New Student Body Officers To Hold Reins

Fifteen Will Be Installed in Regular Chapel Period Wednesday

Newly elected student body officers will be installed in their respective offices when Herman Mattson hands the student body president's gavel to William LeVeque, now president-elect, in the regular chapel period Wednesday.

Fifteen students will take on new responsibilities. Six of these will sit in Central Board, while the other nine will officiate in publication, debate, music, and dramatic activities, and the pep department.

The men and women to be installed are William LeVeque, president; Kathryn St. Clair, vice-president; Betty Fox, secretary; Pat Steele, senior representative; Mark Whitman, junior representative; Phil Keyes, sophomore representative; Del Martin, Tamana-was editor; Dick Zehnder, Tamana-was business-manager; Arthur Linn, Trail editor; Charles Thomas, Trail business manager; Ward Alvord and Dayton Finnegan, yell leaders; and Lorraine Sanders, Franklin Heuston, and Kenneth Powers, music, debate, and dramatics managers respectively.

Students Cast Belligerent Vote

Non-pacifists outnumbered pacifists nearly three to one in a poll conducted by Dr. Frank G. Williston. The question was, "would you take part in any way in a future war, regardless of the causes?" In a total of 122 ballots, 90 answered affirmatively and 32 negatively.

Students at Oxford, England, on the same question voted almost unanimously to "never again fight for God, King or Country."

DR. RICH LOSES BATTLE FOR LIFE

The faculty and students of the College of Puget Sound offer their deepest sympathies to the family of the man who, for so many years, has been a most loyal friend and inspiration to the school.

Dr. Edward A. Rich, Tacoma surgeon and eight years a trustee of CPS, died Wednesday morning, March 22, after three days of suffering. Dr. Rich came to Tacoma in 1908. He was made an honorary alumnus of CPS with a Master's degree in 1910, and was an honorary member of the Sigma Mu Chi fraternity.

All Stars Win In Gym Jubilee

The Puget Sound All Stars, a team composed of players who participated in the inter-sorority basket ball league, defeated a picked group of women basketeers from Pacific Lutheran College by the close score of 26 to 23, in the crowning event of the Gym Jubilee held Friday evening in the gymnasium. The Puget Sound squad was out in front by a 18 to 8 count at half time, but the Lutheran sextet began to click and came to within three points of tying the score at the end of the game.

The program was in general charge of Miss Pernina Collins' methods of physical education class, with Esther Powers serving as general chairman and Jane Porter acting as advertising manager.

With a freshman-senior volleyball game, in charge of Bernice Brown, opening the program, a full schedule of events followed. Relays and stunts in charge of Mieko Izaki and performed by the freshman classes were next. Tap dancing, tumbling, and folk dancing then followed. The basketball game climaxed the affair.

DEBATERS TAKE HONORS IN MEET

CHICO, Cal., Mar. 25—(Special)—CPS women won eight straight debates to take first place cup, the men's team tied for third place, while Herman Mattson rated fourth in oratory in tournament of 53 debate teams from five states in Stockton this week.

Ora Wilmot, Jeanette Amidon, Herman Mattson, and Charles Thomas represented the college with Professor Charles T. Battin as coach.

Other CPS debaters defeated Pacific in Jones hall last Thursday.

Two-Way Plan Is Considered

Independent Study Is Object Of Proposed System

To make it possible for students of special ability in a particular field to study independently with no limit on their rate of progress but their own ability, a two-way plan is being considered by a committee of the faculty of CPS.

Under this plan the upper classmen may be excused from some regular classes and course examinations but will be required to take a comprehensive examination at the close of their senior year.

President Todd on his recent trip East became interested in the plan through a conference with Dr. Henry Suzzalo, former president of the University of Washington and now head of the Carnegie Institute.

This plan is somewhat similar to the present plan for independent study. Juniors and seniors of special aptitude and with recommendation of department heads may take as many as five hours of independent study a semester but may not include more than 24 hours of independent study of the required 120 hours for graduation.

An attempt will be made to put the two-way plan in effect next fall.

Thetas, Delta Kapps Remain Grade Leaders

Both Groups Are Present Holders of Scholarship Honor Trophies

With the Kappa Sigma Theta sorority and the Delta Kappa Phi fraternity again leading the social groups on the campus in scholarship, a list of scholastic ratings for last semester has been issued by Christian Miller, registrar. The average of all the sororities together is 1.578, while the fraternities make but 1.299.

The averages of the winning groups were 1.770 for the Thetas, winners of the Blanche W. Stevens cup last spring, and 1.642 for the Delta Kapps, winner of the men's cup three consecutive times.

The list of the social groups follows:

| | |
|--------------------|-------|
| Kappa Sigma Theta | 1.770 |
| Lambda Sigma Chi | 1.714 |
| Alpha Beta Upsilon | 1.356 |
| Delta Alpha Gamma | 1.127 |
| Delta Kappa Phi | 1.642 |
| Sigma Zeta Epsilon | 1.147 |
| Delta Pi Omicron | 1.137 |
| Sigma Mu Chi | 1.124 |
| Alpha Chi Nu | 1.106 |

Senior English Exams May 15

Senior English examinations will be held on Monday, May 15, according to Dr. J. P. Jaeger, head of the English department. All senior majors in English literature and composition are required to take this examination before graduation.

Dr. Jaeger announced that he will explain the nature of the examination and offer suggestions to all students taking it at a special meeting Tuesday, March 28, in room 210 at 2:00 p. m. Senior and junior English majors are requested to be present at this meeting.

ANNIVERSARY TO BE CELEBRATED

Celebrating the approaching April birthday anniversaries of Dr. and Mrs. Todd, members of the faculty club will entertain with an informal dinner in the Commons at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening, March 30.

Biographical sketches of the honored couple will be given by Miss Linda Van Norden. Dr. Todd will make the initial showing of moving pictures of campus life which he has taken during the past winter. Mesdames Raymond G. Drewry, Raymond S. Seward, Christian Miller and O. F. Hite are the general committee in charge. Mrs. Herbert Cochran has charge of decorations. Assisting her are Mrs. Julius Jaeger, Mrs. Carol Angst and Miss Rowena Lung. A spring motif has been chosen for appointments. Miss Blanche Stevens is dinner chairman.

Fashion Show At Gym Jubilee

Vivian Larson arranged the fashion show of the Gym Jubilee last Friday night. Spring sports clothes, furnished through the courtesy of the Bodley Shop, were shown.

Ski, tennis, golf, hiking, and gymnasium apparel were modeled by Misses Betty Fox, Ina Mae Lee, Haru Semba, Helen Jaeger, Garnet Paulsen, Ruth Helen Evans, Vera Kirby, Elizabeth Harkins, Dorothea Anderson, and Ethelyn Llewelyn.

KAPPA PHI HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

In celebration of their first anniversary of becoming a national organization, Kappa Phi, Methodist sorority, enjoyed an informal dinner at the Modern Inn, Sunday, March 19. Table decorations carried out a tree motif, which is the symbol of the group. Misses Harriet Magill and Edith Coffman were in charge of the arrangements. Following the dinner Miss Elsie Mitchell, group president, explained the Kappa Phi movement, and officiated in the Philitia, which is a traditional toast to the organization. The program featured musical numbers by Miss Francis Spencer, a speech by Miss Elizabeth Gookins and short poems read by various members.

Preceding the dinner Dr. Haas spoke to the sorority at the First Methodist Church on the advantages of religion.

Diamond Men Begin Work

James Ennis in Charge of Turnouts

Puget Sound's prospective diamond artists started their spring practice Wednesday afternoon on the athletic field. James Ennis, veteran second baseman, appointed by Coach Sandberg to take charge of the warm-up sessions until after spring football.

Coach Sandberg announced that games had been tentatively scheduled with the University of Washington and St. Martins College. He also stated that, in addition to the trip to Oregon, there was a possibility of playing a double header with Washington State College here. The Washington State team will play the University in Seattle, and the Logger mentor is angling for some games with the eastern team while it is on the coast.

Those now turning out are: Ennis, Gagnon, Sterling, Pettibone, Kuromoto, and Fujita, lettermen; Lindquist, Smith, Gehri, Knoel, Briles, Williams, Boesche, Robbins, Johnson, Brooks, Onstad, Soha, Cox, Harkonen, Nelson, McAllister, Herrett, Bohn, Zehnder, Heggerness, and Andresek.

BATES NEXT HOOP CAPTAIN

Stan Bates, three year letter winner and high scoring center on the Logger basketball squad, was chosen by his teammates in a meeting last Monday, to captain the quintet through its 1934 campaign.

For the past two seasons Bates has been well up on the conference high scoring list and stands a fair chance to take center honors on the all-conference selection.

Bates is also a football letterman and present captain of the track team. At present he holds the all-conference 220-yard low hurdle record of 24.6 seconds made during last year's meet at Walla Walla.

DIVOT DIGGERS TO QUALIFY

Puget Sound golfers met for the first time last Monday, and decided that the qualifying play this season will be played over the Steilacoom Lake course. A 36 hole qualifying card must be turned in and from this, pairings will be made and matches scored as for tournament play. Each player will be required to turn in his score card signed by the man with whom he qualified.

NET TOURNNEY IS STARTED

First and second round matches of the qualifying tennis tournament must be played by the end of the spring vacation, according to O. F. Hite, athletic director. These matches will be two out of three sets with the winner responsible for reporting the outcome and the score.

Those who are victorious in the qualifying tournament will be selected for the "Varsity Qualifying Tournament" from which the varsity squad will be selected.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL STANDINGS

| Team | W. | L. | Pct. |
|--------------------|----|----|-------|
| Sigma Zeta Epsilon | 9 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Alpha Chi Nu | 7 | 2 | .777 |
| Delta Phi Omicron | 7 | 2 | .777 |
| Sigma Mu Chi | 3 | 6 | .333 |
| Delta Kappa Phi | 2 | 7 | .222 |
| Peter Pugets | 2 | 7 | .222 |

Note: See bulletin board for this week's schedule.

By a margin of one point the Alpha Chi Nu five won over the Omicron quintet in the feature game of the intramural league last Thursday. The final score was 26 to 25. The Chi Nus led all the way, the score being 18 to 9 at the half time, but the Omicrons went on a scoring spree and were within one point of the winners on several occasions. Minnitti of the losers was high point man of the game with 14 counters.

The Delta Kapps gave the Sigma Zetes a scare Thursday by keeping out in front of the league leaders for the first three sessions of the game only to have the Zetes put forth the pressure and win 15 to 12.

In the Sigma Zetes' second game of the week on Friday they downed the Mu Chis 20 to 10 in a rough and tumble contest.

Tuesday the Delta Kapps scored a minor upset when they defeated the Mu Chis 35 to 29. In the other game the Omicrons beat the Peter Pugets 31 to 11.

Alpha Chi Nu and Sigma Zeta Epsilon have the only undefeated "B" league teams. In last week's contests, the Zetes took a free scoring tussle from the Whistle Punks by a 57 to 13 count. The Chi Nu outfit bested a scrappy Omicron quintet 38 to 16.

Girls Will Have Net Tournney

Tennis tournaments will be run off for the girls after spring vacation. Signing up has started in the gymnasium. It will be played according to classes. Both doubles and singles players must enter under their respective classes.

OUR GENERATION AND THE NEW ERA

These are exciting times! We are making history! This is a new era! What do these statements mean to us?

This so-called "new era" rests upon a new philosophy. As a result of this philosophy we are revamping our social, economic, and political institutions, to make them fit our complex civilization. Present-day civilization is undergoing a complete change. The sentiment of the hour is summed up in Tennyson's phrases, "Ring out the old, ring in the new—Ring out the false, ring in the true." In the past several months many of our chapel speakers have given us this thought—but what does it mean? What is this "new era?"

We learn in history that man's mode of living, his customs, his very thoughts, have undergone a greater change in the last 150 years than in the previous 1500 years, or even 2500 years. When we realize that civilization has been so drastically changed in the short space of time since the thirteen colonies broke away from the Mother country, what must we think when we are told that we are only now on the verge of plunging into a "new era?"

With this confusing realization in mind, we ask what sort of an individual will be best adapted to living in this "new era?" What sort of a mind must this individual have?

In the past 150 years man has torn himself away from age-old customs and superstitions which today are realized to have been ridiculous. After all, on an open-minded analysis, do not more than a few of our present-day prejudices and pet theories fall into the same classification? Then, is this "new era" going to be one in which prejudices and outworn traditions will partially dominate our thought, or will we tear ourselves away from the old system?

Ideally, what we hope is happening is that traditions are being modified, for our whole thinking is primarily based on tradition. A complete overthrow of tradition would result in chaos. Therefore, we must choose the worth while, and discard the undesirable.

How may one prepare to take part in this process? Seemingly the best possible preparation would be a liberal education which gives one a background, insight, and understanding of his fellow man.

IN APPRECIATION

In accordance with the annual custom this issue of THE TRAIL has been edited by the Class of 1936. The staff which has been responsible for the issue takes this opportunity to thank those who have made it possible.

Faculty Members Take Wage Cuts

Faculty salaries have recently been cut from five to fifteen percent to make it possible for the college to close the year without debt. In planning the budget for next year the administration of the college announces it may be necessary to cut salaries of all employees from 10 to 20 per cent below the 1932-33 budget. This announcement is made with the understanding, that if necessary, further revision of salaries may be made during the coming year.

TEAM VISITS EVERETT

A deputation team will travel to Everett to put on a program Monday, March 27. Included in the list of performers are Ruth Carter, Eloise Tuell, singing operatic selections; Clark Wood, sleight-of-hand tricks; Edward House, yells; Jane Wickman, piano numbers; and Charles Guilford, speaker. Orville Weeks, graduate of Everett high school, will act as chairman of the group.

GROUP HEARS DR. TODD

The Y. W. C. A. meeting of Tuesday, March 21, featured a talk by Dr. Todd on preparation for Christian Life Emphasis Week in the little chapel.

Next Tuesday's program will be a worship service in the Y. W. room in Jones Hall, with Mrs. Drushel presiding. Miss Eva Tuell will talk on the book "What Men Live By" by Cabot. Miss Betty Hoyt will lead in group singing, and the Misses Virginia Gardner and Lucy May Spencer will furnish violin accompaniment.

Life Emphasis Week Planned For Colleges

Nation-Wide Program Observed; Special Chapel Services Being Planned

To further religious living, the week April 9 has been set aside as Life Emphasis Week by the Methodist young people of the United States. In conjunction with this plan CPS has arranged special chapel services for each day of the week.

President Edward H. Todd will open the week with a talk on "Religion as a Science." The rest of the program follows: Tuesday, the Reverend Edgar C. Wheeler, "Religion Prepares for Service"; Wednesday, Dr. Marvin R. Schafer, "Religion and Society"; Thursday, Dr. Charles T. Battin, "Religion in Business"; Friday, President Todd, "Religion as an Art of Living."

On Friday, April 14, the College will hold its annual day of prayer, a day set aside for prayer by all colleges in the United States.
