H. S. Dramatists Will Compete in Play Contest

Nine Schools Will Compete in Second Meet at CPS March 6

The second annual high school one-act play contest, directed by Martha Pearl Jones, head of the Dramatic Art department, and Clayton Lupton, dramatic manager, will be held Saturday, March 6, in Jones hall auditorium. This tournament was begun last year under the management of Franklin Larson. At that time three high schools entered, while this year nine schools will compete.

The tournament will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday morning when Fife High School presents "A Window to the South." Immediately following it will be Bremerton giving "Two Crooks and a Lady," and Olympia with a fantastic comedy called "Purple at the Window, Orange at the Window."

Saturday afternoon at one o'clock students from Rochester High school, last year's winner, will be seen in "The Enemy." Buckley High school will offer the well-known serious drama, "The Valiant." The round will be completed with "Ambition" by Kent High school.

At 3:30 Battle Ground will present "His First Girl," under the direction of Edythe M. Harlow, a CPS alumna. Longview will enter with a play which is the winner of a local contest. "The Valiant" will again be seen, with Bellingham High school furnishing the players.

The plays that are adjudged best in the preliminaries will compete in the finals at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Cups will be awarded to the schools taking first and second in the contest. Individual players who are judged as best actors in their play will also receive medals.

Tide Subscription Lists Requested

In order that the circulation list of the spring issue of Tide may be compiled, Roger Mastrude, business manager of the Tide, requests that all subscription lists be turned in to him or to Wilma Ittner, circulation manager, immediately. The issue will come out next month. A check-up is now being made of those having received the Christmas "Tide" with the objective of seeing that all subscribers obtain their copy.

The art theme of the new issue is to be spring and pictures will be carried throughout the sixteen pages. The staff for the magazine, according to Marjorie Ranck, editor, is to be: Clarke Oberlies, Maurine Henderson, Roger Mastrude, Jim Docherty and Herbert Arntson, editorial; Roger Mastrude, Doris Ningsong, Jim Docherty, Mary Jane Finke, Herbert Arntson, business; Wilma Ittner, circulation; Maurita Shank, Katherine Nelson, Helen C. Williams, art. Openings in some departments are still available.

Cellini Is Missing

Books which have been found missing from the library during the past two weeks are: "The Autobiography of Benvenuto Cellini," Franz V. Werfel's "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh," and John Watson Foster's "A Century of American Diplomacy."

College Inn Manager Sponsors Name Contest

With the grand opening tomorrow of the new college inn located one-half block off the campus, a contest is being sponsored by Bob Lyons, manager, to obtain a new and original name for the establishment. There will be eleven prizes—milkshakes—given to one person in each fraternity and sorority and the independent boy and girl who submit the best names. A prize of $1.00 in trade is offered for the name finally selected.

Contest rules are:
No person may submit more than one name.

All names must be at the college inn by 3:30 p. m. Friday, March 5.

The location of the inn will be 3206 No. 15th, and hours will be from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Debate Meet Set For March 12, 13

Northwest Junior Colleges to Send Delegates Here

The third annual invitational junior college forensic tournament for Northwest schools, sponsored by the Washington Alpha chapter of Pi Kappa Delta will be held at CPS on Friday and Saturday, March 12 and 13. Bob Byrd has been selected director and assisting him will be: Charles MacLean who will secure judges, Jack Leik who will manage the extempore division, and Valen Honeywell, who will have charge of oratory.

An incomplete list of CPS students competing in various types of forensics in the tournament are as follows: debate teams, Marie and Margaret Gilstrap; Jim Docherty and Elizabeth Hardison; Sara Louise Doub and Barbara Healy; Leslie Cunningham and George Forsyth; Howard Brownlee and Dick Names; Paul Seto and Stanley Nash. In extempore, Hyla Nelson, Myrtle Foss, Roger Mastrude, Wilma and Florence Ittner will be entered, and Kay Norris, Jim Petrich, Chuck Shireman, and Jim Docherty will compete in oratory.

CPS Students Will Attend Youth Meet In Yakima, Mar. 5-6-7

With Dr. Y. T. Wu, internationally known writer, speaker and Christian leader, presiding, the third annual State - Wide Interdenominational Christian Youth conference is to be held at Yakima March 5, 6 and 7. About 20 CPS students plan to attend.

Among other speakers to discuss the general theme "Youth Building Together a Christian Community," are Dr. Harry C. Munro of Chicago, now touring the country as Joint Field Executive of the International Council, Dr. John Nevin Sayre of New York, president of the National Peace conference and former editor of "The World Tomorrow." Elizabeth Padfield, '36, is program chairman.

A special train will leave Tacoma at 2:00 p. m. Friday, March 5. In order to take advantage of the special roundtrip fare of $3.50, tickets must be secured in advance from Idabelle Arnold, 2907 North 24th.

While in Yakima headquarters are to be at the First Christian church. A registration fee of $2.00 includes housing, breakfasts and banquets for the entire conference.

Six Straight A's Are Included in Fall Honor Roll

List Shows Decrease of Three From Total of Last Spring

With 72 students gaining the first semester honor roll, the list is headed by six straight "A" records, composed of two men and four women. The ranking sextette includes Lora Bryning, James Docherty, Maurine Henderson, Jean Hartman, John Hazen and Margaret Sines. Last spring's list showed 75 names.

The complete list follows, giving the number of hours carried followed by the point average:

Bryning, Lora	15	3.00
Docherty, James	15	3.00
Henderson, Maurine	15	3.00
Hartman, Jean	15	3.00

Debaters Do Strange Things On Annual McMinnville Jaunt

By Jim Docherty

"There are strange things done 'neath the Midnight Sun" and still stranger things occur on the annual trip taken by CPS debaters to the Linfield Invitational Tournament at McMinnville, Oregon. Incidentally, the hole of Robert W. Service's masterpiece "The Cremation of Sam McGee" was delivered to an enraptured audience by Dr. Marvin R. Schafer of the department of sociology at the College of Puget Sound, while hurtling his 1929 Franklin down the highway to McMinnville. Affectionately known as "Little Schafer" on forensic jaunts, his renderings of "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" etc. are always highlights.

Another feature of the Linfield trip which is usually kept in the dark, fortunately, is the "Yamhill Yecho." This is a little newspaper issued at McMinnville by CPS debaters. The name is derived from the Hotel Yamhill, at which CPS is usually accommodated. It is no especial honor to be on the staff either since it usually consists of defeated debaters who have nothing else to do. The materials are obtained in the unscrupulous way typical of debaters. This year a typewriter was borrowed from the Registrar. The actual publication was done on the large tables in the Trustees and Faculty Room. Robert Byrd could have been seen running toward the editorial offices with a large jar of paste, followed either by real or imaginary pursuers.

602 Enrollments Swell Spring Records at CPS

With 602 registrations completed, and with several tentatively enrolled, the student body of CPS has the highest number of spring enrollees ever before recorded, according to Registrar Christian Miller. That the previous high of 598, attained during the same period last year, has been surpassed during a critical period of business conditions, observers report as a healthy sign of decided growth.

Life Emphasis Week in Session

Rev. Bowman Leads Discussions; Bennett Has Charge

With a series of five worthwhile discussions planned for this week, students of the College are offered a chance to go a little deeper into the process of self education in order to learn and determine their direction in life. Life Emphasis week is planned so that students can, perhaps, comprehend a little more fully what is going on around them.

The series of five talks, to be given during chapel period, will be given by the Rev. William C. Bowman, pastor of the Queen Anne Methodist church of Seattle. The Rev. Bowman was a student of the College formerly.

Special music under the direction of Prof. John Paul Bennett and using members of his department has been planned in connection with the week. The student chapel committee under the chairmanship of Dorothy Belle Harriss, ASCPS president is working on plans for the week.

The following people from the Conservatory of Music will furnish music: Monday, Wilton Vincent; Tuesday, John Paul Bennett; Wednesday, Marvin Carter; Thursday, Mrs. Nelson; Friday, Thomas Kendall.

The Rev. Bowman has scheduled the following talks for the week:
Monday—Religion and Life's Mysteries.

Tuesday—We Would See Jesus.
Wednesday—The Religion of Jesus and a Changing World.
Thursday—Voluntary Bondage.
Friday—Adventurous Trials.

Students are offered an opportunity to confer with Rev. Bowman each day after his talk. Appointments for such conferences may be made in President Todd's office.

In order to give more time to the chapel period throughout the week, the first two periods will be shortened five minutes apiece.

Maurie Doing Well in KNX Announcing Job

Maurice Webster, former CPS student body president and radio announcer for station KVI here, who believed all he heard about California air, and now is using it exclusively for announcing purposes, is progressing rapidly in his position at station KNX, in Hollywood, according to reports received here by friends.

After making auditions for the announcing job on four programs, "Maurie" was selected for three of them, and the fourth has not yet been selected. Among programs he is now announcing is the new Scat-tergood Baines series, sponsored by Wrigleys; and broadcast five days a week at 8 o'clock p. m. on a coast network.

Two Days Left To File Entries In Office Race

ASCPS Elections Will Be Held March 11 and 12; 12 Jobs Open

There are but two days left in which prospective student body officers may file their petitions for election with the secretary of the student body, Dorothy Ann Simpson. These petitions must show the names of 10 duly accredited and registered students of the College, and the signature of the nominee to signify his acceptance of the nomination.

Campaign speeches will be given by the nominees during chapel on Monday, March 8. Positions open for election are: President, vice-president, secretary, May queen and two attendants, yell king and two dukes, and class representatives to Central Board. Elections will be held on March 11 and 12.

Deviating from the original procedure of electing to office the editors-in-chief and business managers of the Trail and Tamanawas, these offices will be filled this year through recommendations by the publications committee consisting of the editors and business managers of the two publications and the faculty adviser.

The electoral committee appointed by the Central Board and consisting of Marjorie McGilvery, vice-president of ASCPS as chairman, Bill Bannister, and Mrs. Drushel, dean of women, makes the following announcements to the student body:

"The nominees for president and vice-president must be unconditional members of the Junior class at present; May queen and two attendants must be unconditional members of the Senior class at the present time. In the vote for the May queen, the girl receiving the highest will become queen and the two lower will become attendants.

"The nominees for class representatives shall be unconditioned members of the class for which they file to represent and shall be duly registered students of the College.

"The positions for Yell leaders shall be filled by those persons who are persons regularly matriculated as students of the College of Puget Sound."

The elected officers will assume the duties of their positions immediately after elections and installation. The editors and business managers of publications will take over their duties in the fall.

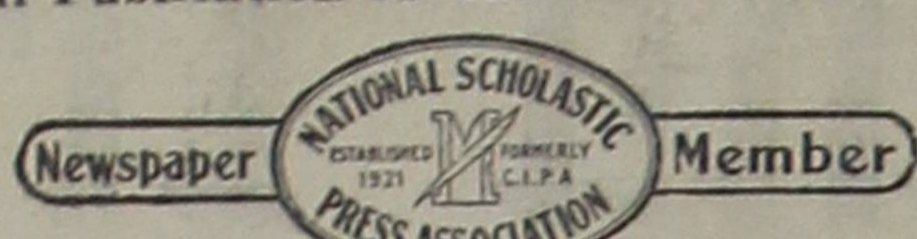

Petrich, Norris First in Oratory

James Petrich, sophomore, and Kay Norris, freshman, were adjudged winners of the men's and women's divisions in the annual A. O. Burmeister oratorical contest finals held here February 16, and will receive the $10 first place awards offered each year by the Tacoman for whom the competition is named.

Second place prizes of $5 in the two divisions were awarded Judd Day and Elizabeth Hardison. Titles of the winning orations were: Jim Petrich, "We Hate War"; Kay Norris, "Will the Cinema Eclipse the Legitimate Stage?"; Judd Day, "150,000 Years Wasted"; Elizabeth Hardison, "Propaganda—the Weapon of Peace."

SPRING CLEANING

With the concealing blanket of snow gone, and spring in the air, the world is beginning to be green and sprouting again, but the Campus needs spring housecleaning badly. With no spring campus day planned, as the cleanup last fall took the place of this activity in the spring, some other clean-up is necessary.

The lawn in back of Jones Hall is littered with everything from old Trails to ice cream wrappers, which detract greatly from its beauty. The area surrounding the cloisters is not so neat either, and even the front lawn, presenting the first impression to visitors, is scattered with rubbish. The lawn outside the sorority windows looks like the coeds had been shooting baskets at the windows with their lunch bags.

As many complain, it is not the looks of the Campus only which need prompt attention, but also the "feel." Student drivers find the bane of their lives in the road leading from behind the school to the pavement on Lawrence street. One rapid trip over its many interesting and treacherous cavities is guaranteed to remove all sluggishness from the human system.

A walk on the south side of the campus, similar to the board walk on the north side, would be welcomed by students coming and going each day in that direction.

Correction of these Campus faults is comparatively easy. We can give the NYA forces a spring workout for the good of the College. M. H.

A Bouquet: To Lambda Sigma Chi's "Fashions in Love," the first of the chapel programs in the contest between the organizations. It should prove to those that will follow that student response is much more favorable if there is just a touch of the sublime. The farces, melodramas, and improvisations that have outweighed all other kinds of student chapel entertainment heretofore have stressed the ridiculous to the breaking point.

The sublimity, by Miss Gene Stacey and Miss Alysore Magnusson, was further enhanced by originality—which goes to the credit of Miss Stacey and Miss Barbara Longstreth who wrote the script.

Potential students:

Franklin Larson's brain child, the first high-school one-act play contest, of last year, is growing up. Bringing these prep school disciples to our college seems to identify them with the school, too, and represents a valuable form of advertising. Witness Dick McKnight of Olympia's last year's second place winners. Judd Day, Dick Sloat, Margaret and Marie Gilstrap, the two Ittners, and Howard Brownlee are cup winners in last year's debate tournament who also chose CPS as their college.

Northwest Theatre Conference: Mr. Leverton, director of Drama at Northwestern university and Mr. Mergher, from the University of Iowa were the principle speakers at the fourth Northwest Theatre Conference held in Seattle, February 18, 19, and 20, according to Miss Jones who attended.

Entertainment was provided by the Seattle Penthouse, who gave "Personal Appearance," the Civic Theatre, who gave "Bury The Dead," and the Cornish School who gave "Lower Depths."

Club Notes

Dr. M. C. Mace, superintendent of physiotherapy at the American Lake Veteran's hospital, will speak upon "Changing Viewpoints in Psychiatry" for Alpha Psi Chi, local psychology club, in the Reception room this evening beginning at 7 p. m.

All students interested in psychology and its advancement are invited to attend.

Winfield McLean, Tacoman who has for two years studied the subject of cooperatives, will address an open meeting sponsored by the College YMCA in the YW room this evening starting at 7:30.

The College Writers' club held its regular meeting with a potluck dinner at the home of Belle Ruth Clayman yesterday afternoon, with Mary Jane Finke as food chairman.

"Impromptu News," a game in which each person composed some part of a daily newspaper, started the program. Manuscripts by Fay Potter and Herbert Arntson were read.

Writers are reminded of the Frank S. Baker short story contest with first and second cash prizes which will take place this spring. Next meeting of the group is scheduled for the evening of March 15.

These are times that try men's souls. If you don't believe you have a soul, just try writing a column. When the end of the rope is in sight and no news, you'll get your soul tried. Don't accept a substitute! The most trying problem is finding new ways to say the same thing. Being accused of slamming innocent people, one might think a wholly complimentary column would have effect. But people who swear at snow don't like slush. Loggers like mud with their mush!

Patrons and Founders Day has joined that realm of departed spirits from which not even the best of us return and with it has gone Harold Wheeler's sideburns. These adornments of long and shaggy standing were removed, with Rod Lytle's "pearl grey" spats (by the W. M. E. B., which was organized by Jack Fallor to suppress ostentatious and sophomoric sartorial devices (lound clothes) and whiskers. Rod got his gaiters back, one at a time in the Y. W. room, by appealing through an advertisement for their return "for sentimental reasons"—"no reward."

Lackadaisical weather has made the campus a Maxfield Parrish masterpiece the last few days. Except for Gles Connoy who has lost his faith in women—Billy Johnston broke his heart and Marcia Woods refused to sew a button on his shirt. Bob Ramsay has graduated into Ron Culbertson's standing with Merle Bitney since absence hasn't been doing what it's supposed to be doing. Don't tell her I told you, but Evelyn Hopkins was seen giving her Reggie a parting kiss Friday by the door of Jones Hall.

If you see a driver suddenly appear to lose nervous control and his car takes on the personality of a prodded Missouri mule, he is just making that stretch of road south of Howarth Hall. It has more holes in it than any portion of surface this side of Spain. Ron Lorimer showed what happens when heat meets enthusiasm as he gently settled his thin cords on an active radiator. Jane Gebert gets a big kick out of boxing and wrestling matches, spending the following morning mimicking and pantomiming the actions of Russ Perkins settling his man for instance. Dorothy Ann Simpson and a few timid pledges listened with great zest to the account of tomboy Jane last week in the Theat room.

How would you tell the Lambdas that the best part of their chapel was Keating's announcements—and still hope they'll let you pump out "Organ Grinder's Swing" on their piano? Ruth Leo claims a composite ancestry of Italian, Spanish, Irish and Cherokee. The Cherokees are fine people—and there's a little bit of good in every bad little girl! Bob Byrd and Glenn Ratcliffe almost got writers cramp struggling through a huge dinner with chop sticks at a Japanese banquet.

A scoop on Betty Kuhl! Society note: Marian Hager will lead her intended down the middle aisle the tenth of April. You do the description, Betty! This is a bit out of my line. "I don't mind 'em sitting in my car, but I wish they wouldn't use it for a garbage can," philosophized Frank Kruckeberg, eyeing the liprouged cigarette stubs in his four cornered jalopy. Betty Simpson's stock in charm was mutually agreed upon by two gentlemen who dared a third to meet her once and keep his poise! Paul Juelsing borrowed his father's car, traded it for Helmut's—which he exchanged for Dillard Van Eaton's radio love boat—all to make an impressio non the new girl friend. Paul didn't want Phyllis Swanson to hear about this!

Waxfield J. MacSnort, Mu Chi wit, contributes this little maxim to the college motto contest, "Onward Christian Soldiers." Ned Cowles has left his college airplane sketching for the real thing at Kelly Field, Texas, where Ned is a rookie cadet. Ted Knightlinger joined the National Guard to play polo and was shortly thrown in the guard house for two weeks—he refused to report for duty against his union! One value (or is it) in being a twin. Florence Ittner was kissed twice when one was meant for her sister Wilma. It happened at Linfield and Chuck Shireman (are you listening, Anale) was the senderoffer.

Joe Mitchell, that terror of big city sheets—the Tacoma times, has my permission to be throttled at any time by someone not affiliated by law or spirit to the S. P. C. A. Dorothy Shaw's father has just got to accepting Chuck Fishel as one of the family. Eleanor Trott is back in college with her auxiliary Glen Eaken. Fred Kizer and Kay Norris planned out a share the wealth program one evening at Linfield, but the lipstick was all Kay's! This is your Uncle Johnny signing off!

Linfield Trip

Special features this year were an editorial signed by "Cotton" Battin, and a six-page rotogravure section.

Another feature was the banquet held in the Commons Friday evening. The banquet was served family style—when the dish was empty, all one had to do was to take it and thrust it at one of the blond waitresses. Roger Mastrude sat at the head of the table and led in the singing of "Schnitzelbanc" which set all the natives on their respective ears. Two young ladies composed the following song:

I've been working on the judges
all the live long day,
I've been working on the judges
to get them to vote our way,
Can't you hear the bull we're passing
Best that can be found (Tune:
Alma Mater)
That is what we learned from Battin
At dear old Puget Sound.

Sorority Pledges to Receive Formal Initiation Tomorrow

Plans for formal initiation, the most impressive ceremony in sorority activities, heads the business for the month in sorority plans. All campus sororities have chosen Wednesday, March 3, as the date for their initiation services.

Delta Alpha Gamma initiation will be held in the Walker apartments at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon. Following the services, the new members will be honored at dinner. Mrs. C. A. Robbins and Mrs. Partridge, one of the founders of the sorority, will be special guests. Being initiated are the Misses Phyllis Albert, Betty Bannister, Margaret Bussell, Frances Cruver, Barbara Datin, Virginia Dougherty, Doris Granlund, Mary Ann Jelusich, Ina Marie Sewright, Mary Kisducek.

Lambda Sigma Chi

The ceremonies for Lambda Sigma Chi initiation will be held in the Mason Methodist church at 7:30 Wednesday evening. Plans are being made for a party in the home of Miss Grace Johnson on North Proctor to honor the new members following the services. New members will be the Misses Jane Allstrum, Dorothy Bachelor, Betty Bell, Vivian Dignes, Beulah Eskildsen, June Faulk, Doris Frank, Anita Fuller, Wilma Ittner, Ruth Jensen, Lois Kuhl, Pat Langdon, Virginia Leonard, Barbara Longstreth, Caroline Manley, Faye Nelson, Dolores O'Connell, Betty Peterson, Mary Reitzel, Muriel Schotsko, Gene Stacy, Nellie Sturlie, Marcia Woods, Mildred Zigler.

Alpha Beta Upsilon

The little Chapel will be the scene of the Alpha Beta Upsilon ceremonies. Women who will be received into membership will be the Misses Grace Howard, June Peele, Jane Ogden, Marda Wilkinson, Jessie Willison, Anita Wegener.

Although plans are still tentative, the following women will receive their Kappa Sigma Theta pins on Wednesday evening: Misses Phyllis Anderson, Doris Day, Virginia Day, Phyllis Hall, Ruth Raymond, Shirley Scott, Katherine Sutherland, Frances Summers, Frances Tarr, Dixie Thompson, Gertrude Kiser, Doris Nisonger, Billie Acton.

Announce Names Of Women for WAA Convention

Gym Jubilee Planned for March 11; Helen Rosenzweig Chairman

A WAA dinner meeting was held last Tuesday at the home of Miss Margery Jenkins. Miss Betty Worden, junior, Miss Mary Jane Roberts, sophomore and Miss Peggy Goodman, freshman, were selected to be the official CPS delegates to the WAA convention. The convention is to be held at the University of Oregon the first, second and third of April.

A committee with Miss Betty Worden, chairman, was appointed to revise the constitution. Helping her are Miss Helen Rosenzweig and Miss Kay Sutherland. Plans were started for a Play Day in April to entertain high school representatives. Letters from Pacific Lutheran college and Centralia Junior college were read which expressed thanks for the interesting time they had at the Sports day held in February.

Miss June Faulk was elected historian, succeeding Miss Mary Jane Roberts. Miss Helen Rosenzweig is general chairman for the Gym Jubilee which is planned for March 11. The program will be athletic demonstrations. Those planning for the various sports are: Miss Jane Gebert, mixed volley ball; Miss Pomona Hudson, badminton; Miss Betty Bannister, posture parade; Miss Betty Schaad, tumbling; Miss June Peele, archery; Miss Flora Mae Davis, social dancing; Miss June Faulk, Freshman-Gamma exhibition basketball game. Miss Jean Jessperson and Miss Dorothy Haugen have charge of the tickets. On the committee for advertising are Miss Katherine Yamamoto, chairman, and the Misses Ruth Jensen, Frances Summers, Katherine Nelson and Clara Oliver.

Gamma Women To Fete Guests At Mardi Gras

Miss Marjorie McGilvrey General Chairman of Gay Affair

Members of Delta Alpha Gamma have planned a gay Mardi Gras dance for Friday evening at the Midland clubhouse. Colored lights, floating balloons, confetti and serpentine will comprise the decorations which will carry out the carnival motif. The best costumed guests will be crowned king and queen of the Mardi Gras. Programs will be in the form of green and purple masks.

The Misses Marjorie McGilvrey, chairman, Barbara Long, Virginia Dougherty and Lora Bryning are on the committee in charge of the arrangements. Miss Linda Van Norden, Miss Marjorie Jenkins and guests will be chaperones.

Alumnae asked to the party include the Misses Adelyn Sylvester, Maudie Boswell, Ruth Helen Evans, June Larsen, Shirley Foote, Marjorie Church, Ruth McGovern, Betty Smallridge, Regina Carrier, Mrs. Donald Klumb, Mrs. Charles Creesy, Mrs. Seymour Waterman and Mrs. Richard Dennis.

Miss Jones to Honor Spurs at Novel Dinner

Miss Martha Pearl Jones has invited the Spurs to her home for a Mexican dinner on March 10.

Miss Virginia Smyth, president, was elected official CPS delegate to the national Spur convention to be held March 22, 23 and 24. The convention this year is sponsored jointly by the Spur chapters of Washington State college and the University of Idaho.

A committee headed by Miss Clara Oliver is making arrangements for the annual Spur picnic to be held May 8 at Five Mile lake. The CPS chapter sent a congratulatory message to the new Spur chapter at the University of Arizona at Tucson.

"Guest Day" Featured

The meeting of the Women's faculty club held on February 19 was "Guest Day." The meeting was held in the reception room at the College. Hostesses were the Mesdames Todd, Schafer, Register, Jaeger, Powell, Perry and Grant. Mrs. Mary E. Long gave a talk on ballet.

Fraternities Honor Guests At Semi-Formal Affairs

With the purpose of welcoming the new members, the Sigma Mu Chi fraternity gave a dance Friday evening in the Town Hall of Stella-coom with dancing from 9 to 12 to the music of Brad Bannon's orchestra. Patronesses and patrons were Miss Doris Fickle, Mr. Lyle Shelmidine and Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Powell. Arrangements for the dance were made by Harbine Monroe, chairman Harold Murtland and

Robert Gibson.

Delta Kappa Phi

Delta Kappa Phi fraternity also set aside Friday evening for an evening of games and dancing at the Knights of Columbus hall. The earlier part of the evening was spent in playing roulette and keno followed by dancing to Robert Lyons' orchestra.

The "Monte Carlo" idea was carried out by stage money with Helmut Juelling in charge. Programs had one page reserved for the wins and losses and the other for the dances. The Mother's club served refreshments after the entertainment. Invited as patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Warren G. Tomlinson. Also assisting with the plans were William Burroughs, Robert Bond and Robert Kemp.

Among the guests were the Misses Helen Stalwick, Virginia Smyth, Lora Bryning, Elizabeth Hardison, Sally Spencer, Mary Ann Jelusich, Ina Marie Sewright, Corabelle Griffin, Frances Cruver, Margaret Heuston, Pomona Hudson, Alberta La Mott, Kathryn Ohnoto, Carolyn Geddes, Norine Loomis, and Mary Francis Courtney.

Baseball Men Meet Tomorrow

Threatened with the loss of their captain, Erling Tollefson, the outlook for the 1937 baseball season is none too bright for Puget Sound's conference champions. Tolly, co-winner of the team's most valuable player trophy, may not be able to turn out this season if his outside work interferes.

Coach Joey Mack will take over the baseball coaching assignment starting next Wednesday.

Tomorrow at 3:30 in the men's gym all those who have hopes of making the baseball team are urgently requested to report. Infielders especially are in demand, and any freshman, experienced or not will be a welcome addition to the roster.

Mel Miller, steady backstop of last year, may also be lost to the squad for the same reason.

Johnny Milroy, 1936 captain of the championship nine, is the only letterman infielder expected to return in the inner circle. Ed Burkland, Ramsey, and Dan Mullen will be on hand for outfield duty.

The only pitcher of last year who will be back is Larry Ragan. Among the freshmen expected to make a good showing are Pavalunis, pitcher, and Bob Morris on the keystone sack.

Tennis Aspirants Begin Next Week

This year's tennis all-college tourney will be run off with the golf tournament. As in golf there will be a dandy schedule with an Oregon trip, playing Reed college and Willamette.

Bob Swan, Maynard Carlson, Gene Burgoyne, and Don Kruzner are the lettermen returning. The CPS tennis team of the last few years have not been especially strong, and athletic manager Lou Grant would like to see as many freshmen as possible trying out for the team.

Gridders Begin Spring Practice For Next Season

College of Puget Sound gridders carried off the runner-up honors in the conference last year, but Coach Sandberg won't be satisfied with anything less than tops next year. Spring practice with every letterman out is expected to oil up the working parts of the 1937 grid machine.

"Anybody who expects to be on the football team next year will have to show up for spring workouts" was "Sandy's" ultimatum. The Logger headman expects to see every letterman out and also anybody who wants to make the first steps in securing a berth on the coming Logger grid squad.

One of the features of the spring practice will be changes in the positions of some of the lettermen. Gordon Fielder, promising center as a yearling, will be switched to fullback. With Howie Hass and Jess Dawkins lost through graduation, Sandy will try to make over at least two of his more rugged ends into the guard posts. Walter Piper will be groomed for Dawkin's position, as will "Red" Underwood.

Chuck Underhill is the spring practice football manager.

College Play for Golf Planned

As soon as enough golf aspirants sign up for the all-college ladder tourney, the Logger divot-digging season will get under way. Lou Grant, athletic manager, expects to start the tournament this weekend or next Monday at the latest.

For the last four years the Puget Sound golfers had been especially strong. They have been beating such teams as University of Washington, Oregon and Oregon State. This year, however, only three lettermen will be on hand to defend the laurels won in past years. They are Bob Anderson, Howie Hass and Jack Enright. Gene Burgoyne is another expected to burn up the courses.

Promising Frosh, Eight Lettermen Out for Track

Eight lettermen—Bob Gius, dashman; Bud McFadden, Al Hennifer and Norm Mayer in the weights—Clarence Keating, broad-jumper and quarter-miler; Em Piper, hurdler; Russ Perkins, high-jumper, and Bob Russell distance man—return to the cinders to give CPS track hopes a slightly rosier outlook than in the last two or three years.

Eight lettermen, each a potential first place winner, still don't make a track team, according to Coaches Sandberg and Hite. The success of the Maroon and White spike-men will depend to a large extent on the development of the yearlings. Some of the frosh aspirants out for the sport give promise of great CPS track teams to come, but what their immediate value for this year will be is a big black question mark.

The Logger tracksters are already being groomed for an important meet which will be held at Vancouver in two weeks at March 19. Coach Sandberg believes that this meet will be important as a build-up for the season.

Positions and promising candidates for the 1937 track squad are: 100- and 220-yard dashes: Gius, E. Piper, Culbertson; middle distances: Keating, Carpenter, Bob Price, Russell, Kulla; distances: McNary, Russell, Kimball, Bona, Hetrick; hurdles: Jim Weldon, E. Piper, Liddle; pole vault: Remson, C. Smith; high jump: Perkins; broad jump: Liddle, Keating, Mayer; weights: Mayer, Remson, McFadden, Hennifer, Slipp, Clark.

The weakest event for CPS this year was expected to be the pole vault. Bernard Remson, flashy colored first-year man, is the most promising candidate for a berth on the team in this event.

Two dual meets, one with Whitman and the other with Willamette, are the only home track meets for Puget Sound supporters this year. The conference meet, the classic of the track season, is again scheduled for Walla Walla, and this year will be under the flood lights.

The schedule:

- March 19: University of British Columbia at Vancouver.
- April 14: University of Washington frosh at the University (tentative).
- April 23: Willamette at Tacoma.
- May 1: Whitman at Tacoma.
- May 14: Bellingham Normal at Bellingham.
- May 21: Pacific and Willamette and CPS at Forest Grove (tentative).
- May 28: Conference Meet at Walla Walla (night)

Intercollegiate Ski Tourney Is Set for Saturday

The largest intercollegiate ski meet ever to be staged in the northwest will be held at Mt. Tacoma when CPS skiers are hosts to members of the Northwest Intercollegiate Ski Union at a tournament this Friday and Saturday, March 5 and 6.

The tournament will be open to members of the NISU, which includes University of Washington, Washington State college, University of British Columbia, Reed College, and CPS. Each school will enter a five-man team. Second teams will be allowed to run but will not affect conference results.

College of Puget Sound: Don Kruzner, Bob McRae, Bob Kemp, Harbine Monroe, Chuck Fischell, with Dix Liddle and Gordon Tuell as alternates. The second team will be composed of Les Bona, Bob Sprenger, Ray Kulla, Ed Raleigh and Herb Robbins.

Reed college: Jay Jense, Bob Scholz, Ed Johnson, Owen Cramer, Neil Farnham, with Dave Smith and Jim Dinsdale as alternates.

Washington State college: George Loquvam, Herb Slate, John Crossen, Ring Thorgerson, Bob Candee, with Bear Klinger and Dick Gaylord as alternates.

University of Washington: Bob Lamson, Bob Higman, John Woodward, Walter Page and Lennie Robinson. Their second team will be Tom Hill, John Cheney, Bill Hubbach, Harold Stack and Jack Doctor, with Spaulding as an alternate. British Columbia university: R. Taylor, D. Clark, M. Pogue, G. Clayton, J. Granger, with B. Arbuckle and T. Church as alternates.
