of bets in history. Last year a loser was to attend chapel in girl's attire, absolutely complete, but before payment the news somehow drifted to the Deah, who was not in favor of any student violating the law by impersonation of a lady. The matter was dropped.

Very little actual money was placed on the outcome of Freshman Glee, but the increase in the volume of the Salem theater and confectionary business is quite marked this week.

SOCIETY

By IDA BOWLIN

Coming first in social interest for this week is the Alpha Beta Upsilon costume party scheduled for this evening. Lucile Veatch is general chairman for the event.

Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity have an informal party scheduled for Saturday evening. The decorative motif has been cleverly copied after the famous cafe and night club, run by Coffee Dan in San Francisco. The Viking room of the Tacoma Hotel has been secured and there will be entertainers from Seattle.

Announces Engagement

Alpha Beta Upsilon, announces the engagement of Miss Dorothy

Herman, to Allan Roy Clark. The engagement was divulged in the traditional manner at the regular meeting of the sorority last Wednesday, at the home of Florence Newfield, where also were held the formal pledging ceremonies for Miss Mary Milone.

Delta Kappa Phi announce the pledging of William Requa.

Informal Party On Saturday

Miss Verna Belle Smith and Leonard Elsbree entertained a group of college friends last Saturday evening at Miss Smith's home. It was one of the many parties, with the St. Patrick's motif, of the season. Green hats, shamrocks and green and white streamers brightened the social hall.

Among those at the party were Misses Ione Goodwin, Dorothy Turly, Nan Heinz, Truly Phyeck, Muriel Bohn, Mary LePenske, Elizabeth Little, Geraldine Whitworth, Ada Annabel, Helen Young, Elizabeth Latham, Helen Brenton, Carol Lindsay, Mildred Meeder and Messrs. Stanley Wardin, Edward Burrough, Jay Snow, Jimmie Owens, Milton Foren, Archie Calahan, Richard Jorgenson, Minard Fassett, Charles Greever, Keith Reid, Al Hotchins, John O'Connor, Ross Mace, Frank Manning and Al Eriksen.

Lambda Formal Brilliant Event

Grecian Lamp effects, huge baskets of rose and white Spring flowers, and designs in the sorority colors of mongol and white were used in decorating the ball room of the Tacoma Hotel for the Lambda Sigma Chi formal last Saturday evening. Many alumnae from Tacoma and nearby towns attended.

The committee responsible for the success of this affair was headed by Vera Crall, with Edith Eddy, Ernestine Goff and Dorothy Raleigh as her assistants. Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell were patron and patroness.

Guests of the sorority were: Amos Booth, Frank Rostedt, Kenneth Stretchan, Harry Brown, Ralph Tiffany, John Gardner, Clarence Fraser, Carlton Wood, Arthur Prescott, Bruce Johnson, Preston Wright, Morton Johnson, Maynard Faulkner, Elverton Stark, Burdette Chesley, Robert Hayden, Rex West, William Goss, Walter Anderson, Frank Wilson, A. W. Beattie, Douglas Hendel, Fred Henry, Paul Lung, Stanley Topping, Chester Duncan, Eldon Chulnard, Louis Fretz, Elmer Austin, Roy Luxton, Theodore Bankhead, Edward Eddy, John Cochran, Robert Evans, George Durkee, Edward Rich, Theodore Nelson, Donald Seering, Nyal Steinbach, Fred Brockoff, Jack Warden and Rex Goodnough.

Spurs Initiate

With a special meeting at the home of Mrs. C. G. Hallen Wednesday evening, the Spurs initiated two sophomore women, Mary Westcott and Edna Muzzy.

Following the initiation ceremony, dinner was served. The table was attractively appointed and lighted with four tall candles. A bright bouquet of daffodils decorated the center of the table.

Diversion for the evening consisted of a splash party from the dishpan to the bathtub and thence to the basement. Any Spur can testify as to the success of the evening's entertainment.

Philo Holds Meeting

"Education—Ancient and Modern" was the title of the Philomathean program last Monday evening. Dorothy Ruth Scott spoke on "Ancient Greek Education" and Jessie Munger gave a talk on "Modern German Education." The musical number of the evening was a whistling solo by Betty Martin.

Presidents Are Entertained

The Home Economics department entertained the various presidents of the women's organizations of the school at two luncheons on Tuesday and Thursday of last week. At the Tuesday luncheon Margaret Hill, Doris Hill, Martha Anne Wilson, Pauline Voelker, Mildred Meeder and Miss Stevens were served with Geraldine Whitworth acting as hostess.

Wilma Zimmerman, Ina Coffman, Dorothy Bowen, Elizabeth Jones and Miss Stevens were the guests at the Thursday luncheon with Helen Ritchie acting as hostess.

Miss Milan In Tacoma

Dean Stevens entertained at a luncheon in honor of Miss Ava B. Milan, dean of Home Economics at Oregon State College. Guests were Miss Anna Post, supervisor of Home Economics of the Tacoma schools, Mrs. W. R. Coffman, Mrs. E. E. Stevens, Mrs. John W. Wood, Mrs. Louise Goulder, Mrs. Clyde Hubbard, Mrs. E. H. Todd and Mrs. Allen Todd.

Girls of the Home Economics classes served the luncheon in the rooms of the Home Economics Department.

Miss Milan talked to the girls of the college on "Women's place in Chinese Homes." Miss Milan spent two years in China and related many interesting experiences.

Dean Stevens Entertains

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Stevens and E. Tenton Stevens of St. Paul, brothers of Dean Stevens, have been visiting in the family home the past week.

Miss Reneau Entertains

Kappa Sigma Theta sorority entertained the patronesses at tea in the home of Miss Georgia Reneau, faculty advisor, on Wednesday, March 20. Daffodils and acacia, as a center piece, helped to carry out the green and yellow color scheme. A short program of music was given by Betty Robbins and Isabelle Moore. Decorations were taken care of by Margaret Harris and Katherine Larson. Those assisting on other committees for the day were Gertrude Hess, Louise Van Arsdale, Helen Ritchie, Olive Rees, Genevieve Grimes, and Ruth Frederickson.

The guest list included Messdames C. W. Topping, E. F. Dodds, A. E. Hillis, J. D. Register, H. D. Cheney, H. W. Cochran, C. W. Hubbard, J. I. Muffy, T. C. Rummel, W. A. Monroe, R. S. Wainwright, and O. H. Holmes.

"Folk Lore at Altrurian

Monday evening Altrurians were entertained with a fine program entitled "Folk-lore of the Northwest." The first number was a talk by Marian Johnson on "Paul Bunyan," mythological character and hero of James Stevens book of that name. For the second number Margaret Cheney spoke on "Indian Legends" and also told the meanings of many Indian names.

"Out Where the West Begins" was an extempo by Howard Schroedel. John O'Connor told some "Pioneer Tales," and Georgia Johnson read a paper on "Colonial Estey—Pioneer." Dr. Register gave the critic's report for the evening.

Amphic Holds Meeting

A St. Patrick's program was enjoyed by those present at Amphicyon last Monday. The numbers were as follows: "St. Patrick" Elinor Taylor; "My Wild Irish Rose," Ethel Trotter; "Irish Customs," Mable Miller; "Irish Wit," extempo, Carol Lindsay; "Irish Legends," Frank Neyhart; "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" and "Irish Love Song," by Dorothy Gilmore, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. O. B. Gilmore. The program was concluded by Joe Baker, who talked on "The Present Status of Ireland."

Sigma Delta Holds Meeting

The Sigma Delta Beta club met Saturday evening at the home of Lula and Earl Newbern, on the occasion of Mr. Newbern's birthday. One new couple, Beatrice and Frank Rumball, was added to the organization. The evening was spent in that most interesting way where everyone does as he pleases. Most of the members played Pit and some played Rook. As an added attraction each had to make an Easter bonnet for his wife. Although the colors didn't all harmonize on all the hats it was believed that they could take their place among other bonnets of the season. Rex Norton won the prize for having the most attractive bonnet.

Dinner was served in the early evening to the following members: Inez and Ben Brandt, Nora and Claude Walker, Blythe and Willard Stanton, Cloma and Rex Norton, Beatrice and Frank Rumball, Harold Bashor, and the host and hostess Lulu and Earl, Newbern.

LEMON TO SPEAK TO PARENT GROUP

Dean Allan C. Lemon will address the general session of the King County Teacher's Association at their annual meeting in Bothell, Washington, March 23.

Pitching Staff May Prove Downfall of Logger Squad; Hurlers Are Weak

Puget Sound Diamond Men Are Reporting Daily; New Men Are Showing Up Well; Two Players Are Out

The batteries may prove to be the downfall of the Logger varsity baseball team this spring unless some unknown wonders appear in Coach Hubbard's training camp before the spring vacation. As has been the case the past two or three seasons the lack of enough pitching and catching material is a decided handicap to the Maroon and White ball club. The prospect of a good team depends mainly upon the infield and outfield and in the hitting of the whole club. The infield material is about the best that Coach Hubbard has had since he has coached the Puget Sound baseball team. Four new men who are turning out for infield positions have shown well in early practice.

Henry Plays Second

Doug Henry, who plays second base has had considerable experience and should prove to be a big factor in the Loggers defense. Whit Lees, a frosh who is a shortstop, Richard Jorgenson, a first sacker, and Louie Spadafore, a third baseman, all look good.

The infield has three lettermen. Kepka, a second baseman, Gynn who handles the hot corner and Ferguson, a natural first sacker.

The pitching staff will be Ferguson, Jessup, Kovak and Copeland.

Ferguson Back

Ferguson has had plenty of varsity experience, having held a berth at first, and also served as relief pitcher. Jessup is coming along nicely and looks like he will be really useful to his mentor. Coplan and Kovak have plenty of steam and bid fair to round out a sweet band of chuckers.

There seems to be a slight dearth of good catchers, Lappenbusch being the only letterman. Nelson has been working out behind the plate, but is inexperienced and though willing has lots to learn.

Outfield Good

Hubbard has plenty of outfield

Women Plan Cinder Tournery; Many Training for New Sport at Puget Sound

Tournaments to Be Commenced Soon at Puget Sound; Women's Track Meet Dates Named by Wainwright

For the first time in years, the women of the College are training for a track meet, which will be held later in the spring. Two years ago the meet was held without training, and the results were not the best, of course. Last year cricket was substituted for track, but did not prove to be a popular sport, partly because of the clownishness of the game and partly because of the demand for track and field events.

Many Are Working

With the coming of the spring weather, it is not at all uncommon to see the women athletes running once or twice around the track, high jumping, putting the shot, throwing the javelin or even hurdling.

Attempts as yet are not so good as it is expected they will be later, but there are some who show that with practice they will be outstanding in one or two particular lines.

Interest in track is keen and easily rivaling that shown for archery a month ago.

material. Croxall, the heaviest slugger on the club, is taking his old berth in the garden, and if he duplicates his hitting in the Willamette game last year, when he hits nine safely in ten trips to the plate, he will break up more than one ball game. LePenske, Hannus, and Gillihan are old hands and will round out a nice outfield defense. Mike, although new to the team has had plenty of work, and will keep the regulars working for their jobs.

Lineup Promising

The coach is planning to win games by willow-work more than ever this season, and his lineup is very promising in this respect. He has a murderer's row in his club now and could easily make his team a nightmare for the opposing pitchers. With good weather the turn-outs will rapidly round the club into shape, as the fever is in the air. It's baseball weather.

DEAN ADDRESS EDUCATION MEET

Next Wednesday the penultimate lecture in the Parent Education series will be given when Dr. Allan C. Lemon, dean of the College of Puget Sound, will speak on "Emotions and Complexes of Childhood." This will be followed on April 10, by an address on "Problems of Adolescence" which will terminate the group of lectures.

These talks have been given at intervals during the year for the purpose of interesting and instructing parents of the city in the proper care and training of children. Many interesting and instructive talks have been given and the attendance has been very satisfactory.

Dean Lemon is recognized throughout the Northwest as eminent in the field of Child psychology, and the talk April 10 will be given by Dr. Samuel Weir, head of the department of education.

Both of the lectures will be presented at 2:30 on the afternoons scheduled, and will be free of admission. It is anticipated that a large number of interested folk will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear the two talks.

FASSETT NAMED CINDER CAPTAIN

Minard Fassett will lead the 1929 track team of the College of Puget Sound, having been elected by the lettermen last Wednesday.

"Spigot" is a four-year varsity track man on the Logger team. He runs the mile and two mile events and holds the Northwest Conference records in these two events.

Women's Tennis Chances Enhanced by Return of Helen De Line to Squad

Prospects for women's varsity tennis look brighter than they did earlier in the season, with the return of Helen DeLine to the line-up. Helen's record in Stadium is one to be envied. Having won the championship during her Sophomore and Junior years, she was barred from competition for the last year, but carried off the honors when she challenged the winner of that season. It was thought that because of an accident during the winter, she would not be able to enter the tournament, but with the news of her entrance hopes of conference honors have risen.

Tournaments to Start
It was announced by Mrs. Wainwright, last Thursday that the three groups of tennis tournaments would

INTEREST IS STILL HIGH IN ARCHERY

Feminine Robin Hoods Move Out of Door to Practice

Interest in archery is still high, but has come up with renewed vigor the past few days when the fair weather made it possible to take the target outside. Fewer arrows are broken now, because there is no wall for them to strike when they miss the target, however, there is the new danger of losing them in the long grass, as many of them do not yet find their way to the colored circles, in spite of the progress which has been made steadily for two months.

The final contest promises to be more interesting than any previous contest, because of the keener feeling of competition this year, also the greater amount of practice which has been held.

PRODIGY IS PRESENTED AT CHAPEL

Jean Ito Astounds With Demonstration of Ability

The Music Department of the College of Puget Sound presented six-year-old Jean Ito, a little Japanese girl, in a piano recital during chapel period Friday, March 15. Miss Lucile Murbach, a student of the College is her teacher. Her program was as follows:

- "Turkish March" Beethoven
- "Japanese Doll" Spaulding
- "Sailor Doll" Spaulding

- "Sonata Mignononne" Marie Seuel Holst
- "Hungarian Dance" Englmann
- "Country Dance" Spaulding
- "Little Corporal" Gaynor-Blake

- "The Chariot Race" Francis
- "March of the Wee Folks" Gaynor
- "Riding Horse" Jean Ito

Jean's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Ito, of the Japanese Episcopal Church in Kent, were also introduced.

DEAN LEMON WILL GO TO CONVENTION

American Association of Collegiate Registrars is completing plans for a National Convention to be held in Seattle April 16-18, 1929. Dean Lemon will attend the sessions as a representative of Puget Sound. "The Field of the Registrar's Activities" is the general theme which will be discussed throughout the convention.

Annual Inter-Class Track Meet Will Be Held Wednesday and Thursday

Fifty Men Turning Out Each Night Under Favorable Conditions; Many Records Expected to Fall; New Men Look Good, Standing Records Given Out

The annual inter-class track meet will be held Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

During the past two weeks men turning out for the track sport have had excellent weather for conditioning. Over fifty men have been out daily limbering up. This is quite an increase in numbers over the past track seasons.

While there are plenty of men training, no definite predictions as to their ability can be made as yet because time trials have not been taken. The inter-class events in which all men are eligible, should bring out a number of new men.

Records will probably be broken in the meet next week. If Minard Fassett is in good spirits, the mile and two mile times should be lowered. The shot and discus marks might be broken by John Garner, the conference title holder in these events. There are a number of men in the hurdle race that show promise of lowering the time! They are Amos Booth and Ray Croxall lettermen, and Archie Calahan and Melvin Goheen, frosh. Russ Schwen looks good in the javelin and pole vault events.

The records of past interclass track meets have been compiled by the Trail—

- Inter-class records.
- High hurdles, Fred Carruthers, '27, 17.1
- 100-yard dash, Don Darrow, '27, 10.4
- 440-yard dash, Red Tatum, '26, 54.3
- Mile run, "Spig" Fassett, '28, 4:53.0

SOPHOMORES IN INTERCLASS WIN

The Sophomore women's team carried off the honors last week in the annual baseball tournament, by winning from the upperclass and Freshman teams. The women of the Junior and Senior classes won their contest from the Frosh, but lost to the champions.

As a surprise in the series, the first year women lost both games. Although they had not been counted as the chief contenders for the honors, nevertheless judging from practices, much more was expected of them.

LET'S BEGIN TO BOOST

Sometimes it comes to our attention that knocking does not always have the desired effect. Occasionally we find ourselves face to face with the fact that a positive attitude on life gets more done, creates more happiness in the world, and in the long run is worth much more than the carping critical viewpoint.

So today we would like to consider some of the things which make this College of Puget Sound a pretty nice place to attend. Situated here on the borders of Puget Sound, in a land known to real estate agents and outdoors lovers as God's Paradise, blessed with the fairest summers and the mildest winters of the globe, located in the midst of a growing, thriving city, the College of Puget Sound can consider itself about as fortunate as any young and struggling school could ever be.

A new campus large enough for indefinite growth, offers opportunity for advancement that many a better situated institution could envy. A student body, growing every year, composed of the highest type of students offers an opportunity for friendships and fraternities that cannot be excelled.

We have much to boast. We can do much to boost. It is up to each and every student of the College of Puget Sound to take a positive attitude for a change.

COLOR POST PAINTED

One of the things that we would like to commend is the new coat of paint and the pretty numerals that now adorn the color post. For a long time this post, one of the oldest traditions of the school, has been neglected. Instead of an object of interest it has been an eyesore upon the campus.

The other day a painter came along and began to dress the tradition up. We began to discover the dates of the classes, their quadrants, the number entering and the number graduating four years later. People began to flock around and a tradition which was lying dormant sprang into life and became an asset.

We commend the timely restoration of this landmark and are happy to view its completion. Let's get together for the canopy now.

MY NEIGHBOR'S DOG

Essay by Margaret Swanson

I'm very fond of dogs as a rule—even bulldogs when they are firmly leashed. In fact I'm sure that I'm one of those persons that animals immediately recognize as a friend and lonely dogs always follow. As I said I have a great love for animals, but that love is not big enough to encompass the dog next door. There would be something radically wrong in the man whom that dog would instinctively follow.

From the moment I first saw him I disliked him and judging from the cold hostile look in his yellow eyes he returned that feeling.

"He's a very rare dog," my neighbor told me enthusiastically, "some sort of special breed. I never have seen one like him before."

I looked at the dog coldly. He was a short, heavy, animal with short smooth snuff-colored hair and whiskers like a sea lion.

"Neither have I," I said dully.
"Up, Bismark, up," he continued, snapping his fingers briskly but Bismark only looked at him wearily and never budged. Feeling that I was expected to do something, I bent over to pet him but an ominous growl made me change my mind. That was the beginning of our hostilities and they have continued undiminished.

My garden has become his favorite burial grounds and my lawn the refuse heap of the neighborhood. He chews up my evening paper and frightens away my callers. Since he has formed the habit of reclining on my doorstep every evening, I have been entering through the back door.

My usual evening calls on my neighbor have become fewer and briefer. Although by nature I am a long-suffering, peaceful individual, nothing makes me feel quite so murderous as when Bismark growls at my heels and my neighbor says in that silly fashion he has acquired.

"Funny, isn't it, but Bismark never has liked you. Dogs just don't take to some people," and then he stoops and fondles that unresponsive brute.

So far the victories have all been on Bismark's side but now I've reached the turning point, my fighting blood has been aroused and I have decided upon a course of action. Tomorrow I shall buy the most ferocious bulldog I can find and Bismark may learn to keep his place.

COLLEGIANA

SKIRTS REMAIN SHORT

This article might be entitled "The Correct and Sensible Dress for the Modern Co-ed," and under that heading might be listed several hints or suggestions of importance to the women at least. In the first place, the co-eds of the University of Nevada have denied the fact that a woman's chief attention is on clothes.

"There is too much else to do to be bothered with thinking of clothes all the time," said one.

"Another declared that fads are silly and are going out of style anyway. The main idea is to wear clothes that look nice, do not soil easily, and don't go to extremes.

Hats are not being worn by the co-ed, as a rule, even in the chilly weather."

Last but not least, college women now say that they will not give up the freedom of modern dress, in fact "The short skirt is here to stay!"

Hike Through Europe

A group of University of Southern California students is planning a "hitch-hike" through Europe next summer. The total cost is not expected to exceed $25.

Women Spoil Rooting Section

It seems that other colleges have troubles as well as ours. Here's a quotation from the University of Nevada:

"What is the matter with this Campus. It's war, war, war! If it isn't one thing it seems to be another. It has been the women against the men and then the men against the women ever since I was a freshman. First it was the rooting section. The men claimed the women ruined their rooting; claimed that they could have no organized rooting, and so we have the mens rooting section and the women's section."

The article went on to tell about numerous other difficulties, ending with this:

"The University of Nevada needs the support of its students, its men and its women, not as a divided body, but as a unit, working for the betterment and upbuilding of the institution."

Seniors Not Favorites

MUSIC CONTEST AT PUGET SOUND

Being, as it is, an innovation of major importance, the contest is expected to attract contestants from a large number of Pierce County high schools. Saturday, May 4, has been announced as the date of the contest. It will be held in the college auditorium.

A grand concert of all the winners is to be held in the evening in the college auditorium. At this time all the winners of the individual contests will give their numbers again. The winning boys' glee clubs and the girls' glee clubs will sing and receive their rewards. The mixed choruses will be massed into one organization and sing under a competent director. The orchestras will play as one organization, also the bands. Awards to the groups will be made at this time.
