Annual Homecoming Set for November 8, 9

A football game, dance, song fest, parade, and coronation will highlight the college's largest annual Homecoming, November 8 and 9 for all college students and alums, Jerry Baker and Dick Eckert, co-chairmen of the affair, stated today.

DICK ECKERT

The festivities will start Friday afternoon when the muscle men of the college will display their beards and have them measured with a yard-stick to determine the winner of the beard-growing contest.

The Homecoming Play is scheduled for college students and alums Friday night, followed by the song fest in which each class attempts to out do the other with a new school song.

Queen To Be Crowned

Climaxing the evening, Queen of Homecoming will be crowned. Peggy Rough is chairman of the coronation.

Saturday morning the float parade is scheduled to start at one o'clock. Any organization is eligible to compete, with the winner receiving a grand prize.

Saturday afternoon the CPS football team will meet Whitman College of Walla Walla at Stadium Field.

Dance In Armory

Walt Gunstrom and his 13 piece orchestra will play for the Homecoming dance Saturday night at the Armory from 8:30 till 12:00. Feature attraction of the evening will be the prize waltz. Couples may compete if desired, with prizes going to the winning girl and her escort.

Queen Candidates

Candidates for Homecoming Queen are: Kappa Sigma Theta, Mary Agnes Gallagher; Delta Alpha Gamma, Marion Sandell; Alpha Beta Upsilon, Anita Stebbins; Lambda Sigma Chi, Betty Barkost; Independents, Louise Kipper. Girls are chosen for their beauty and personality. The boys on the campus will elect the queen.

Classes Complete

The song fest is the responsibility of each class. Committees are chosen to write a song to represent their class. Pantomimes and settings may be used to help present the songs. Chairman of the song fest is Irene Fearn.

The beard growing contest will begin October 25. Boys will register with a clean shaven face and may sign up with Joe Boyle, Alice Healy or Don Diamond.

Music Faculty To Give Concert

New faculty members of the Music Department will be featured in a concert on Wednesday evening, October 23 at 8:15 in Jones Hall. The proceeds of the concert, sponsored by the Women's College League, will be for the benefit of the men's dormitory, now under construction.

Miss Erla Mae Cramer, lyric soprano, has just finished two years of study at Columbia University and singing throughout the Middle West and New York City.

Prior to his appointment at CPS, Mr. Ivan Rasmussen, baritone, studied in Boston. Until that time, he served as captain in the Army.

Besides his full time teaching here at the College, Mr. Gordon Epperson plays first cello in both the Tacoma Philharmonic and

Indes Meeting Planned

The Independents will hold a meeting tomorrow noon in room 204, Jones Hall, to nominate a candidate for Homecoming Queen. Discussion and committee reports on the Sadie Hawkins Dance will occur.

All interested in playing intramural football with the Independents are urged to see either of the team captains, Harold Snow or Chuck Howe.

Constitution Revised for Student Vote

A completely revised ASCPS constitution is being presented to the student body for their approval, according to Phil Garland, ASCPS president.

Cutting down the constitution now in force from 24 pages to five pages, the length of the new one, requires the expression of the entire student body's views in ballot form, he explains.

He further states that some of the by-laws from the old constitution are incorporated in the new one, while some articles of the old document have been transferred to the by-laws of the new one.

The new constitution has already been approved by Central Board and if ratified by the students it will be submitted to the faculty and the board of trustees.

"The students will be asked to vote on it during a chapel next week and if they approve it we hope to have it in effect by Homecoming," says Phil.

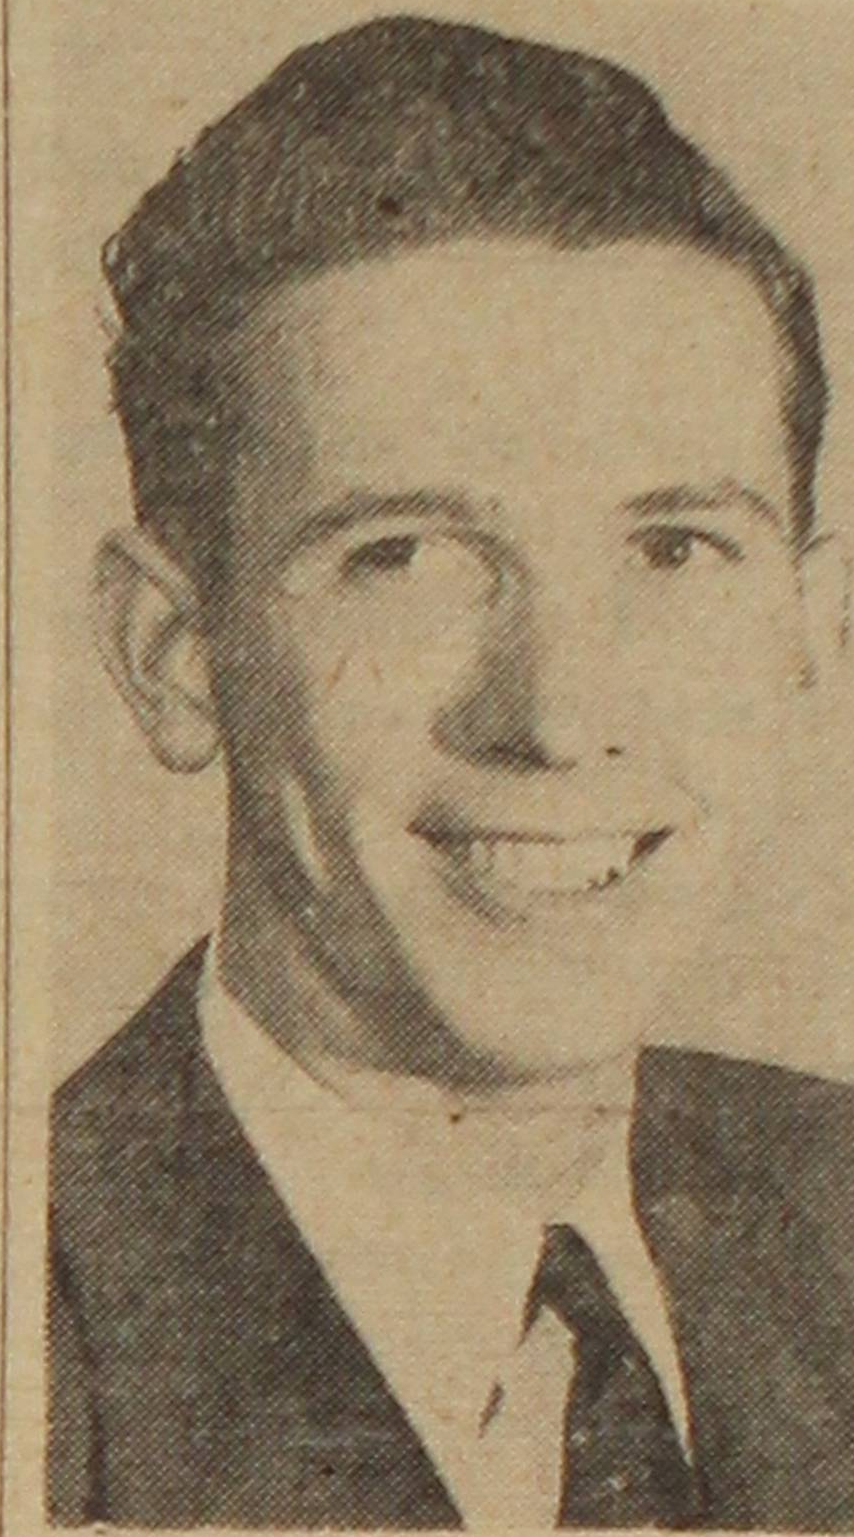

"Since we are now operating under a constitution which was drafted in May, 1933, I think it's time for a change," he continued.

The new constitution was written by Phil and Janice Lindeman, ASCPS secretary, this summer.

Speech, Conferences Highlight Stay in N.Y.

Troy Strong, CPS junior, left Tacoma by train last night to attend the United Nations conference in New York which begins next Monday.

Attending daily UN sessions, speaking over an NBC national radio hook-up and conferring with the American delegation to the conference will highlight his week's stay in New York.

TROY STRONG

Represents 33 Colleges

Troy and Lois McConkey Putnam, of the University of Oregon, were chosen to represent the students of 33 colleges in Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho and Montana at a convention of delegates from the colleges last spring.

During the convention, which was held at Reed College in Oregon, Troy was chairman of the committee appointed to draw up the resolutions of the Pacific Northwest College Congress and was the author of the preamble to the resolution.

Aim Is National Congress

Sponsored by the National League of Women Voters, the convention was held in an effort to organize a national congress of students. Resolutions made by the Pacific Northwest Congress concerning atomic energy and supranational government will be presented to the American delegates who will then introduce them to the UN General Assembly.

Each Student To Have Voice

"If a large group of students could meet in 10 or 12 different regions of the United States and each group could send a representative to a national conference, student opinion could be exceedingly influential at UN meetings," declares Troy. "Every college student will have an active voice in world affairs."

Troy, majoring in history, plans to enter a theological seminary after graduating from CPS with the class of '48. Originally from Lexington, Kentucky, he served for 19 months in the army air corps.

Preamble to Resolutions

His preamble to the resolutions adopted by last spring's conference reads in part: "We recognize that to achieve the ideals set forth in the United Nations Charter and to assure world peace, the inevitable and ultimate end in view must be a supra-national world government—a government which is aware of the need for economic and social justice based upon the first principle of the dignity of the individual."

SKI CLUB ORGANIZED

CPS's largest club, the Ski Club, is being organized and all past members and new members are urged to be at the meetings which are held Monday and Tuesday during chapel period. Plans are already under way for a skating party and for an all-school outing on Nov. 29 at Mount Rainier.

Student Train for Willamette Planned if 245 Fans Interested

A Logger locomotive pulling at least eight coaches occupied by CPS football fans will travel to Salem, Oregon, for the Willamette-CPS game on Saturday, October 26, according to Polly Packard, ASCPS vice-president, who explains that 245 students must purchase tickets to make the trip possible.

"This is one of those cases where 'if' is a mighty big word," adds Polly. "If 245 rooters buy round trip tickets for $9.09, we can charter a special train. Otherwise it will be impossible."

If more than 245 students buy tickets, extra coaches will be added to the train. In the event that the minimum quota is not reached, ticket money will be refunded to the purchasers.

Ticket Sale This Week

Tickets will be on sale this week at school and in down town Tacoma.

They must be secured before Thursday, October 24.

The Union and Southern Pacific Railroads will convey the caravan to Willamette. Starting at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, the team supporters will go through Portland at noon where box lunches will be available. After the game they will board the train at about 5:30 for the 6 hour trip home.

"Remember IF"

"Remember that 'if,' and buy your ticket right away," urges Polly. "This is Willamette's Homecoming game and we'll need lots of lungpower to compete with their rooting section."

Professor Jacobson To Present Recital

Sunday, October 20th at four p. m. is the date set for the piano concert by Leonard Jacobson, head of the piano department. Professor Jacobson, who has been solist for leading orchestras and has given numerous concerts throughout the Pacific Northwest, return last June from three years service in the army. ## Are You a Good CPS Citizen?

You will be asked to express by ballot your opinion of the constitution printed below.

Our constitution now in force contains many contradictions. The statement that the business manager of the Associated Students shall be the chairman of the finance committee may be found in five different places.

It was to eliminate such superfluous phrases that this new constitution was written.

A good college citizen should be as well acquainted with the constitution of his student body as a good American should be with the constitution of the United States.

Flagrant violations of our national constitution take place every day because so few people are aware of their rights and privileges.

If we as college students are not interested in our governing document, what kind of American citizens will we make?

We urge you, as good CPS citizens, to read this constitution so that you will be prepared to vote intelligently on this important issue.

CPS Boasts New Bursar

William Gerard Banks, former professor of mathematics and acting president of Centenary College in Shreveport, La., has come to CPS as bursar, succeeding Charles A. Robbins, who retired last year.

BURSAR BANKS

Mr. Banks, a native-born Texan, was valedictorian of his class in high school. While there he was editor of the school paper and a member of the debating club.

The new bursar came north from Louisiana this summer with his wife and two sons, William and Ernest. This is the first time he has been in the Pacific Northwest and he "likes it so far."

When not busy at school Mr. Banks finds time to indulge in his favorite hobbies—listening to good music, playing tennis and walking.

Sounding Off

By Bev Johnson

Last Saturday was a big day for students and fans of CPS. The team did a really fine job, and the band put on a good pre-game and half-time performance. They did their share for the successful afternoon, but did the students who had to rely only upon their vocal chords give their best support? There was lots of noise, but where was the enthusiasm and spirit for which CPS has been known in years gone by?

It is true that we came here primarily for knowledge, but why not get into the spirit of things? We have a team that can really go places, so let's prove that we are behind it by being an enthusiastic rooting section. Let's truly mean the words next time when we sing: "Spirit of the Westland, All Hail to Puget Sound—"

Loggers Seek 2nd Conference Win Saturday

CPS Eleven Treks to Oregon For Tilt with Linfield Squad

By Mal Stevens

With the Badger pelt safely tucked away, the Loggers invade Oregon country this Saturday night to knock heads with Linfield College of McMinnville.

CPS will be after their second conference win as will Linfield. The men from McMinnville have won one and lost one, and are now in a tie for third place in the conference standings.

The Wildcats took a terrific shellacking at the hands of Willamette last week, 31-6, but they whipped the strong College of Idaho team two weeks ago. So far this year, Linfield has been considered the dark horse of the conference and tabbed as the giant killer. "Bulldozer" Injured

The Loggers came out of the fray with Pacific in good physical condition. "Bulldozer" Wood, starting fullback, sustained a side injury that kept him out of practice the first day this week, but under the able hands of Pat Steele is expected to be in shape by game time Saturday night. Men injured in the Bellingham game two weeks ago were used sparingly in last Saturday's contest and are all ready for Linfield.

Coach Patrick revealed as a result of the Pacific game, in which every Logger in uniform saw action, the starting lineup for Saturday night is very indefinite.

The right halfback spot is wide open again. Tommy Ruffin and Carl Niemi took turns reeling off huge chunks of yardage from that position against Pacific. "Handsome Bob" Robbins, the roaring fullback from Olympia, will see plenty of action at the fullback position while Wood's injury heals. Vollmar Has Weak Ankle

Kenny Vollmar still hobbling around on a tender ankle will give way to Ed Bemis's signal calling. The light boys, Vanishing Vic, Scat Ortlund and "Hurlin' Harry" Mansfield are all likely starters at tailback.

No drastic changes in the forward wall are contemplated. Martineau and Towle are trading off at center. Jack Adams and Claude Knecht are strong contenders for the guard slots. At "Torpedo Junction," the tackle positions, Ralph Rowe and Dick Hermsen are the starters, flanked by Dick Robinson and Jack Hermsen at the ends.

Intramural Sports Return to Campus

By Leo Butigan

With the return of touch football to the campus, the intramural athletic program got off to a flying start this week.

Grid play will be divided into an "A" and "B" league with fraternities and independents entered in both loops, it was disclosed by Tom Cross, director of the program.

All "A" contests will start at 12:20 and "B" games will commence at 1:15. It was also revealed that rain will not necessarily mean postponement of scheduled games.

Gym Shorts

By Helen Caputo

For next week, the last week of hockey, if weather permits, girls will have the opportunity to play in the outdoor field. The outcome of this week's games will determine the winners. To date, the following team has the edge: Captain, Vermetta Harvie, Marie Beck, Barbara Precek, Dorothy Longergan, Pearl Moberg, Beverly Van Horn, Phyllis Blazer, Shirley Emmert, Ruth Ann Potter.

"The teamwork is very good," said Mrs. Johnson. Hearing Cappa's wee voice suddenly become a shrill "Here we go," and Peg Rough's—"bring it up here," gives everyone an excited feeling as the game commences.

Girls who did not turn out for hockey, and miss sporting fun will be happy to hear that on October 21, basketball turnouts will get underway.

Mrs. Johnson urges that more girls turn out for fall tennis to avoid the spring rush for the courts.

Loggers Trim Badgers 33-0

CPS Humbles Pacific to Tie Willamette University For Conference Lead

By Clay Huntington

Performing like the Maroon and White champions of the early 30's, the College of Puget Sound Loggers rode to a 33 to 0 victory over the Pacific University Badgers with a devastating second half offensive last Saturday in the Tacoma stadium.

After being held on even terms throughout the initial periods, the Lumberjacks tallied three times in quick succession in the third canto, then scored two more TD's in the final quarter to add insult to injury to the Pacific cause. With the win, CPS joined Willamette University at the top of the Pacific Northwest conference standing.

The first score of the game came on a sustained drive of 66 yards culminated with Tom Ruffin plunging over from the two-yard stripe. Two minutes later, Dick Robinson snagged a Pacific lateral and rambled 58 yards to TD territory.

Another intercepted pass by Claude Knecht paved the way for the third score. Warren Wood blasted over from two on fourth down. Ruffin converted after all three tallies and CPS lead at the close of the third quarter 21-0.

Harry Mansfield's 12-yard pass to Ed Bemis resulted in the first Logger score in the final stanza, while Jack Spencer's shoestring interception of a Badger aerial and a subsequent 40-yard sprint completed the scoring.

CPS made a total of 10 first downs against six for Pacific. The Loggers gained 206 yards from

LOG OF WEEK Stevens' Sportraits

By Mal Stevens

The idea of this column is to bestow our mythical "Log of the Week" upon the outstanding Logger athlete of the past seven days. Last week we departed from the usual procedure and awarded it to Hagerty, the thief of the North country, but this week we'll hang it on a CPS gridster. Each week it will go to an outstanding player unnoticed by the local press or sport-casters.

Anyone who witnessed the debacle of Pacific University last Saturday knows that stars were a dime a dozen. Robinson, Spencer, Mansfield, Ruffin and Wood all played brilliant ball. Our little old award, however, goes to an unheralded player of the contest—Butch Adams. His crushing and devastating downfield block paved the way for Ed Bemis's long run back of an intercepted pass that set the Loggers up for their fourth touchdown.

Butch, who is sometimes called Jack, is a 180-pound guard from Sumner. He is the proverbial pepper-pot on the practice field with his line of chatter and ever-ready wisecrack—"the latest Jim Dandy" as he puts it.
