New Officers Take Oath

Last Friday's chapel program featured the installing of the new SCPS officers and the new members of Central Board. Officiating was 1944-45 ASCPS president LeRoy Spangh. A new feature of the program was the presenting of certificates for service to all members of this year's Central Board and also to students who were members of the various student committees. This is a new tradition at CPS and is an unusual way of saying "thank you" to the students who have been an intricate part of the student government during the last year.

Bond Sales Soar Higher As CPS Drive Nears End

Queen Candidates Expectantly Await Outcome. Coronation Saturday Night

Present receipts of the bond drive is $12,978.20. There is not much time left, and many bonds must be sold if the college is to attain the goal of 25 field ambulances. Each ambulance will cost $1,950, making a total of $48,500. The deadline, says Chairman Janice Lindeman, is Thursday, April 26th at 1 o'clock.

Candidates competing for the Bond Queen are as follows: Betas, that ever popular, fun-loving, blonde senior Helen Pat Beem. H. P. hails from Kirkland, Washington, and is now president of the Dorm Girls at Anderson Hall and has held many offices in the sorority, as well as innumerable other positions on the campus. Gammas, are presenting that very good-looking red-head, Marian Clendenen. Marian is from Bellingham, is a member of the "Campus Trio," and was recently co-chairman of Campus Day.

Thetas have announced lovely Donna Agather as their choice for Queen. Donna is a junior, and has served as president of Kappa Sigma Theta this year. Having spent a year at Washington State College she has returned faithfully to good old CPS. Lambdas present that darling and sweet little Freshman, Mary Louise Guthrie. Mary Louise is staying at Kittridge Hall, and is already participating into many of the activities. Independents take great pleasure in presenting beautiful, blonde Norma Jean Rice. This lovely lass has talent with the violin, and is a member of the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Many plans have been made for the great event, the Coronation Exercise. Helen Jean Darling, chairman, promises a gala affair on April 28th. The procession will start with the Daisy Chain sponsored by the Spurs, stirrups (last year's Spurs), and new pledges.

Following will be the two flag bearers, one carrying the school flag, and the other the flag of the United States. Then will come the High School runners up, to be followed by the High School Princesses and their escorts. College Princesses and their escorts will follow them. Little four-year-old Jane Ritchie has been chosen for flower girl, and will then be followed by the Queen and her escort. Coming directly behind the queen will be six-year-old Danny Buchanan as crown bearer. A very prominent Tacoma, Mr. Fred Osmer, will crown the (Continued on page 4)

Variety Show April 28

"There is something more that we wish to say. It's a one-act play, called Common Clay . . ." The familiar voices of the Choral Readers, and other Campus Playcrafters will sponsor a rhythm play as the main attraction of the Variety Show, on Saturday evening, April 28th. Other characters include Pat Hansen as Jane; Foozy Vaughn as a lawyer, Marshall Campbell as Steve; Don Kelsey as the Policeman.

As added attractions there will be two one-act plays. "Via the Air Shaft," starring Don Kelsey and Elizabeth Anderberg. "Purple of the Window; Orange of the Window" with Foozy Vaughn, Noreen Inveen and Marshall Campbell, Bonnie Steel will be the second one-act play.

The evening's program will begin at 8:15 and will be a combined performance of the Campus Playcrafters and the Music Department. The part of the evenings entertainment given by members of the Music Department will include:

Paul Raymond and Irene Fearn featured in the garden scene duet singing "Serenade" from the Student Prince by Sigmund Romberg, and "I'll See You Again" from Bitersweet by Noel Coward. In the gypsy scene, Ellouise May, a girl new to the college this semester will sing "Gypsy Moon" by Borgano. She will be accompanied by Ruth Gustafson on the violin. More gypsy music will be sung by the Campus Trio and played by the violin trio composed of Betty Armstrong, Ruth Gustafson, and Viletta Rowe. The latter group will play "Dark Eyes," "Play, Gypsies, Dance, Gypsies," and "Ziguener." The program will end with a group of semi-classical numbers sung by the 82-member Adelpian Chorus. Their songs will be "Merry Widow," by Franz Lehar, "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," from Roberta by Jerome Kern, and "In a Monastery Garden," by Ketelbey. Jane Koehler will be at the organ and piano and other accompanists will be Jeane Thurber and Margaret Van Amberg.

Yellow Team Winner Of Campus Day Honors Here

Students and Faculty Participate In Annual Campus Clean-Up Day. Betty Armour Campus Co-Ed.

"Hi Ho, Hi Ho, it's off to work we go . . ." so with a swing of a pick, a smash of a hammer or an axe, and the scrape of rakes and shovels students and faculty sallied forth last Thursday for the annual Campus Day activities. Under the general co-chairmanship of Marian Clendenen and Mag Gallagher the day was planned full of work and fun for everyone. The students were divided into four teams: yellows, with June Larson and Gunnar Larson as Captains; the reds, who were led by Maryann Bailey and Don Bennett; the greens captained by Dorcus Egesbo and Bob Oquist; and the blues led by Joyce Fearn and Bob Alexander.

Campus Co-Ed for the day was Betty Armour, Beta who was chosen to the position by the support of lusty cohorts who brought in over $40 for their candidate. Runner up who was only about 50 cents worth of votes behind was Gamma Elsie Hansen. Others who were up were Jeane Thurber for the Independents; Beverlie Berley for the Lambdas; and Theta Margaret Lindeman. The money taken in from the bell (or belle) banks came to over $125, all of which went to Women's Federation.

Winning team of the day was the Yellow one under the captainship of June Larson and Gunnar Larson. This group was felt to have earned the prize for their work in burning off the land in front of the dorm. As a reward they all received kisses from the co-chairmen (candy ones, naturally).

As the various teams went to their appointed places of work they witnessed a most unusual sight; one unparalleled in the United States today. There, trotting up the road was a diminutive Chinese coolie complete with flat straw hat, a few straggles of beard and even a queue which inquisitive students pulled to see if it was attached. Surprise of surprises came when one and all discovered that this interesting person was none other than Dr. Martin. He was decked out in faded, raggy blue denim clothes, and even appeared to have a dirt streaked face.

Other faculty members were seen about the campus, some helping burn off the brush, some digging in the weeds, and some at the tennis courts. Mr. Fredericks was toggled in a pair of striped overalls, while Dr. Thompson was resplendent in a Puget Sound T-Shirt and work pants. Professor Gibbs (and son) aided the Tennis court gang, and even showed them how to dig up that grass the easy way. Helping burn up brush, etc., was Mrs. Mann in an outfit of green, but she put in a full day before dashing off to get some archery equipment.

The day ended after the baseball game between faculty and students (the faculty coming out on top) with a feed at the SUB under the sponsorship of the Spurs. Eats included potato salad (furnished by the sororities) and wieners enough for an army.

Summer School Bulletin Ready

Registration for the first half of the summer session is scheduled for June 11, with the classes beginning on June 12. With no formal requirements for admission, all courses are open to students who are qualified to pursue them to advantage.

Due to the war, subjects in the arts and science curricula have been arranged to allow students a full semester's credits toward graduation. Some courses are planned to extend over the entire 12-week session, and others can be carried for a period of six weeks, either from June 11 to July 20 or from July 23 to August 29, when the semester will close.

The visiting faculty will include one assistant professor, Gordon D. Alcorn, Biology, and five instructors, Lola B. Emerson, Nursery Education; Faye B. Needham, Spanish; Franklin W. O'Neil, physical education; Bernice G. Riehl, speech; and Mary E. Smith, music.

Further information may be obtained at the Registrar's office, where the summer session bulletin may be had.

Organ Program Entertain Students

Featuring such old favorites as "Tea For Two," "One Alone," and other semi-classical and modern melodies, Arnold Leverenz, staff organist for KOMO and KJR, presented a program on the organ for the student body of CPS in chapel, April 9th.

His selections also included a medley of songs by Irving Berlin, "White Christmas," "Easter Parade," "Together," and Mr. Leverenz's own theme song, "Remember."

Mr. Leverenz, who has had 12 years with the Pantages theater circuit and eight years with the Orpheum circuit, has just finished a series of broadcasts for KMO in Tacoma. Many students commented upon his poise and pleasant manner, and how apparent his radio training was in the timing of the program.

Concluding his program, Mr. Leverenz played as an encore, "Dainty Miss."

Spurs Present Service Flag And Tap New Members

Fifteen freshmen girls were tapped into Spurs at a chapel program last Monday. From all appearances the chapel was a memorial program at which time the Spur group of 1943-44 presented the student body with a service flag.

The 15 girls chosen for their service to the school and their scholastic standing included: Ruth Behrens, Janette Blake, Evelyn Coubrough, Lois Fasset, Violet Hesse, Dorothy Kostenbader, Sheila Lamar, June Larson, Faye McCrady. Others were Rosa Mae Monger, Peggy Rough, Dixie Simmons, Helen Thomas, Carol Todd and Lois Vick.

Last year's Spur president, and present National Spur President Elvirna Amundsen presented the service flag to Dr. Thompson during the first part of the chapel program. He paid tribute to all the former CPS students who are now in the armed services, and also spoke of the work done by the Spur organizations on campuses for the past 30 years. At the conclusion of his short talk he asked for a moment of silence and while students and faculty sat quietly Frank Price played Taps.

Students Have Class Elections

Class elections were held recently during a Thursday chapel period. Officers for the Sophomore class of 1945-46 will be president, Peggy Rough; vice-president, June Larson, Secretary-treasurer; Marian Tregonning; Sgt.-at-arms, Dick Ekert; representative to Central Board, Clair Candler.

Future Junior class officers will include: as president, Janice Lindeman; vice-president, Kerttu Kahn; secretary-treasurer, Louise Kipper; Sgt.-at-arms, Eloise Cruver; and representative to Central Board, Betty Jane Cappa.

Senior class officers for next year will be Jean Erhart, president; Ruby Smith, vice-president; LuJean Logan, secretary-treasurer; Ursella Watts, Sgt.-at-arms; and Helen Jean Darling as the representative to Central Board.

New Student Body President Extends Thanks To Old Officers

Our College of Dreams is now in its 57th year and during this time numerous men and women have past through its portals. It is represented all over the world because those who had the privilege, opportunity and desire to learn had burned within them the spirit of service. May we students pick up the challenge and carry on what has been established these 57 years.

Two factors have played a large role in the life of our college: school spirit and cooperation. CPS is your school and your ideas for improvements or suggestions toward a better government are always appreciated and every attempt is made to fulfill the students' desires. We will truly have a happy and successful year if we carry on the school spirit and cooperation established under the leadership of the Student Body President of 1944-45.

The faculty, the Associated Students of the College of Puget Sound and members of the new Central Board extend a hearty "thank you" to the ASCPS President of 1944-45, LeRoy Vaughn, and also to the Central Board members and other committee members of that year. In appreciation we will strive to carry on this great work to the best of our ability. Our very best wishes go with you, "Fooz," as you leave your Alma Mater, but your influence will always live on and touch the lives of others.

May we move forward with vim, vigor, and vitality and the sincere desire to give our very best and get the very most from our College of Dreams.

Let's be proud of its achievements and traditions and march ahead in unity towards an outstanding year.

RUTH ANN DODSWORTH,
ASCPS President, 1945-46.

War Bond Sales Still Low; Campus Drive Ends April 26

With the Seventh War Loan drive all but under way the students at CPS are campaigning for more bonds. Daily our total is climbing as students bring in bond buyers from downtown business houses, and friends. To date we have paid for two Army Field Ambulances and are starting on the third.

Still we will have to push hard to top last year's grand total of $42,000.00. At present the total sales this year equal over $12,000, but to best our previous record we will have to double this several times.

This year more than ever we should strive to put our extra cash into "E" Bonds. The war on the European front is fast reaching a climax, yet there is still quite a bit of fight left in the Nazis. For several weeks our troops have marched steadily forward, but now are slowing down somewhat under the pressure of fanatical Nazi resistance. Even when Berlin is reached there will still be grave need for mountains of supplies over there.

Then, too, the battle in the Pacific is not over by a long shot. Though the Yanks are slowly moving closer and closer to Tokyo, they are still in for much fierce fighting. To speed these drives on both fronts vast supplies of food and ammunition are needed. With this in mind the American public is being urged by the government to do their utmost to push the two War Bond Drives this year. We, here on the campus have a chance to aid in furnishing the boys over there with much needed Ambulances. We're on Number 3 now, let's make that number climb to 25 or over.

elected several weeks ago at the regular student body elections. Taking up the president's gavel will be Ruth Ann Dodsworth, popular junior, well-known about the campus for both her "English" accent and her laugh. New student-body vice president will be Jean Erhart, popular Theta about the campus. Polly Packard will take over the books as secretary of the Associated Students for the coming year. Dr. R. Franklin Thompson administered the oath of office to the new officers as well as to the new Central Board members.

Presenting "Foozy" with the traditional President's ring was 1944-45 ASCPS vice-president Helen Pat Beem. This ring is given to every student body president upon going out of office. After he received the ring "Fooz" presented the President's gavel to Ruth Ann, explaining the history and tradition behind it. The head of the gavel is made of wood from the original

White House, and the handle is made of wood from the old college buildings.

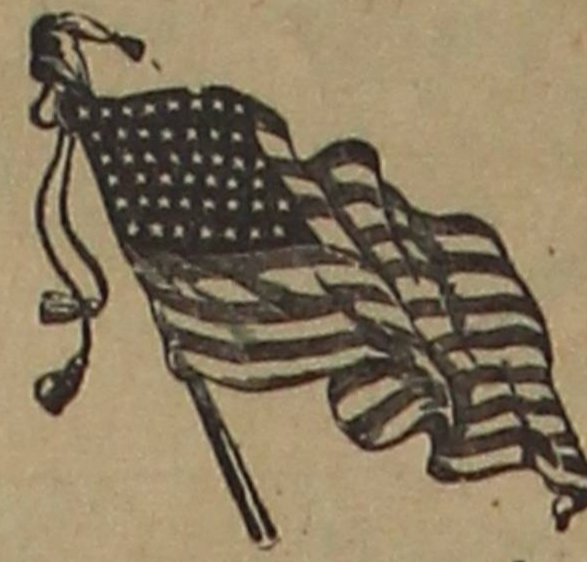

The new ASCPS officers attended a meeting at the University of Washington this weekend for college and university student officers. This conference is planned each year to assist the new officers in directing the student government on their respective campuses. It is expected that over 100 student officers will attend.

Outgoing officers for the year 1944-45 were LeRoy Vaughn, president; Helen Pat Beem, vice president; and Jean Erhart, secretary.

Selective Service

As the war news sounds better each day, the hopes in the CPS students who are fighting in the armed forces rise, as they look forward to the day when they will return again to this, their college of dream, the hope rises also in the minds of the CPS students who are holding down the home front, as they know that soon the fellows will be returning, and normal activity can be resumed.

From across the blue Pacific, and in the Philippines comes word that Ensign Walter Berg, who has received his college degree, plans to return some day, and this time he hopes to become a member of the faculty here at CPS.

Word has also been received from Ensign Norman Anderson, who is in the Pacific theater, and who thinks he'll be home for Christmas. Here's hoping.

The frequent visits of students who are returning seems to liven up the life on our campus. Lt. Jimmy Walters gave several of the girls a thrill when he was home as he attended the freshman dance, and divided his time very evenly. We enjoyed your visit Jim.

Others recently home were Lt. Tom Cross, who has been in the army over two years, and Lt. John Sharp, who looked mighty smooth in that marine uniform. Lt. Lee Mackey of the Marines also surprised many of the coeds when he was home, not only surprised them, but broke some of their hearts, as they read of his wedding in the papers.

Lt. Koehler, former art professor at the college was at Letterman Hospital in San Francisco. He was hit by a dive bomber on the deck of his ship. With both legs fractured and badly burned he managed to make his way over the side and stay afloat till the rescue ship picked him up. Lt. (Prof.) Koehler is in Madigan Hospital.

It is good news to hear that Dennis Walker, formerly reported missing, is now a prisoner of war in Germany. Dennis has been awarded the Purple Heart and the Bronze Star for action in Normandy.

From the ASTU fellows who we consider a part of our students comes word that they really have seen the works, latest reports inform us that Bob Blasler has received the purple heart, George McClure, has been recuperating from a hand injury, and that Mississippi, or Art Whately, as he is known as, had frozen feet. Anyhow, here's to you fellas.

in the center of the white field on which is fixed changeable numbers indicating the total number in the services. Across the top of the flag on the red background is affixed in gold letters the words "College of Puget Sound."

Immediately following the memorial service came the tapping of the new Spurs who were introduced by this year's president, Polly Packard. As a short verse was read describing each new girl a Spur led her up the aisle to the stage where they were given their pledge ribbons.

In a short meeting Wednesday noon the new Spur pledges elected their officers. These officers will remain in office until the new girls are fully initiated next fall. They are president, Rosa Mae Monger; vice president, Violet Hessey; secretary, Faye McCrady; treasurer, Lois Fasset; editor, Sheila Lamar; historian, Dixie Simmons; song leader, Carol Todd.

Old Clothes Drive Seeks Aid Of Students and Friends

Under the sponsorship of the United Nations Relief Rehabilitation Administration, a drive is being made to collect all old clothes for the relief of the needy people in liberated nations. This drive is carried on nationally under the official name of the United National Clothing Collection For War Relief Committee, and locally under the war coordinating committee, with Jeanne McDougall as general chairman of this drive. Beginning April 1, the drive will continue through April 30, with the last week in April the most important CPS.

Throughout war-torn areas clothing is very scarce threadbare and worn out. More than 125,000,000 people in liberated or to be liberated countries of Europe which in dire need of clothing. Of these more than 30,000,000 children. Because the demands of the armed forces and civilian needs, manufacture of clothing in the U. S. and other countries to relieve those distressed people will not get under way for some time. This means that the needy men, women and children in war-devastated countries must depend on the help of the American people.

All types of clothing is desired to aid these people, and now that the war news has been more encouraging, it is more than ever necessary that each person give until it hurts. You won't miss that worn dress, that extra pair of pants, but that might mean the difference between life and death to some other person.

The goal at CPS has been set at FIVE POUNDS PER PERSON. This goal has not as yet been reached, in fact five pounds per fifty people has not even been reached, so it is the duty of each individual to back this drive. It is YOUR chance to aid the war effort. It is a challenge to you. Will you accept this challenge?

Sleep More New Theme

I'll see you in my dreams, yes, that's the new theme song of the residents of Anderson Hall, as a "Hall-wide" campaign has been carried out to encourage the members of the dorm to get at least three extra minutes of shut eye, and that is being done. No longer do co-eds stay up in the wee hours of the morning trying to hash over their latest heart throb, for they have learned, that the faculty and the students desire fellow members who have had that eight hours of sleep, and from the looks of the sleeping charts, the co-eds are getting just that. My—but it is wonderful, too.

Signs have been located in convenient places to encourage the early-to-bedders. The third floor insignia reads, "CPS may have a bond queen, but the queen of Anderson Hall will be a sleeping beauty," as we walk on into the little room we find, "She's lovely. She may be engaged, IF she gets her sleep." Yes, that's the deal, if she gets her sleep, but there's no question about it, CPS students are getting their sleep, especially if they are residents of Anderson Hall.

Tunely Tips

Saturday evening at 8:15 p. m. Jones Hall auditorium, the students and friends of the college will be guests of the music department, under Professor Karl Bratton, and the drama department, under Mrs. Pearl Jones.

Last Friday evening at 10:30 p. m. the Campus Trio was featured on the state-wide Mutual System radio program broadcast from the State Capitol in Olympia. The program was one of a series presenting talent from all Washington state, and the girls appeared representing the drama and CPS. Doris Helen Smith, former CPS student and present organ instructor, was at the Hammond organ.

The last symphony of the year by the CPS Symphony Orchestra, popular concert, will be given at a vesper service on May 20th at 8 p. m. They will play Hungarian, Latin-American, and popular selections from the classic period. A guest soloist or ensemble is yet to be chosen. Everyone is invited.

"Springtime Serenade," Theme Of Anderson Hall Spring Formal

Residents of Anderson Hall and their guests danced Saturday evening to the tunes of the Wurlitzer in the social rooms of the dormitory at their annual spring formal which had "Springtime Serenade" as the general theme. Under the general chairmanship of Miss Mary Anna Schenck, the affair had as special guests, forty officers from McChord Field.

Decorations carrying out the general theme were spring flowers in the form of musical notes, adding to the blue lighted dance floor. Bridge and pinochle were played in the lounge.

Patrons and Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. C. D. Schnieder, Mrs. Lyle Ford Drushel, Dr. and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Schafer, and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Seward.

Campus Trio Gives Recital

Sunday afternoon was the time, and Jones Hall auditorium was the scene of the most recent recital of the popular Campus Trio. This concert was the conclusion of a trip taken by the Trio to Southern and Eastern Washington where they visited high schools. They have also recently participated in an All-Washington talent program which was broadcast last Friday night from the state capital. The girls in the Trio are Virginia Kilde, soprano; Marian Clendenen, second soprano; Betty Smith, alto, and Jean Thurber, accompanist. This was their second formal recital this year.

Special guest was 14-year-old Ronald Kilde, violinist, who played several groups of selections. Ronald is a student at Stewart Junior High school and an outstanding violinist. He was accompanied by Leonard Aver, who was guest artist at the trio's concert last summer and is a student at Stadium High School.

Among the selections the Trio sang were: "Jesu, Joy of Man's Dearing," by Bach; "The Joy of Life," by Martini; "Three Little Princesses," a French folk song; "The Heavens Are Telling," by Hayden. When Ronald Kilde played Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E Minor, Opus 10."

Other numbers sung by the girls included: "The Nightingale," by calhovski; "Clair de Lune," by Debussy; "The Swan," by Grieg; "My Heart's Prayer," by Leighton; "Orchids In the Moonlight," by Roumans; "Madame Jeannette," by Murray; and "O Sing Your Songs," by Cain. The young guest artist also played such selections as "The Old Refrain," by Kreisler; "Polish Dance," by Severn, and "Chant," by White.

Fashions Hold Valentine's Day Aids Cupid Many Girls Announce News

In the spring a young girl's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of clothes and so it is on the campus of this, our College of Dreams. As the spring season turns around we find that the students on our campus appear dressed as if they just walked out of a fifth avenue district, or else just absorbed a copy of Vogue or Mademoiselle. As we look over the chapel, we notice that Freshman Gwen Simmons has a pert, new plaid skirt. We like that grey, white and red scotch plaid, with darker colors peeking out between the pleats.

Always in tune for the occasion, the grey peddle-pushers of Helen Patricia Beem held the spotlight campus day. We vote for more like 'em, and oh, that leg art... goes mighty nifty with the red initialed top coat, and red anklets to match.

The bright new checked suit of Dixie Bullard, and that soft shade of pink outfit of Almira Marchesini, go to make them the best dressed teachers in the practise teaching class. My, how those Stadium boys must go for those new outfits.

The drape skirts have also taken the spotlight, with Marian Robinson, the proud possessor of a black one, and Lucille Ludwick looking mighty sharp as she used the other evening in her navy blue. Both have side drapes, and really do make the fellas eyes turn light.

The Theta Violet Luncheon was the scene of many smart-looking outfits, as Jean Erhart appeared in a new white print jersey, with the low-rounded neckline.

On the more masculine side of the campus, the plaid shirts of Evelyn Marshall, and Murden Woods serve to brighten the campus, as does the plaid skirt of Lucille Randall.

All in all we vote the CPS girls the most smartly dressed, and we aren't prejudiced either.

Valentine's Day Aids Cupid Many Girls Announce News

Valentine's day has come and gone, and cupid's mighty arrow has struck again and again, right through the hearts of many co-eds, as their thoughts turn from funny papers, school books, and studies to the lovelier things of linens, silver, and china.

Surprising the many students and members of well known families on Valentine's day, was the news of the engagement of Miss Lu Jean Logan, junior, and member of Delta Alpha Gamma sorority, to Sherman Day Jr. Miss Logan is a resident of Anderson Hall, and has been active in student government. Vice President of the junior class, and member of next year's chapel committee, occupy much of her time. Mr. Day is attending Medical School at Northwestern, and was a former student here. His

Kappa Phi Has Officer Election

Chi chapter of Kappa Phi at CPS recently elected their officers for the coming year. The group met last Wednesday noon and a large percentage of the members participated.

Taking over the duties of president for 1945-46 will be Jean Thurber, well-known junior. Jean has been the chapter program chairman during this year. The new vice president who is also pledge mother is to be Polly Packard. Helen Thomas and Viola Warner will fill the respective secretarial positions, recording and corresponding.

Program chairman for the next school year will be Anna Marie Vaughn. The position of treasurer will be filled by Louise Kipper. Carol Hamilton will be the Chaplain and Donna MacInnis will be the chapter historian for another year.

Installation of the new officers will take place about the 15th of May at which time the old officers will retire. Officers during the second semester included Sally Ellington, president; Dixie Bullard, vice president; Carol Hamilton, recording secretary; Polly Packard, corresponding secretary; Jean Erhart, treasurer; Jean Thurber, program chairman; Bea Young, chaplain, and historian, Donna MacInnis. Jane Shaffer was president during the first semester but because of a heavy schedule during the second resigned her position.

activities included membership in Intercollegiate Knights, president of the junior class, and a member of Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity.

Another recent surprise was the engagement of Miss Barbara Engberg, junior class prexy to Ensign Lewis Abel. Miss Engberg is affiliated with Kappa Sigma Theta sorority, was a member of Spurs, National Sophomore Women's honorary, and is past president of intersorority council. Ensign Abel attended CPS and his fraternity was Sigma Mu Chi.

Adding her name to the list of ring bearers was Miss Priscilla Newschwander, who's engagement to Lt. Dale Coon of the Air Corp surprised Kappa Sigma Theta sorority sisters Miss Newschwander is the daughter of a well-known family, and has led an active life while here at CPS. She is well known for her dramatic ability, having had the lead in several plays, and is the leader of the Choral reading group.

Delta Alpha Gamma sorority sisters were surprised at the news of the engagement of Miss Elsie Hansen, to Pvt. Jim Lovejoy. Presenting the traditional box of chocolates, Miss Hansen announced the news via a scroll, with the couple's names inscribed. The bride-to-be is a major in business administration, and was past business manager of the Trail.

Freshman Laverne King, recently announced her engagement to Alpha Beta Upsilon sorority sisters. Presenting the traditional box of chocolates, and their names embroidered on a sailor cap brought the news. Miss King is a graduate of Lincoln high school, and is a member of the Campus Playcrafters.

Yes, the arrows are flying high and fast, as we wonder just who they will hit next. Nevertheless, sorority sisters are anxiously awaiting those chocolates, and can always yearn for more.

CPS Student's Painting Exhibited

With the annual competitive exhibition of paintings by local artists now being shown in the third and fourth floor galleries of Jones Hall, CPS students are again discovering evidences of unsuspected talents among their friends and neighbors.

Although this show, which is held each April, is open to the entire Southwest Washington region, most of the work shown this year has been produced by Tacoma's local talent, with a painting by CPS's own Patricia Hansen being among the accepted entries. Olympia and Fort Steilacoom are other places that are well represented.

La moda Americana... Have a Coca-Cola

...an American custom as seen in Italy
People overseas are impressed by the American fighting man's friendliness among his fellows. They see his home-ways and customs—his good humor. Have a Coke they hear him say to his buddies, and they begin to understand America. Yes, the pause that refreshes with ice-cold Coca-Cola speaks of the friendliness of Main Street and the family fireside.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY THE COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

You naturally hear Coca-Cola called by its friendly abbreviation "Coke." Both mean the quality product of The Coca-Cola Company.

W. A. A.

At a meeting of W. A. A. held last Monday the following officers were elected to carry on the work and activities for our group next year. President, Margaret Lindeman; Vice President, Betty Jane Cappa; Secretary, Mary Agnes Gallagher; Treasurer, Carol Hamilton; Program Chairman, Ruby Smith; Publicity, Shirley Gibbs. Mrs. Mann later announced that Helen Miller had been appointed General Manager of women's athletics. Congratulations to you all and many thanks to Almira Marchesini and her cabinet for their labors during the past year.

Last Friday afternoon a group of 16 girls went over to the U. of Washington to take on a team of star Huskiettes in basketball. At this time we do not know how they came out, but we have a pretty good hunch. But then they can always say it was fun. If it's like the hockey matches we used to play, it will be a day to remember.

The annual award luncheon will be held on Wednesday, May 16, at noon in the Sub, as announced by our President. Ruby Smith, program chairman, is in charge and more complete details will be posted in a few days. All girls who have earned 200 points or more are invited to attend. It is at this time that letters, sweaters and other awards are presented.

As there has been some doubt concerning the closing date for bowling we want to announce that April 9 officially closed that sport. Perhaps next year some better method of handling bowling will be devised, as the past two years have not proved too successful.

Girls Vie With U. of W. In Basketball

Eleven girls left for the University of Washington last Friday noon to participate in competitive basketball games. Three schools—U. of W., Seattle Pacific College, and CPS each had two teams. Last year CPS was represented by five groups, one from each sorority and one Independent team.

After the games the girls were honored at a tea by the U. of W., which was held in the P. E. major's room.

Those girls which made the trip are:

Marie Eckstrom, manager; Betty Armour, Elouise Cruver, Lois Fasset, Fontelle Gaddis, Mary Agnes Gallagher, June Larson, Almira Marchesini, Rosa Mae Monger, Jane Shaffer, and Mary Ann Truitt. Mrs. Mann also went with the girls as coach.

Freddy Holm, Kenneth Hogatt, Bob Minniti, Chuck Morris, Carl Arness, Claire Candler and Don Carstens. The emblem will be a white chenille basketball on a maroon background. These may be worn on any type sweater.

The boys are now turning their attention to tennis, softball, golf and volleyball. At 3:00 p. m. every Monday, Wednesday and Friday some of the students play volleyball with members of the faculty.

College Life

By BOB WINSKILL

Last year when Campus Day came around, I was in the Army blithely working my fool head off to the strains of a melodious sergeant's voice. Little did I think then, that one year later I would be out of the Army, but still working my fool head off. This time to the strains of Guy Lombardo and his suave swooners.

All in all, I must admit that the day was well spent. I felt just like Columbus, only instead of finding continents, I discovered many new muscles. However, let me review the day's events for you.

I awakened bright and early at 8:45, in time to get to my first period class with a limp of undigested wheaties in my esteemed stomach. I, as usual, was the light of the class, astounding Dr. Tomlinson with my words of wisdom (I reminded myself of Skupen) and translated out of the original Arabic a sonnet to Sinatra. After performing these mental gymnastics, I felt myself entitled to a few hours rest, and started to do as much, when lo and behold an ogre in the form of Bob Alexander pushed a shovel in my hand and I found myself digging graves for tired professors, in the Quadrangle. There I worked and slaved for many, many minutes pestered by some forlorn Chinese beggar, while Bob Oquist leered at me from the seat of his convertible as he rode gaily around clutching the wheel with one hand and Jolly Torgerson with the other. While all this went on Foozy tripped the light fantastic on top of Jones Hall.

Finally, after much arduous labor, Bill Hagermeyer and I decided to swap jobs. I have, at different times, climbed a few mountains. Therefore, I thought it only logical for me to climb the ladder against Howarth and clip the Ivy. Bill blythely acquiesced, and I non-suspectingly started to climb. The first sensation was one of interest, but after reaching the middle the wind caught me and hurled the

Tamanawas Put To Bed

The Tamanawas, C. P. S.'s annual yearbook, was put to bed the first of this week. The staff has finished its task. "They have all worked extra hard and have cooperated to the utmost," says Beverlie Berlie, editor-in-chief of the yearbook. The book will be out on or before May 25th.

Despite the shortage of materials, the yearbook will still be of highest grade materials. It is being printed at the Johnson-Cox Printing Company. Pictures, which will be the principal part of the book, were taken by Turner Richards. There are approximately 130 pictures of school organizations and school activities.

Many students have asked for duplicate pictures of those which will be found in the yearbook. Anyone desiring duplicates should see Beverlie Berlie, Marie Eckstrom, or Bob Winskill before May 1st.

The staff for the 1944-45 Tamanawas was headed by Beverlie Berlie, editor. Others were Marie Eckstrom, business manager and advertising manager, assisted by Paul Raymond and Anne-Marie Vaughn, Bob Winskill, system editor, Pat Hildebrandt, art editor, assisted by Katherine Bellinger, Elsie Hansen, class editor; Lois Lynch, activity editor; Elizabeth Anderberg, organization editor; Dorothy Cochran, copy reader, and Jing Ho Ling, Lu Jean Logan, John Skupen, Helen Pat Beem, and Priscilla Newschwander.

ladder from side to side while my stomach raced from top to bottom. Clutching feebly to a rung, I made my way slowly up the building. The ivy threatened to pull me off. The ladder swayed more and more. With a superhuman effort I chopped an ivy leaf, looked wildly around, and then, while in this precarious predicament, Foozy dedicated a song to me. "Swing and Sway." I took a bow, and with renewed gusto, vim, vigor, and vitality, (I take vitamins), went to work. Skillfully I amputated the positive. Ha! Ha!, I said, this is fun. Working like fury I chopped away, when by a strange mischance I happened to look below. There, way down there, was the ground. I was so far up I could almost see Hitler hiding in Bertschegaden. Pausing no longer, I did that which was required of me to do, and descended as quickly, and abruptly as possible.

Thus, you can see that Campus Day was fun. Great fun, I might even say. But why should I say it? I'm tired.

The committee consists of Helen Jean Darling as chairman, Lorraine Danell, flowers; Dorcas Engesbo, crowns; Barbara Engesbo, decorations; Polly Packard, Sponsor and Daisy Chain.

Employees of General Electric and its affiliated companies received benefits totaling $1,700,000 during 1943 through mutual benefit associations, and group accident, accident and hospitalization plans.

One by one our freshman fall show up some morning in class and we know they are now, "hut, eee, hor!" Harry Berg is now the Army Air Corps, and Bob Hentze is in the Merchant Marine. Paul Diamond, recently home leave and whooping things around the old school, is now San Diego going to fire-fighting school. Pfc. Dave Rees, after traveling from here to yon all over the country, is once again in the midst wondering which of the many girls he should take home. Wade Garland, in V-12 at Pocatello, Idaho, we hear isn't leaving the fairer sex entirely out of the picture.

The first pawnshop was opened in Paris in 1624 and closed a year later.
