HELLO FRESHMEN!

Stunt Night Honors Go To "The Duchess Bounces In"

Under Leadership of Stunt Directors Freshman Class Puts on Four Skits as Climax to Week's Activities; Individual Numbers Many and Varied.

Climaxing a week of freshman activities was the 18th annual Stunt Night given Friday evening at 8:15 in Jones Hall Auditorium. Master of ceremonies for the presentation was Marshall Campbell, masquerading as a clown.

"The Duchess Bounces In," the winning stunt, was directed by Irene Fearn and Dorothy Schweinler, with the assistance of La Verne King. Candy kisses were given as the prize. Action took place in Lady Vera's boudoir and centered around the Duke's disapproval of Lady Vera's beau. When the "Duchess Bounces In" the Duke is soon put in his proper place and the "Situation" changes. It all ends well with the Duke and the Duchess giving a large ball for the happy couple. Clever costumes, two noisy sound-effects people and an exaggerating group of orchestra members helped to put over the stunt.

First stunt to be given was "Cinderella-Goldilocks", the sad tale of a stenographer who worked for the three Bears. Each Bear in turn brought her candy and proposed to her, but Cinderella - Goldilocks would have none of them unless her salary was doubled and she was promoted to secretary. She is promptly fired by the big Bear. To her rescue comes the lizard chauffeur that her fairy godmother had given her. Since he brings real food, instead of candy, and also proposes to her, she accepts him.

"Cinderella-Goldilocks" was told in the form of a bed-time story to a sleepy-eyed chorus of pajama-clad girls. It was directed by Margaret Lindeman and Doha Smock, assisted by Elaine McLorinan.

Second on the program was the stunt "And the Lamp Went Out," directed by Elizabeth Anderberg and Jeanne Taylor, assisted by Bonny Jean Steele. The story, a typical melodrama, centered around Evelyn, the heroine, Ralph Grayson, the hero, and Herbert Vanderlice, the villain. It was preceded by a Barbershop "Quartet."

Last stunt of the evening was an athletic wedding directed by Anna-Marie Vaughn and Maxine Atkinson, assisted by Mary Louise Guthrie. All kinds of sports were indulged in as the preacher performed the wedding ceremony.

Staff for the performance was headed by Miss Martha Pearl Jones, director of the Campus Playcrafters; Charles Nee, dramatic manager; Ruth Ann Dodsworth, dramatics department assistant; Mary Rough, who had charge of the musical numbers between stunts; Mary Ann Truitt, song leader for community singing, and Jeane Thurber, piano accompanist.

Individual numbers included: Leonard Raver—"Warsaw Concerto," piano solo; Gretchen Swayze—"Jest Her Way," vocal solo, accompanied by Gretchen Ernst; Redmond Trio, composed of Frances Swenson, Neva Iverson and Lois Phillips—"By the Light of the Silvery Moon," accompanied by Marian Syse; Anna Kinrod—"Lark's Festival," piccolo solo, accompanied by Gretchen Ernst; Joan Storhow—"One Kiss," vocal solo, accompanied by Doris Ward; Robert Holland—"Temptation," chromatic harmonica solo; Mary Lou Lindstrom—tap dance; Byron Crull—"Dessert Song," vocal solo, accompanied by Gretchen Ernst; Dolores Klaiber—"Till the End of Time," vocal solo, accompanied by Leonard Raver.

Welcome Extended To Old And New Students Alike

It is always a real joy to welcome a new class to the College of Puget Sound. Our tradition and heritage tell us that this splendid group will become a part of the fine leadership for which the College is known. The College offers to its new students, as well as its older group, an opportunity for an excellent education. We welcome each new student to our college halls. We welcome also each returning student and veteran, knowing full well that the esteem and deep regard which they have for their alma mater will grow even more meaningful this year.

We welcome, then, each student to an educational opportunity, to a new era of peace, to a time of development in your own life and a time of expansion and development in the life of our beloved alma mater. To each of you the best year possible.

R. FRANKLIN THOMPSON.

'Ring in the New,' Kappa Phi's Theme For Rushing Tea

"Ring in the New" is to be the theme for the Kappa Phi tea to be given on Sunday, September 30th. The affair is the first event on the Methodist sorority's rushing calendar and will take place in the Student Union Building from 3 to 5 in the afternoon.

Decorations are to be carried out in a bell motif, which is in line with the Kappa Phi theme for the year—"Ring Out the Old, Ring in the New."

The program will include welcoming speeches by Jeane Thurber, president, and Mrs. Charles A. Robbins, faculty sponsor. Polly Packard, vice president, is to present the organization's theme and Mary Ann Truitt will talk about Kappa Phi—its aim, accomplishments and plans.

Any girl of Methodist preference is invited to attend the tea. A girl may belong to Kappa Phi and also one of the four sororities on the campus.

Ruth Ann Dodsworth, ASCPS Pres.

We are approaching this school year in a warless time. These are wonderful days to be alive but the peace has not yet been won. In order to promote good will and friendliness in the world, let us begin to practice it on the campus.

To you who are here for the first time we extend the hand of friendship.

To you who left to establish the peace, we are honored to have you back again.

We are happy to welcome back those of you who have returned to your Alma Mater.

To our faculty we pledge our loyalty and support.

Departmental Scholarships Are Awarded

Thirteen Leonard Howarth leadership scholarships have been awarded for the following year. They are:

Student-Faculty Reception Friday, Sept. 28 at Kittredge Hall 8:15 Refreshments Students — Bring Your Parents!

Among the many new faces to be seen on the college campus this semester are a number of faculty and staff members. Heading the music department is Prof. Clyde Keutzer. He is replacing Prof. Karl H. Bratton, who is remaining in the East.

Prof. Keutzer comes to the college from Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., where he served as director of the U. S. O. He received his Ph. B. from the University of Chicago, and his M. A. in music from Columbia University, New York City. He studied voice with Mme. Schoen-Rene of the Julliard Graduate School and with Arthur Burton in Chicago. He coached opera and song repertoire with Arpad Sandor, famous accompanist and coach, and Felix Wolfes, assistant conductor of the Metropolitan Opera Co.

For several years Prof. Keutzer was under contract with a prominent concert management company. He was a soloist with the Philadelphia Civic Opera Co. and has been soloist at St. James Episcopal church, Chicago; Second Presbyterian church, New York City, and Fairmont Presbyterian church, Cleveland, Ohio. For two summers he had leading roles with a Broadway stock company on Cape Cod, Mass.

Prof. Howard W. Eves, newly appointed head of the mathematics department, comes to CPS from Syracuse University, New York, where he has been doing graduate studying and teaching. He received his B. S. from the University of Virginia and his M. A. at Harvard university.

Prof. Eves has served as surveyor for the state of New Jersey and also the General Housing Corporation; he was junior mathematician in the Maps and Survey division of the Tenn. Valley Authority in 1942. He has recently been elected to the editorship of the Problem Department of the American Mathematical Monthly. He will be responsible for the section on collegiate mathematics. He has also undertaken for the monthly the critical translation from the French of about a dozen of Thebault's shorter geometrical papers.

Replacing the late Senator Walter S. Davis, who had been in the history department for several years, is Prof. Calvin B. Coulter, Jr., a doctor of philosophy in history from Princeton. Prof. Coulter received his A. B. from Columbia College, his A. M. from Columbia University in 1940 and Princeton, 1942. He obtained his doctor's degree this year.

During the years 1941-43 he was an assistant in history at the College of William and Mary. He was an instructor at the University of Delaware during part of 1945.

New in the department of Spanish is Mrs. Roger B. Mastrude, a graduate of CPS, who spent some time in Chile as an exchange student. Her husband is with the military service in Europe.

Taking over women's physical education is Mrs. Kenneth W. Johnson, another graduate of the college, whose husband is also in the service. She is replacing Mrs. Mann.

Miss Mary A. Batterson, who recently resigned from her position in the Tacoma Public Library system, is now acting as librarian. Miss Clarabel Stevens has taken over the duties of secretary to Dean Register and at the switchboard in the bursar's office is Miss June Wick. New secretary for the Public Relations office is Mrs. Maud Miles, while Miss Charlotte Riemer fills the same position for Dr. Edward H. Todd, president emeritus, who is writing the history of the college.

This summer was the scene of a quiet wedding between two faculty members of the college, Miss Julia Helen McKinney and Dr. Paul R. Fossum. They were married by Dr. Thompson in the Thompson home. Mrs. Fossum has been the French professor since 1938, when she came from Colorado State Teacher's College, where she had taught for two years. Dr. Fossum has been a visiting lecturer in economics since 1939.

Miss Linda Van Norden, of the English department, has returned to the college after a two-year's leave of absence. She has been working toward her doctor's degree at the University of California in Los Angeles and has done some professional research work for the University during that time, besides some teaching. Her summers were spent at the Huntington Library in San Marino.

At the present time Miss Van Norden is working on the staff for the Dryden project being undertaken by the University. Her spe-

Rushing Season Ends With Four Preferences

Preference affairs of Friday and Saturday brought another rushing season to a close for the four sororities of the college. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Lloyd Baisinger (Sherley Day), Kappa Sigma Theta entertained at a preference brunch at the Green Parrot Inn on Saturday morning. The first of the preference affairs was Alpha Beta Upsilon's luncheon held at Lakewood Terrace on Friday. Delta Alpha Gamma brought its rushing program to a close with a luncheon on Saturday at Nettie's place in Puyallup.

The home of Mrs. J. C. Haley, 2901 No. 29th was the scene of Lambda Sigma Chi's "coketail" party on Thursday. A preference fireside on Saturday evening followed.

The J. R. Wiborg home on 4302 North Lexington was the setting for Kappa Sigma Theta's dessert supper Thursday evening. Sheila Lamar served as chairman, assisted by Misses Jane Parker and Rosa Mae Monger. Mrs. Wiborg and Miss Margaret Lindeman, president of the group, presided at the supper table, where lavender gladiolas spelled the Greek symbols of the sorority. Favors were lavender and green net replicas of the Theta pin.

Miss Charlotte Coors acted as hostess at this sorority's split date tea held at the Dr. A. E. Hillis home, 5 Rosemont Way. Wristlets of velvet ribbons were given rushees.

Another mid-week function was a "coketail" party given by Delta Alpha Gamma on Wednesday at the Tacoma Tennis club. Black top cial part of the project is Dryden's translation from the Latin poems.

At the luncheon following the Faculty Retreat on Saturday morning, September 15, Dr. and Mrs. Paul R. Fossum were presented with a crystal bowl, the gift of the faculty and staff.

Approximately sixty people, including wives of faculty members, attended this first meeting of the year, which was presided over by Dr. R. Franklin Thompson. Mrs. Drushel, dean of women, made the gift presentation and recited an original poem. During the informal program both Dr. and Mrs. Edward H. Todd spoke briefly.

hats were used as favors. The sorority's split date tea was held at the home of Mrs. William McCormick, 509 North Tacoma Avenue, under the chairmanship of Miss Darcia Dayton. The group's colors of rose and silver were carried out in the floral arrangements, and small roses on silver leaves were given as favors. Misses Ruby Smith and Lucille Ludwick served as rushing chairmen.

Mrs. C. O. Lynn opened her North C street home for the Alpha Beta Upsilon tea, using a Dutch theme for decorations. Miss Evelyn Marshall was rush week chairman for this sorority, assisted by Misses June Larson, Mary Jean Heidinger, Virginia Kilde, Virginia Barker, Mary Anna Schenk, Ruth Behrens and the president of the sorority, Mrs. Kyle Smith (Betty Heidinger). This group followed up with a fireside on Wednesday at the Don Shotwell home, using a "Hong Kong" motif.

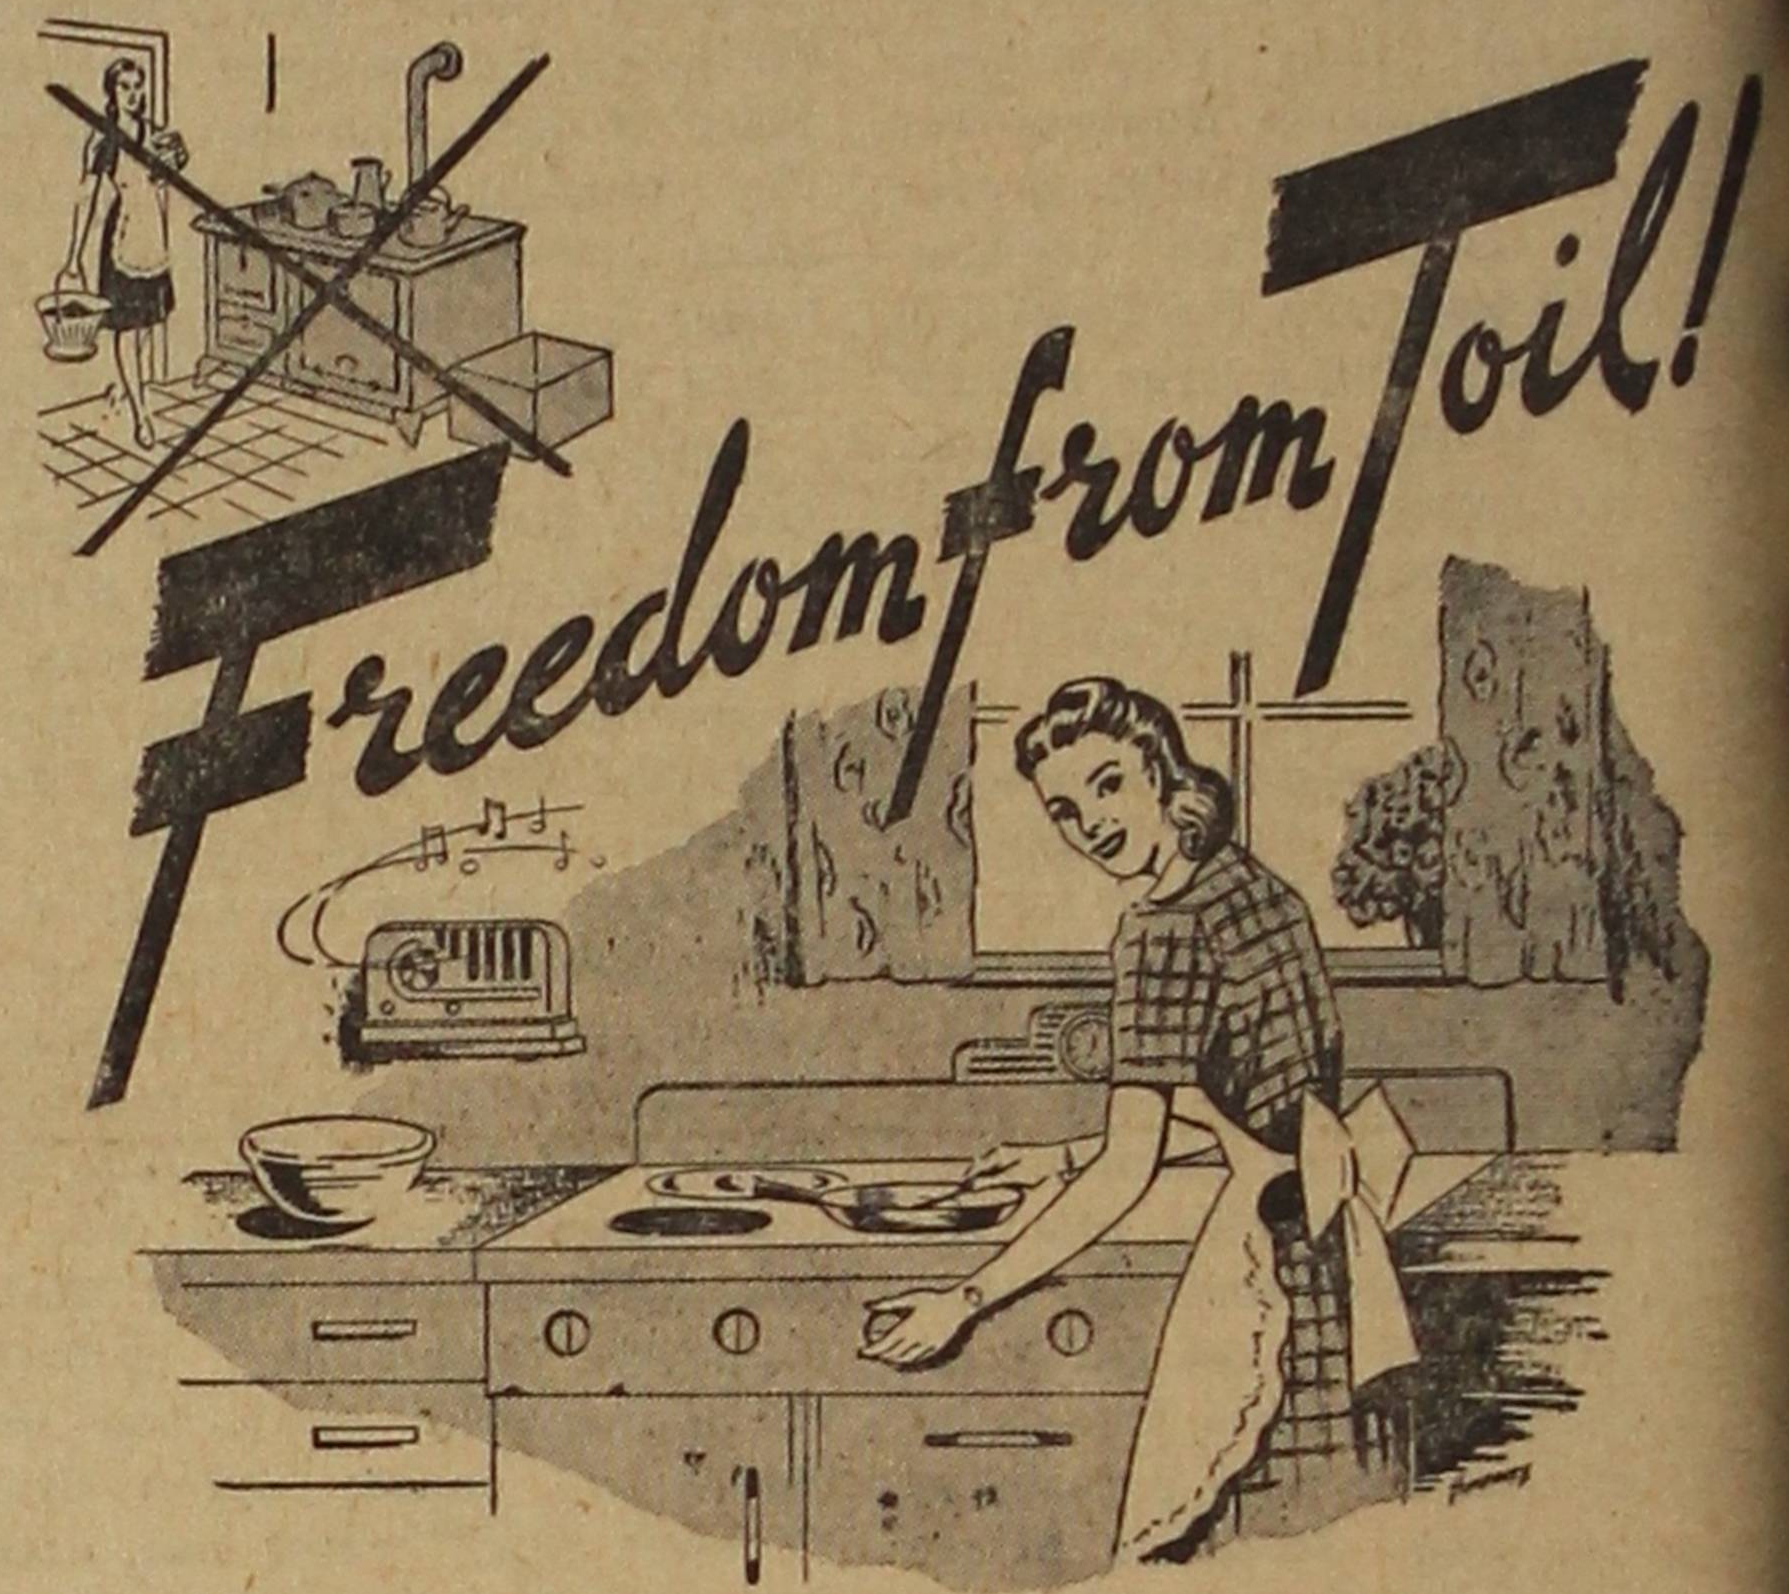

'Friendship Frolic' S. C. A. Mixer Held At SUB Sunday

With Margaret Lindeman as master-of-ceremonies, the Student Christian Association held a mixer for freshman students Sunday afternoon at 3:30. "Friendship Frolic" festivities took place in the lounge of the Student Union Building.

Bea Young, president of S. C. A. welcomed the new students and told of the organization's purpose and meaning. Lois Fassett directed the games and Carol Todd led the group in community singing. Committee chairmen for the affair were: Lorraine Hassen, invitations and Helen Thomas, refreshments.

Lambda Sigma Chi's rushing chairmen, Misses Dorcas Eggebo and Marie Eckstrom, arranged their split date tea at the home of Mrs. Blanche Murphy on North Stadium Way. Colonial decorations and bouquets of fall flowers carried out the theme.

One Great Benefit of Tacoma's Low Municipal Electric Rates:

BECAUSE you live in Tacoma, you are a shareholder in one of America's greatest electrical power systems — Tacoma City Light. As a result of this municipal ownership, you enjoy the benefits of the nation's lowest rates. You can use more labor-saving appliances . . . use them more often at a cost lower than anywhere else in the United States. The cost of operating an electrical range in Tacoma is as low as 75c a month — giving full cooking and baking privileges . . . and with clean heat! Why not take greater advantage of this opportunity to have "Freedom from Toil"? Plan now to use more electrical labor-saving appliances which will be available again . . . soon!

Low Rate ELECTRICITY Every Woman's Servant

If you use 250 kilowatt hours of electrical energy a month in your home the cost in Tacoma is only	The same amount of energy would cost you
