Delightful Comedy Is Spring Play Tonight

"Seven Sisters" Will Be Frolicing Comedy Presented by Campus Playcrafters. Many Students to Participate in Program.

With colorful costumes, lilting music, sparkling dialogue and a clever set, the annual spring play, "Seven Sisters" will be given tonight and tomorrow night with the curtains parting at 8:15. Director of the romantic comedy in three acts written by Edith Ellis, is Miss Martha Pearl Jones. Admission is 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults, including tax. Students of the college are to be admitted on the presentation of their student body cards.

The scene of the play is laid in Hungary in a small garrison town not far from Budapest. Action takes place in the dining room of the home of Widow Gyurkovics.

The plot of the story is built around the fact that Hungarians customarily reduce the ages of the younger daughters of the family until the eldest daughters are married. Each girl must therefore wait for her turn to marry. Mrs. Gyurkovics is aided in her marital efforts by Count Ferenz Horkoy, a lieutenant in the reserves, who is masquerading as her godson, Toni Teleki. Mitzi, the fourth daughter of the family, has just been expelled from the convent because she had disobeyed orders and attended a forbidden ball at which she met Horkoy. Conspiring together, she and Horkoy marry off the three older sisters, and Mitzi again assumes her rightful age.

The players are: Mrs. Gyurkovics, a widow, Jolafern Torgerson. Her seven daughters—Katrinka, Patricia Hansen; Sari, Joan "Chick" Kincaid; Ella, Dixie Bullard; Mitzle, Norene Inveen; Terka, Hazel Beatty; Lisa, Elizabeth Anderberg; Klara, Luella Jackson. Colonel Radviany, Gunnar Larson; Gida Radviany, Le Roy "Foozy" Vaughn; Ferenz Horkoy, Ernest Goodner; Michael Sandorffy, Robert Hamilton; Toni Teleki, Robert Creso; Janko, Robert Oquist.

Many on Production Board

The production staff is composed of: Student Dramatic Manager, Ernest Goodner; Dramatic Department Assistant, Sue Hendrickson; Holder of the Book, Mary Ruth Erchinger; Stage Manager, Harvey Wegner; Stage Assistant, Larry Hewlett; Scenery, Ernest Goodner; Assistants on Scenery, Sue Hendrickson, Patricia Hansen; Publicity Chairman, Marjorie Dawson; Assistant on Publicity, Elizabeth Anderberg; Make-Up Committee, Bettie Barter, Priscilla Newschwander; Property Chairman, Ruth Ann Dodsworth; Assistant on Property, Maxine Atkinson; Staff Assistant, Eileen Alexander; Tickets, Nelda Peterson; Posters, Sue Hendrickson; Ushers, The Spurs. Organ music will be furnished by Dori Helen Smith.

Tennis Court Team Winner of Honors In Successful Campus Day Clean Up

Campus Day, oh Campus Day, for fun, work, food and stiff joints. Under the chairmanship of Jeanne McDougall and Frank Price, the entire student body (but I say that with reservation for some shirkers spent the morning on the roof of Anderson hall, and various other places) turned out enmasse to beautify the campus. Team number one, under the leadership of Ed Funk and beautiful Joyce Fearne spent most of the morning carrying doors to the Student Union Building to be fastened into position after being stored in the attic of Jones hall during the army's stay here. This group worked diligently in teams of two carrying the heavy doors to the Sub, and were later told the doors could have been carried over in a truck the day before if the leaders would have allowed it. But no! Anything to make the poor kids work! Phillis Thompson, self-appointed door-holder and coke-furnisher spurred the door-carriers on.

Moving on to the tennis courts where Bob Hamilton and Pat Hildebrandt were "straw-bossing" their group we found Jackie Moore on hands and knees pulling the grass out of the cracks and bemoaning the fact that her hands were getting "ruined." Mary Ruth Erchinger spent her time painting the white lines while Don Carstens spent time cutting wire and mending wire and mending the broken places in the fence. Guess "straw-bossing" does the trick "cause they got the honor of coming in first.

New Spurs Tapped In Chapel Monday

Students quickly realized Monday morning in chapel that Prof. I. M. Cranky from Cupcake, Idaho, was merely a front, as 15 Spurs gathered in the back of the auditorium. Once again they bestowed that never-to-be-forgotten thrill of tapping to 15 freshmen girls, as next year's Spurs.

Suspense prevailed as each active Spur, accompanied by the tune of a four-line dedicatory ditty read by President Elverna Amundsen, walked down the aisle to tap a newly chosen pledge.

The completion of tapping found these 15 girls, selected by active Spurs, ready to receive the Spur oath and ribbons which officially announced their pledging to Spurs. They are: Mary Jean Heindinger, Myrtle Robinson, Polly Packard, Hazel Beatty, Mary Ruth Erchinger, Donna Cohoon, Elizabeth Anderberg, Shirley Preston, Marlon Zanzuzski, Betty Jane Cappa, Jing Ho Ling, Louise Kipper, Joyce Fearne, Alice Ann Cross and Janice Lindeman. Pledge officers elected at the Spur banquet Tuesday are: Polly Packard, president; Betty Jane Cappa, vice president; Louise Kipper, secretary, and Joyce Fearne, treasurer.

Selection of these girls was based on scholarship, personality, activity in school life, attitude and cooperativeness.

Lorraine Danell to Reign As 1944 Bond Queen

Stadium and Lincoln Princesses Janice Nye and Martha Stark Win in Total Sales of $4,775.55. Duchesses to Lead May Day Daisy Chain.

Lorraine Danell will be crowned Her Highness, Bond Queen Lorraine I, this evening by Leon E. Titus, War Bond chairman for Pierce County. The processional and coronation tonight will take place in the flower-decorated auditorium directly after the closing curtain of this spring's dramatic production, "Seven Sisters." CPS students and their friends bought over $42,000 worth of bonds and stamps in support of their candidates; enough to buy almost three Fairchild PT-19 airplanes. Lorraine is a representative of Kappa Sigma Theta.

Her attendants will be the four CPS duchesses, Jane Thompson, Hilda Feuz, Laura Peterson and Jean Button, followed by the two princesses, Janice Nye of Stadium and Martha Stark of Lincoln. The two high schools held campaigns similar to CPS's and sold a total of $4,775.55 between them; Lincoln accounting for $2,677.50, and Stadium for the balance of $2,098.05. Pat Carlson and Mary Swanes, and Donna Jean Vogel and Irene Wichinko, the duchess from Stadium and Lincoln, respectively, will lead the traditional May Day daisy chain which will be fashioned and carried by the formal-clad Spurs.

The Campus Trio, comprising Joranne Midsatre, Marion Clendenen and Betty Heindinger Smith, will open the ceremony by singing three numbers. An organ prelude played by Margaret Manley Weaver will be closely followed by the processional, announcing the entrance of two flag bearers, Wade Garland and Duane O'Farrell. The flower chain will precede the four CPS duchesses escorted by Robert McCullough, Wallace Cavanagh, Jack Gallacher and Sherman Day; and the two princesses and their escorts, Frank Price and Leroy Vaughn.

Little Diane Marie Boucher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A.

Boucher, will bear the crown down the aisle before Queen Lorraine and her escort, Mr. Titus. Princesses Janice and Martha will be crowned by Leroy Vaughn. The queen's court will be gowned in pastel formals, and their escorts, forming an Honor Guard, will wear white dinner jackets. As a fitting close to the coronation, an original song will be presented by the Male Quartet composed of Paul Pruitt, Frank Price and Paul Raymond and Don Lamka.

Many Cooperate In Planning

Helen Patricia Beem has been the chairman in charge of the whole War Bond drive and coronation. She has been ably assisted by Elverna Amundsen of the Spurs, who handled all the money; Lucille Ludwick and Beverly Hofstetter, in charge of decorations for tonight's ceremony; Marthajean Sandin, flowers; Virginia Mekkes, daisy chain; Jeane Thurber, music; Sue Hendricksen, backstage work; and Jean Hallen, crowns. Miss Hallen will also be hostess to the high school girls at an informal coke party in the dorm before the play this evening.

Bonds Sold All "Extra"

The committee is proud to announce that every stamp and bond bought in this year's drive was an "extra" one. The student body, much smaller than last year's, is to be commended for the fine work they did during this short campaign. The vote was very close between all candidates, especially the top two. Necessary expenses for the ceremony were defrayed by funds allotted from the War Coordination committee and various sororities.

Book Drive Closes; Many Collected For Over Seas

The drive for books for war prisoners which has been in session for the past two weeks, terminated Tuesday. It was a success, with 75 pounds of books collected, packed and ready to ship. The books ranged all the way from physics text books to A Pocket Book of Boners, and Successful Houses and How to Build Them.

These books go through the World Students' Relief, and are sent to students in war camps in Europe, Japan and Asia. Some of the books turned in were not accepted because of the material which they contained. All of them must be strictly censored, so that nothing goes through which might antagonize the enemy.

The students which helped assemble and clean the books in preparation for shipment included Louise Kipper, Katherine Burrill, Kerthu Kahn, Jack Holt and Carl Baird.

NOTICE!

Petitions for the Editor and Business Manager of the Trail and Tamanawas for the year 1944-45 may be turned in between now and next Wednesday, May 3, to any members of the publications committee. Members of this group are Jeanne McDougall, Myrt Robinson, Murden Woods, Frank Price, Dr. Jaeger and Mr. Capen.

FACULTY ADVISER PROF. JULIUS P. JAEGER

Sophomore's Take Interest in Frosh Foster Spirit in Incoming Greenies

Although the Sophomores have many ideals to uphold, we as a class have a very important responsibility. That of setting an example for the incoming Freshman Class. Our characteristics are observed by them to be passed on to follow or to surpass, but the school spirit and enthusiasm represented, we hope, will in turn offer an incentive for a complete and full active life at our college.

We are closer to the "greenies" than any other class, for we are constantly in competition with them. At the beginning of the semester, at the annual Bag-rush, it was Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

We, as a class, appreciate the privilege of watching the Freshmen in their various stages of development in college life and in fostering them in adjusting to the traditions and ideals that CPS holds for them.

The Inter-collegiate Knights and the Spurs, two Sophomore honorary societies, have contributed more than their share to the glory of CPS, and are surely an incentive to be more like them.

But the memory is still fresh in the minds of the Sophomore Class when we were once Freshmen. We can well understand their feelings and thoughts, and what the very word "finals" means in their big life.

CATHERINE LUZZI,
President of Sophomore Class.

Spur Tapping Honors Fifteen of Freshmen Class for Service Group

Once more the blue and yellow pledge ribbons have been pinned on the 15 girls chosen from the class of '47 to represent the spirit of friendliness and cooperation of CPS have been tapped to the Sophomore Women's Service Honorary, Spurs. It is a distinctive honor to be one of the 15, and we extend our very best and heartiest congratulations to you.

Way back around 1926 girls on this campus decided to affiliate themselves with this national service group. Ever since there have been 15 girls chosen from each freshman class to be Spurs in their sophomore year. These girls were always to be seen at football and basketball games, and they were always on hand to help the green frosh find their way about the campus. Yes, they have served. Served as a pep organization; served as a group of girls who did what they could to make the College of Puget Sound a better school, a more friendly (if that could be possible) school, and a school of which each and every student might be proud.

You are girls picked from each sorority group and the independents to be an inspiration to the next freshmen class, and to serve the school. We are all proud of you, and again extend our best wishes to you for a most successful time during the coming year in Spurs.

Top Edition Is Presented By Sophomore Class of '46

We, the class of '46, do wish to make known that this issue of the Trail has been put out by said class. As the class isn't very large we have, because of necessity needed the help of several members of the upper and lower classes, but on the whole this is the SOPHOMORE ISSUE.

For this great enterprise we have had Murden Woods, as Editor in Chief, Pat Mason, Feature Editor, Marian Sandel, Society Editor, and Evelyn Marshall, Sports Editor. Also assisting on the editorial staff were Jerry Midtsatre, Virginia Beatty, Alberta Love, Helen Darling, Jean Hallen, Carol Hamilton, Lu Jean Logan, Ernie Goodner and Lucille Ludwick.

"Spizirinctum" Still High As Sophs Complete 2nd Year

We were full of "spizirinctum" when we were the lowly freshmen who sat in the balcony and clapped at our first Wednesday chapel, and we are still full of it as this year's sophomore class. Full to the brim, as we show in our participation in the many campus activities of our college.

As all freshmen are, we were scared too when we first entered this college where dreams begin to be fulfilled. But soon stunt night, freshmen plays, friendly hellos, dances and parties made us know we were welcome at CPS.

When the class of '46 marched through the color-posts there were 177 of us but this fall when we returned to take up our duties as the sophomore class we had depleted to a mere 60 and now many of those also have left our campus.

We have carried on the duties of our class this year under the direction of Catherine Luzzi. Other officers for this year have been Lu Jean Logan, secretary and Elverna Amudsen, representative to Central Board. Spurs, the sophomore girls honorary club have done a superb job in carrying out the purpose of their organization, service to the college.

Dramatics have had the talent of Noreen Inveen and Virginia Beatty, outstanding in the department. Betty Smith and Jerry Midtsatre have added their voices to many a chapel program. The Trail was edited this year by Murden Woods, a sophomore. In the field of sports Jean Hallen, Mary Ann Truitt and Hilda Feuz rate high.

The class of '46 has another proud mark on its record that we don't underestimate. Because Dr. and Mrs. Thompson are official members of our class as they entered at the same time we did, we are the Godparents of their tiny daughter Martha Lucille and consider it an unusual honor.

It was Dr. Thompson who said we had "spizirinctum" and we hope, though we may diminish in number in the next two years, our spirit will stay at the height it has reigned at CPS for the past two and be every bit as strong when the year 1946 rolls around and we are the graduating seniors.

American Government Class Attempts to Pass House Bill

Room 114 has been in the past week a hot bed of lobbyists, filibusters, party whips, riders and caucuses in the American Government class' effort to learn the process of passing a bill through Congress.

With the Honorable Warren Tomlinson from Washington, as speaker of the House, dictating the concerted action of both parties, the House Bill 21, Federal Regulation and Standardization of Education, was defeated by a 12-6 majority vote. When the bill was submitted to a special committee, the testimony was heard from Nelda Peterson and Dr. Marvin Schaffer representing the Parent-Teacher Association and the NEA, respectively.

In a hot political smashup the Southern Democrats left their party ranks, though it was an administration bill, to join minority Republicans' protestations of the bill. Characteristically, the proposed equality for Negro education made the lady representatives from the South draw furiously.

After the public hearing the House retired into a committee of the whole to debate the passage of the bill. Majority Leader Murden Woods and Minority Leader Duane O'Farrell stated the party sides of the question, but Virginia Beatty, wielding the Republican party whip, demanded the previous question. The motion for the third reading was defeated so that the House Bill 21 was defiantly killed before reaching the Senate.

in that corner

We have Grant Barker, an active junior whom we are all going to miss. He is reporting this Saturday to Fort Lewis and on May 8 will begin classes at San Antonio, Texas, as an Air Cadet Photographer in a Lab Commander Training class.

Grant, a chemistry major, was a member of Alpha Chi Nu fraternity, president last semester of the newly formed Alpha Kai Omega, and a charter member of the national Knights of the Log. This year he has been assistant editor of the Tamanawas.

He was a reserve in the Army Air Corps for 21 months and says he's "got a swell deal." The best of good fortune and good luck to you, Grant, from all the student body—especially in crap games.

SENIORS

You are reminded that the $5.00 diploma fee is due and should be paid promptly. Also, all delinquent fees must be paid in full before examinations. Kindly give this your early consideration.

CHAS. A. ROBBINS,
Bursar.

Life on third floor was a bit different last week end with the shifting of the noisy element out to Shafe's at Kent. A combination of fried chicken and pinochle was enjoyed by everyone.

Graduation conscious are the seniors as they don their robes and practice marching up and down the halls to Dottie Backlund's "Here Comes the Bride" music-box.

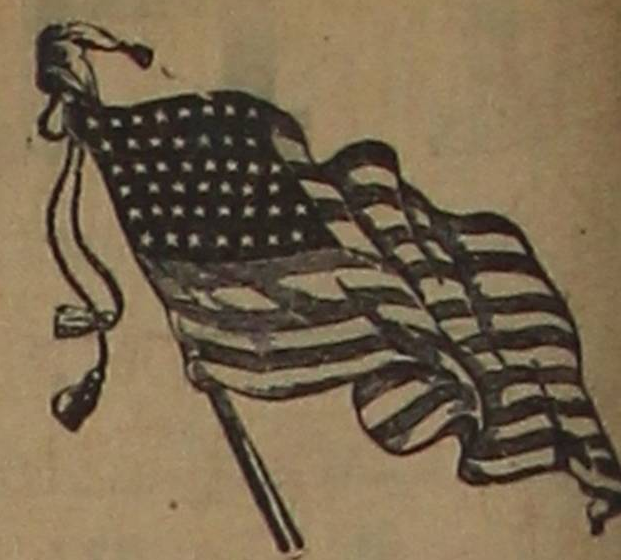

Thanks to Taffy Bailey and Donna Cohoon dinner is being livened up by some new and very different songs.

Some of the bravest had their hair stand on end Friday night as ghostly and gory tales held sway in the blacked-out lounge. Mrs. Schneider's punch brought normality back though, and a good time was had by all. That's one way of spending an evening under manless circumstances.

Mrs. Amudsen and Mrs. Thurber were week-end guests to view first hand what dorm life was like. That little glimpse no doubt explains many things to them.

Many, many thanks go to all on team 4 from we inmates for filling up all those puddles. It's really appreciated.

Selective Service

Letter bits from here and there tell us that JOHNNY TAYLOR Zete, is now a student officer, Liberal Army Air Base. BOB HEATH, Mu Chi, celebrated his 21st birthday in New Guinea. JAMES SPENCER, Zete, is in the hospital at Corpus Christie, Texas, with broken leg.

SECOND LT. CARL J. ENGLISH JR., attended a beautiful service at Westminster Abbey on Easter Sunday. Carl is a bombardier on a Flying Fortress and has been decorated with an Oak Leaf Cluster to the Air Medal for "meritorious achievement" on bomber combat missions over enemy occupied Europe.

JERRY HARTMAN, Zete, finished his basic training at Farragut, Idaho, and is now home on leave. BOB HAMILTON, Chi Nu, was also seen roaming around campus while home on leave.

ART ANDERSON has been commissioned a 2nd Lt. and has received his wings following graduation from bomber pilot school at Frederick field, Oklahoma.

EDDIE MILLER is now stationed in the Hawaiian Islands. He says that he has been to the beaches at Wakaki and many other famous beaches, but "there is no place like Pt. Defiance."

in this corner

"C" is for character, "A" for ability, "T" is for thoughtfulness, "H" is for humor, "I" is for industry and the "E" is for earnestness. The sum of these letters spell out the campus as that pert, petting little dark eyed lass more formally thought of as Catherine Luzzi.

When the Sophomore class entered as freshmen over a year ago Dr. Thompson dubbed them as the class with plenty of spizirinctum and this year with Cathie as the president they have lived up to the title by showing plenty of pep and spirit in all school functions and activities.

Cathie came to CPS via Franklin Jason Lee and Stadium, and upon her arrival to the campus she swung into her natural place of leadership. Her freshman year will long be remembered because it was during that year she met Jason who was elected vice president of the class for the preceding year, and was climaxed in the late spring when she was tapped by Spurs. Her sophomore year has proven just as memorable. In the fall, due to the absence of Joe Gagliardi, she became president of her class, and this spring she was elected secretary of the ASCPS, and will also be on the new chapel committee for the coming year. These are only a few of the duties that have and will keep Cathie on the run, but however busy she is, she always has time for a friendly smile and a cheery hello.

From this little introduction you can see why all the members of the class unanimously claim that as far as presidents are concerned, Cathie is tops.

Violet Supper in Honor of Theta Seniors

Following a tradition started several years ago, the Kappa Sigma Theta alumnae held their annual violet supper, last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Stan- cean Warburton, Jr.

Guests were seated at tables decorated with prairie violets, the sor- rity flower, and burning candles. Miss Betty Mann, Mrs. Donald Haw, and Mrs. Lucius Hallberg were in charge of the decorations.

There was a special welcoming ceremony for the Theta seniors, who are graduating this June. These girls, who were also guests of the alumnae at dinner, are: Jan- ette Armstrong, Janis Eisenhower, Marilyn Gilstrap, Jacqueline Moore, and Arliss Wilder. Mrs. William Veque was in charge of the wel- coming, and Miss Marie Helmer was in charge of the supper.

Mrs. Carl Moe, president of the group, led in a short business meet- ing, assisted by the other officers, Mrs. Sherman Day, Mrs. L. H. Jumper, Mrs. John Slipp and Miss Deborah Webb.

Engagement Announcement

Coming as a complete surprise to the members of Delta Alpha Gamma, the engagement of Mary Louise Rogers to Arthur Hansen, was revealed at the sorority meeting last week. The announce- ment was made by the passing of a traditional box of chocolates. A pink rose, tied with the sorority colors, rose and silver, accompan- ying the candy. Hidden in the cen- ter was a tiny scroll with the names "Mary Lou and Art" printed in Old English.

Mary Louise is a junior, and has been active in school affairs during her three years at CPS. She has been society editor for the Trail the past year, and has held offices in her sorority. Art, now in the army, is a former student of the college, and a member of Delta Kappa Phi. He was sports editor for the Trail last year, and was prominent in school activities. Both Mary Louise and Art are from Tacoma. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Annual Banquet Tuesday Honors Freshmen Girls Pledged to Spurs

Ending a year of many varied activities, Spurs held their annual banquet honoring the new pledges, last Tuesday evening at Kittridge hall. Jeane Thurber was general chairman for the affair.

The tables were decorated with individual doilie settings, and place cards, that were clever spatter-prints with the Spur emblem. The many colorful flowers and burning tapers completed their theme of spring. In charge of the table decorations were Joranne Midtsatre and Juanita Robinson. A program, consist- ing of songs of the organization and speeches by the officers and advisors, was arranged by Elverna Amundsen and Ruth Ann Dods- worth.

It was the occasion for the formal pledging of the new Spurs and their election of officers for the coming year. Capable Polly Packard was elected as president, to wield the gavel of this honorary group next year. Other officers elected were: Betty Jane Cappa, vice president; Louise Kipper, secretary, and Joyce Fearn, treasurer. The new Spur pledges are: Eliza- beth Anderberg, Hazel Beatty, Dona Cohoon, Betty Jane Cappa, Alice Ann Cross, Mary Ruth Erchinger, Joyce Fearn, Mary Jean Heidingen, Louise Kipper, Janice Lindeman, Jing Ho Ling, Polly Packard, Shir- ley Preston, Myrtle Robinson and Marion Zanuzoski.

Spur members attending were: Elverna Amundsen, Virginia Beaty, Ruth Ann Dodsworth, Peggy Doubek, Barbara Engberg, Beverly Hofstetter, Catherine Luzzi, Vir- ginia Mekkes, Joranne Midtsatre, Juanita Robinson, Marjorie Rose, Ruby Smith, Jeane Thurber, Mary Ann Truitt and Murden Woods. Special guests were Helen Pat Beem, junior advisor, and Miss Martha Pearl Jones, faculty ad- visor.

Dr. Sinclair Host To Psych Classes

Last Friday night, students of the advanced psychology classes gathered at the home of Dr. Robert Sinclair for a very unusual party. The evening was started off with a bang by the playing of fas- cinating games. One, for instance, had to balance himself on two milk bottles, while trying to write the word, psychology.

There was a cheerful fire in the fireplace, and after playing several games, they gathered around the piano to sing popular songs and old favorites. Mrs. Sinclair served wonderful refreshments, and every- one had a very gay time.

Sidewalk Cafe To Be Motif of Kappa Phi Tea

In a setting of a sidewalk cafe individual tables will be decked in gay spring flowers as Kappa Phi presents its annual Mother's Silver Tea next Tuesday evening at 7:30 in Kittridge hall. Each table will be decorated with tiny spring hats filled with candy as favors, and will have as centerpieces large hats of the Kappa Phi colors. These center hats will serve as vases with spring flowers falling over the crown. Donations contributed at this affair will be used to send a delegate to the National Council in June.

General chairman in charge of the tea is LuJean Logan with Mar- jorie Dawson in charge of the pro- gram. Trudy James and Joan Tregonning will be in charge of the refreshments. Musical selec- tions on the program will be given by Catherine Cooney and Mary Ann Truitt. Speakers for the eve- ning will be Mrs. Marmaduke Dodsworth giving a toast to the daughters and Ruth Ann Dods- worth toasting the mothers.

Aided by pledges and new mem- bers Dixie Bullard planned the dec- orations and favors for the event.

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTY FETES RUTH McRAE

Mrs. Charles Robbins is enter- taining this evening in her home with a supper and personal shower in honor of Miss Ruth McCrae. Ruth, a former Kappa Phi officer and member of Alpha Beta Up- silon, will marry Gail Packard, of the U. S. Army, in May. Gail is just back in this country after two years in the South Pacific.

Miss Ruth Hallen is co-hostess for the party, and guests will in- clude many of the Kappa Phi sen- iors. Many alums are also plan- ning to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. King, the former Joy Cramer, were married in Bethesda, Maryland, recently.

Gamma Weds In Maryland

Joy Cramer, member of Delta Alpha Gamma, was married re- cently to Ens. Arthur Nelson King, USNR, at the chapel of the Na- tional Naval Medical center, Be- thesda, Maryland.

The bridal gown was of white satin with a tight fitting hip length bodice, and full net skirt, with a flower design of satin applied on the net; long net train and sweet- heart neckline. The net veil was fingertip length, and caught in a high coronet.

A cousin of the bridegroom, Floyd Rittenhouse of Takoma Park, Maryland, was best man. Mrs. Rittenhouse was matron of honor. She wore ice blue satin, made with tight bodice and full skirt, and her flowers were talis- man roses and gardenias. Dana Rittenhouse acted as flower girl. She was gowned in pale blue or- gandy and carried a colonial nose- gay of old-fashioned flowers. Mrs. Cramer, who accompanied her daughter east, wore aqua crepe with orchids.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Capt. Winfred Dana, M. C. U. S. N., of Banana Rover, Florida, and the double ring ceremony was performed by Chaplain Henry E. Austin, U. S. N. R.

Following the ceremony, the wed- ding party was entertained at din- ner at the Willard hotel, with Capt. Dana as host. Ens. and Mrs. King were in Washington, D. C., for their honeymoon. The new home will be in Bethesda, Maryland, where Ens. King is stationed.

Details For Gym Jamboree Are Complete For May 5

By JEAN HALLEN

In past years the Women's Athletic Association has sponsored a Gym Jamboree at which local high schools are the guests. This has not been done for a few springs, but next Friday afternoon, May 5, at 2 o'clock, the gym will again be the scene for an afternoon of sports activities.

Almira Marchesini will be the general chairman and she states that the schools to be represented are: Stadium, Lincoln, Sumner, Fife, Puyallup, Clover Park, St. Leo's and Aquinas. Ten girls and their gym instructor from each school will be the special guests of W. A. A. Everyone is requested to wear gym outfits and gym shoes.

The order of activities will be: Relays, volleyball, volleyball exhibition, basketball, refreshments and basketball exhibitions. Other than these events scheduled the girls will have the opportunity to play ping-pong and dart games.

The volley ball exhibition teams will be composed of: Nelda Peterson, Jean Button, Fontelle Gaddis, Jean Hallen, Betty Armour, Evelyn Marshall, Jacqueline Moore, Helen Patricia Beem, Murden Woods, Margaret Lindeman, Joyce Fearn, Jayne Schaffer, Sue Hendricksen, Almira Marchesini, Esther Mann and Ruby Smith.

The basketball exhibition teams will be made up of: forwards, Mary Ann Truitt, Fontelle Gaddis, Nelda Peterson, Sue Hendricksen, Jayne Schaffer, Almira Marchesini; guards, Ruby Smith, Margaret Lindeman, Esther Mann, Evelyn Marshall, Betty Armour and Jeanne McDougall.

The committees assisting Miss Marchesini are: refreshments, Janice Lindeman; programs, Betty Armour; name plaques, Sue Hendricksen; registration, Murden Woods, and relays, Jean Hallen. MAY 10 TENTATIVE DATE FOR SWIM MEET

The first swimming meet is over and was a great success. High percentages of several groups were present and this time we are striving for even greater representation.

The tentative date for the second meet is May 10. This will be an evening affair and although the events will be the same as in the first, the order will be different.

W. A. A. Elections To Be Held Wednesday Noon

Once again it is time to elect W. A. A. officers. To be eligible to vote requires more than being a member of W. A. A. Yearly dues of 25 cents are payable BEFORE a member can vote.

When you've saved your pennies, all 25 of them, Almira Marchesini will welcome them with outstretched arms.

Election day is next Wednesday, May 3. You may cast your ballot at noon in room 203 in Jones hall.

FACULTY WINNERS IN VOLLEYBALL

Since the faculty beat us girls in the big Volleyball game, they persist in razzing us. Dr. Frederick said, "When you girls learn to play volleyball we'll have to have another game." Then Dr. Martin added, "I thought you girls could play volleyball."

Well, we'll let you all in on a secret. We girls have finished our season, but we still manage to get in a little practice. We're even learning how to control the ball and how to improve our game. Now, we haven't seen the faculty out practicing and maybe they're so good they don't need practice. Anyway, we have a sneaking hunch that next time we meet up with the faculty five, we'll make them think twice before they laugh at us.

CLEAN COURTS INSPIRING

Those who worked on the tennis courts yesterday, even though they weren't tennis fans, decided that in the near future they, too, would make use of these nice clean, newly equipped courts.

W. A. A.

By EVELYN MARSHALL

The year has rolled around rapidly and it is again time for W. A. A. elections. Don't forget to pay your dues and assure your candidates they won't lose.

Badminton has been short and snappy! Soon all the school lassies will turn their thoughts and spare time on the green, where they will begin the softball season.

Speaking of softball, at Co-Recreation Friday afternoon there was a big ball game—the first of the season. Badminton and tennis were also waged, and, for the first time, there were more fellows than girls. Whatsa matter, are you bashful?

Along with baseball we find tennis. With the sun shining and Wally's suggestions tucked in our minds, more and more fans are out toeing the lines.

From the practice that took place Wednesday afternoon in the gym, the demonstration for the high school girls should be a bang-up affair. The rumor has it that refreshments will be served.

Free bowling tickets are now in the hands of each group's athletic manager. All you need do is keep track of your scores and turn them in to your manager and you may be one of those to get a free ticket or two.

Shaffer and Woods Attend Kappa Phi Council in June

Delegates from Chi Chapter to attend the National Kappa Phi Council will be Jane Shaffer, Murden Woods and co-sponsor, Mrs. Gilmore Nichols. The council will be held at Baldwin, Kansas, on the Baker University campus from June 25 to July 6.

Delegates to the council will come from all parts of the United States. The Baker university is the home of Kappa Phi which was founded by Mrs. Gordon B. Thompson, who will be one of the keynote speakers of the week. A number of the national leaders of Kappa Phi will also attend, for this may be the last council meeting for the duration.

Missing Girls Furnish Mystery

The whistle was ready to go off for the badminton games to begin between the Independents and the Betas, but no Independents showed up. What could have happened to those kids, they are always on time and very reliable. The ones in question were: Joy and Eunice Moberg, the first doubles team, and Betty Jean Cappa and Virginia Gale, the second doubles team.

The Beta teams took advantage of the time by practicing among themselves and by playing matches to earn the remainder of their points.

It wasn't until 2:30 that afternoon that the mystery was solved. The Independent's manager looked the girls up in their classes. She discovered that they all had the same class. The classroom was empty, however, and not until this time did she remember that the biology lab. group was on a field trip that day.

The games were not lost by default and the girls are again in good graces of their manager.

ler with Bob McCullough. Bob Creso, being big-hearted, treated the entire tam to a case of cokes.

Noon found a large number of the "workers" (for the day) eating their nose-bag lunches in the Sub to the rythm of free music furnished by the committee.

The afternoon was spent playing baseball on the field, with a whizz-bang-up game between the faculty and the students.

Campus day was worthwhile. It afforded ample relaxation from the tough study grind, and showed us that the students of CPS can work together to better our school.

Birdies Fly As Contest Nears End

The results of the inter-school badminton tournament this week put the Gammas in the lead.

The closest games were played Wednesday when the Gamma doubles team of Esther Mann and Nelda Peterson defeated their Independent opponents, Eunice and Joy Moberg, 20-18. Carol Hamilton, Gamma, edged out Murden Woods, Independent, 20-12, in the singles match. The Theta "A" doubles team of Jackie Moore and Margaret Lindeman downed the Lambda team of Helen Miller and Teddy Robinson, 24-16. With a score of 31-9, the Gamma "B" doubles team of Jayne Schaffer and Almira Marchesini defeated the Independent team of Betty Cappa and Beatrice Young.

In the Theta-Gamma games played Monday, Hamilton downed Joy Hallen, 38-3, while the "B" doubles team of Schaffer and Pat Hillbrandt edged out Shirley Black and Betty Bauer, 24-10. The Theta came forth victorious in the doubles team with Lindeman and Moore defeating Mann and Peterson, 19-12. The Beta "A" doubles team of Fontelle Gaddis and Betty Armour won over Helen Miller and Arlyne Thompson, Lambdas, 29-11.

Tuesday's games saw Murden Woods, Independent, down Virginia Barker, Beta, in the singles game which ended in a score of 29-11. The Gamma "A" doubles team of Mann and Peterson defeated the Lambda team of Robinson and McCullough, 44-4.

The tournament will end Monday with the Theta-Beta games scheduled at 12:20 and the Lambda-Independents at 12:30. Officials, Gammas.
