The summer college term will provide suitable offerings for students either from high school or junior college, for regular college students, and for students who have to carry on their degree programs in part-time study and summer school. The college calendar is in agreement with the closing dates of high schools and junior colleges, thus enabling students to begin or carry on college work without interruption or confusion. By attending continuously and by taking the permitted maximum number of credits each term, a four-year college course may be completed in less than three years.

The summer session will be comparable to those of previous years and will have nine weeks of work. Teachers will be able to complete this session in time to take vacations before the fall term.

The speaker of the evening will be Mr. Thomas Porro, of the well-known Porro biological laboratories. His talk will be on the type of training needed for biological chemistry, and the opportunities in that field of endeavor.

Dr. Robinson Ordained Minister In Preparation for Chaplaincy

By MARY LOUISE ROGERS

Wednesday evening at the First Congregational Church, Tacoma, Dr. John Robinson was ordained as a Congregational minister, in order to make an application for Chaplain in the Army of the United States.

Taking part in the program were two members of the faculty of CPS; President Todd delivered the sermon, and Dean Register offered the prayer. Other prominent churchmen taking part in the ceremony were Dwight Smith, minister of the United Churches of Olympia; the Reverend Harold Booch, minister of the First Congregational church, Tacoma; and, finally, Clayton S. Rice, executive secretary of the Washington Congregational churches, gave the charge which made Dr. Robinson a Congregational minister. Friends, members of the faculty, and some students were guests at the ordination ceremony.

Dr. Robinson was born in Paisley, Scotland, and graduated from the John Nelson Institution, a boarding school. He came to the United States in 1924, and came out to Everett.

According to Professor Arthur L. Frederick from whom this information was obtained, Dr. Robinson attended the College of Puget Sound from 1923 to 1932 and received his B. A. degree here; and from the Boston graduate school, he received Bachelor of Sacred Theology and Ph. D. degrees. In 1935 and 1936, he attended Harvard university. He acted as student assistant in 1937 and 1938 at Boston university, and then returned to CPS to be an assistant professor of Religion and Philosophy.

Government Notifies CPS As Approved for Training

CPS has just received its notification from the United States government of its placement on the approved list of colleges which will train officers for the navy, marine and army air corps. The approximately 50 students who have already enlisted will continue their studies in a reserve status until they have completed their college courses. At the end of the four-year course, they will enter government training centers to complete work for becoming commissioned officers.

This includes high school graduates of this spring, provided they enroll in an accredited institution of higher learning. To enlist in the Deferred Cadet Training program with the Army air forces, one must present certification of having been accepted by an accredited college.

The general facts concerning this program, as outlined in the bulletin, are as follows: "Enlistment is open to qualified applicants who are full-time students as freshmen, sophomores, juniors or seniors in an accredited college. Men enlisted may prepare for future cadet training to become flying officers (pilots, bombardiers or navigators), or ground officers (armament, communications, engineering, meteorology or photography)." One must have proper relation to college status. Quoting again from the bulletin, "A student in good standing in an accredited college may enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and ask for deferred duty. As long as he maintains satisfactory scholastic standing he will not be called to active duty until his graduation or withdrawal from college, except in the event of necessity, by direction of the Secretary of War."

The general requirements for enlistment are: Men shall be between the ages of 18 and 26, inclusive. Parental consent is required if one is a minor. One must have been a citizen of the United States at least ten years prior to date of application.

The relation to Selective Service of those enlisting shall be that they are "not liable from the day of enlistment."

College men and those who desire to enter college should make some contact with the College for further information.

DR. JOHN ROBINSON

He is a member of the American Philosophical association; Pi Gamma Mu, honorary social science fraternity; and Sigma Mu delta, honorary scholastic fraternity on the campus. As a student of CPS he took part in many of the extra-curricular activities of the college, and was editor of the 1932 Tamanawas.

Dr. Robinson will continue to teach here until he is called into Chaplaincy, which will probably not be until the end of the school year.

Tickets Out For Annual Senior Dance

Committee heads for the annual Senior Ball to be held Saturday, June 6 at the Elk's Temple were selected this week by co-chairmen Anita Sherman and Phil Raymond.

Selecting the members from the class of 1942 who will close their weary toils in the education mill the morning of the sixth, Sherman and Raymond showed no favoritism, but gave every Greek organization an equal chance.

The programs went on sale Friday, May 15, at a cost of $1.25 a throw "Everyone, even freshmen, are invited to this final social event of the school year," stated Miss Sherman, and Phil nodded in agreement.

Jane Hudson, Tad Burd and Jack Richards are in charge of the decorations, while Willard Gee and Frank Walter are heading the intermission committee. Phil Walesby, class president, and Betty Heaton, class secretary, are selling tickets with the above named seniors.

FEES MUST BE PAID IS BURSAR'S WARNING

As the semester is rapidly coming to a close, it is very necessary that each student be sure fees are paid in full.

According to regulations, a student owing fees is not permitted to enter the final semester examinations, and in order to prevent such unpleasant situations this warning is sounded.

Furthermore those students who expect to graduate this June are reminded that a diploma fee is now payable and this obligation should be given attention at once.

Answer to Old Question In Galleries

Button, button, who's got the button? The answer is, the art gallery, which has thousands of rare old buttons from the collection of Mrs. Ralph Wegener—on display until May 24.

Imagine, girls, wearing a tintype of your best beau as the decorative buttons of your dress. Or even a tiny replica of a Mary and her little lamb on a pearl button. There are carved buttons of castles, windmills, famous people and scenes from operas—anything you could wish for.

In the upper gallery is the 3rd annual Salon of Photography by the Tacoma Camera club. This year, due to war conditions, all the pictures are by United States camera enthusiasts. The 155 pictures were chosen by judges from 401 submitted.

The lower gallery has a collection of painting by Mark Tobey, whose work has won prizes at the Northwest Annual exhibition. Mr. Tobey's works illustrate the difficult theme of organization of patterns in space.

CPS Stands High in Tests

The Sophomore Testing Program results which were released on last Tuesday showed that CPS stands well above the national average, according to Registrar Miller. The only test in which the sophomores fell down was the English grammar, but even this was but one point below average.

These tests were given to provide students with an exact and detailed account of achievements and interests, and thus will give a sound and broad basis for judging strengths and weaknesses. They are designed to aid in the selection of a major field and of elective subjects.

Reserve Class V-7 Held Open

The closing date for enlistments in Class V-7 Naval Reserve, originally scheduled for around May 1, has been extended for a limited time by the Bureau of Navigation, it was announced yesterday by Comdr. A. J. Byrholdt, director of naval officer procurement at Seattle for the Thirteenth Naval District.

The program, which enlists unmarried college graduates, juniors and seniors under 28 years of age for officer training, also has been broadened to include sophomores over 20 who will become juniors by the close of the present college term, he said.

The "deadline" on enlistments was extended Commander Byrholdt said, to accommodate a large number of eligible applicants who were unable to complete their enlistments before May 1. Additional applications will be accepted as long as enlistments remain open, he added, but said the entire program may be closed at any time.

PROF. JACOBSEN TO PLAY IN CONCERT

Students and faculty members are urged to keep Sunday, May 24, open for an especially fine musical program. Prof. Leonard Jacobsen will play a piano concerto with the Puget Sound Symphony as the final program of the Puget Sound Music auxiliary, a society for promoting the musical talent of Tacoma through funds sponsored by the Carnegie foundation. The program starts at 3:30 p. m.—Sunday, May 24.

Activities Limitation Approved

Long-Standing Controversy Ended Monday by Central Board's OK on Proposed Regulations.

After being discussed pro and con for nearly a month in Central Board, the proposed limitations on student college activities were finally passed by a majority of those attending Monday's Central Board meeting.

No machinery has as yet been set up for the enforcement of the legislation, but the measure provides for limitation to one ASCPS voting office for any one person at any one time, and a choice in the matter of major and minor activities. The exact stipulations as approved are listed elsewhere in this week's Trail.

The new regulations will not take effect until next fall. In the meantime, however, Central Board become cautious of its many appointments, so as to social that its ruling is not availed.

known Paul Heuston, dr part ASCPS, commented feature "The limitation pro-auction-gressive possibilities will be mulated with the id's.

Our student governme will be cratic and efficient. Bonds deavor to distribute bands those available offices avited organizations on our campus, and draw more interest of those who have not participated in student government before. Our administration will become more efficient since the duties will not be heaped upon those of proven dependability, but will be passed on to others just as capable.

Widely-Known Hymnologist Here Wednesday Morn

H. Augustine Smith, widely-known hymnologist will appear in Tacoma May 20 to 22, sponsored by the Tacoma Council of Churches. His first appearance in Tacoma will be before the student body of the College of Puget Sound on Wednesday morning of next week.

The climax of his visit will be a choral festival to be held at the First Methodist church on Friday evening at 8. All church choirs of the city are invited to participate in this program, the rehearsal for which will be on Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the First Methodist church.

Education Chapter Meets at Seattle

By HOWARD OISETH, Professor of Journalism

In the summer of 1937 I visited some distant relatives of mine who reside in a beautiful, mountain-locked valley of what is now Nazi-occupied Norway. On the mantle above the fireplace in their home was a picture of a German boy. Proudly they explained that he was a war orphan of the first world war who had spent four years in their home. As a child he had been sent, like hundreds of others, out of war-im-poverished Germany to be cared for by generous Norwegian families. Wholesome food and kindly attention helped this lad regain his health and in 1923 he returned to Cologne, Germany.

But he came back to Norway. Yes, in 1940 he came back as a mature, hardened Nazi soldier. He had come back to handcuff the hand that fed him. Because he could speak Norwegian, he was one of those selected to act as a German "tourist" and, later, to be a member of the invading force. By treachery he helped to conquer the country. Forgotten were the lessons of fair play he had learned as a child in that mountain-locked valley. He was working for Hitler now! Fair play was a waste of time.

Ever since Hitler came to power this soldier had been schooled in a new kind of philosophy, a philosophy in which trickery and double dealing were completely justifiable. In those impressionable years of his adolescence he had been steeped in an education of half-truths and vicious propaganda. Even his textbooks had been rewritten and the truth revised to fit the Nazi scheme. Naturally, he believed what he read, for he never heard the truth. Students at the College of Puget Sound undoubtedly would have fallen into the same trap as that young German if they had been exposed to the same dangerous education under like conditions.

It is self-evident that we should be glad we still have an educational system which teaches the truth. We need to appreciate that truth and freedom. We must be willing to defend it, defend it with everything, including our lives. Many young people of today do not realize this. Many young men do not understand why they should be called upon to sacrifice their lives in a war they did not start. As one youth said the other day, "Let the old duffers fight the war; they're the ones who started it." That viewpoint would be understandable

Annabelle Lemm In Recital, May 18

On Monday evening, May 18, in Jones hall auditorium at 8:15, the conservatory of Music will present Annabelle Lemm, contralto, in her senior recital. She will be accompanied at the piano by Margaret Braun.

Miss Lemm's program is as follows: O Don Fatale, from Don Carlos, by Verdi; The Young Nun, Ave Maria, Serenade, Die Erlkonig by Schubert; Mon Coeur s'ouvre a la voix, from Samson et Dalila; Voce di donna by Ponchielli; Summer-time, by Gershwin; Clouds, Spend-thrift, by Charles; My Hero, by Oscar Strauss, and Magnetic Waltz, by Arditi.

The recital is complimentary to the public. All those interested are urged to attend.

RUTH PAULINE TODD

A graduate assistantship in the office of the dean of women at Syracuse university has recently been offered to Ruth Pauline Todd, now finishing her fourth year at CPS.

The assistantship includes room, board and tuition and is offered for a period of two years. At the end of this time it is possible to attain a Master's degree. The student dean acts as a head resident in a women's cottage dormitory where she is the only adult in residence. This, along with the graduate work, comprises a full-time program.

The student deans are chosen from a large number of applicants with varying academic, experiential and geographic backgrounds. This department is directed by Dr. M. Eunice Hilton, dean of women at Syracuse university. Fifteen young women graduate students come to the campus each year for two years of study and experience in the student personnel work.

During her undergraduate years at the College of Puget Sound Ruth Pauline has been in Kappa Phi, YWCA, Spurs, the Puget Sound Symphony, and the String Ensemble. She was vice president of Otiah, and of WAA, and recently finished a year as secretary of the student body. Her present jobs are putting out the Tamanawas, as its editor in chief, and managing the affairs of her sorority as president of Lambda Sigma Chi.

It won't be long now before we have our lawn. Work has been going ahead since Campus Day, and all those new freshmen next semester will see nice green grass around the building. CPS Japanese Students Give Final Message in Chapel

This morning during chapel period in conjunction with the Otiah program, Shigeo Wakamatsu read an address on behalf of the Japanese students to the student body.

Their final message follows:

"Members of the student body, faculty, and the administration of the College of Puget Sound.

"We have at last come to the place where we must part.

"At this time, we wish to thank you for your friendship. It has been wonderful knowing all of you personally. We cannot express in words what your friendship has meant to us. It has meant more to us than you can ever realize.

"Let us assure you that we will miss you students, and you too, professors. We will miss all the sweet times we've had together. We will miss the familiar halls and the buildings of the College of Puget Sound. Most of all, we will miss the many happy associations.

"We hope that each spring you will watch the cherry trees bloom and grow. It is our hope that those cherry trees will remind you of us. It has been our only tangible contribution to the college, and we leave it behind as a token of our appreciation and thanks for all that you have done for us. It is our earnest prayer that our friendship will continue to grow.

"So at this time, we say, not good-bye, but until we meet again. We hope to be back soon. So, until we meet again, God bless you and keep you all."

"Yes" and "No" In Minor Sports

The minor sport record of the College of Puget Sound through the past four weeks has been an up-and-down affair, sometimes "yes" and sometimes "no."

In relations with the Pacific Lutheran Fishers it was "yes" in tennis and softball, while golf ended in a "no."

St. Martins fared a bit better with CPS gaining a 50-50 "Yes" in softball, a definite "yes" in tennis and a close "No" in golf.

The Logger minorities also had a little action with Lincoln high school, ending in the "yes" column in tennis, and the "no" column in golf.

Reed college handed the tennis team a "no" last week.

Let it herewith be understood that the glass cases in the new alumni office in room six are not for selling candy, peanuts and gum, but will be used for displays of some sort. The new room granted for the alumni department is larger, airier and more convenient than the one previously occupied.

Seniors Skip Classes for Annual Sneak

With classes shunted from 7 a. m. until the last stars wink out, seniors sneaked to Lake Wilderness Wednesday for a full day of picnicking, games, swimming and dancing. Kay Evans, chairman, was assisted by Tom Cross, Frank Walters, Virginia Judd and Vera Healy.

A band of juniors, lead by Mary Cornell, determined to thwart the seniors' plans and tried to stage a kidnaping of Phil Walesby, senior class president. They succeeded in capturing Kay Evans, but the attempt on Walesby was foiled by Dr. Battin.

Weather was threatening, but seats in the senior section at chapel were noticeably vacant when the time came. A fair majority of the class were at the picnic for the entire day, and quantities of chicken and potato salad were consumed. On the whole, everyone considered the affair a fine success.

Yesterday a representative of the Army Air Corps visited CPS to explain the air corps enlisted reserve. Moving pictures were presented in the Howarth hall auditorium.

Mary Ogden (left) and Beverly Birdsall (right) were chairmen for two sorority dances held last weekend. Mary arranged the semi-formal at Lakewood for Alpha Beta Upsilon, and Beverly took charge of the annual dinner-dance of Kappa Sigma Theta held at the Country club.

Marijane Lewis Is Ideal Coed

Ideal coed of CPS, students decided is Marijane Lewis, of Kappa Sigma Theta. She was selected to represent the College at the sophomore carnival at the University of Washington, but because of the difficulty of securing transportation for some of the out-of-state coeds, the ceremonies of the Queen have been canceled.

Marijane was chosen Monday by a student ballot totalling 111 votes, following an assembly conducted by pepsters T. Cross, Esther Mann and Aldo Benedetti.

Other candidates were Mary Cornell, Delta Alpha Gamma, Norma Gagliardi, Lambda Sigma Chi, Kay Evans, Alpha Beta Upsilon and Lois Anderson, Independent.

Mrs. Uevel of the U. S. Employment service has asked that CPS students register for agricultural help this summer. Paul Heuston has named a committee which is working on plans to register and transport both men and women.

Vibrations Inform Chem Students of Fehlandt's Return

Howarth hall vibrated with the shock, and the College knew that Dr. Philip R. Fehlandt had returned. A window was broken, and pieces of glass and wood were picked up from the floor of the lecture hall.

Dr. Fehlandt warned his class how not to do it, then proceeded to do it himself. Acetylene, a hydrocarbon to the chemistry students, is highly explosive under the right (or wrong) conditions. Therefore, to demonstrate the point, Dr. Fehlandt displaced water with acetylene gas in a jar partly filled with oxygen.

When he had filled the jar with the two gases, he placed in the mouth of the bottle a stopper which had been provided with a gap for an electric spark. On the jar he put a small wooden box, thus hoping to keep the explosive from traveling too far.

Everyone shuddered except Dr. Fehlandt. He of course remained at his usual post, two feet from the terrifying monster. He then set off the spark, with results heard throughout the building. The results were more than Dr. Fehlandt had anticipated. No one was injured.

14 Men, 12 Berths Is Problem of Trackmen

The task of picking the 12 trackmen to represent the College of Puget Sound at the annual Northwest Conference meet at Walla Walla next Friday has been occupying most of Coach Leo Frank's time since the University of Portland meet last week. There are 14 candidates for the 12 posts and Leo finds himself in a quandary when it comes to eliminating two of the team members.

Almost certain to make the trip are: Fred Beck, two mile; Bob Hamilton and Axel Oxholm, mile and two mile; Jim Frank, half mile and relay; Al Danielson, high jump, shot put and javelin; Gene Clevinger, high and low hurdles, discus, high jump and pole vault; Bob Maycumber, high and low hurdles and broad jump; and Jack Graybeal, pole vault.

This leaves three places open with four candidates; Bart Wood, quarter, 220 and relay; Bill Gregory, sprints and relay; Dan Cushman, discus and shot; and Jim Dyer, half mile and relay; Mel Blanchard, javelin and high jump, will be unable to compete because of a wrenched arm.

The Logger spikesters ran into a peak of trouble last Friday when they attempted to match strides with the undefeated University of Portland team, only to find themselves on the short end of 79 to 52 score.

The CPS squad had four first place winners with Jim Walter pacing the home team with a fast 51.8 in the 440; Al Danielson in the high jump; Bill Oxholm in the mile; and Fred Beck with a near record 10:05.7 in the two mile; brought home first places for the Maroon and White.

Too much opposing power in the field events plus a set of good hurdlers and sprinters proved the downfall of the locals.

Results of the meet were as follows:

Shot put—Ryan (PU), Schellereff (PU), Danielson (CPS); 44 feet, 8 1/4 inches.

High jump—Danielson (CPS), Clevinger (CPS), Fulton (PU); 6 feet.

Mile—Oxholm (CPS), Hamilton (CPS), Dougherty (PU); 4:38.2.

440—Walter (CPS), Wood (CPS), Howser (PU); 51.8.

100 yard dash—Maloney (PU), Gregory (CPS), Bicknell (PU); 10.4.

Discus—Ryan (PU), Clevinger (CPS), Huntsinger (PU); 142 feet, 10 inches.

120 yard high hurdles—Vandenburgh (PU), Maycumber (CPS), Fulton (PU); 16.2.

Pole Vault—Metka (PU), Farnsworth (PU), Clevinger and Gray-

beal (CPS), Clevinger and Graybeal (CPS), tied for third; 11 feet, 9 inches.

880—Peake (PU), Frank (CPS), Walter (CPS); 2:01.5.

Broad jump—Bicknell (PU), Vandenburgh (PU), Maycumber (CPS); 21 feet, 7 inches.

220 yard dash—Howser (PU), Maloney (PU), Gregory (CPS); 23.7.

Javelin—Huntsinger (PU), Bicknell (PU), Danielson (CPS); 160 feet.

Two mile—Beck (CPS), Hamilton (CPS), Oxholm (CPS); 10:05.7.

220 yard low hurdles—Vandenburgh (PU), Bicknell (PU), Clevinger (CPS); 27.1.

Mile relay—Portland (Wilkes, Dougherty, Howser, Peake); 3:33.8.

Divot Diggers Begin Play

Having already drawn a schedule the intramural golfing title will again be at stake these next weeks.

The favorites will be Alpha Chi Nu, Sigma Mu Chi, and Delta Kappa Phi in that order. Although the latter is defending champion, they are considerably weaker this year and it will probably be between the first two mentioned.

For the first time this year, there will be a round robin instead of the tourney being played all in one day. This will make the field even more wide open, with a surprise winner not unlikely.

Mu Sigma Delta, scholastic honor society, will meet on Friday, May 22, in Kittredge hall. There will be a dinner and initiation of the new members, who will be announced next Monday in chapel.

Chi Nus and Zetes Big-Wigs in Softball

By JACK DUNCAN

After the smoke had cleared from several weeks of softball play, Alpha Chi Nu, for the third straight year and Sigma Zeta Epsilon were on top of the heap.

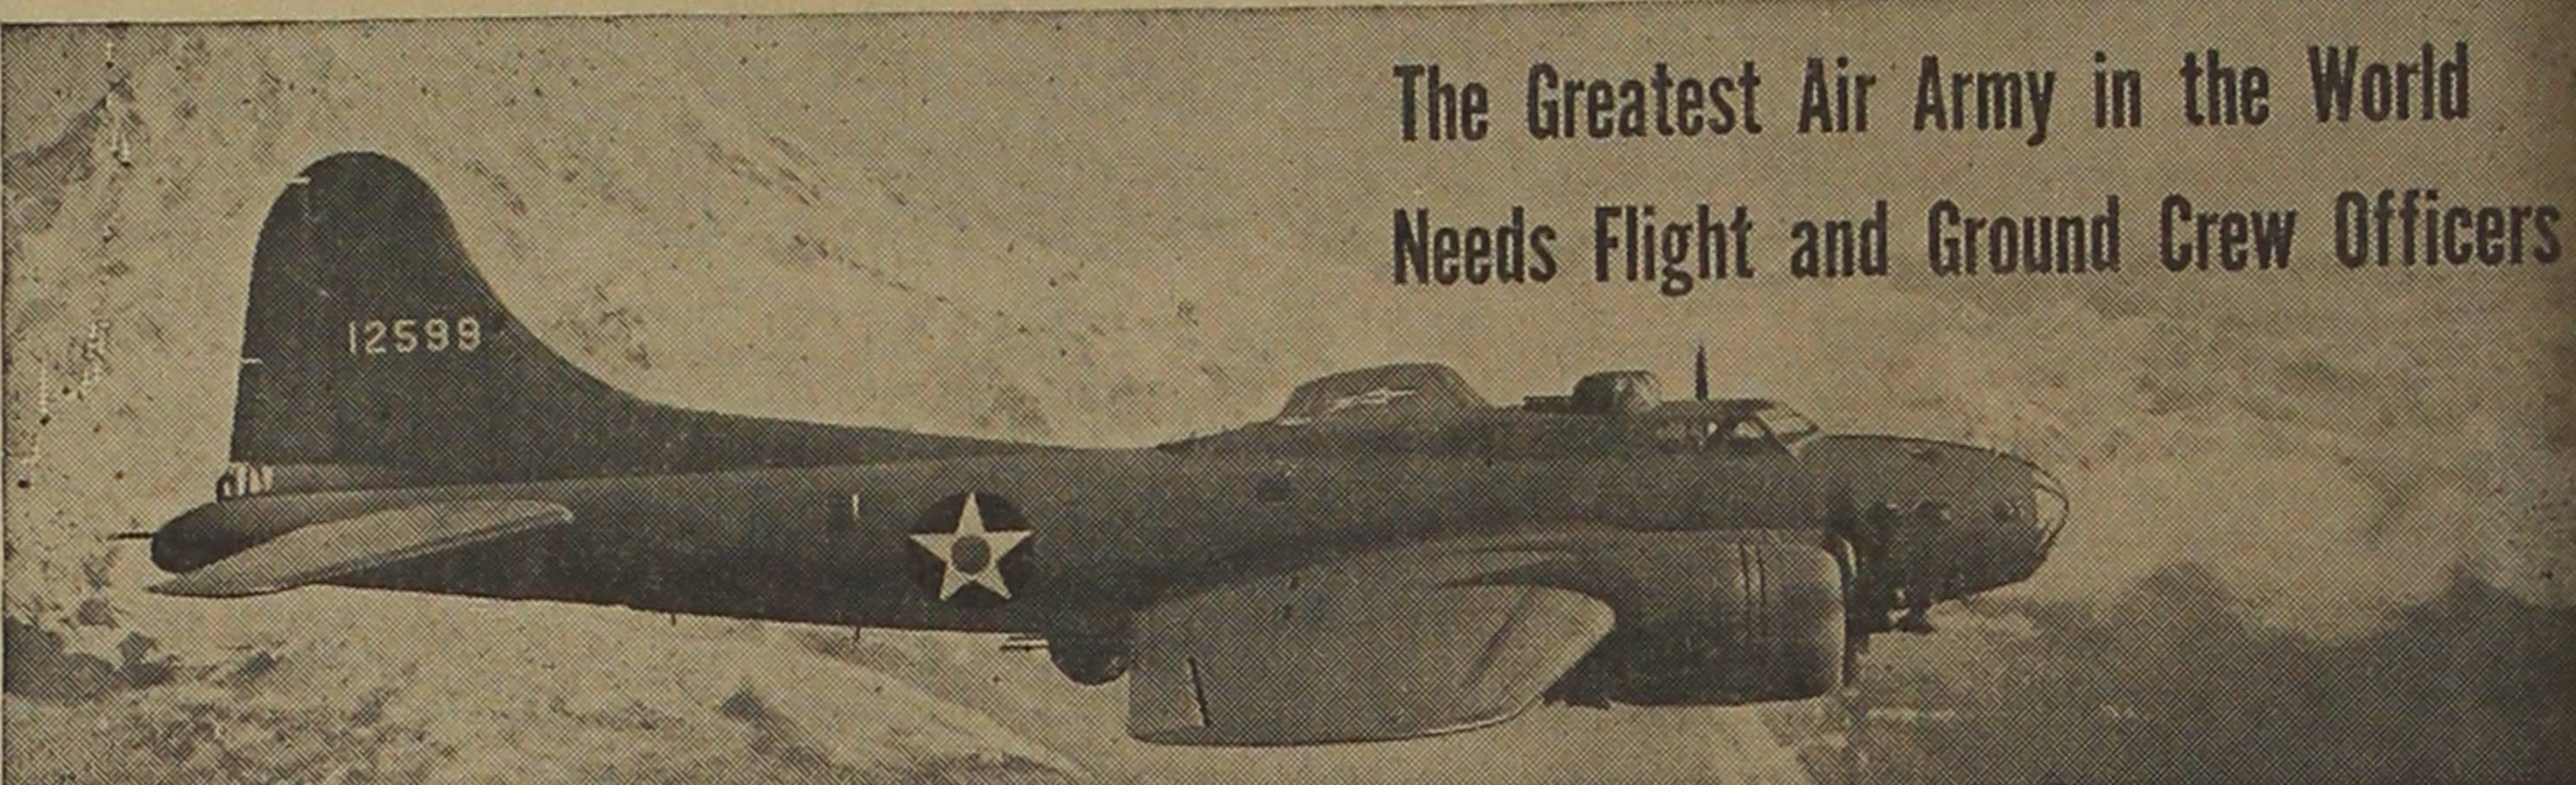

The Chi Nus, however, have the inside track for the title, as they have already won the first half title. They lost in the second round to the Delta Kapps, who in turn lost to the Zetes, who emerged undefeated. The Delta Kapps were eliminated from title consideration when they were upset by the Independents in an extra-inning affair.

Feature game for this week will be when the Zetes take on the Chi Nus in a second round tilt. A win for Murphy's boys will give them the second half title and at a later date they will play the houseless gang for the championship. A loss will bring about a tie, which will necessitate a play off and the winner playing the Chi Nus for the title.

The Greatest Air Army in the World Needs Flight and Ground Crew Officers

NOW FOR COLLEGE MEN A NEW OFFICERS' TRAINING PLAN

★ New Deferred Service Plan Allows You to Continue Your Education ★

In the skies over America the mightiest air fleet in the history of the world is mobilizing for victory!

So fast is it growing that there is a place here — an urgent need here — for every college man in America who can qualify for Officer's Training.

The U. S. Army Air Forces need Flying Officers and Ground Crew Officers. And many of them must come from the ranks of today's college students — men who make their plans now for the necessary Aviation Cadet training.

Thanks to a newly created Air Force Reserve plan, men of all classes — aged 18 to 26, inclusive — can enlist for immediate service or continue the scholastic work required for graduation before being called to active duty.

You must meet the requirements for physical fitness, of course. In addition, you take a new simplified test to determine your ability to grasp the training. A college man should pass it easily.

$75 A MONTH DURING TRAINING

Those accepted who wish immediate duty will go into training as rapidly as facilities permit. As an Aviation Cadet, you are paid $75 a month, with subsistence, quarters, medical care, uniforms, equipment.

In 8 months you can win an officer's commission as a bombardier, navigator or pilot — and be well started on your way to serve America and advance yourself in aviation.

Three Enlistment Plans for College Men

Juniors—Sophomores—Freshmen May Continue Their Education

1. A new plan allows Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen, aged 18 to 26, inclusive, to enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and continue their schooling, provided they maintain satisfactory scholastic standings.

All College Men May Enlist for Immediate Service

2. All college students may enlist as privates in the Army Air Forces (unassigned) and serve there until their turns come for Aviation Cadet training.

3. All college students may enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and wait until ordered to report for Aviation Cadet training.

Upon graduation or withdrawal from college, men will be assigned to active duty at a training center as facilities become available.

If the necessity of war demands, the deferred status in the Army Reserve may be terminated at any time by the Secretary of War.

The new Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve Plan is part of an over-all Army Enlisted Reserve Corps program shortly to be announced. This program will provide opportunities for college men to enlist in other branches of the Army on a deferred basis and to continue their education through graduation if a satisfactory standard of work is maintained. In case of necessity the Secretary of War shall determine when they may be called to active duty.

If it is understood that men so enlisted will have the opportunity of competing for vacancies in officer's candidate schools.

This plan has been approved in the belief that continuance of education will develop capacities for leadership. (Reserve enlistment will not alter regulations regarding established R.O.T.C. plans.)

MANY BRANCHES OF SERVICE

There are also commissions awarded in ground crew service. College men particularly will be interested in the requirements for Armaments, Communications, Engineering, Meteorology, Photography. If you have engineering experience your chances of getting a commission are excellent.

As a Second Lieutenant on active duty with the Army Air Forces, your pay ranges from $183 to $245 a month.

ACT AT ONCE

If you want to fight for America, this is where your blows will count.

If you want the best training in the world, and years of solid achievement in aviation — the great career field of the future — this is where you belong. Your place is here — in the Army Air Forces.

If you plan to enlist immediately, start getting your necessary papers ready for the Aviation Cadet Examining Board when it meets in your locality. For complete information, see your Faculty Air Force Advisor. You can take your mental and physical examinations the same day you apply. Get further information now.

NOTE: If you wish to enlist and are under 21, you will need your parents' or guardian's consent. Birth certificates and three letters of recommendation will be required of all applicants. Obtain the forms and send them home today — you can then complete your enlistment before any Aviation Cadet Examining Board.
