WELCOME BACK HOME, PUGET SOUND ALUMS!!!

$150,000 HOWARTH FUND LEGAL, SCIENCE HALL WILL BE RENAMED

Judgment Assures Securing of Rockefeller Foundation for C. P. S.; Dr. Todd Is Notified; Remaining $50,000 to Be Used for Student Scholarships; Endowment Now Totals $2,000,000

Legal approval of the $150,000 Howarth bequest to the College of Puget Sound was granted yesterday morning in the court of Superior Judge Fred G. Remann. This action assures the securing of the Rockefeller Foundation endowment fund totalling $125,000, according to a statement by Bursar Charles A. Robbins, financial secretary for the college, yesterday.

Of the Howarth fund $100,000 will be used to pay off the mortgage on Science Hall, and the remaining $50,000 will provide a scholarship fund. In the future the science building will be known as the Leonard Howarth Hall of Science. In it there will be placed a picture of the late Leonard Howarth and a case with the books used by his father, Richard Thomas Howarth, in England.

Six Students Rate 'A' Average

Scholarships Offered

Details are to be drawn up regarding the $50,000 which will form a fund to provide scholarships for C. P. S. students.

A special ceremony is anticipated for the official renaming of Science Hall. Details will be announced at a later date.

The Howarth bequest was taken up before Judge Remann for the purpose of determining whether or not the College of Puget Sound is a charitable institution and as such entitled to the bequest under the terms of Mr. Howarth's will. The court held, after the presentation of evidence and the reading of citations in similar cases, that the college is a charitable institution and signed the order providing that it be the recipient of the bequest.

Trustees Willing

J. A. Coleman, Everett attorney, representing the executors and trustees of the estate, told the court they were willing that the money go to the Tacoma educational institution, but wanted the question of its charitable status adjudicated first.

Bursar Robbins called as a witness by Dix H. Rowland, attorney representing the institution, testified that the revenues of the school come from gifts, income from invested endowment and student fees. The student fees, he said, are less than one-half of the expenses of the college.

Trip to McMinnville Is Great Success

Pep Is Displayed By C. P. S. Rooters

In the wee small hours Saturday morning, the regular train for Portland pulled out of the station. In the pullmans, the only sounds were the gentle snores of the sleepers. In the coaches, the passengers tossed on the seats, trying to find a position comfortable enough to permit sleep. But in the last coach before the pullmans, there was no sleep, no quiet, and apparently no sanity. Perched on the back of one of the seats was a blonde young lady, her fingers strumming a banjo-uke. All the popular tunes were played, then the college songs, and back to start through the jazz songs again. Down in one end of the car, two couples were trying to play bridge, but no one could seem to remember what was trumps and what wasn't.

Finally the train reached Portland. Upon inquiring at the information desk, they found that they had been misinformed as to the cost of the trip to McMinnville from Portland. A hurried checking of the individual purses finally satisfied the owners that they possess-

Carry-over a motion by Bonita Reeder, who graduated last June, to spend the remaining money in the treasury in this way, the trophy was purchased.

Dr. Todd Starts On Return Trip

Sailing today from New York, President Edward H. Todd is starting his trip home. He spent Wednesday in Washington, D. C. going directly to New York from there.

"Dr. Todd writes that he has had a wonderful trip," said Mrs. Todd. "He particularly liked the fine speeches given at the Ecumenical Conference."

When Bishop Moore of the Southern Methodist Church addressed the conference, he declared that the Methodist Church must stand for the prohibition laws. According to Dr. Todd, the audience arose as one man to applaud him. Dr. Todd referred to this as one of the most thrilling events of the conference.

Dr. Todd is returning through the Panama Canal and is expected back on November 18 or 19.

The following letter was received by Dean Raymond G. Drewry from President Todd:

"It seems strange to be attending a gathering where the theme is not education. But—education is wonderfully exemplified. It is rather strenuous to be in three sessions a day, two of about three hours and one of two hours.

"The addresses are carefully prepared with terminal facilities. All will be published and I am ordering one so all of you folks may have the privilege of reading them.

"Tell the students that I think of them while listening. They are preparing to take the places of these cultured laymen of various vocations and positions, and ministers and educators. Their places are to be filled by young men and women who are studying today. As these people represent a different world to that which their fathers presented, so must the next generation be prepared to represent another. It has become different and generally stronger and better through a process of development. So it will ever be. Anyway I wish students and faculty might have the privilege of meeting and hearing these men and women from all parts of the world. Great personalities are here. With greetings for all and praying for you all I am sincerely yours.

(Signed) Edward H. Todd."

Charity Drive To End Today

Following this meeting students will go to the R. K. O. in a body where a special program has been arranged by the management. "A pagan Lady" starring Conrad Nagal and Evelyn Brent is the feature picture. Special numbers which have been arranged for the show will also be given. Tickets for the show, which will be on sale all day today, so that the college may have the benefit of receiving 25% of the receipts. Only those tickets which are sold at school will be counted in this group. The price set is 60 cents.

To Parade Betsy

Plans have been made to carry Betsy around town on a truck tomorrow morning to arouse pep among outsiders for the homecoming game which is scheduled with Willamette University in the Stadium Bowl. The time set for the kickoff is 2:00 P. M. Preceding the game Willamette rooters will be met at the station in cars and carried to the field.

The alumni banquet has been arranged for 6:30 P. M. at the Bonneville Hotel with the faculty and trustees as honored guests. A committee under the leadership of Amos Booth has sent out form letters to all alumni notifying them of the banquet and homecoming plans. The price is 75 cents a plate.

As the concluding feature on the program an all-college dance will be held at the Scottish Rite Cathedral Saturday evening at 9:00 P. M. Music will be furnished by Dick Adams' orchestra.

PLAY IN CHAPEL TO BE PRESENTED BY TRAIL STAFF

"Just Advertise" a one-act comedy in three scenes is to be produced during Chapel on Monday. The play is given with the purpose of getting the students interested in the value of advertising. The play is centered around two girls, one who believes in advertising and another who doesn't. The part of Jane is played by Peggy Scudder, Christine by Ruth Moline and the policeman by Bill Huntsman.

"If the students themselves are interested in advertising, then I believe they will patronize the advertisers of the Trail who make the paper possible. It is absolutely essential that they recognize the importance of doing their bit," quotes Ruth Moline, advertising manager of the paper.

The presentation of "Just Advertise" is the beginning of a campaign to persuade C. P. S. to patronize Trail advertisers only.

Y. W. SPONSORS FASHION SHOW

Latest Collegiate Frocks Are Displayed

To the strains of popular airs—the season's latest fashions for coeds were displayed Tuesday, October 27, during chapel hour in the auditorium. Helen Carlson presided over the Y. W. C. A. presentation of coats and frocks loaned by courtesy of the Fisher Co. The mannequins were: Ethelyn Lewellyn, Betty Francisco, Edith Gustafson, Esther Stockton, Eloise Wood and Zenia Fix. As they were introduced each in turn, their dresses were emphasized and prices were quoted by Miss Mable Wagenblast, the Fisher Co. representative.

During the modeling Jane Haas played popular musical numbers on the piano. The presentation was made in two groups; the first showed sport dresses, coats and jackets while the second showed formal and informal afternoon frocks. Brown and green were the most popular colors displayed, but as usual black commanded the admiration of the spectators. A special feature was the appearance of two new colors, Persian green and Spanish tile.

Frocks Lead
One piece frocks led the sports creations without doubt. Noticeable among this type were: a new Spanish tile with white pique detachable collar and cuffs, a brown knit varied with figured bodice, a contrast dress—black with modernistic touches of green. A light woolen dress of brown was enlivened by two dashes of orange on the lapels. A combination that is of deep interest to students was the bright green dress under a camel skin coat with a raccoon fur shown by Edith Gustafson.

Double-duty dresses interest the afternoon "fashioner." They are dresses which have jackets, all being made of one color of material except the dress bodice. Miss Ethelyn Lewellyn received the acclamation of the audience when she displayed a black chiffon velvet, void of any ornament save a tiny sparkling clasp at the throat. A plain flared skirt gives it slenderizing and youthful lines which makes it well suited to college co-eds. A black taffeta, rhinestone trimmed around the neck, which was worn by Eloise Wood, won the applause of the group.

"I Don't Know Why" was sung by a trio—Carol Hanson, Charlotte Cook and Ethelyn Lewellyn and was accompanied by Edith Maddock. Sally Lawson played "Old Black Joe" and "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise" as intermission numbers.

Instructor: "Mr. Ash, name three animals peculiar to the Arctic regions."
Larry Hedrick: "The elephant, lion and tiger would be peculiar to the Arctic, but seals, walrus and polar bears live there."

Hysterical Theta Pledge Searches For Ancient Horse

"Hello, have you got an old horse you could lend me?"

"What?" the dairyman asked, alarmed. "What did you say?" he repeated in more soothing terms. Evidently he had heard that the insane should be treated gently.

"I said, 'I'd like to borrow an old horse for awhile because—'" but the dairyman had hung up. Such questions greeted astounded ears in offices of every dairy and lumber company within the radius of free telephoning. Probably, if the particular Theta pledge in search of the animal had had a quarter she would have tried long distance. Junk shops, it seems, have no telephones.

The dignified major at the State Armory informed her that they had no old nags in stock and couldn't lend their superior creatures to anyone.

Late in the evening a man at Lakeview was roused by the telephone bell.

"Have you a horse?" whispered the Theta in a weakened voice.

"Yes."

"Is it old? Is it slow?"

"Well, it's no flaming youth." After many agonizing moments of explanation a dilapidated horse was finally found for Kappa Sigma Theta's entrant for the race tomorrow, between halves of the big game.

But there was no free truck available or any old abandoned derrick lying in anyone's back yard. Elizabeth Miller volunteered to lead the animal in to town, but it was feared that her red hair might have a devastating effect upon the "critter."

Last minute news reports that the sorority is still madly searching for something rideable in order that the race may go on.

A football luncheon for alumni sorority sisters will be served before the game Saturday by the Lambda group in the Home Economics suite in Science Hall. A meeting will be held in the sorority room before the luncheon which will be served at 12:30. The chairman for the affair is Grace Johnson.

Open house will be held this evening before the bonfire by members of the Kappa Sigma Theta group from 5 till 7:30 o'clock in the Theta room.

Delta Alpha Gamma will entertain with a homecoming banquet this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Modern Inn.

A football motif has been planned by the committee, which includes Dorothy Krogstad, chairman, and Lorraine and Lola Sanders.

Alumni members of Alpha Beta Upsilon will be honored at a banquet at the Beta house at 3106 North 19th Street at 6:30 o'clock this evening. A Hallowe'en motif will be used by the committee in charge: Mary Garnett, chairman, Harriett McGill, and Nugget Bishop.

Irate farmer: "Young man, what are you going up in that tree?"
"Coke" McConnell (meekly):
"Please sir, an apple fell down and I was just trying to put it back."

MAROON AND WHITE SQUAD VICTORIOUS OVER LINFIELD WILDCATS BY 18-6 COUNT

Loggers Come From Behind to Defeat Oregonians; Bagley, Left Half, Starts Scoring Spree by Running Second Half Kickoff Back for Locals First Touchdown

After being on the short end of the score for two periods, the C. P. S. Loggers came to life and scored three touchdowns in the last half to down the Linfield Wildcats at McMinnville, Oregon last Saturday by an 18 to 6 score. The victory brought the Logger's percentage in the Northwest Conference standing to .333, with one game won and two lost. The Maroon and White received a scare early in the first period when Wess, Linfield star, intercepted one of Art Bagley's forward passes, and galloped 80 yards to dig his cleats in scoring territory. This gave his team a lead which they managed to hold for two quarters.

Bagley Scores

Both teams battled on even terms during the second period with no one able to push the oval across the goal line. On the kickoff at the start of the third quarter Bagley, Logger back, electrified the stands with a spectacular 80-yard return of the kickoff, scoring a touchdown. The try-for-point failed. "Ocky" Johnson scored on a 32-yard run after Link had recovered a Linfield fumble. Again the conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Puget Sound made another attempt to score during this period when Brush blocked a punt on the 37-yard line. The ball was pushed to the Wildcat's 1-yard line where C. P. S. was stopped without scoring. The final touchdown was made by Sterling in the fourth quarter by a line buck. The attempt to add the point after touchdown failed again.

Linfield Outplayed

The Loggers completely outplayed their Oregon rivals and scored 19 first downs to 4 for Linfield. Both teams fumbled the ball several times, one of which proved costly

PICK WOMEN'S HOCKEY TEAMS

Practice Sessions Will Be Played Next Week

At the conclusion of this week's turnouts Miss Pernina Collins announced today the hockey teams selected for the four class teams. Practice sessions by class teams will be played next week, weather permitting, with the real games to be run off starting the following week.

Because there were only five senior girls turning out this season, the senior team will be composed of five freshman and one sophomore girl with all of these earning first-team points. Those girls composing the senior-underclass team are: Center forward, Mary Garnett; inners, Frances Bjorkman, Florence Watts; wings, Georgia Johnson, Hazel Betchart; center half, Margaret McCaskey; fullbacks, Nina Ball, Geneva Hubley; halfbacks, Betty Ogle, Lois Twaddle; goalie, Eliza Dahlgren; substitutes include Katherine Drushel, Louise Woods, and Beverly Thompson.

The junior team will be composed of: Center forward, Emily Nightingale; inners, Jane Porter, Virginia Bigelow; wings, Lorraine Arthur, Mildred Eaken, Aurabelle Harding; center half, Mieke Izaki; halfbacks, Esther Power, Marion Langton; fullbacks, Melba Alleman, Winifred Holm; goalie, Elizabeth Mann.

Members of the sophomore team will be: Center forward, Josie North; inners, Vivian Larsen, Marian Sherman; wings, Dora Langton, Margaret James; center half, Elizabeth Spencer; halfbacks, Mildred Schaad, Dorothy Foxwell; fullbacks, Edna Creswell, Molly Gilpatrick; goalie, Bernice Brown. Substitutes are Esther Harstad, Viola Spangenburg and Elverna Larsen.

The Freshman Class will have representing them: Center forward, Grace Weller; inners, Jean Raleigh, Dessel Davis; wings, Margaret Giesey, Marjorie Dews; center half, Lucy Van Vechten; halfbacks, Betty Francisco, Sarah Tierney; fullbacks, Marguerite McMaster, Thelma Melnes; goalie, Marjorie Johnson. Substitutes will be Brunhilde Wisloenus, Maxine Hartl and Jane Wichman.

Logger Students List All-College Handball Tourney

An all-college handball tournament, sponsored by the intramural sports department, will be run off shortly at the Y. M. C. A. court, according to an announcement by Physical Director Lou Grant.

Students wishing to enter the tournament are requested to sign the notice posted on the bulletin board before Wednesday. The deadline for receiving entrants is set for November 4, and the event will open the following week. Charles H. Kent, physical director at the "Y," is cooperating with Grant in staging the tourney.

Several outstanding hand ball artists are attending school this year, and a number of tough matches are expected to be produced in the semi-final and final rounds. J. Herman Mattson, Leonard Mollne, Dave Martin and Gerald Hanson have had extended experience on the court, while several others are expected to show to an advantage during the tourney.

It is expected that out of the all-college tourney an intramural meet will be formed. Practically every fraternity on the campus has at least one strong handball player on its roster, and a hard-fought tournament looms in the making.

Reserve Squad Will Play Game Tomorrow A. M.

Grays Harbor Junior College Comes Here For Grid Tilt

Fresh from their 12 to 6 victory over the Bellarmine Lions last Wednesday, the Logger Reserves are working hard in preparation for their most important game of the season, that with the Grays Harbor Junior College. The game is to be played Saturday at 10 A. M. on the U. S. Veterans Hospital grounds at American Lake.

Although the Reserves have twice defeated Bellarmine and humbled the Stadium Tigers once this season, the men from Aberdeen are favored to take the encounter because of their impressive record. Early in the season they humbled the Cliffdwellers of Columbia University at Portland, the team that the Logger varsity had a hard time in defeating. The two elevens played each other last season with the C. P. S. team on the short end of a 33 to 0 score. The members of the Junior College squad are practically all former high school stars from Aberdeen and Hoquiam high schools, and the school is coming to the front with strong grid elevens each season.

Coach Vic Ranta has been handicapped by the lack of material this season. Although the material turning out is good the number has not been very large. In spite of this, Ranta has developed a strong eleven that can be depended upon to make a good showing in its games. The punting department has been handled by Nelson and Piety. Piety, weighing 185 pounds, is halfback who is fast and shifty and will undoubtedly see plenty of action in the Saturday game. MacDougal at fullback is the center of the passing attack that will be used if the field is dry. The line has been strengthened by the addition of Fred Grange at tackle.

The probable starting lineup for the Reserves is as follows: ends, Johnson and Christman; tackles, Crippen and Grange; guards, Powders and Hanson or Halley; center, Wood; quarterback, Nelson; halfbacks, Gibson and Rawlings; fullback, MacDougal. Others who will probably see action in the tussles are Bardsley, Petrich, Wright and Billings on the line and Onstad, Erickson and Piety in the backfield.

Endowment

sum of $300 was requested from the students in chapel Wednesday. Only one-third of this was given, but the deficiency was made up by the faculty of the school.

Bursar Charles A. Robbins spoke briefly on the general benefits of the Community Chest before the collection was taken Wednesday.

The 1932 drive is the eleventh annual campaign. The goal of the drive which ends today is $197,550. Of this amount $51,837.50 will go towards an emergency relief fund.

This year 77 per cent of each dollar will go for the relief and care of dependents, 16 per cent toward character building and 7 per cent for the chest administration. As an example of the work carried on by the Community Chest 911,629 free meals were furnished to impoverished citizens, 104,545 quarts of milk were given to dependent school children, 10,831 visits were made to the bedside of sick people and 69,105 free beds were furnished for homeless men during the course of last year.

Nippons vs. Sigma Zeta

The Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity remained undefeated after their game with the Nippons Tuesday as they took the Independent team down by the score of 19 to 6. #### Omicron vs. Independents

Thursday's second game found the supposedly weak Independent team rise to new heights and hold the hard-hitting Delta Pi Omicrons to a score of 13 to 9. The game was undecided until the last of the sixth, when the Omicrons found themselves and scored seven runs. ### WILLAMETTE BEARCATS MEET LOGGERS; KICK-OFF SCHEDULED FOR 2:00 P.M. SAT.

Opponents Favored to Win But C. P. S. Expects to Upset Dope Sheets; Willamette University is Tied for First Place In Conference Standings

Determined to upset the powerful Willamette University aggregation, the College of Puget Sound Loggers are ready for their annual clash with the Bearcats in the Stadium bowl tomorrow afternoon with the kick-off scheduled at 2 p. m. The Bearcats come to the Stadium bowl favored to win over their age-old rivals as they possess one of the strongest teams in the history of the school. Tied with Whitman for Conference honors, they are determined to maintain a clean slate in the race for the championship.

Many students, including coeds, have inquired about the progress of the smoker that will be given in the near future. Dick Link furnishes some of the details. Both boxing and wrestling matches will be presented.

The main event will be between Roy Dunning and Bernis Yenter. Both men have had plenty of experience in the sport. Dunning boxed during his school days and last year while attending W. S. C. he was rated as heavy-weight champion at that institution. Yenter has seen action in several matches, many of which have been in the main event position.

In a re-match from last year's card Ed "Eagle Eye" Kenrick and Jack "Pop" Slatter will be seen in action. Last year these two men held the crowd in laughter with their original and patented holds and were given a draw for their efforts.

Ah! The week of weeks has arrived. We mean, of course, that teams are being picked this week. For those who do not make the grade this time, remember that old saying—If at first you don't succeed, try, try again.

Mildred Eaken and Betty Ogle, and maybe a few others, are our honored guests of the week for this column. Anyone who hikes over 20 miles a week deserves a big hand, which we are now giving. Which do you girls advertise? Blue-green or violet ray gas.

For speed and quickness in hitting and stopping that ball in hockey turnouts, little Mieke Izaki is a very good person to watch. That is, if one can keep track of her.

Believe it or not, Jane Porter is fast learning to dive. At least, she's trying hard. Perhaps those life saving lessons on Monday afternoons will prove of more worth than realized before. That reminds us, Esther Power could show some of us how a dive or two is done.

If our friend, Mr. Rain, does not leave soon, the women hockey players will probably have to use football suits. They are used to the rain and mud by now, after the last two games.

To all our alumni athletes we invite you to visit the gym once again and meet our new instructor, Miss Collins. As perhaps you remember, the gym is the building at the end of the board walk. (These directions being made very specific.) We'll be looking for all the star athletes of former years to pay us a visit.

Presenting B. Yenter And E. Mura

Introducing Bernis Yenter and Ed "Truck" Mura, two of Shelton's outstanding native sons, who are now making their bids for fame as members of Coach Roy Sandberg's Logger football squad. Yenter graduated from Shelton High School in 1931; Mura preceded him a year.

Mura is a regular tackle on the Lumberjack eleven, and has done efficient work at the post, despite a long period of inactivity due to injuries. His favorite hobbies are roller skating and dancing—that's a hint, women. At present he is working in the commons, and it is rumored that he wields a mean dishrag. During the summer he works in the woods, and gets considerable enjoyment out of the hunting and fishing that go along with his work.

You can't talk to Yenter without finally drifting around to the subject of boxing. He would like to eat, drink, sleep and talk boxing the rest of his days, and is said to be fair at the Marquis of Queensbury's famous pastime, having done some amateur boxing in his home town. Fishing and hunting are his other favorite diversions, and he gets plenty of the latter while working for the forest service each summer. He, too, works in the commons and vies with Mura for the dishwashing championship of the kitchen.

Sterling Injured
 The Loggers were given a severe setback by the announcement that Sterling, quarterback, will more than likely be out of the game as a result of an injured knee sustained in the Linfield game last Saturday.

While Sterling's loss will be keenly felt, Koski, freshman understudy to Sterling, should be able to take over the duties at that position. During the past week Coach Sandberg has used him at the key position and has shown favorable results in his work.

No other injuries have been reported on the squad and on the eve of the big game the men are apparently in fine condition. The Loggers have been slow to develop this year, but with the decisive victory over Linfield last week they are beginning to click.

Willamette Brings Strong Team
 Last year Willamette defeated the locals 21-0. They are given the same odds to win this year, but by a much smaller margin. The Bearcats will present to Tacoma fans an experienced team of which three men are rated as all-conference material.

Captain Jones, all conference tackle for two years, is considered even better than in previous years and should give the Loggers plenty of trouble. On the other side of the line is Carpenter, also all conference tackle, and in the backfield is Erickson, conference fullback.

Willamette outweighs the locals considerably, and should the Stadium be sloppy at the time of the game, their power plays will stand them in good favor.

Jimmy Ennis will carry the scoring responsibilities for the college. Past performances have proven him to be one of the speediest backs in the conference. He is a good blocker, passer and all-around ball packer and will more than likely give the Bearcats plenty of trouble before the afternoon is over.

Koski, quarter, Baker at full, and Johnny Newell at half will probably comprise the backfield for the starting lineup. On the line there have been no changes during the past week, except at right tackle. Slatter, who was out because of a foot injury, has returned for practice and will more than likely see action Saturday, alternating with Mura.

This game marks the final appearance of the Loggers on the home grounds. Next week they travel to Bellingham to meet Bellingham Normal and two weeks later they will end the season by meeting Pacific University at Forest Grove, Oregon.

The tentative lineup for tomorrow's game follows:

Willamette	C. P. S.
Kalzer	REL Pettibone
Jones	RTL Carlson
Smith	RGL Hickcox
Grannis	C Gagnon
Tweed	LGR Warwick
Carpenter	LTR Mura
Benjamin	LER Brush

FOOTBALL TRIPS AND CRITICISM

Logger students are contemplating an unofficial trip to Forest Grove on November 21, to see our Maroon and White grid team play Pacific University in the last conference game of the 1931 season.

The cost would be lower than that of the trip to McMinnville which was enjoyed last week. No special train is necessary for a large group of students to have a good time and at the same time show the team some genuine support.

Students are already discussing details of a trip to Pacific. Some are going. Others will go if they can be assured that they will not be censured as they were on the last trip. Ugly rumors originated in the office of the dean of women after the trip to Linfield. These criticisms of the trip were groundless inasmuch as it was not official in any manner. The students went on their own initiative with the permission of their parents. Consequently they were incensed by being criticised for not taking along a chaperone.

We are going to Pacific University on November 21. If some faculty member wants to come along, it's O. K. with us. But if no faculty chaperone accompanies the travellers, what of it?
 —D. H. C.

OUR LAST HOME GAME

The College of Puget Sound Loggers will be seen in action at home for the last time this year when they play Willamette University tomorrow. Naturally the students who have seen the local team in action this year will be there. But what about the others? Will they simply forget to come—or will they not care to watch a game that will be replete with football action?

These fellows know who they are but they will also probably be the ones who will not see this editorial. Loggers—gang—talk to these fellows. Get them interested in this game for we need them down in the stands. Let the old Logger by-word again be—"See you at the game tomorrow."
 —R. A. C.

RUMORS

In a college the size of C. P. S. we suppose that rumor is an unquenchable evil. But every one of us can help to control harmful rumor by spiking it at the start. Find out what you are talking about before gossiping.

The Trail office has been a hotbed of contention this week over editorial policy. Rumor had it that several faculty members were to be raked over the coals in this issue of the paper—and how excited those persons became who feared that their toes would be tread upon editorially.

It is not the policy of the Trail at the present time or in the future to criticize just for the sake of stirring up trouble. If we see something at fault on our campus we feel that it is our duty to call attention to the matter and suggest some change or improvement.

We do not intend to spend our time picking quarrels, and on the other hand we are not intimidated by rumored threats from various individuals and groups at the college.

Rumors are seldom true. If you expect to be razzed in our columns, come in and talk to the editor about it. Don't start more silly rumors.
 —D. H. C.

WHO WILL COACH THEM?

That womens' basketball will not be coached by men this year is the announcement that has created ill-feeling and dissatisfaction on the Logger campus this week. Resentment is heightened by a lack of explanation for the unexpected change.

Last season inter-sorority basketball created more interest than ever before. This was due directly to the installation of men coaches. The men not only knew enough about the game to turn out smoothly working teams, but worked up enough competition among themselves to put the tournament upon a basis of all-school interest. Through proper coaching last year, the women presented hard-fought and intensely interesting contests, instead of the farces usually common to girls' basketball.

The inter-sorority council, which normally rules sorority affairs, voted three to one in favor of men coaches this fall. Its decision has been over-ruled by the deans.

Now who will coach the girls this year? All women who know anything at all about the game will be on the floor playing for their sorority. Neither of the deans offered to solve this problem when they issued the decision. It isn't that the men are not available for coaching, for last year's coaches are anxious to resume their duties.

No logical reasons have been given for this action. There were no complaints last year from any player or spectator about the coaches, or the system they used. The teams want men coaches, the men are willing to give their time in helping—why can't the women have their coaches?

BY A PERSON IN PARTICULAR NOT PARTICULAR

Bernard Brotman: What did Solomon's wives say to him when he asked for a kiss?
 Gerry Hanson: A thousand times no!

Some people will kick about these jokes being old. Just remember that there's nothing new in this old world.

THEN THERE WAS THE YES MAN WHO ALWAYS FAILED IN A "YES AND NO" TEST.

Prof: Don't you think you are straining a point in your explanation?
 Bill Gunston: Perhaps I am, but you often have to strain things to make them clear.

PAPA: WHAT ARE THE YOUNG MAN'S INTENTIONS?
 BETA: WELL, HE'S BEEN KEEPING ME PRETTY MUCH IN THE DARK.

Max Hartl: How does your father know we were out in the car yesterday?
 Ed Rich: You know that man we ran into? Well, that was father!

PROFESSOR ROBERTS: GIVE ME A SENTENCE USING "PROFANITY."
 LEN MOLINE: DAMMIT!

She'll burn you up, Maxine De Rule—
 And make you feel
 Just like a fuel!

Kappa: We're going to have a novelty dance at our house.
 Zeta: Yeah?
 Kappa: Yeah, no necking after midnight.

DICK LINK: LOVE GIVES ME A PAIN IN THE NECK.
 WILBUR GOSS: MAYBE YOU'RE TOO ATHLETIC ABOUT IT.

Bill Nelson: I owe a lot to that old lady.
 Wally Hallberg: Your mother?
 Nelson: No, my landlady.

MARRY ME?
 AW, JUST THIS ONCE.

Dick Zhenner: Why is it women learn to swim more easily than men?
 Chick Guilford: Who wants to teach a man to swim?

Reporter: It's the truth that hurts, Editor Cooper: You never hurt anyone then.

Ken Ollar: Take off your hat Bungle.
 Ed Burroughs: What hat?
 Ollar: The one you're talking through.

NORMAN GILBERT: GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDS.
 SHE: THEN YOU DON'T LIKE BRUNETTES.
 GILBERT: OH, I'M NOT ALWAYS A GENTLEMAN.

Jim Montgomery: So you didn't go to Linfield? Where in heaven did you get that black eye?
 Minard Haines: Heaven's got nothing to do with it. I told the conductor my face was my ticket. He said his orders were to punch tickets.

Have you heard the story about the darky?
 Cooper: Hey, wait a minute we can't have any off color stories in this column.

Well, anyway, after the old negro woman had heard the parson enumerating nothing but her deceased husband's virtues at the funeral, said, "Pahson, you-all am buryin' de wrong man."

The courses some of our professors teach around C. P. S. must be Bedtime Story Courses judging the way the fellows sleep in their class rooms.

Two Years Ago

(Taken from the Trail for November 1, 1929)

Frank Mitchell, a sophomore, was so anxious to see the Logger-Pacific game at Portland last Saturday, that, after missing the eight o'clock train he went by airplane.

To pep the boys up for the big game Friday, the Logger team were guests at the Colonial Theater Wednesday night.

Dean Allan C. Lemon will give a series of lectures at the Standard Training School for religious workers in Seattle. This school begins November 3 and continues one week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hewitt presented to the college the three pictures that are hanging just inside the entrance of Jones Hall.

The annual University of Washington varsity ball will be dedicated to Edmond S. Meany, professor of history, and the oldest and most traditional figure of the campus.

The annual game between the Huskies and the Loggers is to be held in the Stadium bowl tonight. This is the first night game for the Loggers.

Patient (nervously): "And will the operation be dangerous, doctor?"
 Doctor: "Nonsense! You couldn't buy a dangerous operation for $40. dollars."

Policeman (to intoxicated man who is trying to fit his key to a lamppost): "I'm afraid there's nobody home there tonight."
 Stude: "Mus' be, Mus' be. Therah a light upstairsh."—The Corn Cob.

Student Letters

To Trail readers:

How many of you know that the College of Puget Sound has a reserve team on the gridiron? Sixteen young men make up this team that has won all its practice games against teams that in the past have trounced the C. P. S. supervarsity.

If you know this team exists, why don't you show it? True you must support the varsity and they deserve all the support and glory they are getting and more too. Yet, the reserves work just as hard and practice under greater handicaps. Why? Because they love the game. Nevertheless it is discouraging for these players to find that the athletic department has not taken the trouble to arrange a schedule for them, or even to assure them of the supposedly scheduled games.

The reserves will play Saturday morning, before, more than likely, empty stands and a vacant sideline. Yet, they will be fighting just as hard for C. P. S. as the varsity will be in the game against Willamette in the afternoon.

Don't you think it is only fair that this team should be given some little support, and perhaps, just perhaps, the athletic department could find a game or two for them to play. What do you readers think about it?
 —Kenneth L. Powers.

Prohibition League

At Southern Schools

Figuratively flying a banner inscribed "Allied Youth," representative students in the University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles, California Institute of Technology and Occidental College, joined together in a local law enforcement demonstration in Los Angeles recently, which is declared to be the greatest undertaking of its kind ever staged in Southern California.

Representatives of several student bodies, in conjunction with officers of various young people's organizations, constitute a local branch of an organization known as Allied Forces for Prohibition, having branches in 261 cities of the United States. The movement is non-partisan and non-sectarian, and its slogan is "Whenever a politician or an executive officer or a political party prefers the liquor traffic above public morals, such men must be set aside and such parties abandoned."

New Loan Plan Made
 "Five cents a week for 20 weeks" in the new slogan for the Student Loan Fund at the University of Omaha which is now being planned. This plan is estimated to net at least $1500.

--Curbstone Opinions--

"A Lantern in Her Hand"

Some people write for love; some for money; some because there's nothing else around; but now and then someone writes a story that is written purely and simply to show us the joy of living.

There was Abby who dreamed of marble halls while she swept out a log cabin; and Tom who married Abby and took her to a drably picturesque life on the newly-opened mid-west plains to live in a sod hut and plant trees for a wind-brake. The children began to grow up, and Tom was killed, and the marble halls faded into the dust of years. Abby began to attend weddings of her grandchildren. But one day while she was cooking some pork chops a queer feeling called her to the bedroom. Tom had come for her, and the little girls next door, smelling burning meat ran in to find Abby in a very small heap beside the bed.

That's the story, but not the inspiring style that Miss Aldrich effects. If one were starting a library this is one of the first books I would recommend because of its humanness, common sense and unusual beauty. The characters are strong, hard-working people that accomplish something. This book by Bess Streeter Aldrich is a refreshing departure from the worn-out sophisticated literature that clutters the market.

Coleman Stars Again

"The Unholy Garden" is not only a tale containing qualities of originality, humor and suspense but is also one that offers Ronald Coleman as Berrington Hunt a part best suited to his abilities. Mr. Coleman, a thawed-out English actor, has often demonstrated his ability in the role of a gentleman crook but in the "Unholy Garden" he seems to bring this characterization up to perfection.

"The Unholy Garden" concerns the only virtuous act of a suave and likeable thief, Berrington Hunt, who eludes the police of many nations by reaching an isolated spot in Africa. At this exotic but sinister rendezvous of wanted men we find many different types of characters, including a doctor who uses his murdered wife's skull for a tobacco box, a renegade German captain, a Russian prince and a Baron de Jonghe with his beautiful daughter. De Jonghe has a fortune hidden away and he is about to be killed for it when Hunt appears on the scene. His attempts to save the fortune for the daughter by hoodwinking the other crooks forms the story and its a mighty good one. The setting and the finished characterization will impress you deeply. From one student to another—"The Unholy Garden" is worth the price of admission and furnishes an hour of excellent entertainment.
 —R. Moline.

Powers and Gilbert

Two characterizations in the one act play presented in the Jones Hall auditorium Wednesday noon were outstanding. Kenneth Powers as James Dyke, the condemned murderer, was excellent. The portrayal of the warden by Norman Gilbert was natural and realistic. Other parts in the play were a bit flat.

The production itself is one calculated to play at the emotions of the audience. In some portions the lines do not seem quite human, but the opportunity for acting ability is unlimited. This opportunity was seized upon by Mr. Powers and Mr. Gilbert, much to their credit.

As further presentations are planned during the coming weeks, every student and professor should arrange to see the play at least once.
 —D. H. C.

For Next Week

Four good shows are scheduled at the Proctor Street Theater for next week. "Dancing Sweeties," "Huckleberry Finn," "Captain Applejack" and "Children of Dreams" are the coming attractions. Returning alumni will surely find a show among these to suit varying tastes.
 —R. Moline.

SHAW PROVOKES MORE THOUGHT

Professor Charles G. Shaw, of N. Y. U., who proclaimed whistlers to be morons, has been subjected to ruthless, multilateral criticism from all over the country. Disregarding his purpose in his statements and all this adverse criticism, there is nothing like a radical idea to give people food for thought. He has lightened the load about our hearts by giving us quaint ideas to think about.

Some of his unusual ideas are that: "Pants are a sign of patriotism; avoid knickers or Democracy will go to the bow-wows;" "A million dollar prize should be given to the man who can invent a reason for living;" "Women alone have culture in America;" "We have no men of culture, they are all women;" "The Phi Beta Kappa key is useless;" "Men are growing womanish and are losing their title to the name, 'he-men.'"

Colleges Criticized

By Owen D. Young

Owen D. Young, in a speech at Wesleyan University, during its centennial ceremonies, in criticism of American colleges, said that most students fail to get a broad economic outlook. Students are not gaining a knowledge of the complexities of our economic relations with the world.

He stated that economic and political organizations are overreaching and to some extent paralyzing one another, and that: "We have been training men in the technique of production, distribution and finance, but not for that additional 'overhead' of economics which is necessary today."

FOODS ARE SCORED BY MEAL-PLANNERS

Miss Blanche Stevens' marketing and meal-planning classes were instructed Tuesday morning in "cutting" (opening) canned goods and scoring the contents for quality, appearance, and flavor. Mr. Roberts of Roberts' Brothers Grocery and Mr. Bergmann of the wholesale house brought the supplies and conducted the lesson.

"Excuse me, sir, but is that the sun or the moon?"
 "Sorry, old fellow, I can't tell you. You see, I'm a stranger around here."
