CPS Debaters Take 6 First Place Trophies

Making her third first-place cup in oratory, Yvonne Marie Battin won one of the six out of eleven first-place trophies taken by CPS participants at the end of the two-day Tyro tournament held here last Friday and Saturday. Yvonne's other two oratory awards were earned at the San Jose and Linfield tournaments held this year.

Open to all students of one or two years' experience in collegiate debating, this tourney has been sponsored by CPS for 12 years for the colleges and universities of Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Fourteen schools entered this year.

Kipper, Fiske Take Firsts

Those placing were Robert Sayer and Charles Mills of Willamette, first place in men's Oxford university debate; Arthur Gravatt and Robert Tollefson of CPS tied for second in the same, with Lewis Gerhardt and Robert Miller of Pacific University; Louise Kipper and Harriet Fiske of CPS first in women's Oxford university debate, with two Washington State teams tied for second; Mary Jo Samuelson of CPS, first in Lincoln-Douglas, one-person debate.

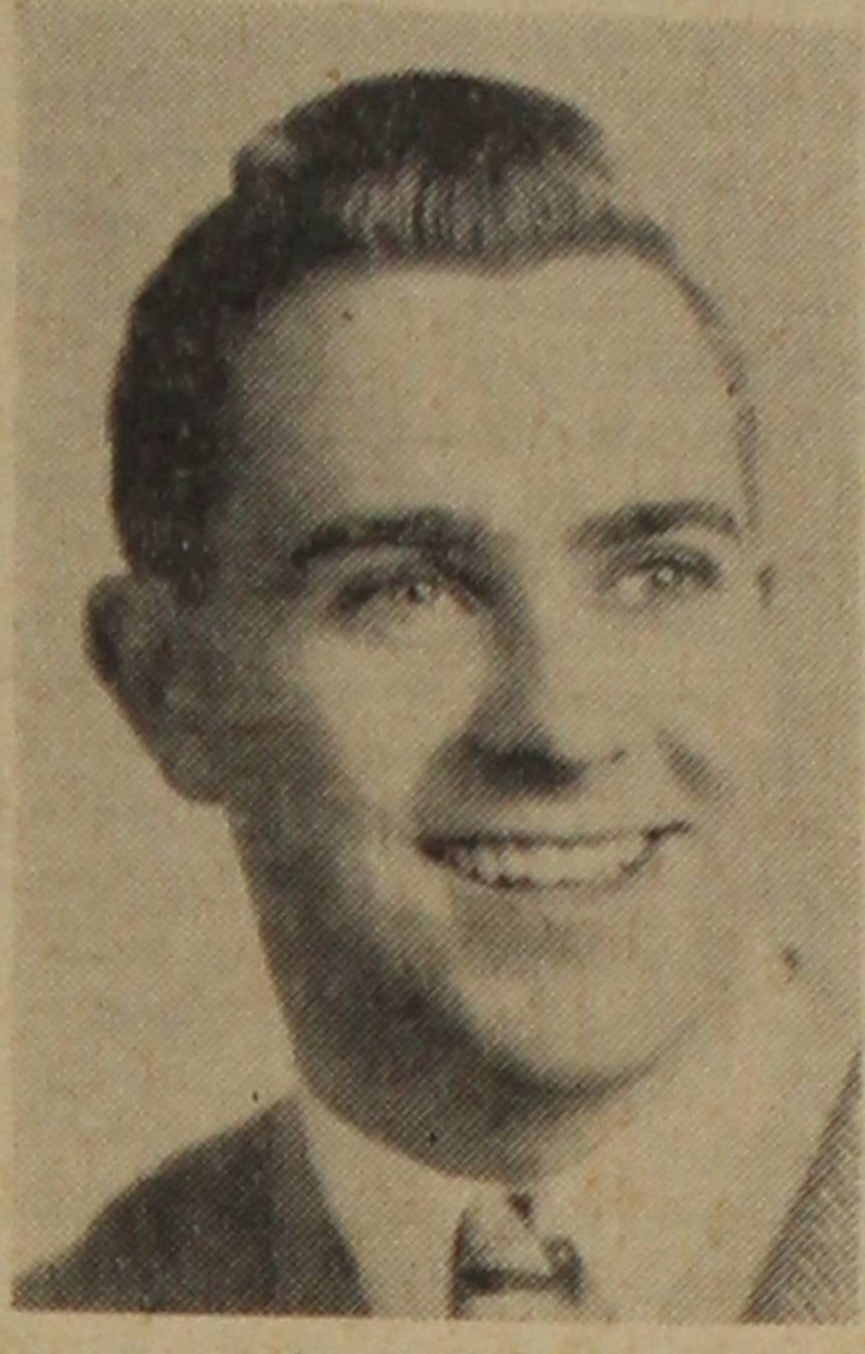

In individual events Ben Padrow of Lewis and Clark took first in men's extemporaneous speaking; Louise Kipper of CPS, first in women's extemporaneous speaking; Elvin Asher of Oregon State and Robert Sayer of Willamette, tied for first in men's impromptu speaking; Corine Engdahl of Willamette, first in women's impromptu.

Gravatt Ties for First

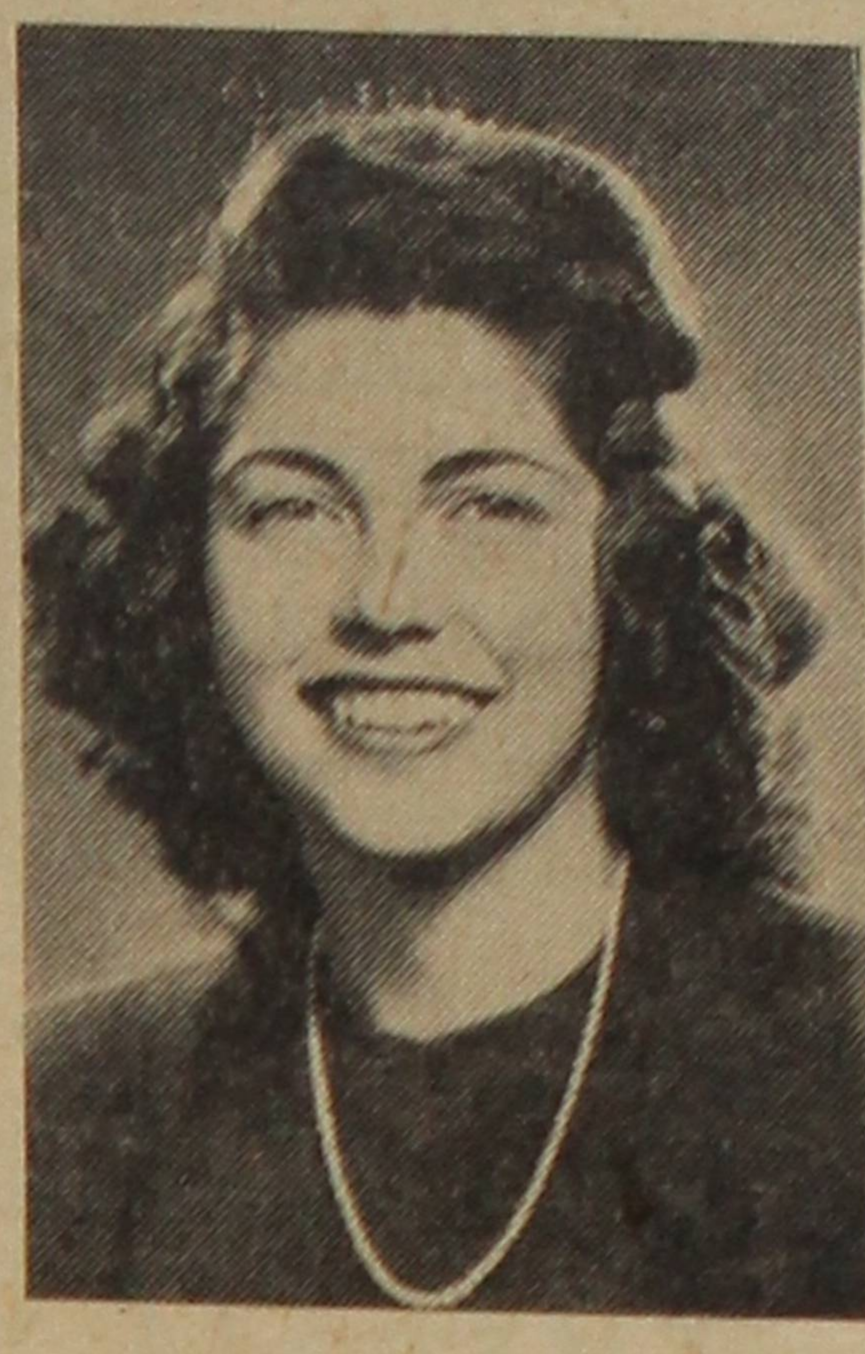

There was a tie for first place in after-dinner speaking between Arthur Gravatt of CPS and Phyllis Holman of Linfield college.

Forum discussion winners were Walt Loewenstein of CPS and Ben Padrow of Lewis and Clark college, who also tied for first.

Jerry Baker

Patricia Mason

Baker Voted New Student Body Prexy

Jerry Baker, presently junior representative to Central Board, was elected to the office of ASCPS president in the student body elections last Thursday and Friday. Other new officers are vice president, Patricia Mason; secretary, Mary Agnes Gallagher; senior representative, Alvin Danielson; junior representative, Beverly Johnson, and sophomore representative, Yvonne Battin; yell king, Les Erickson; May queen, Carolyn Cummings.

Polly Packard, retiring president, will officiate at the installation of the new student body president in April.

Baker Is Chem Major

Jerry is the vice president of his fraternity, Delta Kappa Phi, and a member of the Inter-Fraternity Council. He was co-chairman of the 1946 Homecoming and is a chemistry major. Following his graduation from Stadium high school in 1943, he served in the army air force.

The new vice president, Patricia Mason, a junior, is the business manager of the Tamanawas, the CPS annual, as well as treasurer of her sorority, Delta Alpha Gamma. She served two years in the WAVES after graduating from Stadium in 1942.

"Mag" President of Council

Mary Agnes Gallagher, secretary, is former president of Inter-Sorority Council and is the president of the Adelpian concert choir. She is also secretary of the Women's Athletic Association and is a member of Kappa Sigma Theta sorority. "Mag" is also a graduate of Stadium.

The senior representative post will be filled by Alvin Danielson, a member of Sigma Zeta Epsilon. Beverly Johnson, president of the Spurs this year, will represent the junior class, while Yvonne Battin, Alpha Beta Upsilon sorority member, was elected to the office of sophomore representative to Central Board.

Erickson To Be Mainspring

Les "Kellog" Erickson will be the mainspring in the pep machine next fall as yell king. Gretchen Swayze and Ray Frederickson will assist Les as yell duke and duchess.

Carolyn Cummings, Kappa Sigma Theta, the 1947 May queen, will have Donna Mae Kiste of Delta Alpha Gamma and Inez Doherty, Alpha Beta Upsilon, as her attendants.

Less than 700 students voted in the finals, as compared with the 1495 enrolled here.

Inter-Fraternity Council

The Inter-Fraternity Council will meet Friday, March 21, in Room 208 during chapel period, according to Don Burnett, president.

No Extra Year Book Charge Says Manager

That there will be no additional charge for the year book, the Tamanawas, as was previously intended, was announced by Pat Mason, Tamanawas business manager.

On a recommendation of the finance committee, Central Board members voted last week to add $750 from the surplus student fees to the present annual budget, thus eliminating the need for students to pay extra money for their year book besides their student body fee.

The increased allotment was made in recognition of the rising costs of materials and production.

"However," says Pat, "it is going to be necessary (and is really only logical) that those students who have been here only one of the semester of this year, either fall or spring, be asked to pay extra for their copy of the annual. This is because we receive only one-half the amount from their student body fees that we do from the full year student."

DEADLINE

The snapshot deadline for the Tamanawas is tomorrow, according to Bob McNary, snapshot editor. All entries may be turned in to the box in the bookstore.

Four College Crooners Will Sing in Contest Finals Tuesday

Tuesday, March 25, will be a red-letter-day for four CPS songbirds, for on that day two men and two women will compete in the finals of the Prince and Princess of Melody contest.

AAUW Awards Scholarship of $100 to Janice Lindeman

The American Association of University Women awarded their annual scholarship to Janice Lindeman this week. The award of one hundred dollars is given to a senior woman most nearly fulfilling the requirements of high scholarship, wholesomeness of influence, promise of unselfishness and partial or complete financial self-dependence. She is chosen by faculty vote.

Frats to Give Spring Dance

Don Burnett, president of Inter-Fraternity Council, informed the Trail today that the Inter-Fraternity dance would be a real spring affair this year with members of each fraternity wearing different colored carnations in their buttonholes.

The Independents are to be invited to attend the affair this year because the fraternities realize every man on the campus cannot belong to a fraternity. The Independents will wear white carnations.

The dance will be April 12, at the Fellowship hall, with the music of Walt Gundstrom's orchestra. The tickets will be on sale in the SUB and through the members of the five fraternities on the campus, for $1.50 per couple.

Bob Seabloom and Clarence Schorer are co-chairmen of the annual dance.

VA Makes Ruling

It has been held that pay received by the veteran "school teacher" while pursuing a course of training during the summer quarter under Public Law 346, and whose salary has been pro-rated over a twelve-month period will not be reported as compensation from productive labor, the VA has announced.

Tamanawas Picture Schedule

The schedule for Tamanawas pictures has been announced this week by Wade Garland, assistant editor.

All pictures mentioned below will be taken in the SUB lounge unless otherwise specified and all groups who have not done so must pay their fee at the time the picture is taken. If a group does not wish to have its picture appear in the annual it is asked to notify the staff.

Epperson Will Give Concerto

Gordon Epperson, cellist and member of the music faculty of the College of Puget Sound, has been invited to give the first western hearing of George F. McKay's cello concerto with the Spokane Philharmonic Orchestra under the direction of Harold Whelan, in Spokane, March 24.

This concerto had its world premiere in 1946 at the Festival of American Composers held at the Eastman School of Music at Rochester, N. Y., under the baton of Howard Hanson. George McKay, well known in the Northwest, is on the music faculty of the University of Washington, where he teaches composition.

Epperson, who has played in orchestras conducted by Toscanini, Sir Thomas Beecham, Serge Koussevitzky, Eugene Goossens, Fabien Sevitzky, and Izler Solomon, has appeared as soloist with the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. He has served as first cellist of the Columbus Philharmonic, and of the Berkshire Music Center Orchestra, Kill the Easter Bunny!

Already the shops are full of Easter bunnies for the kiddies and expensive clothes for their elders.

All too often, as everyone will admit, we celebrate Easter in exactly the same way as our younger brothers and sisters—they get candy eggs and rabbits; we blossom forth in church (for perhaps our only visit of the year) in the best new clothing we can possibly afford.

Let us consider the origin and meaning of Easter. It is represented by new things—true enough. It represents a new life in the promise of the Saviour. If we do not believe in this promise, then Easter is without meaning.

Let us, therefore, either commemorate Easter in its true significance or pick some other Sunday to sport our fine raiment when there won't be so much competition in the style show. Let's get rid of the Easter bunny!

Hamilton Holds Many Jobs; Keeps Cash for Organizations

By VIRGINIA BARKER

When it comes to doing a job and doing it well, Carol Hamilton has the right qualifications. Since this petite, blue-eyed brunette entered CPS in the spring of '43 she has held one responsible office after another.

As an active member of Delta Alpha Gamma, Carol has served as both secretary and treasurer and is now her sorority's representative to Inter-Sorority Council. Last year Women's Federation claimed her as its president and Kappa Phi chose her to act as its secretary. Active in athletics, Carol earned her sweater during her first two years on the campus, served as treasurer of WAA last year, and is at present general sports manager and a member of Central Board. This fall Carol was named to appear in this year's publication of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

If Carol isn't occupied on the campus, she is busy with practice teaching. A history major, this semester Carol is teaching eighth grade history classes at Mason junior high school. However, her work with children isn't restricted to a five-day basis, for on Saturdays she can be found at the Tacoma Day Nursery.

When this senior does find time for diversion, it's often along athletic lines, skiing and badminton being her major interests. Not being a bridge enthusiast, Carol finds listening to her favorite records a satisfactory substitute.

After graduation this May, Carol plans to expand her teaching skill to a full-time scale.

Cheap Love

To the Student Body:

I'm a VET. I'm going to CPS on the well known Bill. But I was here before—in '40, '41, '42 and a part of '43. I was here when each year about this time, Spring Fever interfered with the classics, physics, and biology lab.; but it didn't seem to warp the students' sense of values. I'm not speaking of the hand holding between a fellow and his girl—I'm speaking directly of the unwholesome and bold necking done in parked cars each day. It makes me sick!

I wasn't on a battlefield. I served in the States. I fought anxiety, worry, and heartbreak. I was one to open starred telegrams. I was one to tell wives, mothers, daughters and sweethearts that their men were dead. I lived for four and a half years in fear that I, too, might be the recipient of such a message. I was lucky, but I helped earn my luck. There are thousands who weren't so fortunate. There are many at CPS among the latter. WHAT RIGHT HAVE YOU TO CHEAPEN LOVE?

MRS. R. O. HARDY.

I'm going to be a sugar farmer when I grow up.
Why?
I'm good at raising cane.

Worthen Says . . .

Surveyors Are Not Surveying Women's Dorm

Those fellows walking back and forth by the girls' dorm and looking through strange instruments are not "peeping Toms," but members of a surveying class under the direction of Frederick R. Worthen.

Mr. Worthen, a native Californian, received a great part of his education in Tacoma and then returned south to Stanford where he graduated in 1942, receiving his A.B. in civil engineering.

During his two and a half years of service he was a meteorology officer in the Pacific theater, including the Marianas, Iwo Jima, Okinawa and Japan, having good times at Hilo, Hawaii, for short periods.

After working for a consulting engineer in Palo Alto, California, until December, 1946, he is now a consulting engineer in Tacoma as chief engineer of Worthen and Company.

Mr. Worthen came to CPS this spring semester and is teaching mathematics 56, commonly known as surveying, to a group of 32, whom he calls "a good bunch of fellows."

"Although we have to borrow most of our equipment from the city of Tacoma, we manage to get along." He quickly added, however, "Surveying over by the women's dorm is distracting. The men in the class spend too much time looking through the telescopes on the instruments at the women inside when they should be attending to their surveying."

He is married to Janet Robbins, whom many will know as a Theta alum from CPS.

When Mr. Worthen is not teaching, he finds time for tennis and racing outboards—his favorite hobby.

Shall We Bring the Duck to Turkey As Russia Gets Gravy?

It now seems quite certain that our Congress will appropriate loans of $250 million dollars to Greece and $150 million to Turkey. There is no doubt that both these countries need aid and that they need it immediately. However, who should be supplying this relief?

Should Russia be allowed to move in with their men, money and ideas? "No," we exclaim, "Russia has too much to say in the Balkans already!"

Then, should the U.S. give this same unilateral aid? I say "No." Our stated foreign policy is characterized as being "firm but friendly." If we extend the Monroe Doctrine into the Mediterranean, there are nations, large and small, who will not be able to see the friendly side of our face.

There is another thought. We all admired the Greeks who so valiantly withstood the hated Germans and Italians. If we give aid to Greece, with the purpose of opposing Communism, we shall have to back the government of King George. That will mean the repression of the same peoples within Greece who fought beside us and before us against the Axis. How quickly one's friends change! This is a fast age—too fast, for me.

We, as citizens of the U.S., are leaders of the world, whether we like it or not. If we are seeking peace, the peoples we lead must be united. Let us be leaders inside of the United Nations structure instead of the foes of Russia in a divided field of battle—Europe.

Home Ec. Students Invite Three "Victims" to Luncheon

By HARRIETT WARNE

"Who will be my next victims?" is the question being asked by girls of the foods class as they start preparing for their luncheons to be given within the next few weeks.

Each girl is planning a luncheon, to which she will invite three guests. The preparations include marketing, cost of the food, time spent in preparation, and table service. This experience will enable the girls to learn the proper procedure in meal planning. Later work will be in preparing dinners.

An indication of the growth of the home economics department is the fact that the hyphenated clothing course has been discontinued. There will be a beginning clothing class each semester instead of only one beginning in the fall.

"You get out of a garment what you put into it," says Miss Dixie Bullard, head of the clothing and costume design classes. This is the practice being followed in the work of the two classes. The costume design class has been at work on the study of historic costumes. In addition, they are designing clothing in relation to the short, medium and tall girls. They will take up the designing of apparel for their classmates, teachers and themselves. One of the students, a boy, is studying costume design in relation to hair styling.

CPS Artists Will Exhibit Drawings At Fisher's Store

An exhibit of CPS student art work in a window of Fisher's Department store during the last week of April, was promised by Joseph Parker, advertising manager for Fisher's, according to Dale Frost, chairman of the newly formed CPS Art Club.

In order to determine which work will appear in the Fisher window an exhibit will be held at the college from which the winners will be picked. The store will award prizes to the best compositions shown there.

"We urge everyone to come up and see what it's all about every Monday night from 7 to 10 p. m.," says Dale.

There once was a fellow unique,
Who imagined himself quite a shique.
But the gals didn't fall
For his line at all
'Cause he only made twenty a wique.

Girls, here is a fashion note of interest. The new skirt length for 1947 is eight inches from the floor with three-inch heels. The style is a pencil skirt with a slight slit in the front.

Chi Nus Get Hep with Band

The Chi Nus announce the formation of their new seven-piece dance band, under the "swingavision" of Richard Henderson, talented sax and clarinet man about the campus. Dick, currently playing with Brad Bannon and also the Campus Workshop band, was formerly with Bob Healy's orchestra while at Stadium High.

Rapping the skins for the new fraternity band will be William Garrison, formerly with Jan Savitt's popular name band. Also featured at the drums and handling the novelty vocal numbers is Richard Jacobson, another former member of Healy's band.

Maestros of the ivories are to be James "Keys" Cadigan and Robert Rule. Gabriel's Ralph (Tubby) Rowe and Paul Middlebrook will share the trumpet honors while Gordon Hill will "deface the bass."

Gerry "Frankie" Michalson is the band's handsome vocal virtuoso. In addition, the Chi Nus give to you (or anyone interested) the Chi Nu "Plenty of Water and Plenty of Oil" quartette, Richard Perkins, David Granlund, James Wornstaff and Art Nelson.

A jam session is being planned for an evening at the fraternity house, which is "presently" located at 1402 North Oakes.

Down at the University of Texas, a student in one beginning reporting class struggled with a wedding story. He didn't know much about it. And when the story was returned to him with a grade of "F-minus," the student decided it was time for a conference with the instructor.

"Mr. French," he started, "this is terrible. I have never made an 'F-minus' like this before. I'm ashamed of myself. Isn't there something I can do to bring it up to an 'F'?"

Sounding Off

By WILMA REED

" . . . for reading or reference?"

We've all heard a lot about the plans for new college buildings and the majority of students are anticipating the long-promised new library. Fine asset that a new library will be, we are really in need of a new attitude among library users.

Theoretically a room for a collection of books and pamphlets for reading and reference, our library frequently degenerates into a handy spot to meet your friends and while away an hour or so in social conversation. Whether this affects the work of the conversationalist or not, it plays havoc with the schedules and assignments of the would-be studiers. The noise has been known to be so completely distracting that conscientious students have been forced to leave.

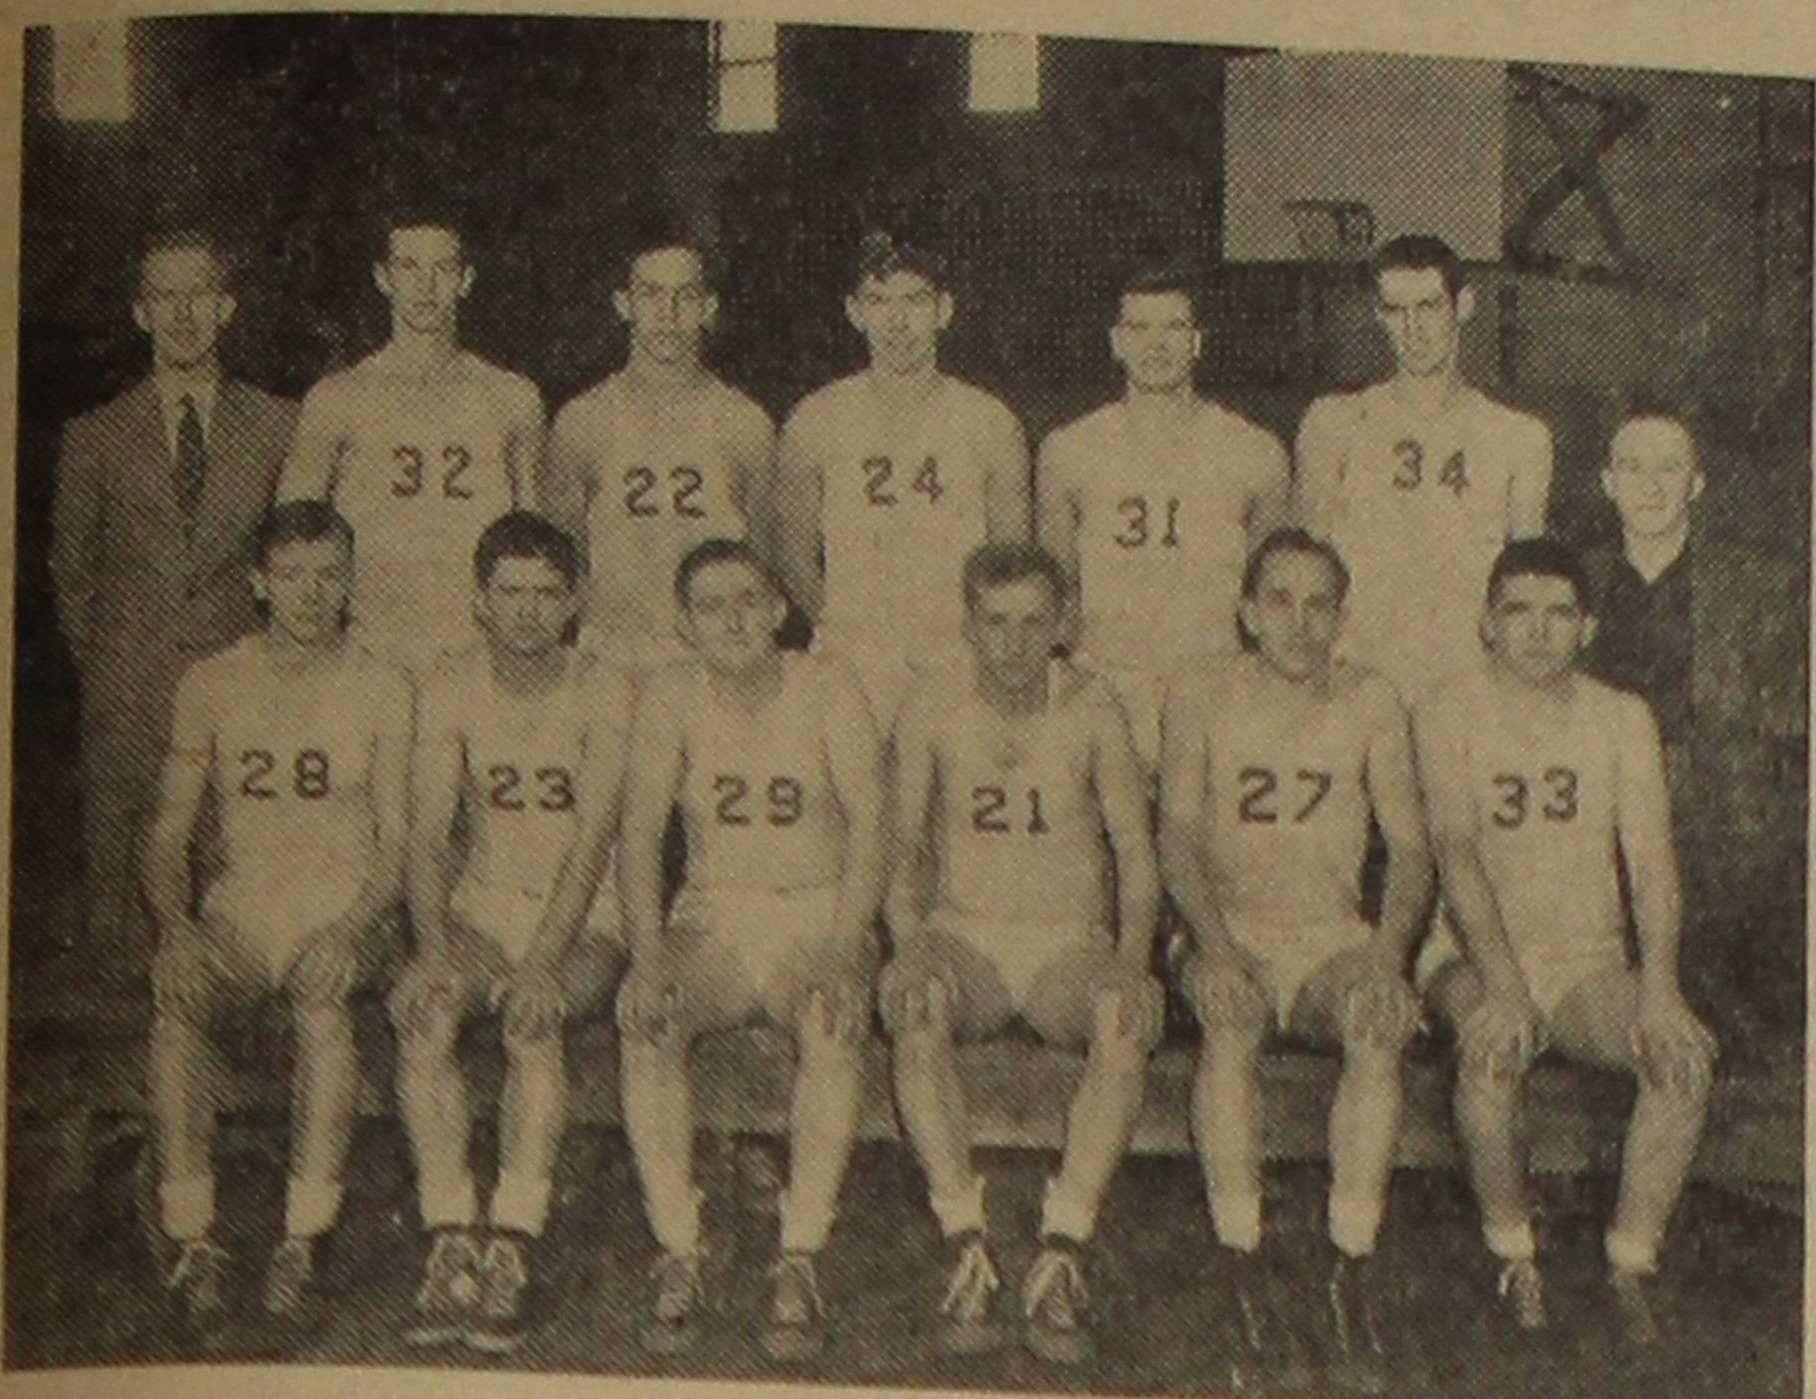

Theoretical also is the idea that library books are only taken out for one night or a two or three weeks' period. We have some students so eager that they are starting up libraries of their own—with all the books carefully marked, "Library, College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Wash." These collections are probably a great addition to any household, but the inconvenience to the rest of the college is obvious.

A solution, of course, might be to try a severe application of the old monitor system. We, as part of the college, could pay out money needed in more worthwhile places to some stern undergrads who would sit by and superintend us as though we were in grade school again. The follies of this solution are obvious and probably as numerous as the ways of smuggling reserved books past the librarian.

The time to get ready for a new library is now. If we educate ourselves to the purpose of the library this semester, we will be ready to break in next fall's newcomers properly.

Let's be smart about this library. If a new library building will only mean bigger and better social gatherings, why waste the money?

Thinclads Prepare To Revive CPS Track

The first meet for the 1947 Logger track team has been tentatively set for April 12, at St. Martins, Athletic Director Frank Patrick announced today.

The last track team to represent CPS in intercollegiate competition was the 1942 squad, coached by Leo Frank, which placed second in the Northwest conference.

Among the aspirants who have been training for the past few weeks are Clarence Nelson, former Stadium miler; Wayne Mann, another Stadium product who set the high jump record in high school; Dick Lewis, high and low hurdles; Jim Bectone, a 220 and 440 man who did his share for Great Lakes while in the service; Bob Robbins, Les Gilsdorf and Russ Keyes, discus throwers; Dick Clinton, another former Stadium speedster.

Baseballers Open Campaign At Linfield, Pacific in April

With less than three weeks remaining before their season opener at Linfield, the CPS baseball nine is gradually whipping into shape under the watchful eye of Coach Frank Patrick.

This spring marks the revival of the national pastime to our campus after an interlude of more than a decade. The return of baseball has not been any easy accomplishment; returning lettermen were absolutely nil; Coach Patrick has had to start entirely from scratch.

Wally Cavanaugh will play in the number one spot; Don Hesselwood, number two; while Harvey and Harold Mosich will hold down the third and fourth positions, respectively. Jack Bousher, former Stadium number one player; Gordy Rohrs, former Lincoln top man, and Jack Gould, former Clover Park first man, are the three top contestants for position five, the final spot on the Logger tennis squad.

Intramural Sports . . .

By JOE MANLEY

After an abrupt interruption by fire in our "cracker-box," intramural basketball play will be resumed and completed this week, with the three remaining games to be played tonight. The all important Chi Nu "A"-Indies game, which would necessitate a playoff should the Chis win, will start the evening off, with the DK "A"-Mu Chi, and the Indies "B"-Chi Nu "B" games following. Upon completion of the regular season, an all-star team for each league will be picked.

Annual Track Meet To Be Held

One of the biggest events of the year in intramural sports will be on March 27 and 28, when the annual track meet will take place. The meet will be composed of 11 events: the 100-yard dash, the 220, 440, 880 and the mile; the 160-yard low hurdles, high jump, broad jump, discus throw and shotput. A maximum of two men from each organization has been set for these

Collegiate Driving Makes Insurance Tycoons Nervous

ST. LOUIS, MO.—(ACP)—Insurance companies are known to bet on the survival of almost anything, from Grable's legs to Gable's ears, but you, friend, are the exception if you drive a car to school. It is hard to believe, but Joe College behind a wheel is the greatest risk on the road. The "woman driver" has finally met her match in mayhem.

"I know you college students," stated one underwriter to Charles F. Gauss, Washington University student who was prospecting for a policy. "You speed madly, habitually in an alcoholic fog, ogling at pretty girls, pleating fenders and running down sweet old grandmothers just for the sport of it."

It seems that the leading insurance tycoons of the country have lost their nerve. Bankruptcy looms if they continue to pay liability claims on accidents caused by college students.

Club Sponsors Competition for Aspiring Scribes

The newly formed Writer's Club is sponsoring a contest for the best essays, short stories, verses and radio scripts written by the students at CPS. The winning manuscript will be included in the magazine the Club will publish in May.

The rules for this contest are: 1. Only regular members of the student body may submit material. 2. Manuscripts in the following four categories may be submitted: (a) essays, which will not be in excess of 400 words. (b) Short stories, which will not exceed 1,000 words. (c) Verses, which will not exceed 40 lines. (d) Radio scripts or play scripts, which will be designed for three minutes playing time. 3. Only previously unpublished material may be submitted.

Efforts will be made to return rejected manuscripts, but the Writer's Club will not be responsible for such material.

All manuscripts may be turned in to Mrs. Doris Bennett at her desk in Room 12 in lower Jones Hall, or placed in the box for that purpose in the Trail office.

Enter your material as soon as possible as the printer's deadline is 30 days before publication and it will take some time to judge all entries.

Remember this contest is for everyone, no experience in writing is necessary.

Spring, with lots of flowers, is the theme of Delta Alpha Gamma's cotton dance to be held at Firecrest on March 22, from 9 till 12 p. m.

All of the girls will wear cotton dresses and the men will wear sport suits to add to the freshness of the garden scenes and flowers that will decorate the hall.

D. K.'s Have Speakers

Deeming it necessary to improve on their educational program the Delta Kappa Phi fraternity is now inviting prominent men of Tacoma to speak at their meetings each Wednesday.

Mr. Myhrman of Stadium high school was the first to speak to the D. Ks. His talk was on "Visual Aids as a Help to Teaching." Mr. Myhrman also answered any and all questions asked.

Tentative speakers include such well known men as Howard Clifford, who will show one of his ski movies, and Charles Eisenbacher, Tacoma fire chief.

The green and violet pledge ribbons of Kappa Sigma Theta have been given to two new pledges, who are Beth Davies and Lorraine Ramsay.

Beth, a freshman, is a member of the Ski Club and Trail staff. She graduated from Billings senior high school.

Anderson, Howarth Halls Honor Prominent Citizens

Have you wondered about the people whose names you see every day on our campus? Their gifts made it possible for the College of Puget Sound to have some of the finest college buildings to be found in our state. This week we will try to acquaint you with the people for whom Anderson Hall and Jones Hall are named.

Agnes Healy Anderson

Agnes Healy Anderson was the widow of a wealthy lumberman who made his fortune in Shelton, Washington. Mrs. Anderson, who retained her coach and coachman until she died, lived in Seattle in the final years of her life. She made generous gifts to a number of colleges including the University of Washington, whose forestry building is also named Anderson Hall.

Our Anderson Hall was dedicated in February, 1939. Mrs. Anderson was present at the dedication and received an orchid corsage from the first residents of the hall.

Leonard Howarth

The Leonard Howarth Science Building was dedicated on February 19, 1932, "to the ministry of scientific research and interpretation, that men may be free through the knowledge of the truth."

Leonard Howarth was an honored citizen of Tacoma, whose service to his community made him worthy of such a monument. His will included a bequest for such a purpose, and his administrators designated CPS as the recipient of that bequest. The dedication of the building included the ceremony of unveiling the memorial tablet, the name over the main entrance, his portrait, and a cabinet containing exercise books which had belonged to Mr. Howarth's father.

Gym Shorts

By RUTH POTTER

With all the volleyball games at an end the all-star team has been chosen by Mrs. Johnson, Betty Jane Cappa, Carol Hamilton, Jackie Gibson and Ruth Ann Potter. They are chosen for their sportsmanship, improvement and teamwork. The girls picked are Barbara Prechek, Barbara Noble, Alice Ann Cross, Janice Lindeman, Lois Fassett, Vernetta Harvlie and Elenor Roundtree. Other outstanding players were Beverly Johnson, Gwen Dean and Nancy Mandell.

In order that all the girls will have a chance to play their badminton games, the gym is open Tuesday and Thursday during fourth period and noon, and during third and fourth periods on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. This is also a good time to play your ping-pong games.

Don't forget, all girls are invited to go swimming the first and third Mondays of every month, provided they have swimming cards.
