THE Puget Sound TRAIL

ALL COLLEGE PARTY IN SUB TONIGHT

1941-42, No. 15.

THE COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND, TACOMA, WASHINGTON

FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1942

CPS Party Tonight In Student U.

"Friday the 13th" Program to Include $793,000 Worth of Entertainment, States Kleiner.

What CPS has been waiting for all year is here, the first real all college campus party, beginning at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of Jones hall Friday evening, March 13 and ending with a "jiving hot" dance in the Student Union building.

A usual gloomy "Friday the 13th" will undergo a rejuvenation of mood when the curtains part on the opening stunt this evening. As previously mentioned in the Trail, there will be $793,000 worth of special entertainment selected from the cream of the student body. A varied program will feature Terry McCleod and his nimble fingers on the ivory and George Lutz with his talking clarinet. Irene Fearn, freshman thespian, will present a reading and Loretta Maynes' musical toes will cut a "rugged rug."

The Trail took a poll of the student body and here are some of the comments it received. Willard Gee, leading member of yesterday's style show, when questioned, replied in perfect English. "I believe it should be a lovely evening." When Chuck Pratt was questioned he replied, "I believe it is artificial, their having been shaped so by binding the skull to boards since birth. The faces are portraits and not gods, and the large figure downstairs is not a god, as might be supposed, but is a figurine of some dead person. The hole in the body shows the cause of death. It was the custom of the Indians to bury doll likenesses with each person, the figure bearing whatever death marks the body bore.

South American Art Exhibit On Display In Jones Hall

Room 12 of Jones hall has discovered a hitherto unknown popularity and it is all because of the unusual South American exhibit on display there. On glancing in, a strange stone figure greets the eye and this draws the curious to further investigation—they enter, and then remain to view the interesting collection. But this is only a small part of the entire collection, the bulk of which is in the art gallery on the third floor.

Every piece of the exhibit is original and authentic, having been dug out of the tombs in Ancon, Peru. Now Mrs. C. A. Robbins, Mrs. Robbins' brother, and sister-in-law made a geological trip into this region of Peru and returned with the many historical remains all dating before the Christian era and found buried in the sterile soil, corn-meal in texture, which is a natural preservative. At the time these things were dug up, the territory was open to any one who could get enough natives to work for him. Now, however, the fields are under strictest guard by the National Archeological society of the government of Peru.

When uncovered, the mummies are found seated, with their hands clasped about their knees and beneath their chin a box containing articles long since disintegrated. The bodies are tightly bound with yard and yards of finely woven cloth, remnants of which make up part of the exhibit. With the body are always to be found personal belongings and with each mummy was always a pet, buried alive. With a woman, it was usually a bird, and with a man, a dog. The other cloth pieces were originally purses, which were buried with the bodies and contained food or seeds. The flattened shape of the heads

Appointments for Tamanawas pictures must be made at the College before the picture can be taken in the Kennel-Ellis studios. Saturday, March 14, is the very latest that this appointment may be made, states Ruth Pauline Todd, editor of the annual.

Fifty cents should be paid to Helen Pat Beem, Ruth Sonnemann, Virginia Judd, Ruth Pauline Todd, Jim Paulson or Dick Haley. The remaining dollar and five cents is to be paid to the studio. This entitles the student to a choice of four proofs, an eight by ten enlargement, and a picture in this year's Tamanawas.

Marines Take Ten Students

Monday and Tuesday the United States Marine physician was at CPS examining potential marines from the student body. After a stiff physical examination those who proved eligible were sworn in and finger printed. They will now be allowed to finish their four years of college and after that will be sent to Virginia for officer's training.

Those who passed and were sworn in are: Floyd Mackey, Tom Brown, Ed Loft, Ed Granlund, Art Sheets, Arnold Rukan, George McMaster, John Lantz, Thomas Beer and Bob Rowan.

As the quota is far from being filled, the Marine recruiting officers will come to CPS again next week and all those freshman and sophomores who were not able to sign up now will have another chance to do so.

VAUGHN ADDED TO BOOKSTORE STAFF

George Reagan announces that no used text books will be bought by the bookstore until the end of the semester as some of the books will not be used again next year.

"Fozzy" Vaughn has been added to the staff now working in the store. This brings the total number employed there to four.

NW College Debaters Here Today

Over 100 Debaters from Northwest Colleges Are on Hand for Tournement.

Over one hundred intercollegiate debaters are guests of the College at this eighth annual Junior College Tournament today and tomorrow. Representatives of Oregon State, Linfield, Pacific University, Willamette, Seattle Pacific, Pacific Lutheran and Whitman are participating.

Men's and Women's divisions are offered in both of the debate questions—"Resolved, that the democracies should form a federation to establish and maintain the eight Churchill-Roosevelt principles" and "Resolved, that the federal government should regulate by law all labor unions in the United States, constitutionally conceded." Two divisions are also offered in extempore speaking, impromptu speaking and oratory. All after-dinner speakers will be in the same division.

Schedule of the meet is listed on bulletin boards and all students interested in hearing any of the rounds of speaking are invited to do so.

Jimmy Paulson, student body president has extended to all the visitors a cordial invitation to attend the All-College party and the dance at the student Union building.

Room 203 has been designated as headquarters for the tournament.

Ski Club Skating Party Saturday

Ski club members and friends have temporarily forsaken the snow and taken to the ice, so— for an evening of "Slack" ice skating come to the postponed Ski Club skating party at the Lakewood Ice Arena tomorrow night from 10 to 12. Tickets may be obtained from any member or from Dr. Tomlinson, the ski coach.

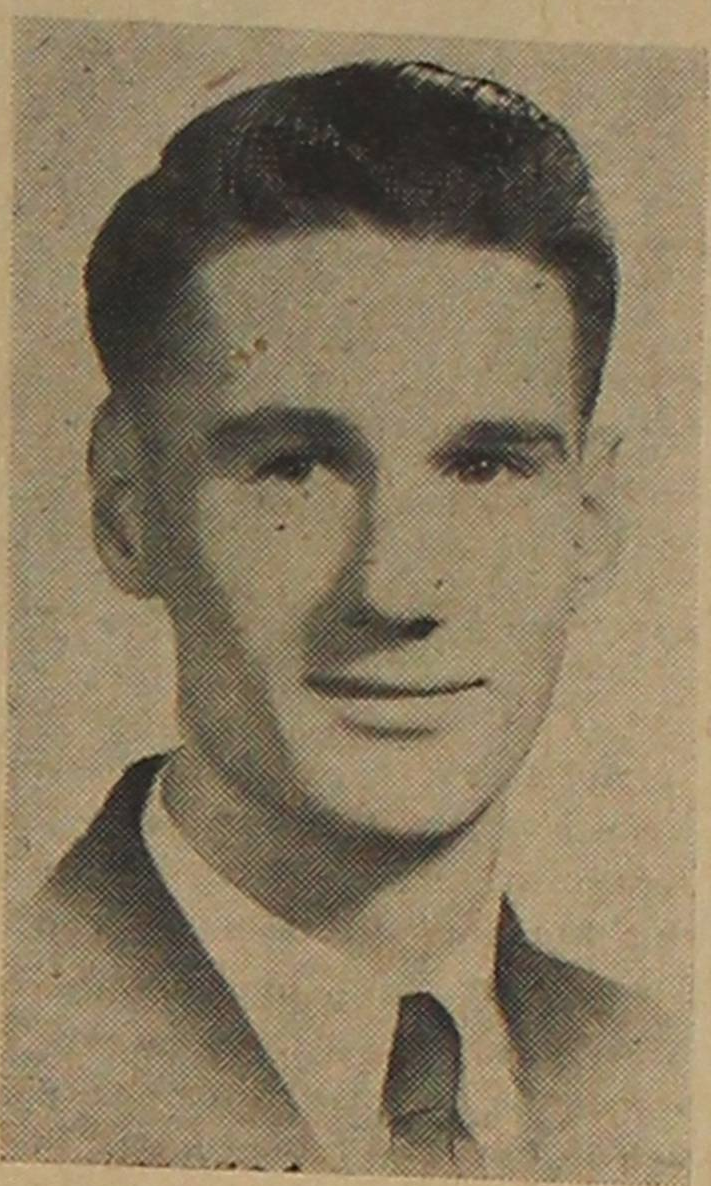

Chapel Committee Pioneers Plan for Making 'Life Emphasis Week' Inter-Denominational

For the first time on any college campus, a plan for inter-denominational observance of Holy week is being made here. Set aside for this are the four days of March 30 through April 2. These meetings just preceding Easter will replace the traditional Life Emphasis week, observed in other years on the campus. The general theme for the entire week is to be "Faith for Today."

On Monday the chapel speaker will be secured from Seattle, and the subject for his speech is "A Student's Faith." Jim Paulson will act as the student chairman. Tuesday and Wednesday, instead of one large chapel service, the students will meet with their respective denominational groups. Each group will discuss aspects of "Living Our Faith."

The eight largest denominations represented at the College, which will hold individual group meetings, and the general chairman for each group are: Baptist, Evans Nelson; Congregational, Paul Raymond; Disciples of Christ, Betty Jo Fry;

Strings In Vesper Series On Sunday

Next Sunday afternoon, March 15, at 3:30 p. m. is the date of the first appearance this year of the Puget Sound String Ensemble under the direction of Erick Koker. The recital will be the second in a series of College Vesper concerts being presented this Spring. June Everson Smith, pianist, and Robert B. Anderson, violinist, will be the assisting artists of the afternoon.

Featured on the program will be both modern and classic compositions. Music in the latter vein will open the concert, with the society performing two ballets in ancient style, "Favana" and "Gagliarda," by Byrde, and two minutes by Mozart and Rameau. Other numbers will include "Folk Song Suite No. 2" by George McKay, professor of music composition at the University of Washington, and the overture from "The Messiah" by Handel. Mr. Anderson will play "Aria," Tenaglia; "Concerto in A Minor," Vivaldi; the elegy from "Serenade for Strings," Tschalkowsky, and "Heart Wounds" and "Last Spring" by Grieg. Miss Smith's numbers will include: "Grillen" and "Aufschwung," Schuman, and "Nocturne" by Chopin.

The College Vesper concerts are sponsored by the College music department in cooperation with the faculty and a civic music group headed by Dr. F. S. Hermann.

Sonnemann Defeats Lewis for Secretary; Esther Mann, and Evelyn Decker, Yell and May Queens Elected in Primaries; Class Representatives Are Hanawalt, Breckner and Beem.

By the incredibly slim margin of two votes, Paul B. Heuston was elected president of the ASCPS for the year 1942-43 in the finals yesterday. Eliminated in the primaries for president was Bob Elliot, in a race which had the whole student body on edge. Although interest looked slight, the chapel speeches seemed to turn the tide toward a neck-and-neck race which may not be over yet, in the event that a recount be called.

Elected in the primaries for vice president was Kay Woods, by a good majority. The office of secretary went to Ruth Sonnemann, who lagged behind her opponent Marijane Lewis in the primaries, but shot out ahead when the voting narrowed to two.

Others elected in the primaries were Esther Mann as yell queen and Evelyn Decker as May queen, and their satellites the dukes and attendants: Bill Glover and Jack Moore as yell dukes, Virginia Judd and Blanche Haynes as attendants to the May queen.

Final Returns

President: Paul Heuston, 171; Tom Barber, 169.
Vice President: Kay Woods, 190; Pegge Simpson, 122.
Secretary: Ruth Sonnemann, 172; Marijane Lewis, 155.
May Queen: Evelyn Decker, 136; Virginia Judd, 78; Blanche Haynes, 72.
Yell King: Esther Mann, 281; Bill Glover, 222; Jack Moore, 211.
Senior Representative: Frank Hanawalt, 185; Ed Hungerford, 132.
Junior Representative: Norm Breckner, 171; Harris Martin, 157.
Sophomore Representative: Helen Pat Beem, 186; Alice Clay, 135.

The three class representatives elected in the second half of the voting, which took place on Tuesday and Wednesday, are Frank Hanawalt (senior class), Norm Breckner (junior class), and Helen Pat Beem, (sophomore class).

Following is the list of all candidates in the order of the number of votes received in the primaries. President: Heuston, Barker, Elliott; vice president, Kay Woods, Pegge Simpson; secretary, Marijane

Complete figures for all elections may be obtained on application to any member of the election board, which consists of Jim Paulson, Virginia Judd, Bill Tregoning, and Richard Smith.

Class elections are scheduled for Monday, March 23. At this time each class will elect for the offices of president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer and a second representative to Central Board.

Musical Selections Dominate College Campus Workshop

With a program comprised mostly of musical selections, last week's College Campus Workshop production, sponsored by Tacoma City Light, was generally accepted as one of the best of the current season. The KMO show was again supervised by the radio class, with Nadine Padden as producer.

Among the musical offerings on the program were two numbers by the Melodians, College male quartet: "Lover, Come Back to Me" and a Negro spiritual. A college version of "I've Been Working on the Railroad" and a new arrangement of "Elmer's Tune" were sung by the College girls' quartet. Two "Boogie-woogie" interludes were performed by Terry McCloud. Noel Coward's "I'll See You Again" was the vocal solo of Beverly Veltan, who is also a member of the girls' quartet.

As a special feature of the broadcast Marilyn Gilstrap delivered the oration which won her second place in the Junior College division of Women's Oratory at Linfield, Oregon: "He that loseth his life."

Willard Gee announced the production and Mel Novikoff and Muriel Kazda handled the commercial. Following the broadcast, the participants gathered in the control room of the studio to listen to a recording of the show.

SATURDAY LAST DAY FOR INCOMPLETES

To secure credit for last semester's incompletes, work must be finished and turned in by tomorrow, March 14. If it is not finished at this time, the grade will be recorded as permanently incomplete. Two weeks from tomorrow, March 28, is the final date for removal of conditionals.

St. Patrick Is Saturday Eve Gamma Motif

Shamrocks, green hats, Irish pipes and green and white streamers carry out the Saint Patrick motif of the Delta Alpha Gamma annual semi-formal cotton ball to be held Saturday, March 14, in the John M. Kittredge hall. The atmosphere of early spring will be portrayed by Gamma "girls" in floral prints.

Variety green programs with witty dance titles, such as "Shamrock shag" and "Snake-hip-hop," will direct partners at the finish of each record series. Dixie cup refreshments will be passed out during intermission to all attending the social function.

Special guests for the evening are Miss Kathleen Cooper and Mr. Al Vorhees, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jacobsen and the presidents of the fraternities and sororities.

Dorothy Ann Brenner is making the general arrangements for the affair. Assisting her are Berget Carlson, Felicie Dahl, Sue Lidren and Jane Hudson.

"Blarneys" coming are John Boyle, Murray Hyde, Ralph McLaughlin, Jack Frater, Verne Hinrich, Jim Van Camp, William Tregoning, Jack Graybeal, Mel Blanchard, Lee Foreman and Lynn Axelsson.

LeRoy Vaughn, Don Brown, Weldon Rau, Joe Ribar, Naylor Middleton, Phil Raymond, Lee Mackey, Bart Woods, Bob Moles, Garth Dickens and Paul Davis.

DK's Hay Ride On March 20

Delta Kappa Phi fraternity is going back to the good old days of the horse and buggy when they give their barn dance Friday, March 20, in the Canyon Road community house.

Under the chairmanship of William Sidders, Joes and Sallys will make their customary nests in the hay ride that will start from the College and gradually terminate at the place of dancing. Straw hats, loud shirts, costumes and old clothes will characterize the general theme of the "hop."

Those working on the committee with William are John Heaton, Joseph Sands and Frank Hanawalt. Guests for the evening are Dr. and Mrs. Philip R. Fehlandt, Dr. and Mrs. Warren E. Tomlinson and Mr. and Mrs. George Reagan.

Testing For Sophomores March 24-26

Beginning this spring the College of Puget Sound will join in the National College Sophomore Testing program sponsored by the American Council of Education, of which the College is a member. This testing program is in its eleventh year and is used by one hundred and fifty-three leading colleges in the United States.

The purpose of the testing program will be to help the student to appraise his own interests, aptitudes, abilities and progress; to enable the College to measure the students' general educational achievements; and to provide evaluation of the College's program and results in particular fields in comparison with those of other institutions. There are no passing or failing grades in the tests, and they are to be used only for individual and institutional self-appraisal and guidance.

National tests must be given during the weeks of March 16-28, and those here will be held on the three days, March 24-26. The three divisions of the test, one for each day, are in English, general culture, and contemporary affairs. The English quiz, two hours in length, will be aimed to show reading comprehension, literary acquaintance, and composition, usage and effectiveness of expression. The 3-hour general culture examination will include history, fine arts, natural science, mathematics, world literature and social problems. The contemporary affairs test to last one hour and 40 minutes, is concerned with political events, social and economic events, science and medicine, literature, fine arts and amusements.

BERNARD SQUIRES TO ADDRESS LOCAL JAPANESE CHURCH

Bernard Squires, executive secretary of the Urban league, will speak next Sunday evening, March 15, at the Japanese Methodist church at 7 o'clock to a group consisting of College of Puget Sound students, Japanese and Negro young people.

The Urban league grew out of the movement of the Southern negro from the farm to cities. A social period, with refreshments, will follow the address. Frank Hanawalt, president of the Student Christian association, says the evening should prove an entertaining one. The Japanese Methodist church is situated at South 19th and Fawcett streets.

Otlah Club Tea Precedes Style Show By Federation

Many men and women gathered on the College of Puget Sound campus Thursday afternoon, March 12, from 3:30 till 5 o'clock to attend the annual spring style show presented by the women's federation. Preceding the Easter parade was a tea given by Otlah, senior women's honorary, for all guests of the day.

At the style show amid novel settings designed by the art department, models depicted college life in four phases: sports, service, afternoon and evening. Miss Evelyn Decker was general chairman and was ably assisted by Misses Betty Heaton, Janet Robbins, Helen Patricia Beem, Mary Cornell, Ruth Sonneman and Janet Armstrong. Miss Doris Jean Wittren read continuity and Miss Jane Kobler at the piano provided music for the models, who were selected from sororities and fraternities of the campus.

Models for the show were Misses Mary Cornell, Mildred DeSpain, Esther Sandstedt, Blanche Haynes, Marijane Lewis, Jean Hallen, Janis Eisenhower, Betty Jane Roowe, Katheryn Woods and Mary Frances Johnson. Men modeling clothes were Charles Swanson, Dixon Bond, Charles Stillman and Hugh McWhirter. Graceful tapers, spring flowers and a delicate lace cloth shared the tea table at the annual Otlah tea which honored mothers of members and friends of the College. Calling hours were from 2:30 till 3:30. Mrs. Lyle Ford Drushel, dean of women, and Mrs. Raymond S. Seward, advisor of the group, presided.

Hostesses in colorful gowns received guests in the main lobby of Kittredge hall. Miss Dorothy Ann Brenner, president of the honorary, welcomed mothers with the annual greeting message.

Hostesses for the day were Misses Evelyn Decker, Ruth Pauline Todd, Mary Ellen Peterson, Pomla Norman, Jo Ann Schlesinger, Ruth McCrea, Margarita Irle, Betty Troxell, Irene Creso, Dorothy Brenner and Betty Ann Wasserman.

This Semester to Have Closed Period.

After a trial last semester without the traditional closed period, faculty members have decided that it shall be held once again this term. To new students, it might be explained that closed period is the two last weeks of each semester in which all social functions and student activities are terminated in order to give every student an opportunity to review for the final examinations. Closed period will be from May 22 to June 4.

AAUW Selects Margarita Irle

Margarita Irle was chosen this year's fortunate winner of the A. A. U. W. award by the faculty women of this college after a canvas had been made of all the senior women of the college.

Each year the Tacoma Branch of the American Association of University Women offers toward the end of the first semester, one hundred dollars to a senior woman who most nearly fulfills the conditions—being partially or completely financial self independent, having a high scholarship, having a wholesomeness of influence and promise. Margarita was found to have more than adequately fulfilled these specifications and last Wednesday in chapel Mrs. Eugene White presented her with the award.

Margarita will also be the special guest at a tea and program to be given for all the senior women Saturday, March 21, at two o'clock in the afternoon at Weyerhaeuser hall.

CPS Represented In Youth Confer.

At the eighth annual United Christian Youth Conference of Washington which was held in Spokane March 6, 7 and 8, the College of Puget Sound was represented by about 20 students.

The theme for the conference was "Build Today for a Christian Christian World." Students from the College who were chairmen of committees were: Nelda Peterson, Ruth McCrea, and Russell Alsgaard. Jean Stanton was the conference pianist.

At the business meeting Russell Alsgaard was elected vice-pres. for the Washington State Christian Youth council.

CORRECTION

In the last issue of the Trail, in the story about the Linfield debate tournament, the statement was made that Don Lamka and Bill Kolvisto, "who, according to them, have an unbeatable case, were debate partners in Kent high school." It should have read ". . . according to coaches who heard them, have an 'unbeatable case.'"

The omission of three words caused an unfortunate change in the meaning of the sentence.

'Tieless Trot' Is Theme of Zete Dance

The "Tieless Trot" informal sport dance given by Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity, Saturday evening, March 7, at Lakeview country club furnished an evening of amusement for many girls.

Novel pink programs with gold Greek letters served as the broomstick for the evening. Tapers rained down from the ceiling filling the ballroom with a silvery blue haze. During intermission tinkling laughter drifted from the balcony where couples stood admiring the moon whose rays floated over the calm lake.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Brown were special guests for the evening. Men who contributed to the success of the dance were Don Brown, general chairman; Richard Donelson, Sherman Day, Richard Steele and Wayne Brown.

Guests attending were Mildred DeSpain, Marijane Lewis, Vera Healy, Ruth Galloway, Norma Gagliardi, Betty Heaton, Evelyn Hawthorne, Mary Cornell, Bibbits Strong, Jean Hallen, Harriet Green, Marion Carson, Lucile Ludwick, Beverly Berlie, Dorothy Hager, Sonya Anderson, Thora Holden, Nancy Nelson, Shirley Moore and Jean Button.

Barbara Waller, Mary Lou Fulton, Nancy Short, Mary Marush, Esther Mann, Patricia Patten, Dee Whitham, Shirley Trent, Patricia Finch, Virginia Judd, Charlotte Rhenhard, Ann McCarthy, Helen Patricia Beem, Shirley Day, Jane Loren, Phyllis Foote, Clarabel Stevens and Mary Elizabeth Morton.

Kappa Phi Girls Sponsor Paper Drive at College

Because of the necessity to conserve paper for the government the girls of Kappa Phi sorority are sponsoring a paper drive. This is the first drive of this kind to be attempted upon the College campus.

Students are requested to save old paper, and either bring it to College or leave name and address with any Kappa Phi member or Mrs. Charles Robbins, faculty advisor. It will be called for.

Mary Ellen Peterson is general chairman for this drive and she urges that everybody co-operate to make it a success. Every Kappa Phi member is working on the committee to help collect paper for this drive. To donate paper, students are to see Ruth Pauline Todd, Jane Hudson, Anita Misner, Gerrie Dyer or any member of Kappa Phi.

Track Men Practicing; First Meet Month Away

The first track meet of the current season is but one month away and Coach Leo Frank is rapidly rounding his experienced squad of thinclads into tip top shape, for the opener against Pacific Lutheran, April 17, on the Logger oval.

Four veterans, all of whom were counted upon for active duty this coming season, have dropped out of school since the turn of the semester and leave gaping holes in the tentative lineup. Bill McLaughlin, three-year letter winner, will go into the navy near the first of April. "Grumpy" has been a consistent point winner in the shot and pole vault.

Bill Tucker and Jim Rice, both one-year lettermen, have forsaken school for outside employment. Tucker was a hurdler, and although he saw no action last season because of a leg injury, he had been counted upon for the 1942 season. Rice threw the javelin for the Maroon and White last spring.

Dale McCord, the fourth veteran, has left school for Uncle Sam. While on the track team, "Corky" specialized in the broad jump and was a good sprinter.

Two months of practice have passed and Wednesday afternoon Coach Frank sat down and briefly outlined his probable starting squad. It stacks up something like this:

Sprints: Bill Gregory (Stadium) and Don Hersey (Clover Park).

Quarter mile: Jim Walter (1) and Bart Wood (Stadium).

Half mile: Jim Frank (1), Gene Torget (U. of W.) and Chet Dyer.

One mile: Bob Hamilton (1), Bill Oxholm (1), Jim Dyer (Clover Park) and Dick Anderson.

Two mile run: Fred Beck (2) and Oxholm.

Hurdles: Bob Maycumber (2), Gene Clevinger (1) and Wood.

Shot put: Dan Cushman (1), Bob Moles and Al Danielson (Stadium).

Discus: Cushman and Clevinger. Javelin: Mel Blanchard (1).

Broad jump: Maycumber and Murray Hyde (Castle Rock).

High jump: Clevinger, Danielson and Blanchard.

Pole vault: Jack Graybeal (1) and Clevinger. (No.) denotes number of first team letters won.

Professor Fehlandt Addresses Seattle Art Study Guild

Tuesday, March 3, Dr. Philip R. Fehlandt, professor of chemistry, spoke to 100 members of the study guild of the Seattle art museum. His subject was "The Arts of Chemistry in Home Decoration." He illustrated his lecture with slides and samples of materials, chiefly of metallurgical products and plastics.

In relation to plastics, Dr. Fehlandt emphasized that plastics do not, as many people believe, constitute a solution to present-day priorities. Most of the chemicals used in plastics are scarce and have priorities on them as well.

Linfield High As Picked by Logger Team

Linfield College, 1942 Northwest Conference champions, dominated the Logger all-opponent team selected last Monday by placing three players on the first squad. One player from Portland University and one from Whitman were also chosen.

The first team was: Hanson, Linfield, and O'Toole, Portland, forwards; Fraser, Linfield, center; Sooper, Whitman, and Jungling, Linfield, guards.

The second team found O'Dell, Whitman and Katka, St. Martins, forwards; Bourland, College of Idaho, center; and Huntsinger, Portland, and Mehring, Whitman, guards.

Chips....
WALTER and DUNCAN

A sad looking bunch of Parkland fish eaters returned to their pebbles last Thursday night after Al Danielson, veteran Stadium high clutch player, had come through with a couple of free throws to hand the Lutherans a stunning 39 to 38 setback.

The win evened up the count in the crosstown athletic relations since the PLC football squad had . . . well things are even now. Track is next and with Coach Leo Frank and Son hard at work on the 1942 thinclad squad, the Loggers appear destined to repeat their 1941 performance . . .

The Zetes marked up their seventh straight intramural crown this week when they took possession of the bowling crown, previously held by the Mu Chis . . . Manager Ellis says the next sports on the docket are swimming, wrestling and boxing . . . Speaking of boxing and wrestling all but one of the 1941 champions are still in school . . . but we wonder how many will retain their titles?

Look at the free throw record in the PLC game and you will see the reason for the CPS victory . . . Also, who controlled the backboard the last half?

John Boyle has a split loyalty—for six hours a day he teaches physical education at Lincoln high and then, promptly at three, he travels over to Stadium high and coaches his Tiger swimming squad. The Bengal swimmers notched up their seventh straight victory last week and meet Lincoln today . . .

Coach Sam Andrews, Clover Park basketball authority, won't say who will win the championship, but from here it looks like Everett or Wenatchee . . . John Kennedy of Lincoln also likes the Seagulls or the Panthers, although he rates Sammy's Parkers or Bremerton as possibilities . . .

Look at the Seattle Coast League baseball roster and you will see the name, Al Kretchmar, shortstop . . . It may not mean much to the freshmen, but this same Al gave the Logger basketballers plenty of trouble the past two years in the Whitman series . . .

Intersorority basketball is over for another year and the girls have recovered sufficiently, with one or two exceptions, from their bruises to be playing volleyball. The tournament was won by the Betas with the Gammas taking second, The Thetas third, the Lambdas fourth and the Independents in the cellar position. Of interest is the fact that the Thetas, Lambdas and Independents were outplayed by a half point each by their nearest opponent.

All-star selections favor the Betas and the Gammas as did the tournaments with the three Beta guards and the three Gamma forwards named on the A team. On the B team were two Betas, A Gamma, a Theta and two Independents: Jeanne McDougall, Helen Pat Beem, Rosemary DeVoto, Marijane Lewis, Marian Law and Yoshiye Jinguji.

We are of the opinion that the SUB is really a good thing. Since we moved into the building the students have become better acquainted with Miss Cooper and those who are taking Life Saving will loudly proclaim her as a good sport and lots of fun. She and Bobbe Jean Ryan have been trying to drown each other all semester.

Open letter to WAA: We are sorry to announce that Pat Keene, your president has withdrawn from school for the rest of the semester. The Board has asked yours truly to fill out her term, that is about one month yet, at the end of that time a new president will have been elected and will be carrying on for the following year.

We want to put on a gym show within the next month and a half which is going to call for a lot of work and cooperation on the part of both the men's and the women's departments. We are now extending to you both an invitation and a request that if you have any talent in fencing, tumbling, dancing or are just interested and would like to work in and on the program please let us know. Working on the program now are Ralph Lundvall, Mel Blanchard, Dorothy Hager, Lois Rasmussen, Almira Marchesini and Yours Truly.

8 Basketball Players to Be Given Letters

Eight Logger basketball players were recommended to Central Board this week for letters by Coach Stuart Parks. Jim Paulson and Tom Cross, both seniors and four-year lettermen, who completed their college hoop careers last week against PLC, will be given fourth-year awards. Second-year awards go to Mel Blanchard, junior; and Don Brown and Lloyd Baisinger, sophomores. Bob Loftness, junior, and Carroll Winslow and Al Danielson, freshmen, were recommended for first year letters.

U. W. MAN ADDRESSES DINNER MEETING HERE

Last Thursday evening the Home Economics association of Tacoma and the county held its monthly dinner meeting in the dining room of the Student Union building. Dr. Jenny Rowntree, of the Home Economics department of the University of Washington, spoke on "Nutrition and the Defense Program." Guests included Mayor and Mrs. Harry P. Cain; Dr. and Mrs. Schultz; Dr. and Mrs. Powers and Mr. Browne.

Zetes Annex Three Titles In 'Murals

Sigma Zeta Epsilon wasn't satisfied with one basketball crown to its credit, but tucked away both "A2" and "B2" league titles, as the two schedules came to a close last week.

The climax to their titular drive was their through shellacking of the Delta Kapps 34 to 5. This was a credit to the Zetes, as the Orange was supposed to be their toughest opposition. The game was a slaughter from start to finish with Bob Moles furnishing most of the points.

In "B" league the competition was a little stiffer. The climax in this came also when the Blacks nosed out the Delt Kapps 19 to 16. The teams exchanged basket for basket throughout the fracas. This was really the only worthwhile tilt during the season. The interest in "B" league was very poor, with forfeits being posted continuously.

Bowling, the one sport in which there is a profound interest, again saw the Alder Street gang conquer. Although the schedule had one day to go, the Zetes were virtually a cinch. They have easily cleaned up on all of the toughest competition. The Zete five composed of Roy Murphy, Frank Walter, Don Brown, Jack Beer and Norm Breckner have all turned in creditable performances. Murphy has shown real class, having high single game of 216 and high series of 585 to top the league with an average of 171.3.

The Independents have rolled 'em well this year coming in second with a fine record. Top performer for the Barbs has been Bill McLaughlin who has a 164 average, the second highest in the league.

Five Entries In Ski Meet

With rosters of five teams already in the hands of the College of Puget Sound Ski club, Warren Tomlinson, advisor for the organization, announced Wednesday the officials for the Western Washington high school ski tourney at Paradise Saturday.

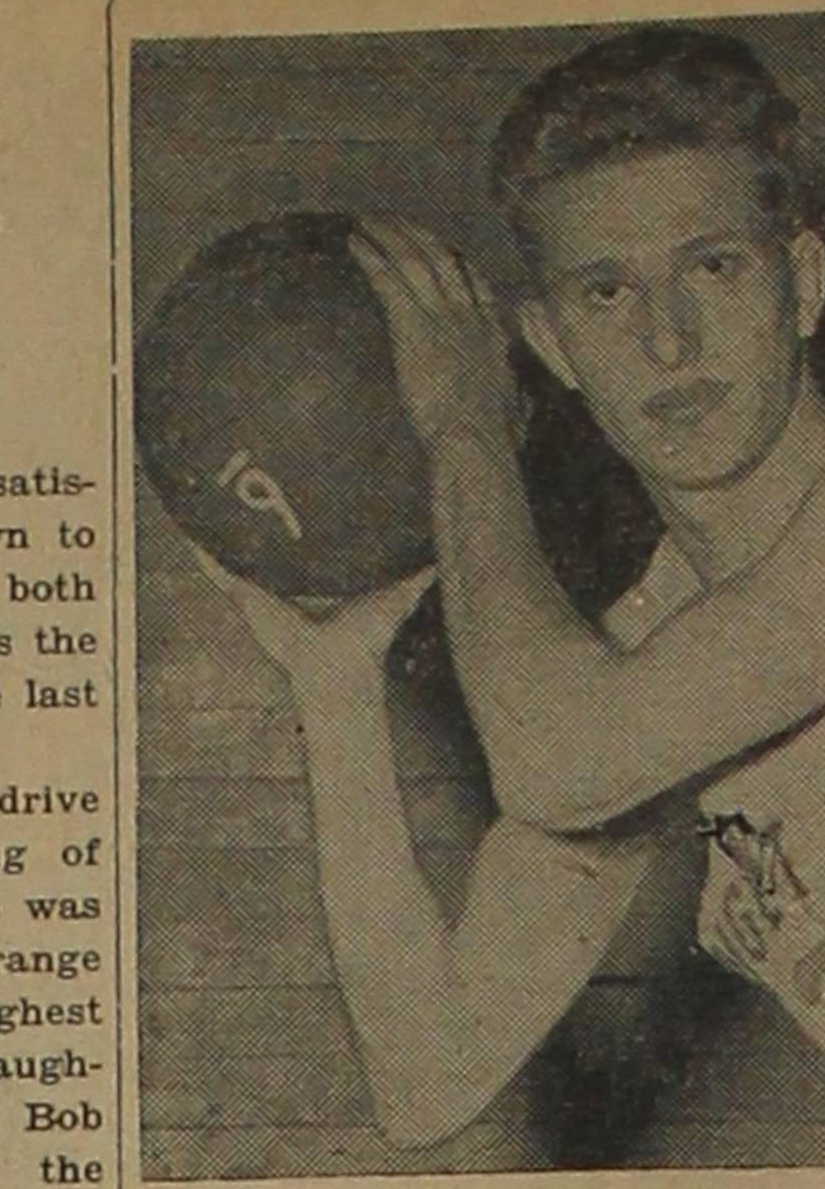

Ted Rink, Bob Dodds, Chuck Swanson, and Willard Bellman of CPS will be officials for the meet, and Dr. Tomlinson is serving on the race committee.

Thus far Tomlinson stated that entries had been received from Bel-larmine high of Tacoma, Yakima, Enumclaw, Aberdeen and Lester. Lester, boasting one of the outstanding prep ski teams in the state, recently defeated Yakima, last year's downhill-slalom champions, in a duel meet at Lester to even the score for a previous loss to the Pirates earlier in the season.

Staff Relieves Editor of Editing

This week and for several issues during the remainder of the year, editing of the Trail will be taken over by members of the Trail staff. Editor of today's issue is Raymond Gillen, freshman copy editor. A graduate last year of Stadium high school. Ray has become one of the most valuable members of the staff. He is being assisted by Don McClain who has been in charge of the advertising for this issue.

This policy will be followed in each of the five issues which are yet to be published this year. Editing the next two issues will be Frank Walter and Marijane Lewis.

ALVIN DANIELSON
freshman basketball player from Stadium, was scorer of the final two points in the game with PLC.

from where we sit

This columnist was surprised to notice that the Loggers didn't mention Al Mar on their all-opponents team. Whitman's little Chinese forward practically won the CPS series single handed. The first night he intercepted the ball time after time in the last period to give the Missions a 40-36 win. The second night's massacre saw him score 30 points. You didn't overlook him, did you fellas?

The choice of O'Toole of Portland was easy to see, as he poured in 40-some points against the Maroon and White in two games.

We must take off our hats again to Marv Harshman of PLC for his closing game the other night. In his first starting assignment of the season, Harsh generalled the fish-eaters to almost winning as well as leading the scorers with 14 points.

Little St. John high school realized a year's dream come true in winning the State Class "B" championship the other night. The Saints came in second last year in the all-Class meet.

Roy Murphy has certainly shown real class this year in the intramural bowling league. The averages show him first with an average of 171.3.

A lot of fans were certainly disappointed in the Phillips Oiler basketball team, the other night at Exposition hall. The boys showed a lot of class, but for A.A.U. champions they certainly didn't display much hustle.

Tom Cross should have a good chance of making the All-Conference team this year. He has already been chosen by Pacific for their All-Opponent team.

Final Game Clinched by Loggers

Al Danielson, tall freshman center calmly in two free throws in the closing seconds of the Pacific Lutheran game last Thursday night at Exposition hall to give CPS the 1942 Tacoma Intercollegiate championship with a 39 to 38 win over the Parkland fish eaters.

Beat the fish eaters" had been the cry around the school and after the 47 to 25 setback the week before at the hands of the same Lutheran five, the Logger spirit waned. But not for long.

With the count 36 to 30 in the closing minutes, all hope of a Logger victory seemed lost, but then the fireworks started. Mel Blanchard popped in a field goal and it was 36-32; big Al dropped in his third straight free throw of the second half and it was 36-33; then Don Brown flipped a swisher from the corner and the Lutes led by a lone point 36 to 35.

But the great Marvel Harshman came through with what the Lute-fisk fans thought was the clincher to put PLC ahead 38 to 35. The clock was ticking the final two minutes when Jim Paulson, playing his closing game for the victors, dunked a beautiful field goal to make it 38 to 37.

The Lutherans played clever ball and took two called fouls out of bounds as they stalled the last minute. Then suddenly CPS had the ball and Danielson went up into the air with four Lutherans climbing his long lanky frame and fouling him from all sides.

Two shots, ruled referee John Kennedy and as the big hall became silent, Al stepped to the free throw mark and dropped in both baskets to bring home the salted Lutefisk.

Tom Cross and Jim Paulson, both seniors and four year lettermen, closed their college basketball careers at this game.
