VOL. 10, NO. 15

THE COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND, TACOMA, WASHINGTON

MARCH 13, 1933

Large Crowd Visits Novel Science Show

Fire breaking out in the Organic Chemistry laboratory at 10 p. m. Friday, charred a desk and smoked the walls and ceiling of the room. The fire was caused by the explosion of a one-half gallon of overheated benzine. No one was injured but the upper floors of the building were filled with smoke.

With a record crowd attending, the third biennial Open House for the science departments proved to be the most extensive one in the history of the event at CPS. Howarth Hall was the scene of the exhibit, which was held Friday, March 17. Official count revealed that 260 persons visited the biology department in the afternoon as compared with 150 who attended the last Open House.

Gold, lead and zinc ores were features of the geology department display. Bob Burril gave an interesting explanation of igneous rock formation. Among other exhibits were agates and crystals, a prospector's outfit and rock fossils.

Highlights of the chemistry show were a model water purification plant, tensimeter and colorimeter

Band Presents Chapel Program

The college band, led by Harry W. Evans, instructor, played a group of five selections for chapel Friday. The pieces in order were Grandiose by De Lameter; The Khedive, An Oriental Dance, by Charles Sanglear; An Intermezzo, In Springtime, by Ellis Brooks; An Overture, Harmony King, by Joseph De Luca; and March of the Siamese, by Paul Lincke.

Mr. Evans asked that more turn out for band so that a larger organization might be built up for future use.

ROBERT PAINE WINS CONTEST

Robert Paine was announced by the judges as winner of the contest for snapshots of school life. Mr. Paine is a sophomore and a member of Delta Kappa Phi fraternity. Robert Smith, Kenny Ollar, Jack Evans and Eloise Tuell all received honorable mention for their pictures.

Herman Mattson, Elsie Korpela and Katherine Mann acted as judges for the contest.

Ralph Smith has been added to the Tamanawas staff receiving the position of snap-shot editor. Margaret Janes, Tamanawas editor says, "Mr. Ollar is making the snapshot sections of the annual better than it has been in past years and also more typical of student life."

Freshmen Issue "Cub" Edition

The Puget Sound Trail will be edited the week of March 20-27 by the Freshmen of the Trail staff. The Cubs will have an opportunity to express themselves without the interference of the upperclassmen's blue pencil, completely running the edition.

Heading the business staff is Paul Wagley, business manager. Ad solicitors and circulation manager have not yet been selected.

Conservatory Presents Recital

The second student recital of the semester will be held next Friday at 4 o'clock in Jones Hall auditorium. The five departments of the conservatory, piano, violin, voice, organ and band will all be represented in this concert.

SPANISH CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Spanish club members will hold their regular meeting in the reception room at CPS tonight. Attendance is by invitation only. The program includes a vocal number by Frances Sanders, group singing led by Sheldon Williamson, and Spanish word games.

Program committee for the occasion is composed of Ann Pomerl, John Bardsley and Jennie Rough.

Central Board Creates Office

Publicity Manager To Be Elected

For the purpose of gaining more publicity from the city papers an office of assistant general business manager with the title of publicity manager was created at the last meeting of Central Board. This will be in addition to the present assistant in charge of bookkeeping. Herman Mattson, president, appointed Professor O. F. Hite, chairman, Dean Raymond G. Drewry and Fred Renschler, on the nominating committee.

Mr. Hite was renominated for the office of general manager of ASCPS for the term 1933-34. Inauguration of all new officers for the coming year will be held Wednesday, March 29, instead of the first student assembly after vacation as was formerly the custom.

Because he will be unable to return to school next fall, Bob Pollen resigned as yell duke. The method of election to fill this office will be left for the new Board to handle. Awards for yell leaders were discussed but no action was taken.

Upon the recommendation of Mr. Hite the funds left from the all-college dance will be applied on the balance of the gold football awards and the rest will be given to golf. A vote of thanks was given to Mr. Hite for his services during the past year as general manager and also to Fred Renschler and those students who helped with the voting machines.

Honor Roll Gains Over Spring List

Showing a 2% increase over last year's spring honor roll, approximately 12% of the college student body made grades for the fall semester, which entitle them to an honor rating. A grade point average of 2.20 was necessary to secure this rating, according to the registrar. There were four scholars who attained a grade point average of 3.00 or a "straight A" card. The total number on the list, 81, is also an increase over the previous semester's total of 67. The freshman and junior classes placed 23 students on the list, to lead the other classes represented. The names of all who had an average of 2.20 or better follow:

Loggers Meet UBC Trackmen

Initial Meet Saturday On Home Track

By Jack Burns

CPS cinder men will encounter their first opposition of the current season Saturday afternoon on the home track when they meet the University of British Columbia track and field team. Little is known of the strength of the invaders this year but in the past the Canadians have shown well against the Loggers.

Gov Teats Out

Puget Sound's hopes were given somewhat of a setback when it was learned that Gov Teats, one of the lettermen from last year and upon whom Coach O. F. Hite was depending for points in the quarter mile, would be out of Saturday's event and very likely will be out for the rest of the season. However, the Loggers have two other capable performers in the 440 with Piercy and Schneider on hand. Piercy is a letterman while Schneider, a freshman from Stadium, made the best record of all the quarter and half-milers in the time trials held last week.

Doty in Dashes

Doty will be Puget Sound's chief threat in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. New men who have been showing class in these events are: Hampson, Olson and Munz. They will get plenty of chance to show what they can do. Brown, Nelson and Murray Johnson are slated for duty in the half-mile along with the veteran Whitman.

Strong in Distances

In the mile and two mile the

Gather Funds For New Net

Tennis enthusiasts are endeavoring to raise enough money to purchase a steel tennis net for the school courts. The drive, which is to be held among the students of the college, is well under way and C. A. Robbins has promised to match any amount which is raised by the student body. The net will cost about $35. If $18 is raised among the students the rest is assured, and if enough is collected two nets will be purchased.

Gagnon Aids Grid Mentor

Daily programs for the spring football squad are being varied by running new plays in dummy scrimmages and actual scrimmaging. However, the bulk of the time is still being devoted to the practicing of fundamentals.

Coach Sandberg is being assisted by Captain-elect Park Gagnon during the spring session. Gagnon is working with the linemen while Sandberg is putting much effort into the development of an effective pass attack. Two weeks of spring practice remain.

Loggers will be strong with McCoy and Kohler able to run either. It is probable that Kohler will enter the mile, with McCoy concentrating on the longer distance. Clarence Johnson, Heuston and Peterson are others who will represent CPS in one or the other of these races. Two lettermen from last year's team, Weick and Bates, will bear the burden of the work in the hurdles. In the field events Slatter, Carlson, Severson and Jezek are expected to secure points.

THETAS LEAD HOOP LEAGUE

INTER-SORORITY BASKETBALL STANDINGS

Kappa Sigma Theta	3	0	1.000
Independents	2	1	.666
Lambda Sigma Chi	2	2	.500
Delta Alpha Gamma	2	2	.500
Alpha Beta Upsilon	0	4	.000

By losing to the Lambda team Wednesday, the Independents dropped their chances for the women's inter-sorosity basketball championship unless they can come back to win over the undefeated Thetas today. This game will be the last one of the series and will be played at 12:15 p. m.

A capacity crowd watched the Theta team make 36 points to the Gammas' 13 Monday noon. High scorer for the game was Melba Alleman, with 22.

Wednesday's game stood 21 to 2 in favor of the Lambdas at the half, but the Independents brought the final score to 22 to 9 for the Lambdas.

The next sport on the women's calendar is indoor baseball, turn-outs for which began last Friday. Miss Pernina Collins announces that Wednesday, March 22, will be the last day to sign up.

SLATE TENNIS, GOLF TOURNEYS

All men who are interested in turning out for the varsity tennis and golf teams are urged to sign up not later than today for the qualifying tournaments, which will be run off between now and spring vacation. The winners in these two preliminary tournaments will be considered as candidates for the varsity squads.

According to O. F. Hite, pairings in each of the tournaments will be made at once and a designated time for running off the matches posted on the bulletin board in the men's locker room.

The winners of these matches will later compete in another tournament to determine the various places on the tennis and golf teams.

Hoop Race Remains Close

Zetes and Omicrons Hold Edge

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL STANDINGS

	W.	L.	Pct.
Sigma Zeta Epsilon	7	0	1.000
Delta Pi Omicron	6	1	.859

Peter Pugets	2	5	.286
Delta Kappa Phi	1	6	.141
Barbarians	0	7	.000

NOTE: See bulletin board for this week's schedule.

In the feature game of last week's intramural hoop play the scrappy Sigma Mu Chis threw a scare into the Omicrons before yielding by a 20 to 14 score last Thursday. By winning, the Omicrons remained in the fight for the title. The Mu Chis were leading at the half by a 10 to 4 count but by controlling the tipoff in the second canto the Omicrons were able to forge ahead. Raleigh of the Mu Chis and Minniti of the Omicrons were tied for high point honors with 6 points. The Sigma Zetes won by forfeit from the Barbarians in the other scheduled game for Thursday.

Mu Chis Win

As a result of Tuesday's games, the Mu Chis downed the Peter Pugets in a close game, 26 to 23, while the Chi Nus trimmed the Delta Kapps to the tune of 26 to 18.

The Chi Nus captured their second victory of the week last Friday when they submerged the Peter Pugets 24 to 10. Montgomerie took scoring honors for the day with 8 points to his credit.

Two "B" League Tilts

Two "B" league games were played last week with the Zetes walloping the Delta Kapps on Tuesday, 41 to 14. Moline ran wild and scored 16 points for the Zetes. On Thursday the Mu Chis nosed out the Omicrons 20 to 18.

A SUCCESSFUL SHOW

A record crowd turned out Friday afternoon and evening to see the largest and most extensive exhibit the Science department has conducted. The care with which the displays were shown warrants an enthusiastic congratulation from visitors and also from heads of the other college departments. Professors and students showed a great deal of patience and enthusiasm in conducting the show. The student guides were particularly willing to explain the scientific phenomena to uninformed but interested visitors.

The large crowd is indicative of the interest townspeople have in the college. Many of the adults who attended do not have children enrolled in the College of Puget Sound but were interested in the extensiveness and character of work offered by the college. During the afternoon many high school students visited the various exhibits. This is an encouraging item in view of the future of the college. It was a sincere interest in college work, and not idle curiosity, that prompted prep students to attend Open House. This points to the respect local high schools have for our college.

Visitors were genuinely pleased with the show. Word of mouth advertising is far more persuasive than all the bulletins and pamphlets printed on the benefits of college work. The biennial Open House is a powerful agent in recruiting new students for the college and Science heads should feel proud of their efforts in furthering the interests of the institution. —B.

HOLD THREE DEBATES

CPS debaters will engage in three intercollegiate debates on the home schedule this week with Pacific University at Forest Grove, Oregon and Weber College of Utah as their opponents.

Frank Heuston and Arthur Linn will clash with the Weber College team in two non-decision debates, the first one Wednesday afternoon and the second one Wednesday evening in Jones Hall. Thursday evening the Logger team will engage the Pacific U pair in a decision debate.

OPEN HOUSE

Many were attracted by the biological displays given in the second floor laboratory. Embryos of cows, sheep, cats and mice were in prominence. Skulls of various animals formed an interesting table display, with the student in charge pointing out resemblances in their shapes. Love of the gruesome drew tebrates.

The advanced nutrition class of the Home Economics department prepared a demonstration of food values, with charts and graphs making a vivid understanding of the display possible.

Handspun, handwoven coverlets and blankets and pieced quilts were prominent in the textile class exhibit. Demonstrations of weaving, block printing and basketry were given by members of the related arts class.

Physics experiments, though a bit advanced for average visitors, gained their share of attendance. Interest centered about the acceleration apparatus and eye model, with boiling at reduced pressure running a close third. Professor Seward gave brief lectures every hour on simple phenomena in magnetism, electricity and light.
