Critic Declares Court Drama Extraordinary

"Night of January 16th" Includes Audience In Cast

Whatever else one may say about this year's Homecoming play there can be no doubt that it was decidedly unusual. This is the first courtroom drama ever presented at CPS, and possibly the first one ever presented in Tacoma. Then, too, the device of having the jury selected from the audience proved decidedly effective, although it seemed that the jury box had been packed by someone. Then there was a defect noticeable in the production which is probably characteristic of all court room dramas, even the tremendously powerful "Trial of Mary Dugan". In any court room drama, the field of action, of course, is greatly limited. But in any event the latest production of the Campus Playcrafters seemed to please a critical college audience and to have been decidedly well worth the production.

No one seemed to have any complaint about the casting of this drama, and indeed there was no reason for one. Little more could be asked from college dramatists than the performances of Norman Runions as the swaggering district attorney or Mildred Brown as Karen Andre, the accused ex-secretary. Undoubtedly there were no two other persons in the College who could have done these roles with the success that they were portrayed by Runions and Miss Brown. Runions used his excellent voice and physique to great advantage in getting variations in speech and action. Miss Brown, who is a senior, gave a finished performance, displaying excellent technique and training. Kay Norris in a bit part did particularly well in interpreting the role of a cheap night club entertainer and her acting is one to be remembered.

The set was also one to attract attention, and the Playcrafters deserve particular commendation in this regard. It seems that there will be no lack of distinctive sets, provided the work of Clair Hanson and Neil Richardson continues. The programs designed by Maurita Shank upheld the high rating that the Playcrafters have earned.

Brotherton Elected to Represent Frosh

At the last meeting of the freshman class, Bob Brotherton was elected to represent the class as a member of the Central Board. At the same time the class chose Janet Hatch to head the freshman chapel program committee with Marjorie Wickens and Cliff Rawnsley as assistants.

CLASS VIEWS FISH

Professor McMillin and members of his geology and paleontology classes were visitors at the Point Defiance aquarium Monday night. There they observed the renowned "Oscar" being fed his meal of fish. They were especially fascinated by the way large fish eat the smaller fish.

Debators Give Trial Arguments

Tentative Teams Formed For New Season

With their first experimental debate held last Wednesday noon, the CPS debaters have swung into action for the 1937-38 season. Those participating in this first debate held for the purpose of determining issues were: Robert Byrd and Charles Shireman, affirmative, and Elizabeth Hardison and Katherine McConron, negative. Thursday, Margaret and Marie Gilstrap, negative, met the team of Miss Hardison and Miss McConron, affirmative.

Tentative teams for the coming season have been announced by Professor Battin. They are, women: Elizabeth Hardison and Katherine McConron, Margaret and Marie Gilstrap, Dorothy Gross and Sarah Louise Doub, Wilma Ittner and Barbara Healy, and Helen Gates and Elsie Wheaton. Boys are: Robert Byrd and Charles Shireman, Stanley Nash and George Forsythe, Don Roberts and Charles Gleiser, Tom Ray and Lyle Jameson, and Paul Seto and Yoshitoru Kiwano.

Those who have not yet formed into teams are: Edith Mae Hammond, Oliver Soares, Helmut Jueling, Charles McNary, James Docherty and Wilbur Baisinger.

Tuesday and Thursday, November 2 and 4, are the dates announced for the inter-mural debate tournament, in which all teams will participate.

Chest Campaign Goal Set at $125

Dr. Schafer, Paul Jueling Are in Charge of Drive

To raise more than one hundred and twenty-five dollars through the campus organizations is the goal set for the College of Puget Sound in the Community Chest drive, which began here last Friday, and is being directed by Dr. Marvin Schafer.

Those assisting Dr. Schafer are Paul Jueling, captain, and Don Roberts, with representatives from each of the campus organizations. These include Kappa Sigma Theta, Frances Todd; Lambda Sigma Chi, Mary Reitzel; Delta Alpha Gamma, Mary Kiduseck; Alpha Beta Upsilon, Elizabeth Hardison; Delta Pi Omicron, Warren Hoyt; Delta Kappa Phi, Bill Burrows; Sigma Zeta Epsilon, Albert Rooney; Alpha Chi Nu, Bob Byrd; Witsans, Bernard Watson and the Independents, who are headed by their president, Edrie Marguard and assisted by the following representatives: Mark Porter, Allen Brown, Katherine Yamamoto, Lyle Jameson, Lucia Gjucka, Hannah Hariki, Elinor Warren and Louise Goyka.

A plaque will be given to the organization who has an average of twenty-five cents per member. The organization who has the largest average per capita will receive a silver cup. When the cup is won three times the organization keeps it. The Witsans have won the cup two consecutive years.

Nightshirt Parade, Big-time Football Games, Mark Homecomings of Past

By EDITH MAE HAMMOND

Way back in the dear dead days beyond recall, in 1923 to be exact, the College of Puget Sound had its first Homecoming. It was held at the old campus, and a football game between C. P. S. and the University of Washington Huskies was the main attraction. (Score: 24-0, for the University). No parades, plays, or bonfires were in evidence, but the sororities, fraternities, and other school organizations gave banquets for the Alumni, and on Saturday evening a mixer, held in the gymnasium, closed the Homecoming.

More echoes of the past: A nightshirt parade, which began with the first of our traditional bonfires, and ended in the Rialto Theater with a rally and a special show, characterized the homecoming of 1924, which was the first to be held on the new, present, campus. Saturday morning a car parade preceded a game with the Huskies, which ended tragically, for us, in a score of 96 to 0.

The car parades in those days were not competitive, but each person decorated his car in maroon and white, to advertise the football game. Ten years ago at homecoming the slim figure of Venus swung above the huge bonfire, and the first Homecoming program, a one act play and a number of musical and vaudeville numbers were, presented. Also, CPS played for the first time in the new Pacific League, against Pacific University.

The old custom of burning the beanies was revived at Homecoming five years ago, in 1932. CPS won the Homecoming game against Pacific University by a score of 13-6, after a noisy noise parade through town, in which the Sigma Mu Chi were the champions. Sigma Zeta Epsilon won the house illumination contest, presenting a graveyard, with the label, "Bury the Badger." Dog thieves, missing babies and ghosts provoked chills and merriment in the play, "Second Childhood," Kenneth Powers and Kathryn St. Claire taking the leads. The annual alumni banquet was held at the First Presbyterian Church.

SET HOMECOMING PLANS IN MOTION FOR CELEBRATION

Bonfire, Play, Parade, Game Will Be High Lights of Annual C. P. S. Event

Three days filled with a variety of activity planned to bring the alumni, faculty and students of the College of Puget Sound together for their annual homecoming festivity, are scheduled this week-end, October 28, 29, 30.

WELCOME HOME, ALUMNI

It is with particular pleasure that I look forward to welcoming you to the campus and to the events of Homecoming this week. The Homecoming celebration in this fiftieth year of the legal existence of your Alma Mater, is a very special birthday party in her honor, and an appropriate time for each of you to come back and mingle with her other loyal sons and daughters. I hope to meet many of you this week, hear about your work and your plans, and rejoice with you over your successes. In the varied program which has been planned, we believe there is something of interest and enjoyment for every graduate and former student of the College of Puget Sound.

Greetings, and Welcome Home!

EDWARD H. TODD,
President.

VOTING IS BEGUN FOR KING, QUEEN OF TOLO PARTY

Voting began yesterday to determine who will be king and queen of Tolo, annual ladies' treat affair. Votes are simply pennies, or coins of larger denominations, according to Billie Acton, chairman of the affair. The balloting will continue until noon on November 10. This year the theatre party will be held at the Rialto, the movie featured being "High, Wide and Handsome," with Randolph Scott and Irene Dunne. This movie will run two weeks previous to November 10, so students are requested not to see the movie before that time or at least to purchase tickets from members of the committee at school.

Candidates nominated for queen of the Tolo are Dixie Thompson, Corabelle Griffen, Annabelle Miller, Elsie Wheaton. Those nominated for king include Al Sirles, Hal Pumphrey, Dick Sloat, Bob Bond, and Jim Docherty.

ANNUAL PARADE, PEP RALLY TODAY

With a bang and a clatter, the annual pep parade will begin at the college Friday noon. There will be a brief halt at 9th and Broadway for a pep rally.

The fraternity sponsoring the loudest noise float will be awarded a handsome trophy donated by Richardson's Ski Shop. To the group with the largest number of cars in the parade, the Worden candy company will present a box of candy. The Colyear motor company will give an automobile fan to the owner of the best decorated car.

Thursday night at 8:15 p. m. in the college chapel the play, "Night of January Sixteenth," was presented by the Campus Playcrafters.

Freshmen will rid themselves of their green caps by throwing them in the traditional freshmen bonfire this evening at 7 p. m. on CPS athletic field. The football game, Puget Sound vs. Willamette, follows at 8 p. m. in the Athletic Park.

An alumni dinner at 6:15 p. m. Saturday at the Union club will be followed by the Homecoming dance in the Fellowship hall. Dancing starting at 9 p. m. with music furnished by Sig Thorsen's orchestra will end the week's activities.

Among those who will be welcoming guests to the Homecoming program will be John D. Cochran, alumni president, who in speaking of the event, said, "At this time of the Homecoming we of the alumni are proud of the achievement made by the college in the past fifty years, not only from the standpoint of increased enrollment, but academic achievement."

Ralph Simpson, field secretary, speaking: "During the fiftieth anniversary celebration the alumni will return to the school in considerable numbers. In a few short years the present generation of students will have entered the ranks of the alumni. Homecoming times offer opportunities for getting acquainted with the members of the group which will receive you into membership upon graduation."

Gordon Tuell, president of the student body, "We have the makings of a real Homecoming. All we need now is some enthusiastic support."

Sororities and fraternities plan individual welcomes for their alumni members.

MAURITA SHANK PORTRAIT IS IN S. P. ART EXHIBIT

Among the paintings put on display by the Southern Pacific Railway in the gallery of Jones Hall, is a painting called "Maurita" posed by Maurita Shank. It was painted in oils by Peggy Strong, a local artist who has gained distinction. A new set of pictures will replace these in the middle of November.

Other features on display include interesting water color sketches of New Mexico by Eliot O'Hara, writer, painter, and teacher from Goose Rocks, Maine.

Plans are being completed to bring a few original paintings by Paul Cezanne to the gallery of Jones Hall. Paul Cezanne was a French painter living in the latter part of the 19th century. He was a good friend of Emile Zola and is characterized in the current film of the same name.

C. P. S. Band

This year, for the first time, CPS has the nucleus of a real band. Incoming freshmen, who show more school spirit than lots of upperclassmen, have been practicing faithfully under the able direction of Mr. Wersen, and the band is now in a position to "blow its own horn".

However, we can not stop here. Today, most colleges and even high schools have smartly uniformed bands, which play and march at football games, give regular concerts, and play at chapel programs. Many schools go one better and have their own dance bands. Why shouldn't CPS have this kind of an organization?

There are enough musicians in the student body, the school allows twice as much credit as other institutions, and the director is second to none on the Pacific Coast. The main explanation for lack of support is evidently an epidemic of sleeping sickness.

However, whether we wake up this year or not, CPS will have a band. The remarkable increase in the size of local high school bands during the last two years insures the ultimate success of our own organization. A decided improvement in the band has already been noticed. Let's see a few more of our talented Whitemans hop on the bandwagon and start swinging it.

Alumni News

William P. Tucker, '30, was appointed State Librarian for Washington last September.

He graduated from C. P. S. with a B. A. degree, then earned his M. A. at the University of Washington. William has done graduate work in the Library school, and in the library department of the C. C. C. under Federal government.

Beth Gellermann, '35, received her master's degree at Columbia last June, and is now working for her doctor's degree there.

Geneva Kenway earned her Master's degree at the University of Washington last June, and was awarded a scholarship to the University of Pennsylvania at Pittsburgh.

Returning to the west, after an absence of twenty-years, Dr. Gilbert LeSourd, '08, executive secretary of International Missionary Board in New York, is expected at the College early next month.

His college record, lauded by the faculty, shows that he was president of the YMCA, the Associated Student Body, editor of the Maroon, and a debater.

After graduation with an A. B. degree, Dr. LeSourd entered the Drew Theological Seminary, where he was awarded the Newman scholarship. Later he went to the New York University to earn his Master's and Doctor's degrees before entering missionary work.

Mr. H. D. Sorenson, an alumnus of CPS who is now principal of Bremerton High School, was president of the freshman class in 1916. It was his class that was instrumental in the beginning of the color post that is in the back of Jones Hall.

Mr. Sorenson played football at CPS. He was on the debate team, then under the instruction of Miss Frenau. At that time, the college was located where the Jason Lee Intermediate School now stands.

According to Mr. Sorenson, freshmen were initiated in those times also. At one time the boys wore short pants and painted their legs in striped fashion to represent Scotch stockings.

After attending CPS, Mr. Sorenson attended the University of Washington, Bellingham Normal, and the University of Southern California. He stated that C. P. S. had the finest spirit of friendship of any school he attended.

Staff Makes Tour

Students of Journalism and members of the Trail staff made an inspection tour of the Tacoma News-Tribune Thursday and of the Tacoma Times, Tuesday.

Beginning Monday night there will be a sketch class at C. P. S. open to anyone who is interested. A small fee for the material will be charged each evening. This is being sponsored by the Tacoma Art Association.

Some great softball games are being played in the Intra-mural league as shown by the fact that three teams are tied for second place and two teams are fighting it out for the cellar.

Observatory Hill

By PAUL JUELING

It seems that everybody else has taken a crack at writing the Inside of the Outside and after looking from the outside to the inside, the inside did not faze the outside, so we give you our interpretation of the inside.

o o o

Was Miss Jones mad. Imagine the unexpected publicity for the homecoming play when these two prize thespians, Judd Day and Norman Runions made the local papers by spending a night in the hoosegow. Naughty boys, squirting fizzle water in people's faces.

o o o

Reviewing the sneaks, we find the Delta Kapps pulled the only successful one, but the girls don't think it was so hot. The Chi Nu sneak, also scheduled for last Wednesday evening, was postponed because the other pledge had to study. Hugh MacWhirter, Zete, believes in safety in numbers. He took two girls to the Zete sneak in case one was kidnapped. The Mu Chis rented a truck and did some trucking in Puyallup and Sumner.

o o o

Miss Fickle would like to know if trucking is another dance like the big apple. After watching her and D. Robert Smith swing it, we are convinced she already knows the answer.

o o o

Campus personality of the week: Maurita Shank. Maurita is the dazzling blonde who runs about school making plans for the homecoming dance, flashes a five-dollar smile, and is as peppy as the Ivory Soap girl. She makes her debut in CPS dramatics Thursday night in the homecoming play, and Spurs will sell snap-shots of her during the third quarter.

o o o

We can't resist the temptation of crawling to the top of observatory hill and looking down on the duets here and about school. George Pollock and Helen Rosenzweig have still got that old feeling but Dick Horr and Doris Christian have got that new feeling and both seem to enjoy it. Ben Knoell and Edythe Mae Peele have reached that hopeless stage as well as Analie Duncan and Chuck Shireman. Ain't love grand. The surprise love affair of the year is that of Roger Mastrude and Margaret Sines. They have rented the Editor's office from Ruth Leo and hope to live happily ever after. Just a warning to you guys who think you're in love with one of the gals, be sure that they are in love with you. If you don't get what I mean, open your eyes.

o o o

Hurray, a campus feud. Bob Gibson thinks that Johnny Clarke is very nasty because he said some unnice things about Gibson's columns and Clarke has the same opinion of Gibson. Please don't fight, boys.

o o o

The Lambdas announce the pledging of Bob Anderson. Lorraine Holshouser hung the pin, and his first pledge duty will be to build the Lambda homecoming sign. Virginia Leonard thinks that the friendship between the Zete family and the Lambda family is looking up.

o o o

Are the boys mad. Jack Enright, Omicron, is our idea of an undercover man. For days and days the boys were trying to decide who should take Janet Hatch to Homecoming. When they got done deciding, Enright had her already dated. Just in case you are interested, she is dated up until Christmas, so don't bother.

o o o

Hear ye! Hear ye! Ruth Jensen and June Everson publicly wish to express their love for Hal Murtland. Aren't we all happy?

o o o

We wonder if Valorie Cruver's new Buick sedan has anything to do with Oliver Soares' deep love for her.

o o o

Too late to classify: June Everson teaches the freshman girls about the ways of life by reading letters from Carl Kuhl to them; Jerry Alexander likes Bob Lloyd and told him so; Dr. Chapman likes hamburgers; Annabel Miller is putting the geology lab on the rocks by distracting the assistant; Juness Jewell is the new fixture in the Gamma room.

o o o

Well, there's the dirt. And now I will leave you with that famous Hindu prayer: "Allah, Allah, Alimony."

Inter Collegiate

DID YOU KNOW

That blondes are on the road to extinction in America? By 1980 the true blond will be no more, and dark hair and eyes will characterize the typical American. Even today the dark complexioned persons outnumber the blondes five to one and just the last quarter century, the blondes have decreased more than 25%.

The cause of this seems to be due to our diet and intermarriage between light and dark types. Brunette tendencies almost invariably predominate over the blonde. The pictures of some of our blondes on our campus will be real rarities for their grandchildren to cherish.

SWING OUT?

Died-in-the-wool "Shaggers" and "Black Applers" may resent this, but a survey taken by one of collegiana's favorite bandmaster's among thirty college editors last Spring reveals that "Swing" has dropped to third in favor with the college crew. Slow music of the smooth variety still rates tops. The majority of the folks polled thought "swing" was just a fad. It's interesting to note that the three favorite standard tunes, "Star Dust", "Night and Day", and "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes", are all of the sweet variety.

A. C. E. ELECTS TODD HEAD N. W. REGION

Dr. Edward H. Todd was elected president of the northwest region of the American Council on Education at the first meeting of that group held in this part of the country. The meeting convened last Monday at CPS, under the leadership of Mr. J. Harvey Cain, financial advisor of the National group. President Todd was also elected representative from the presidents' section. The all-day program consisted mostly of discussions of budget and financial problems.

Theodore Nelsson of the Pacific Lutheran College was elected secretary and representative of financial officers. Mr. Edward J. Berwind, of Lower Columbia Junior College, was elected treasurer and representative for Trustees.

Portland will be the scene of the next meeting to be held next fall and it is hoped that it will be under the direction of a national officer.

Those at the Council were: acting president, W. A. Bratton, and S. B. Marquis, bursar, of Whitman College; President David L. Saltau, Alton B. Clark, office manager, and Edward J. Berwind, chairman of the board of regents, of Lower Columbia Junior College; James Kent, business officer of Linfield; A. I. Savage, bursar of Willamette; President C. H. Fisher of the Western Washington College of Education at Bellingham; H. N. Stronach, bursar of the Eastern Washington College of Education at Cheney; Kenneth Courson, business manager of the Central Washington College of Education at Ellensburg; Harry B. Ansted, director of public relations, and S. Lyle Post, bursar of Seattle Pacific College; President O. A. Tingelstad and Theodore Nelsson, bursar of Pacific Lutheran College.

Those attending from CPS were President Edward H. Todd; Bursar Charles A. Robbins; Dix H. Rowland, treasurer of the board of trustees; Dean John D. Register; and Paul Goforth, accountant.

CENTRAL BOARD REVISES BUDGET

Trying to toss the student's hard-earned pennies about the school appropriately, the Central Board has been straining every neuron to pacify all and sundry organizations. At a special meeting held October 18th the board accepted the recommendation of the finance committee for revision of the budget. This was necessary as the spring budget is based upon the anticipated enrollment of the college, and must be changed to fit the actual enrollment. It was decided that all the surplus money from the award fund of last year is to go into the sinking fund.

The important question of the method of distribution of student body finances in the future will be discussed at a meeting to be held Tuesday, November 2.

Membership of the Board includes president, Gordon Tuell; vice-president, Jane Anderson; and secretary, Barbara Beardsley. Class representatives are as follows: seniors, Clark Gould and Bob Byrd; juniors, Jimmy Docherty and Dick Names; sophomores, Betty Bannister and Bob Sprenger; and freshmen, Bob Brotherton.

Coming Soon: A mixed volleyball tourney with six players on a team. If you would like to play in this, come over Friday to practice.

LAMBDA, MU CHI PLEDGES ENTERTAIN

Pledges of Sigma Mu Chi and Lambda Sigma Chi entertained members of their respective groups at a pledge dance last Friday evening at Glendawn on Five-Mile Lake. In accordance with the sorority and fraternity traditions, the dance was in the form of an exchange affair. Among lighted pumpkins and other Hallowe'en decorations, Darell Henderson's orchestra furnished the music for the sport dance.

Miss Gwendolyn Roach was chairman of the affair and those assisting her were Bob Lloyd and Miss Pat Williams.

The guest list includes the following: Miss Nelda Mae Baker and Weymar Rosso; Miss Dorothy Bachelor and Chuck Fitchen; Miss Jane Carlson and Wally Starkey; Miss Vivian Dignes, Herb Clarke; Miss Buelah Eskildsen, Paul Juelling; Miss June Everson, John Slipp; Miss Doris Frank, Bob Lloyd; Miss Ruth Jensen, Hal Murtland; Miss Ruth Leo, John Sharp; Miss Barbara Longstreth, Maynard Carlson; Miss Lois Kuhl, John McDonnell; Miss Alycemore Magnusson, Don Rasmusson; Miss Beverly Peters, Tommy Ray; Miss Mary Reitzel, Ronald Lorimer; Miss Virginia Smythe, Herb Hite; Miss Marcia Woods, Bob Price; Miss Wilma Ittner, Joe Price; Miss Betty Kuhl, Jesse Denzler; Miss Jerry Alexander, Bob Heaton; Miss Betty Blood, Harbine Monroe; Miss Signa Byrd, Merritt Nelson; Miss Janet Hatch, Cliff Rawnsley; Miss Virginia Krogh, Ray Grigal; Miss Betty Lee, Bob Gibson; Miss Beth Lee, Dick Jarvis; Miss Gwendolyn Roach, George Mitchell; Miss Eleanor Robison, Chet Grimstead; Miss Marjorie Wickens, Clarence Mykland; Miss Muriel Woods, Leo Yuckert; Miss Betty Peterson, Mel Coffman; Miss Margaret Wilson, Clark Gould, Miss Pat Williams and John Fowler.

Patrons and patronesses for the dance were Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Powell, and Miss Doris Fickel and Prof. Robert Smith.

Omicrons Initiate New Members

Formal initiation was administered to pledges of Delta Pi Omicron last Wednesday evening at the home of Prof. Shelmidine, on North Lawrence St. Those entering the fraternity are Luther Fine, Warren Hoyt, Paul Sorensen and Art Petersen. The initiation was in charge of Wallace R. Drake, alumnus; Marc Miller, George Fisher, Garth Dickens, and Howard Annis, members.

A short business meeting followed the initiation after which refreshments were served by Prof. Shelmidine, fraternity adviser.

Spurs To Sell Mums

That Spurs will sell yellow chrysanthemums with a maroon P in the center, at the Homecoming game, was announced by Miss Evelyn Shaw. "They will sell for only twenty-five cents so get your mums at the game," urges Miss Shaw to all students planning to attend the football game.

PLEDGES GIVE FIRST DANCE

Delta Kappa Phi definitely opened their fall social season with their pledge dance that was held at Lakewood Community Center Saturday, October 16. The fall motif was carried out in decorations of autumn leaves and flowers. Music for the affair was furnished by Bob Lyon's orchestra.

Norman Runions was chairman for the dance and those on his committee were Bob Corliss, Bill Burroughs, and Myles Barrett.

And incomplete guest list includes the following: Misses Virginia Smythe, June Faulk, Judy Fraser, Pony Hudson, Maurita Shank, Helen Stalwick, Corabelle Griffin, Doris Nisonger, Lillian Mattson, Jessie Willison, Betty Willison, Doris Hines, Virginia Bowen, Kay Norris, Letitia Thompson, Elizabeth Hardison, Juness Jewell, Lola Emerson, Margaret Sines, Carolyn Geddes, Ina Marie Sewright, Sally Spencer, Muriel Woods, Norine Loomis, Alice Bradee, and Mrs. Fred Stockbridge.

Club Notes

FRENCH CLUB

At the French Club's first meeting of the year Tuesday, October 19, the following officers were elected: President, Jack Enright; Vice-president, Belle Ruth Clayman; Secretary, Virginia Krogh; Treasurer, Bud Galbraith; Social Chairman, Barbara Healy.

Beginning next Thursday, meetings will be held every other Thursday, from 4 to 6 p. m. Plans for the year include a supper meeting to be held once a month, a Twelfth Night party on January 6, and a speech contest in the spring. Anyone interested in joining, whether or not they have taken French, is cordially invited to come.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

Japanese attitudes concerning the present Sino-Japanese crisis was presented by Kenji Ito, a member of the Japanese consul's office in Seattle, when he spoke at a meeting of the International Relations Club held at Dr. Williston's home last Monday night.

LOFT PARTY HONORS BIG, LITTLE SISTERS

Laughters, games and fun in general occurred last Saturday night when big sisters, and little sisters, gathered for the Loft Party at the Y. W. C. A. Decorations spoke of fall and Hallowe'en, with pumpkins, leaves, and orange paper. Refreshments also reflected the season, with apples, cookies and punch.

Miss Edith Allen was general chairman, assisted by Miss Helen Gessaman, Miss Doris Day, and Miss Edrie Marquard were on the decoration committee and the invitations were taken care of by Miss Jean Jespersen.

At the Freshman Commission meeting last Tuesday, Mrs. Drushel was guest speaker talking on college etiquette.

"Freshmen used to wear corsets, us perfume, and powder their hair," Miss Punderson told an amused audience of about twenty girls at the Y. W. C. A. fireside, held Sunday, October 17, at the Conservatory of Music. Miss Punderson, talking informally, said that twenty-five years ago French girls of the middle class scarcely knew boys of their own age, except their brothers, and that it has been only since the World War that they have entered into some athletics, gone to co-educational schools, and in general had any freedom.

Refreshments were served, and it was announced that Miss Katharine Love will speak on India at the next fireside, to be held November 14, at Dr. Sinclair's home, from 3 to 5.

SPANISH CLUB

La Mesa Redonda announces the pledging of Doris Hartman, Barbara Healy and Al Goldberg. At the next meeting, on November 8, these pledges will be in charge of the pot-luck dinner and program. Further announcements will be posted on the bulletin board in Mrs. Robbins' room.

The first meeting of the College Stamp Club will be held this Wednesday, October 3, in room 209, at 12:05. Interesting plans for the year will be discussed. Everyone is welcome.

Knight of Logs Plan Stag Dinner for Past Members

At the Knight of the Log meeting last Tuesday, plans were started for a Knight of the Log stag dinner to be held near the Christmas holidays. Guests of honor will be former members of the honorary organization. Charles McNary and Ronald Lorimer have been selected to head the committee in charge of the affair.

Tentative plans are also in the making for the rejuvenation of the gymnasium loft for a Knight of the Log club room.

KAPPA PHI PLEDGES 15

Fifteen women were pledged to Chi Chapter of Kappa Phi, national club for Methodist university women, Tuesday evening, October 19. They are the Misses Virginia Atterberry, Louise Durand, Helen Gessaman, Gayle Harden, Evangeline Harold, Helen Loyd, Virginia Lundberg, Doris McClymont, Virginia Newman, Oshiye Omori, Janet Powelson, Mary Reitzel, Kathleen Sherrill, Yae Takashima and Eleanor Warne.

Miss Mary Reitzel was elected pledge president and Miss Helen Gessaman, secretary.

Friday evening, October 29, at Epworth Church, the annual Kappa Phi parents' banquet will be held. Miss Audrey Gibson is general chairman for the affair, assisted by Miss Edith Allen, chairman of the foods committee and Miss Jean Jespersen, decorations.

Miss Ruth Wilson, president, announces the appointment of Miss Mary Keeler as program chairman, to fill the vacancy left by Miss Marion Sherman's withdrawal from school.

As the grand climax to the Homecoming celebration being held this week-end, collegiate couples will make their way to Fellowship Hall in the Masonic Temple for the annual Homecoming dance to be held tomorrow evening. A door-prize of an autographed football signed by members of the Varsity team will be offered to the holder of the lucky ticket.

During intermission the various awards will be presented to the winners of the Homecoming stunts. Patrons and patronesses for the affair will be Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Powell and Prof. and Mrs. C. T. Battin.

Committees in charge of the dance are the following: decorations, Miss Virginia Leonard, chairman, Miss Ruth Jensen, Maynard Carlson; tickets, Marc Miller, chairman, Miss Margaret Hueston, Miss Betty Worden; advertising, Dick Sloat and John McDonnell.

Sigma Mu Chis Move to Front Of 'Mural Race'

STANDINGS
Mu Chis	4	0	1,000
Independ	3	1	.750
Zetes	2	2	.500
Delta Kapps	2	2	.500
Chi Nus	1	3	.250

SCHEDULE

Tuesday: Alpha Chi Nus vs. Sigma Zeta Epsilon—12:20; Delta Pi Omicron vs. Delta Kappa Phi—1:15.

Thursday: Sigma Mu Chi vs. Independents—12:20.

As a climax to the intramural softball league, the Sigma Mu Chi club and the Independent team will play the last game of the season, Thursday, Nov. 4, 12:20 o'clock for the championship.

The Mu Chis will enter the contest favorites, having won all their games by big margins. Although the Independents have lost one game, to the Sigma Zeta Epsilon outfit, they will field one of the strongest teams they have had in several seasons, and are expected to make it a close contest. A playoff will be decided on later if the Independents win Thursday.

One of the fastest and most exciting games of the entire season was played yesterday between the Mu Chis and the Zetes, which the Mu Chis won 9-0. Many strikeouts were recorded and the game was occasionally interrupted by heated arguments on the part of the players and umpires. The Mu Chis, however, had the heavy hitting which knocked home the winning 9 runs. Behind the superb pitching of Clarence Mykland, they were able to hold the Zetes scoreless.

Last Home Contest To Be Played With Conference Title At Stake

In the most colorful and crucial Homecoming contest in the history of College of Puget Sound football, the Loggers of 1937 meet Willamette, the defending conference titlists, tonight at 8 o'clock, in the Tacoma Athletic Park.

A comparatively easy road to the conference title and even more important—sweet revenge for three consecutive setbacks at the hands of Spec Keene's Bearcats—will be the reward of victory for the Maroon and White eleven.

Willamette boasts one of the high-scoring backfields of the circuit in little All-American Dick Weisgerber, All-Conference Billy Beard and a bevy of other brilliant ball-packers such as Bunny Bennet and Bill Stone to name only a few. Arrayed against this most publicized team ever turned out by the Pacific Northwest conference will be the best Puget Sound eleven in recent years. The CPS threat is power, speed and, what is something new in Logger offense, a wide-open razzle dazzle passing attack.

When you think of power at CPS, you think of the Logger line and Gordon Fielder plowing along right on the heels of McLaughlin's blocking.

Speed spells Schwetz and Remson in the Logger backfield. The razzle-dazzle referred to is something on the order of that which scored at least two of the four Logger touchdowns against Whitman.

Stop Weisgerber! That's something the Maroon and White haven't been able to do for three seasons, and that's something the Loggers must accomplish to come out ahead tonight, in the opinion of most Northwest grid followers. But Weisgerber is only half of the double-barrelled Willamette running attack. The other half is Billy Beard who gave the second place Lumberjacks of last year plenty of trouble.

Playing his last Homecoming contest under the Maroon and White colors, Frank Sulenes will lead the Logger forces tonight.

Sulenes, Gay Only Loggers In Fourth Year

Frank Sulenes and Warren Gay are the only two Loggers who will be in suit tonight who will be lost via the graduation route to next year's team. This apparently means that C. P. S. will have much the same team for at least another year that has won three consecutive conference tilts this season.

Sulenes was selected by "Sandy" to lead the Loggers against the Willamette Bearcats in tonight's Homecoming contest. Sulenes was also captain of the game against Whitman.
