"Winterset" Is Jr. Prom Theme

"Winterset," the Junior Prom theme, is designed to usher in the winter season with a bang, according to George Miller, co-chairman of the dance with Carolyn Cummings. The scene will be set in the Armory, Saturday, November 23, from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Breaking with past tradition, the senior class is playing host to the juniors this year. Any profits made will go to aid in the furnishing of the men's new dormitory.

The dance, which is semi-formal, will feature Walt Gunstrom's orchestra. Tickets are on sale all this week at the price of $1.50 per couple.

Other committee chairmen are Norm Willard, programs; Bob Minitti, orchestra; Mike Jayko, hall; Bill Causin, refreshments; and the entire senior class, clean-up.

Patrons and patronesses will be Dr. and Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Mrs. Lyle Ford Drushel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Coulter, Prof. and Mrs. Clyde H. Keutzer, and Dr. L. Stanton Shelmidine.

Vets Entitled to Guidance

Any veteran enrolled here under the GI Bill is entitled to ask for vocational guidance, H. E. Loomis of the campus VA office said this week.

This guidance is the same type that is required of those under Public Law 16, and consists of preference and aptitude tests and such other tests as are indicated.

Northwest Students Exchange Views on World Affairs

By James E. Johnson

Featuring a complete student interchange of ideas and views on world affairs, the Northwest International Club conference was held at Marylhurst College, near Portland, last Friday and Saturday. The CPS delegates who returned Saturday night expressed satisfaction that the conference achieved its purpose.

Students participated in a varied program in which views were exchanged in round table discussions and in two general meetings. At the first meeting Mrs. Malcolm Davis accepted proposals to present to the Carnegie Endowment. These proposals dealt with ways students could be better enlightened on world affairs through the work of the endowment.

CPS Students Participate
Representatives from CPS took part in all activities. Round tables were segregated into three sections. Troy Strong and Mrs. Ann Lowrie attended the political and social sections, while Jim Johnson and Rex Adkins attended the economic section. Dr. Warren E. Tomlinson and Dr. Marvin R. Schafer divided their time among the three groups.

Final reports from all sections were read at the second and general meeting. Following these reports the location and officers for next year's conference were voted upon. It was unanimously decided the University of British Colum-

Loggers to Meet PLC in Annual Tilt Nov. 30th

The sound of toe meeting pigskin will echo through the Tacoma Stadium this Saturday, as it has many Saturdays before during the current season, and crowds will assemble to watch another four quarters of thrilling gridiron tactics. For friends and students of the College of Puget Sound and Pacific Lutheran College, however, this game will have a particular significance. It will mark the renewal of the rivalry between the two schools. For the first time since 1943, these teams will meet to decide which is the stronger of the two.

The rivalry itself, according to records at hand, has existed in an official capacity since 1932, when the Loggers rode roughshod over the then small, inexperienced, upstart Gladiators, 20-0. Since then, the annual game has provided much interest for all the fans in and around Tacoma. Each year both teams look forward with anxiety to the date when they can clash on the field and exude some of the pent-up feeling that exists between two schools so evenly matched in sports.

As to games won during this rivalry, it seems that CPS holds the edge over the Parkland school. The Loggers have won nearly every game except those played during the Tommervik-Harshman reign at PLC. Saturday will renew this interesting rivalry, and it is hoped from this side of town that CPS can continue to win from our honorable opponents from Parkland.

bia would be the host school. As has been the custom, the host college will later choose and announce the presiding officer. Officers elected were: Florence Quigley of Marylhurst College and Sylvan Jeppesen from the University of Idaho. They will fill the positions of recording secretary and vice-president, respectively.

Friday night Troy Strong spoke on "A Student Visits United Nations." He briefly described his trip to UN, and explained what part a student congress might play in expressing student opinion.

"United Nations" Not United
Later in the evening, Dr. Frank Munk delivered his address on "The United Nations from Within." Stressing the point that United Nations did not at present mean nations united, Dr. Munk diagnosed some basic causes for major problems confronting UN, and emphasized the need of their better understanding by peoples the world over.

"Ski Day" Is Set For November 29

Scheduled for November 29 is the "Ski Day," sponsored jointly by the Ski Club and Alpine Club. This will be the first opportunity of the season for most CPS students to try their hands at the thrills and spills of skiing, according to Pat Mason and Lenore Secord, social co-chairmen of the Ski Club.

"For beginners there are some well-padded hills, so experience is no requirement," states Pat.

Included in the day's events will be the inter-sorority and inter-fraternity races, which will start at 11:30. The cups will not be at stake.

As there is no assurance, as yet, of the lodge being open, those attending should bring their own lunches. A bus for those who do not have other transportation will leave the SUB at 7 a. m. Reservations must be made by next Friday with fraternity, sorority or independent intra-mural managers. The bus fare will be three dollars.

Kirby Page Chapel Speaker

A speaker of international fame, Kirby Page, will be the guest in chapel on Tuesday, November 26, announces the chapel committee. Mr. Page is known the world over for his leadership of devotional life, stated Professor Arthur Frederick, adviser to the chapel committee. He also is an outstanding authority on international affairs.

Since 1921 Mr. Page has written many books among which are "Living Creatively" and "Living Triumphantly." He has also made many trips to Europe and Asia to study international and economic problems.

Senior Honorary Meets

Otlah, senior women's scholastic honorary, held its first social meeting of the semester Friday in the home of Mrs. Raymond Seward, adviser for the group.

Debaters Picked for Tournament

Fifteen students will represent CPS at the annual Western Association of Teachers of Speech forensic tournament at San Jose, California, next Monday through Wednesday. They will leave the college Friday noon.

Those making the trip include Harriet Fiske, Louise Kipper, Yvonne Battin, Pat Robinson, Lyle Lindelien, Walter Loewenstein, Robert McNary, Robert Tollefson, Lloyd Gaddis, Andy Garness and Ed Hungerford. Tentatively scheduled to go also are Clarence Gotchy, Leonard Docherty and Bruce Parker.

The last time CPS was represented at the WATS tourney was in 1942 when the Loggers returned with several awards, including first in one-man debate and second in women's senior division debate. The tournament was not held during the war.

The traveling squad, under the direction of Coach Charles Battin, who will accompany the group, will enter debate, impromptu, extemporaneous, after-dinner speaking and forum discussions.

The debate question is: "Resolved: That federal labor legislation should be revised to control strikes and industrial disputes." World problems will constitute the general topic for impromptu, extemp. and oratory.

DON'T MISS IT!

Hijinks Reign as Campus Becomes Winter Playground

By Leonard Docherty

Avalanches of snow from the roofs of college buildings streaming past classroom windows and the strains of "Let it Snow! Let it Snow! Let it Snow!" floating over the white campus added variety to CPS classes Monday.

Most people think that snow and frost first came to CPS Monday morning, when everyone awoke to find Mother Nature had painted the landscape white. In reality, snow and frost have been with us since September—in the persons of Harold Snow and Dale Frost.

Skis outside the SUB, snowmen, parkas, ski boots, snowballs, and snow-fights all made their appearance. Pranksters had their holiday as they stood on the top steps of Jones Hall, innocent faced, but with hard-packed snow balls in their hidden hands. Harold McLean took the honors when he dumped a full snow shovel on the head of an unsuspecting character.

Local students envied campus-housed students as they struggled with sliding buses (or no buses) and stalled cars. One owner of a snappy Ford convertible had to be shown that chains on the front wheels of his car really wouldn't give him any traction.

As we go to press, the weather man says rain. The unofficial word is that if there is rain, there will be school. If it snows, there will not be school. Let it snow!

Kerwan, Switzer Serve As Alpha Psi Chi Club Officers

Alpha Psi Chi, former CPS psychology club, has been revived with the help of faculty adviser Robert McFarland and is now an active club on the campus, with Jerry Kerwan as president and Marie Switzer as secretary-treasurer.

An invitation to join the club or to attend meetings of special interest is extended to every student interested, according to Marie. The club meets the first and third Tuesdays of every month. The next meeting will be December 3.

At last night's meeting Bob Rule reported on the general field covered by psychology while Doreen Lockstone explained the major classifications of abnormal psychology.

Topics which will be studied through the year include general child, abnormal and applied psychology and the treatment of abnormalities including hypnosis.

The purpose of the club is to study in the field of psychology and discuss any questions not clear to the group.

Outside speakers from Tacoma and Seattle will address the members at some of the meetings.

$3,000 Goal for WSSF-Chest Drive

● James D. Glasse, World Student Service Fund speaker who attended the International Student Service conference in England this summer as a WSSF delegate. A '46 graduate of Occidental College, Los Angeles, Calif., Glasse is appearing at CPS this week.

Three thousand dollars is the goal of this week's joint Community Chest and World Student Service Fund drive. The drive, co-sponsored by Knights of the Log and the Student Christian Association and headed by co-chairmen Ken Campbell and Bea Young will require two dollars from each student to meet the goal.

The drive got underway with a breakfast early Monday morning in the SUB. Envelopes for contributors were passed out in both Monday and Tuesday chapels. Booths for the return of these envelopes will be open at noon in lower Jones hall or the SUB for the remainder of the week.

Among other special events to "aid" students in giving to the fund is a shoe shine parlor in lower Jones hall set up by the Pep Club. The International Relations Club is sponsoring a table in the SUB where students may entertain an "invisible guest" by contributing the price of one lunch. Also, in the SUB during noon hour, the Knights are holding auctions.

Other general chairmen for the drive are: Harriet Warne, publicity, and the solicitation chairman is Helen Mahoney. Solicitors for the drive are: Harold Hitchcock and David Darrow, S. C. A.; Byron Richmond, Omicrons; Bryan Kepka, Zetas; Tim Cheathan, Chi Nu; Harriet Warne, Betas; Gretchen Ernest, Gamma; Jan Blake, Theta; and Marie Switzer and Alexander Mortellaro, Indes.

Support Your Convictions!

By Beatrice Young

Our Campus Chest Drive is one of the few times in the year that we have the opportunity as a body of faculty and students to apply in action our theories and convictions as community and world citizens.

We may be having a hard time living on $65 a month, a fixed wage, or a part time job, but we do have a place to stay and three meals a day.

Take the time to find out the needs of Community Chest and World Student Relief, how the money is administered, where it is going; and then invest accordingly in a more enlightened, happier, and less hungry world.

Coed Drowns in Pot Hole!

You will probably never see that headline in THE TRAIL but the reason will not be because the potholes in the road leading to the women's dormitory and the music building are not deep enough, but because most wise occupants of the dorm are learning to swim in Mrs. Johnson's P. E. classes.

Even a '46 Packard would bounce like a badly trained jeep going over that pitted blacktop.

Why don't we fix it before someone breaks a leg or an axle?

★ Seasoned Timber . . .

Inez Doherty Is Georgia Gal

Georgia's loss was our gain when Inez Doherty entered CPS in the spring of '45. Upon this slender, dark-haired senior rests the responsibility of chairman of the chapel committee. This is only a small part of her activities, as she is Kittredge Hall assistant and Dean Lyle Ford Drushel's office assistant.

Inez is tackling a double major, speech and literature, and has a minor in art. Last year, she was the holder of a Howarth scholarship and is this year doing independent study in literature. Adding to this list of honors, Inez won a short story contest last year and her prize story appeared in the journal of a professional women's sorority of which Inez is national president.

Alpha Beta Upsilon proudly claims Inez as its recording secretary, and "Teach" claims her as one of the choral readers.

When asked about food, Inez quickly voiced a distinct dislike for noodles in any form. As for likes, first on her list is sleep, then horseback riding and bowling. She is frantically looking for time for all three of these with special emphasis on the first. Among her pet peeves are unfriendly people and students who don't fill out Dean of Women cards at registration.

Being a typical senior, Inez grinned suspiciously and announced she was looking forward to three things: spring vacation (when she hopes to sleep), the senior sneak and graduation.

Language Students

To "Parlez" By Mail

"Ma Chere Yvette," or "Mon Cher Pierre!" Words like these will soon be familiar to members of Mrs. Ella Mae Clark's French I class as they start letters to students in France.

These students have signed up to send a minimum of one letter, and one package, containing candy or clothing, each month to needy students in France. In return, they will have practice in translating letters from their new French correspondents.

Kappa Phi To Give Tea

All Kappa Phi members and their mothers are invited to a tea given by Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson in honor of Mrs. Willis Curruith, newly installed sponsor of that organization, according to Anna Marie Vaughn, president.

The tea will be held in the Thompson residence at 620 No. J Street, from 2:30 to 6 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, November 23.

AROUND THE GLOBE . . .

The Party or The Nation?

By Peter Rex Adkins

We believe in giving a criminal his just due: if his crime has touched our pocket books we are more than eager to see that the one responsible feels the wrath of a court. So when we have reason to believe that we have been robbed as taxpayers, it is natural that there should be a clamoring for justice.

The zeal for cleaning up government can be overdone, however, and usually is for political purposes. Each time a new party comes into power the newspapers are filled month after month with accounts of the graft and corruption fostered by the last party to hold office. This period of "investigation for the good of the people" is upon us today. Look at your daily newspaper.

When political groups become too zealous in their crusades, I begin to wonder whether they are interested in convictions or that other thing—smear.

Before elections all politicians make promises, but from the minute they take office men seem to be so interested in vote-getting gestures (with the next election in mind) that they have no time to fulfill campaign vows.

The voter today is not so much concerned with the crimes of the regime behind, which at least had a part in the winning of the war, as he is worried about the future crime the government would commit if it were to neglect its duty to cooperate for world peace.

Mr. Republican, I shall give you credit if you show an interest in our future by trying in every possible way to make the United Nations a reality in action as well as name.

Off Beat

BY THE EM CEE

Instrumental ensembles are as much in demand now as vocal ensembles, it seems. It isn't just at 4:00 on Tuesdays and Thursdays that music floats down from Room 403 in the tower—it comes all the time. A flute sextet, a brass choir, and a pep band are among the several units being formed. The brass division is playing for SCA Friday and the pep band shared the spotlight with the Campus Trio at the All-State Banquet of the Monday Civic Club Monday night. We can't give you any names as regards to memberships of these organizations, for their personnel changes. Result: Everyone gets a turn at ensemble work and no one knows what's going to happen next.

How many shopping days until Christmas? That depends on when Christmas starts for you. For CPS, it begins before December 25, on the eighth, in fact. That's when "The Messiah" will be sung and it's only 18 days away.

Tickets must be procured from the music office or from a member of some participating unit, such as Epworth Methodist choir, the Puget Sound Symphony, or the Adelphian Choir. The tickets are free and will be honored until 4:15 the Sunday of the performance. After that time, any and all who didn't get a ticket will be admitted. This plan was deemed necessary in order to take care of the hundreds of people expected to attend.

"The Messiah" will be broadcast, incidentally, over KMO at 4:30 that day, just as it is sung in Jones Hall auditorium. There will even be a sponsor, and you have eighteen days to get used to that idea!

What goes up must come down, we learn, and the exception proves the rule. Well, it took Harmon Weston a long time to come up after going through the auditorium footlights several weeks ago, but now that he's up, everyone should know it. Harmon "opens" Saturday as soloist with Brad Bannon at the Hotel Winthrop. Drop downtown and hear him some night, if you can afford it.

Dorm Diary

Contrary to popular belief however, JANICE HITCHCOCK and MARY LOU COOPER have been right in there plugging for the Community Chest. Their enthusiasm was not appreciated by some when they found their beds full of red feathers.

All the conscientious Sunday afternoon studiers were roused in the midst of said studying to drag in the remains of MARJE SMOVIR, ANN CUTHBERT, JANICE HITCHCOCK, MARY LU ELLIOTT, BARBARA LATTA, BARBARA LINDAHL, BEV JOHNSON and PEGGY EGBERT who had been on the Mason Fireside houseparty—rough affair that houseparty.

Second floor has been tying up the bus schedule. It's unbelievable but true. MARY JO SAMUELSON held the bus 15 minutes for SALLY JO EVANS and then didn't have enough money to pay the poor man.

Hitchcock To Speak For SCA Chapel

Howard Hitchcock, freshman class president, will speak at the Student Christian Association chapel Friday. His speech will concern the Campus Chest drive. Another feature will be a brass quartet.

SCA meets every Friday during the chapel period in the Little chapel.

Something new has been added to the devotional life of the campus. A noon-day prayer group is meeting at 12:15 every day of the week. Anyone interested is urged to come and take part. Scripture is read, followed by a time of prayer. David the Psalmist said, "And at noon, will I pray . . . and He shall hear my voice."

Intercollege Bridge Tournament to Be Held This Winter

Here is good news for those who have become addicted to the game of contract bridge. For weeks CPS students have engaged in the game as a mere pastime, but now the occasion has arisen in which they may apply themselves and their bridge to something worthwhile.

Last week a letter came to the Trail office from H. Wilson Lloyd, secretary of the Intercollege Bridge Tournament Committee, who asks the students of CPS to join with other colleges throughout the nation in a bridge tournament.

The tournament has been separated into geographical zones throughout the country to maintain, in so far as possible, a relative equality as to the number of schools concerned.

Two teams will be selected from each zone on the basis of a round by mail. The winning teams will be invited to Chicago, all expenses paid by the committee, for a face-to-face play-off on April 18-19, 1947.

Here's a chance for bridge players, both men and women, to achieve some national fame for CPS. Why not drop in at the Trail office and get the rest of the information and rules?

Student Directors Lead CPS Band

If you noticed two new personages wielding the baton at the UBC game, you no doubt wondered whether or not our Mr. John O'Connor was being replaced. You may cease worrying immediately and be gratified to know that they are the two new student band directors delegated by Mr. O'Connor to take over leadership of the band at such times as he deems it necessary.

These two directors are not exactly new at this business of directing, as they have both had previous experience along these lines. Former student leader of the band at Lincoln High School, Jay Ball, and former student director of the high school band at Cashmere, Washington, Jack Kennedy are the two members of the band sharing this responsibility.

From time to time these student directors will assume leadership at the coming basketball games and concerts.

Disabled Vet May Benefit By P. Law 16

Because some veterans attending school under the GI Bill of Rights (Public Law 346) who have recently been awarded disability benefits may not be fully aware of the provisions of Public Law 16 (for disabled vets), The Trail herewith publishes a comparison of some phases of the two laws, as made by the campus VA advisement and guidance center.

Benefits under Public Law 16 are available to all vets who have a service-connected disability of 10 per cent (which is the minimum for which pensions are granted) or more, and who have a need for training or rehabilitation. Ordinarily that need can be established, according to H. E. Loomis of the VA office, for men who have no civilian skill or training or who went into the armed forces directly from high school or college, as well as for those whose disability makes their previous skill or training useless.

Under P.L. 16, training may be taken for up to 48 calendar months regardless of length of service, if the objective takes that long, Mr. Loomis states. A definite training objective, which must be medically feasible in regard to the man's disability, must be selected, however, before the student begins the course.

A minimum subsistence allowance of $105 a month including the pension, is paid to vets under P.L. 16, and an additional amount for dependents. However, for those with disability above 30 per cent and without dependents, the total cash benefits under either bill is approximately the same. All tuition, books and incidental expenses are paid, as they are under the GI bill. In addition, glasses, prosthetics and medical care are provided during the course of training.

Betas Will Dance In "Silver Symphony"

"Silver Symphony" is the theme of the Alpha Beta Upsilon pledge dance which will be held at Lakewood Terrace from 9 to 12 o'clock this Friday evening, according to Pat McCarty, general chairman.

Walt Gunstrom's orchestra will furnish the music for the dance, which will be semiformal.

ART DIRECTOR

Professor Melvin Kohler

Former CPS Art Director Returns From South Pacific

After serving as a casualty officer in the south Pacific, including Guadalcanal and the Philippines, Professor Melvin Kohler, director of the art department, is back at CPS this year. He left in 1940 for a year of advanced study at Columbia University and was called into the army in 1941.

It was in the Philippines that he received injuries that won for him the Purple Heart and a two years convalescence in a hospital. He was mustered out of the service in late September, but is still on terminal leave; he receives his final discharge in November.

Professor Kohler has plans for various art exhibits to be shown throughout the year. Watch the Trail for the type and time of these exhibits.

Geology Enrollment Tops Expectations

"The demand for courses in geology this semester, has far exceeded our highest expectations," states Professor Frederick McMillin. "The Geology I class alone has over one hundred pupils enrolled. As a result, we are short of equipment, books, and instructors."

Professor McMillin, who has been in the science department of CPS for twenty-two years, is the only professor teaching geology. He not only does all the lecturing, but also supervises inexperienced instructors in twelve hours of laboratory work each week. It is reported that the college is looking for another qualified geologist, but has been unable to compete with the high salaries offered in industry.

Two Are Added To Editorial Staff of College Annual

Wade Garland, sophomore, is the newly appointed assistant editor of the annual, while Irene Fearn, senior, is to be art editor, according to "Tamanawas" Editor Elizabeth Anderberg.

Plans for this year's annual include an enlarged student section for which snapshots of college students' are now being accepted.

Printer of The Tamanawas is Johnson-Cox Company; photography is being handled by Turner Richards' Studio.

Other members of the editorial staff include: Kerttu Kahn, Phil Garland, Bob Winskill, Gretchen Ernst, Robert Salmon, Lois Vick, Ed Hungerford, Bob McNary, Lyle Lindelien, Art Hansen, Lois Lynch, Lucile Randall and Harriet Fiske.

Anyone who has worked on an annual or is interested in working on The Tamanawas should consult Elizabeth Anderberg immediately.

Merle Stevens Tells Sorority of Betrothal

In a flurry of excitement on November 6, Lambda Sigma Chi members learned of a new engagement in their group. Merle Stevens announced her engagement to Mr. Paul Page of Sacramento, California.

Merle, a junior, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy F. Stevens of Rainier, Washington. She is active in the band as well as in her sorority.

Paul, son of Mrs. E. Duerney, of Sacramento, expects to be discharged from the army in December.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Clarabel Stevens to Wed Nov. 28

Thanksgiving evening, November 28, is the date chosen for the wedding of Miss Clarabel Stevens to Bruce McCullough. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Stevens and he is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Renwick McCullough. Both families are from Tacoma. The ceremony will take place at the First Presbyterian church in Tacoma at 8:30 p. m., and will be performed by Dr. McCullough.

After a four-day honeymoon, the couple will make their temporary home in Spokane.

Clarabel has been Dean Regester's secretary since September, 1945. After the first of the year she will be working part time in the office of the dean at Whitworth College. She attended the College of Puget Sound and was a member of the Adelpian choir.

Bruce will graduate from Whitworth College on December 13 of this year, and is planning to continue toward his master's degree.

He was discharged from the navy in May of this year after serving over three years, two years of which were spent overseas in the South Pacific and China. He was a lieutenant (jg) and skipper of an LST. Both Bruce and Clarabel were graduated from Stadium high school in 1940.

The Dean's new secretary will be Miss Josephine Boulton. She will begin work on November 25.

Organizations Take New Pledges

Miss Christine Clemensen, a freshman from Olympia, recently pledged Delta Alpha Gamma sorority.

CPS to Battle Lute Gridders For City Title

By Mal Stevens

Saturday, November 30, is the last game of the season for the Loggers, and the one that is going to determine whether it has been a fair football season or a dismal failure. The game is against the Parkland Pilgrims, the Pacific Lutheran Gladiators (or Gladiolas). Kickoff time is set for 2 p. m.

The Lutes went high wide and handsome the early part of this season, going through their Winco league rivals without a loss until they ran headon into the Carmody brothers from Central Washington and the Western Washington Vikings—aided by a gent named Hagerly. Now the PLC win and loss record is almost identical with that of the Loggers. The betting is even, and it should be a terrific game.

Frankie Spear, the PLC wonder boy, was injured last Saturday, but is expected to be in top shape for the struggle. PLC has a tough game this Saturday with Linfield. The Loggers were fortunate in getting a tie with the Wildcats, but the outcome of the Linfield-PLC game shouldn't be used as a barometer for the November 30 game, as all record books go out the window when the cross-town teams get together.

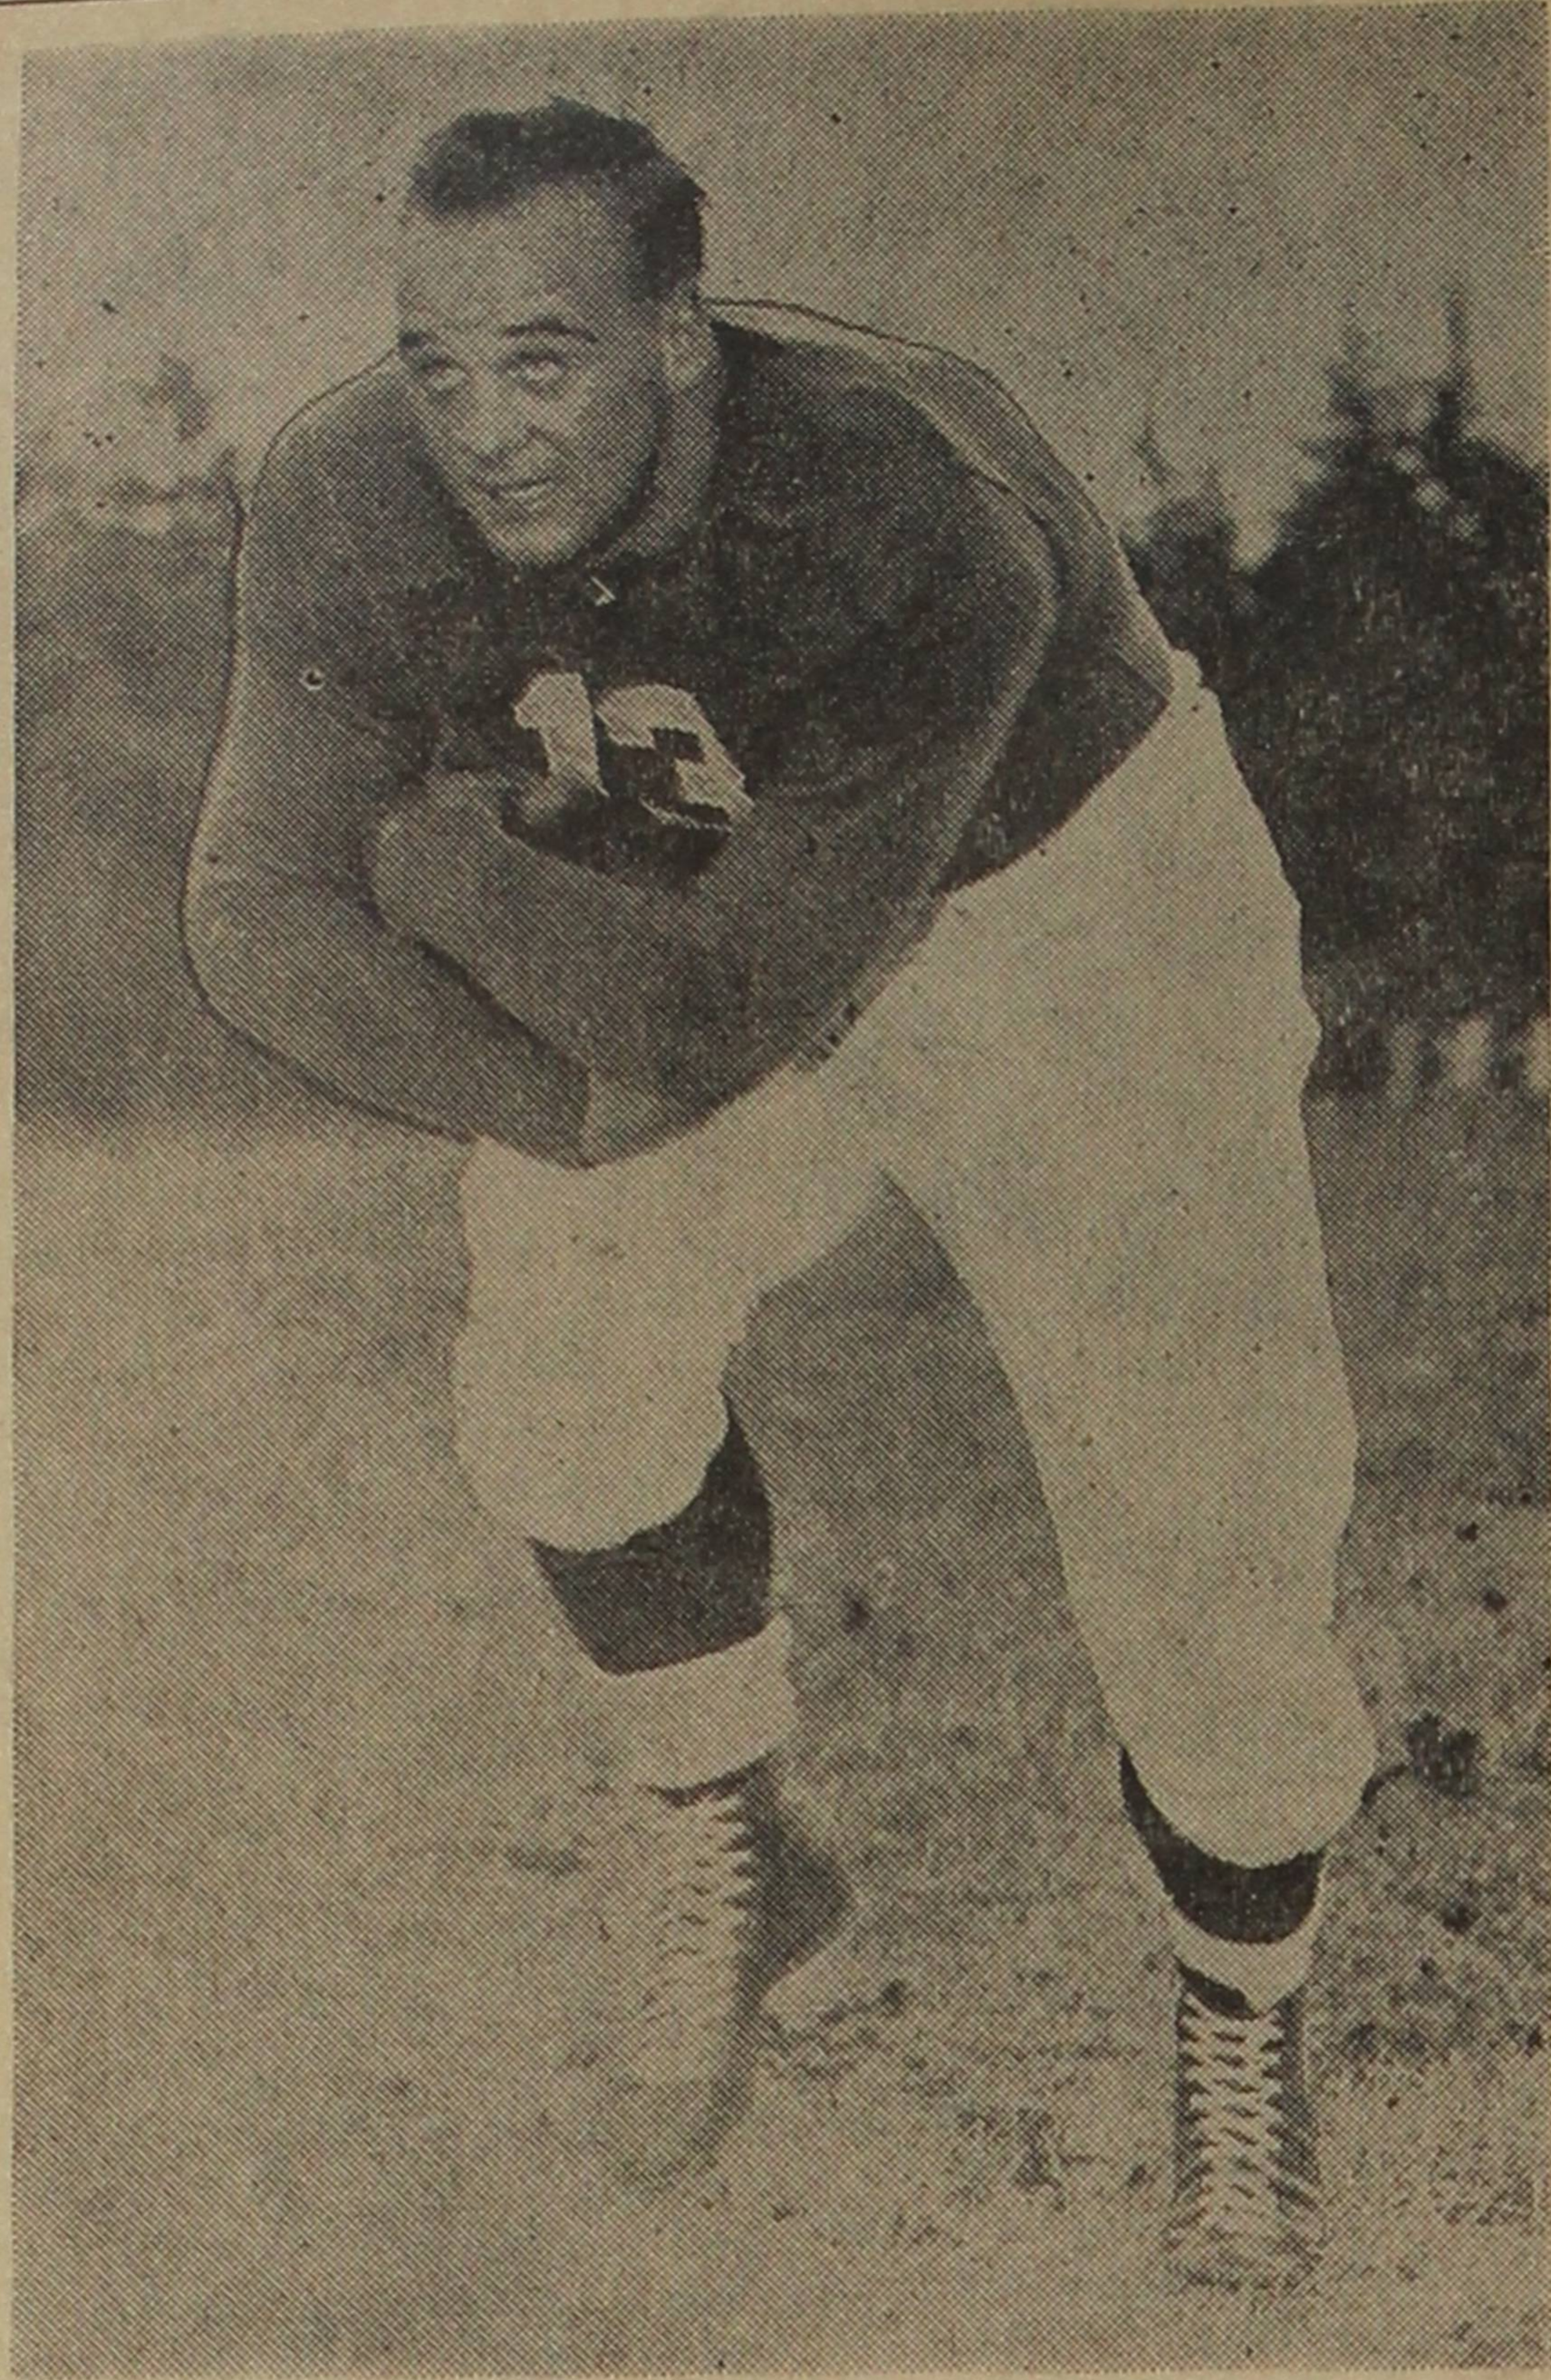

Every sport fan in Tacoma fails to realize it, but the last time the two teams met in 1942, CPS won. If talk from the Logger scrimmage sessions is any indication, the North End boys are out to do it again in '46.

The Loggers have a Saturday off this week and will be in top shape for the Lutes. Bus Mitchell has been lost for the season with two broken vertebrae in his back, but his place was ably filled by Freddie Pyfer in the Coyote game last Saturday and should get the starting call against the Glads. "One Play" Hermesen, another right end, has been out for two weeks with an injured shoulder, but is slated to do some pass-snatching in the final game.

Indies Defeat Zetes 6 to 2

Playing heads-up ball all the way, the Independents tripped the Zetes, 6-2, to capture the Intramural football A and B league playoff crown last Thursday.

The Zetes started the scoring early in the first half, blocking a punt to register a safety for a 2-0 lead.

The Indies came roaring back to mark up the lone touchdown of the contest midway in the last half on a pass from Bob O'Connell to Mick DuBois to clinch the victory.

Coyotes Trip Loggers 13 to 7

Defeat Drops Locals To 3rd Place in NW Conference Chase

By Clay Huntington

The College of Puget Sound was a one quarter ball club last Saturday in Caldwell, Idaho, but that one period came too late and the Loggers did too little. The result was a 13-7 win for the College of Idaho in the final Pacific Northwest conference game for both elevens.

The Coyote victory boosted the Idahoans into second place in the league standings and dropped the Lumberjacks to third.

College of Idaho tallied early in the second frame when Tom Windbigler galloped 49 yards to the CPS 9. A few plays later, the hard-running Coyote halfback plunged over from five yards out. Roy Dunn added the conversion.

A recovery of a Logger fumble on the Puget Sound 28, paved the way for the winner's final TD. Windbigler bulled his way 24 yards on three line bucks, then Tom Oxman tossed to Glen Stewart for the score. The attempted placement was wide.

CPS counted midway in the fourth period when Warren Wood slashed through the Idaho line and lateraled to Roy Loper who scampered the rest of the way on a play that was good for 30 yards. Wood converted.

The Loggers threatened in the third stanza, but a fourth down pass fell incomplete on the Coyote 5-yard line. College of Idaho had the bulge in the statistics by gaining 238 net yards rushing to CPS's 198. In other departments, the Coyotes held a 11-10 edge in first downs and a 36-23 advantage in passing gains.

Bob Robbins and Wood were the offensive standouts for the Loggers, while the latter, along with LaVerne Martineau showed to advantage on defense.

If somebody doesn't nominate Warren Wood, Laverne Martineau and Ralph Rowe for All-Conference honors, something is haywire . . . it was Homecoming at Idaho and all the Coyote linemen wore beards . . . ask "Roughhouse" Hermesen—he grabbed a handfull every chance he got . . . "Hubby" Rowe played another 60 minutes last Saturday . . . The loss puts the Loggers in third place for the season . . . PLC ended up in the same place in their league . . . The game, Loggers vs. Gladiators, on November 30 should be the tussle of the season . . . It was a rough game in Caldwell—they packed seven C. of I. gridders off the field horizontally during the game . . . Harry Mansfield was crowned bridge champ of the trip . . . Pat Steele ran off with the booby prize in pinochle . . . The season is far from a failure if the Loggers can run roughshod over PLC.
