1947-48 — No. 2

COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND, TACOMA, WASHINGTON

October 10, 1947

Minstrel Show Coming Up

"Gentlemen, Be Seated" will be presented by faculty members, alumni, and students of CPS, October 22 and 23, at Jones Hall auditorium, to open officially homecoming celebration.

Cast from the faculty includes Gerard Banks, Hugh Tudor, Leroy Ostransky, Robert Sprenger, and Martin Nelson. Richard Smith, Pat Steele, Ed Buckso, James Slater, Bul Klemme, and Charles Thomas, represent the alumni group. From the student body are Bud Thompson, Richard La Pore, Jay Ball, Harley Stell and Joan Storhow. Also assisting in the production of "Gentlemen, Be Seated" will be the Womans' Faculty club, and the Music Workshop band; Mal Stevens, writer and coach; Gene Boldstad, artist.

Homecoming Float Rules Announced

All organizations entering floats in the Homecoming parade should read the following rules set up by the Homecoming committee, announces co-chairman Clayton Anderson. Two types of floats will be entered, those making noise and those with a Homecoming theme. The only rules are that the floats shall cost no more than $25; and the homecoming theme floats will be judged for originality and portrayal of the theme, "I'm CPS proud."

All entries for the parade should sign up with Bill Stivers.

Loggers Face Californians In Big Game

By BILL STONER

When the San Jose football team rolls into Union Station at 2:52 this afternoon, President Franklin Thompson will lead college and city officials in welcoming the Spartan eleven. Members of the Logger Band, the Homecoming Queen candidates and C.P.S. students will form a Car Caravan leaving the College for the station at 2:30.

At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon San Jose State will attempt to run up their third victory of the season against the Loggers in the Tacoma Stadium. The Spartans, fresh from their upset victory over a strong Hardin-Simmons club, feature a passing and deceptive running attack. On the other side of the ledger the Puget Sounders will be seeking their second win in four starts.

Both schools have played three games. In their opener the Spartans bowed to the University of San Francisco 20 to 6 and then came back to down the Hawaiian All-Stars 35 to 18 and win over Hardin-Simmons of Texas 19 to 12.

The Woodmen have lost two: to Idaho 27 to 6 and to P.L.C. 19 to 0. In their only conference start they winged the U.B.C. Thunderbirds 14 to 0.

San Jose, considered one of the best of California's smaller colleges, is coached by Wilbur Hubbard who

Foreign Students To Talk on United Nations

A banquet and a radio discussion on the United Nations, featuring foreign students enrolled at CPS, will feature the activities of the International Relations Club next week.

Hungry Five Paid At UBC Game

Five men, giving an impression of quaint German musicians, aroused the curiosity and charity of onlookers at the recent CPS-UBC game. Playing to the opposing grandstand, the men, John O'Connor, Dan Franklin, Don Page, Don Cox and Ivy Cozart, booped-blooped-bleeped, to the tune of seven cents thrown by sympathetic spectators.

Already the "Hungry Five" are planning new appearances.

1920 NOW ENROLLED

With 35 students registering since last Friday, the total enrollment now stands at 1920 announces Registrar Dick Smith. Of this number, 1054 are veterans and the remaining 866 are non-veterans. As yet, this number has not been broken down into the individual classes.

Free Dance at SUB

The Student Union Building was opened for free dancing for the first time last Saturday night. This will be a regular activity at the SUB from now on whenever there is a free week end.

The dances are open to anyone and are strictly sport. They will be sponsored by the Greek houses and school clubs.

FROSH DANCE PLANNED FOR TONIGHT

Friday night, October 11, the Freshman class will sponsor a Green Beanie Dance in the Sub. after the Pep Rally. Admission will be 10 cents per person. Chairmen for the dance are Ronald Reitan and Trudy Mackie.

AAUW Meets

Last week end, Mrs. Drushell was in Ellensburg where she attended the state board meeting of the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Drushell is the president of the Tacoma branch.

50,000th VOLUME PRESENTED TO LIBRARY

Asked to have his history of the College of Puget Sound be the 50,000th volume in the college library, Dr. Todd presented his book in manuscript form without preparation of pictures and perfection. He worked on the book for 2½ years and there is yet much work to be done before it can be published.

Containing a history of the college from its conception by Methodist preachers, who were organizing the Puget Sound annual conference in 1888, it relates the important events to date.

The author had access to all reference by action of trustees, faculty and student body. He found it difficult to find evidence of actual facts, for the student body had not had any consecutive publication, and those which had been printed were lost during the many times the location of the college has changed.

Beginning its life as the Puget Sound University located at South 21st and Yakima Streets, it was reincorporated in 1903 as the University of Puget Sound. In 1914 the institution became known as the College of Puget Sound. During this time the school had five different locations and ten presidents, each serving from one to twenty-nine years.

Changes in location and administration caused material to be lost, so weeks and months of research were required. Dr. Todd's aims were to give truthful and accurate accounts of the college, both educationally and financially. The college's steps to accreditation show facts relative to its receiving the highest recognition possible.

When published, the book will contain about 500 pages. Because of the size, many less important facts were not included in the volume.

Dr. Todd did not rely on his almost 50 years of official relation to the school to furnish facts. His career at the college began as trustee of the Puget Sound University. He then worked as field man for four years at the University of Puget Sound and was president of the College of Puget Sound for 29 years. He is now President Emeritus.

Chapel Features Notable Speaker

The Rev. J. Carter Swain, Ph.D., D.D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis at the Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa., was the speaker in the Wednesday chapel.

Dr. Swain's academic training was obtained at Washington and Jefferson College (where he received the Samuel Jones Classical Prize, a gold medal for Junior Oration, and graduated magna cum laude), the Western Theological Seminary, and the University of Edinburgh in Scotland.

Following graduation from theological school in 1927 Dr. Swain taught English and Bible at the American University Beirut, Syria. He has traveled extensively in Europe and the Holy Land, having walked over most of the latter. He served 14 years in the pastorate before undertaking training of young ministers.

During Dr. Swain's pastorate, he was a leader in church federations and active in inter-church affairs. For the past decade he has been a leader and vesper speaker at Young Peoples Summer Conferences. Dr. Swain has written three small books, frequent magazine articles, and book reviews.

Gym Locker Looted

A lock-picker found the pickings good last week when he dialed the combination to the gym locker of Gene Stevens, freshman from Lawton, Okla. He stole a wallet containing $120 in cash, a $50 check and personal papers. They have not been recovered.

Campus Cleanup Campaign Needed

Everybody knows that an unusual situation exists at present in our college. There are too many of us students, and our number gives rise to several conditions we could do without. Some of these conditions are traceable to no particular fault and are not capable of immediate remedy. At least one is very definitely the fault of the student body, or a large portion of it, and can be remedied easily by the students themselves.

This is the messiness evident on our campus and in our buildings. Steps have been taken from time to time to correct the situation, but none has been concerted and protracted enough to achieve any real improvement. What the College needs is a drive of sufficient length and intensity to change a number of bad habits into which we have fallen. There is no reason why proper disposal of refuse cannot become as much a habit as improper disposal is with some of us at this time.

The most evident cause of our littered campus is the great amount of smoking that takes place on it. It is not too much to say that the condition of the Jones Hall steps is frequently a disgrace—a disgrace that is seen by all the visitors that climb those steps.

This article is not leveled against smoking on the campus. Our contention is only that it is not necessary that smoking should be accompanied by a wholesale strewing about of refuse. For self-preservation if for no other reason smokers should attempt to end the second practice; if they take no action it can be expected that the faculty will.

Smokers are, of course, not alone at fault. With the cigarets and match folders our campus is usually festooned with candy-bar wrappings, the remains of lunches, and theme papers which have passed their usefulness. But no more need be said here about these conditions; the reader has eyes and can see them for himself.

The reader can also help to end them—and must, if they are to be ended. THE TRAIL offers the following suggestions:

1. Watch yourself first of all. Be neat.
2. Don't be afraid to frown on others who are not.
3. Don't be too proud to pick up blowing papers. Save your pride for pride in the campus.
4. (For the administration) Provide more and more convenient receptacles for us. There can hardly be too many.

Keeping the campus clean is a job for all of us, but not a hard job if we all work at it. Good habits are as easy to maintain as the sort we have now. We have a bigger and more beautiful campus than we ever had before. There is no reason why it should not also be cleaner. After all, it belongs to us.

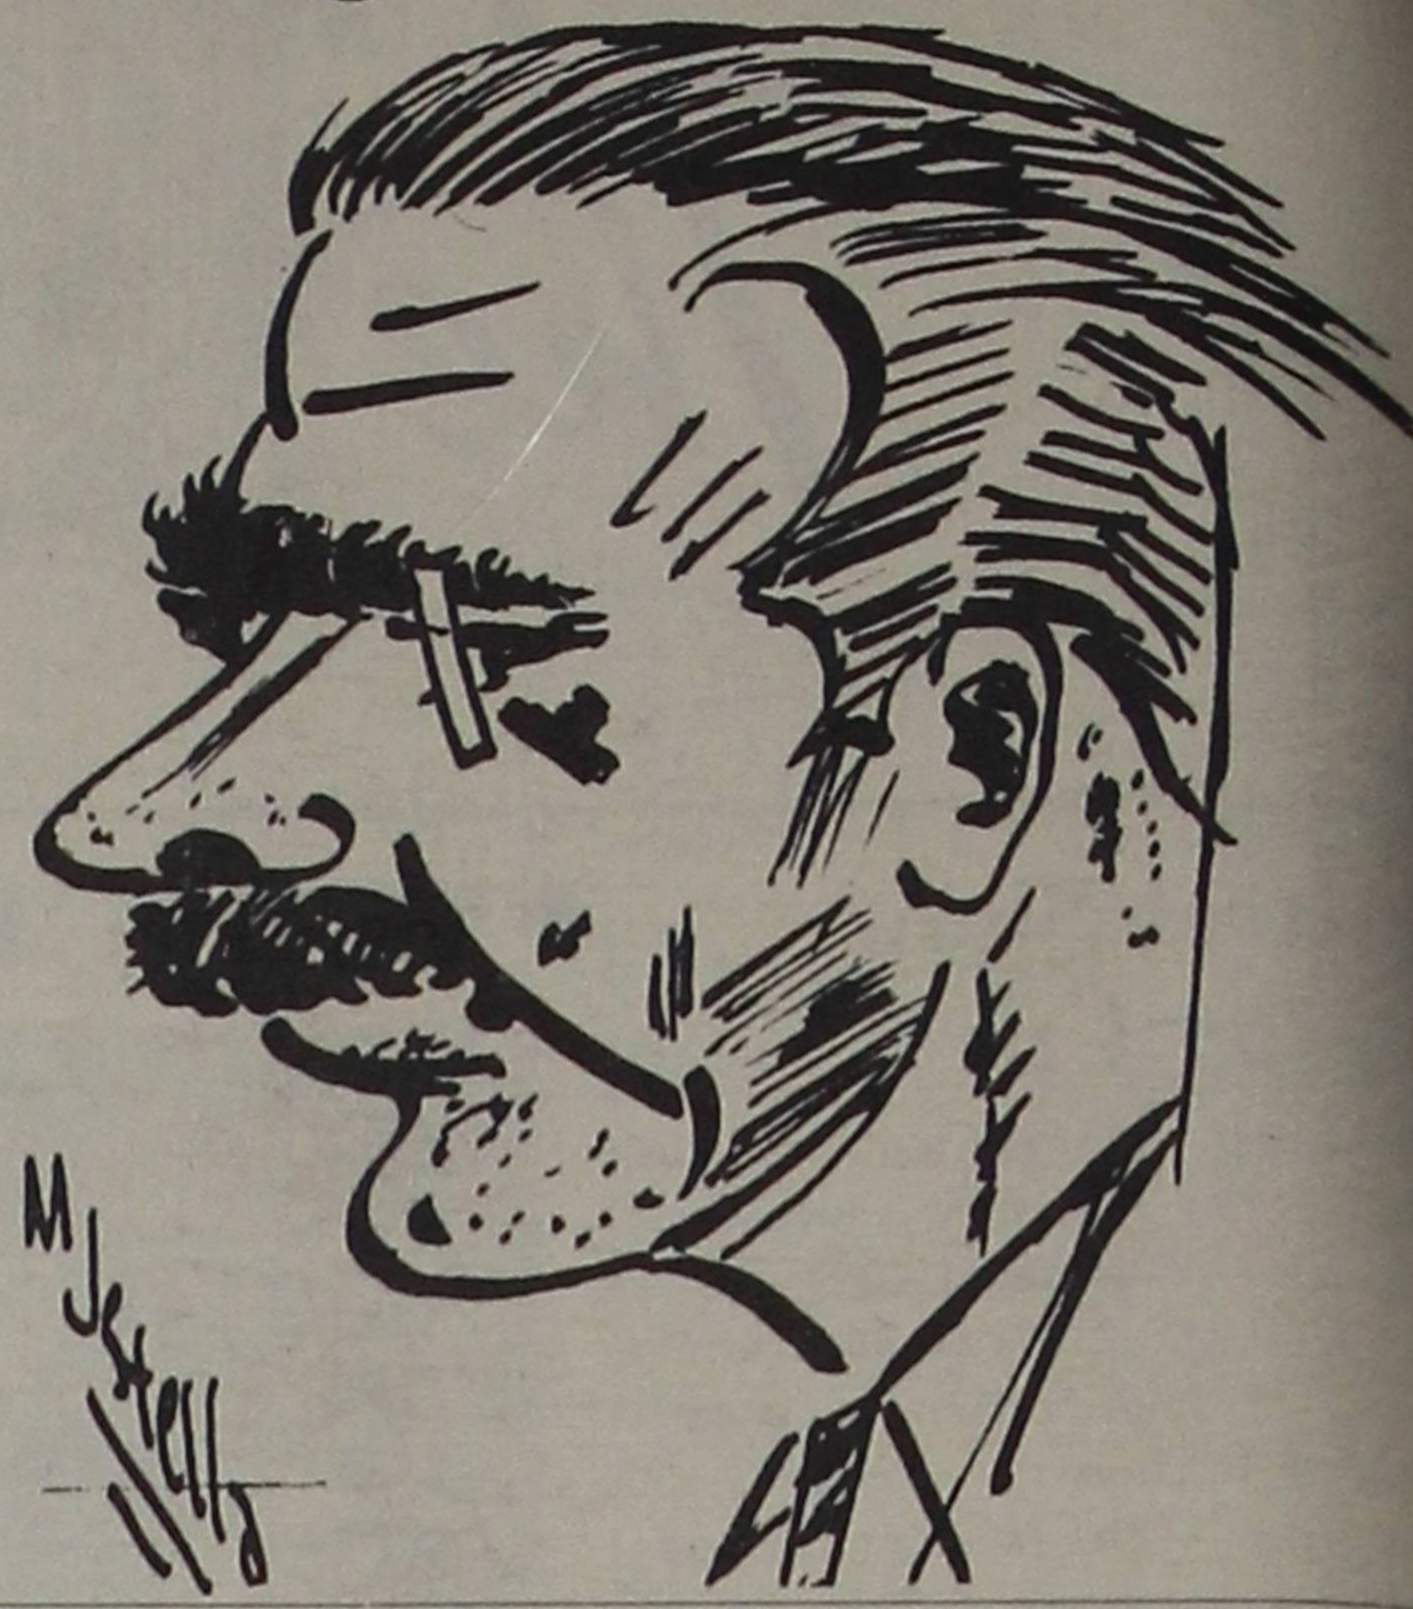

"Beards are Becoming", Coulter Says.

"No, I'm not joining the beard-growing contest, I couldn't grow one. But I think everyone should enter, because the more of their face they hide, the better they look." This statement came from the popular history instructor, Professor Coulter.

Teaching fourteen hours a week, Coulter is beginning his fifth year as instructor of history. His only problem is self discipline. "I get tired of repeating the same statements, so I have to be careful to tell the same stories to all my classes. It's horrible!"

In respect to the new addition to the campus, South Hall, Coulter says it reminds him of South Tacoma. We hope he means the distance angle.

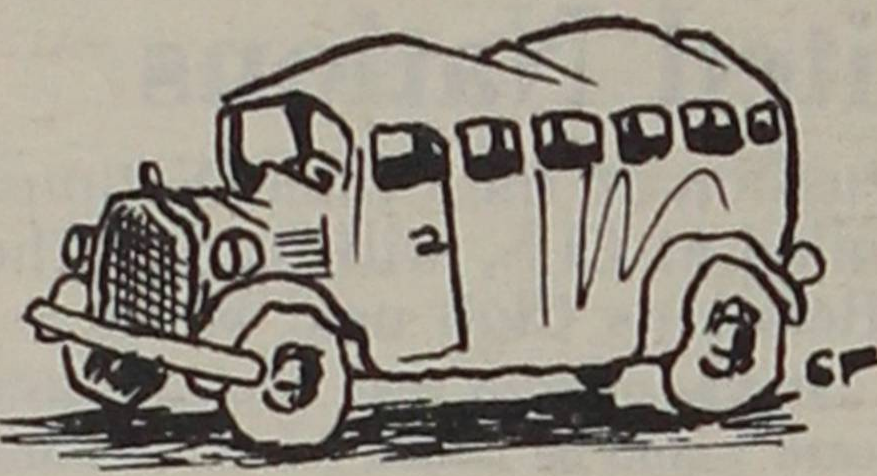

Professor Coulter's dry humor makes his classes one of the most popular on the campus.

CPS Increases Transportation

From war surplus, the college has obtained some transportation and equipment hauling vehicles that make up quite a fleet.

Holmes Hutton, assistant to Bursar Gerard Banks, lists a Pontiac station wagon for miscellaneous errands; a 30-passenger Chevrolet bus for field trips, as for instance might be made by geological classes, and to carry the band on its various engagements. A 44-passenger diesel-electric bus is to be used mainly in the needs of our athletic teams. An ambulance is also on the campus to be used for its designed purpose.

For equipment hauling there is a one and one-half ton Chevrolet, an over-sized Dodge army weapons carrier, a jitney lift, and a tug formerly used in towing aircraft at airfields.

For Veterans

First checks will arrive Nov. 10, VA says.

The Fulbright Act has made possible the sending of large numbers of exchange students abroad. Assistance under the Fulbright Act includes payment of transportation, tuition, maintenance and other expenses for the student's scholastic activity. This program is financed by foreign credits acquired through the sale of surplus property abroad.

All students are eligible to apply for foreign scholarships. Veterans of World War II, however, are given preference. The VA administers only study abroad for veterans. Other students are under supervision of the State Department.

The approved list contains universities in such widely scattered countries as Australia, Canada, Mexico, Brazil, England, France, Belgium, Italy, Hawaii, and Iceland. Nearly every country where American Consulates are maintained, has one or more colleges or universities on the approved list.

Persons seeking information on this program should address their inquiries to the Division of International Exchange of Persons, Department of State, Washington, 25, D. C. Vets are given preference under this program.

The National Guard offers Vets an opportunity to earn some spare cash. The two units of Anti-Aircraft Artillery, allotted to Tacoma, are recruiting 650 men. Vets will be given their wartime rank or higher, if qualified and if vacancies exist.

Foolish Freshman Funny

By Gloria Nelson

Last Friday night the curtains rose in the auditorium of Jones Hall to introduce the seventh annual performance of the Freshman One-Act Plays.

The curtain riser was a comedy entitled "Soap Opera." The audience broke into gales of laughter while Jenny burned her husband's shirts listening to a soap opera, and Ed merely burned up because of the lack of attention he received when he sprained his ankle at the shipyard. The characterization in the play was excellent. Lilly, the Taxi Driver, held the audience well, as an uneducated young woman with a rough manner. With the entrance of a woman in black, who oozes with sweetness toward Ed, an irate policewoman and a murdered lawyer, Jenny and Ed find that life and "soap operas" are not so dull as they might appear.

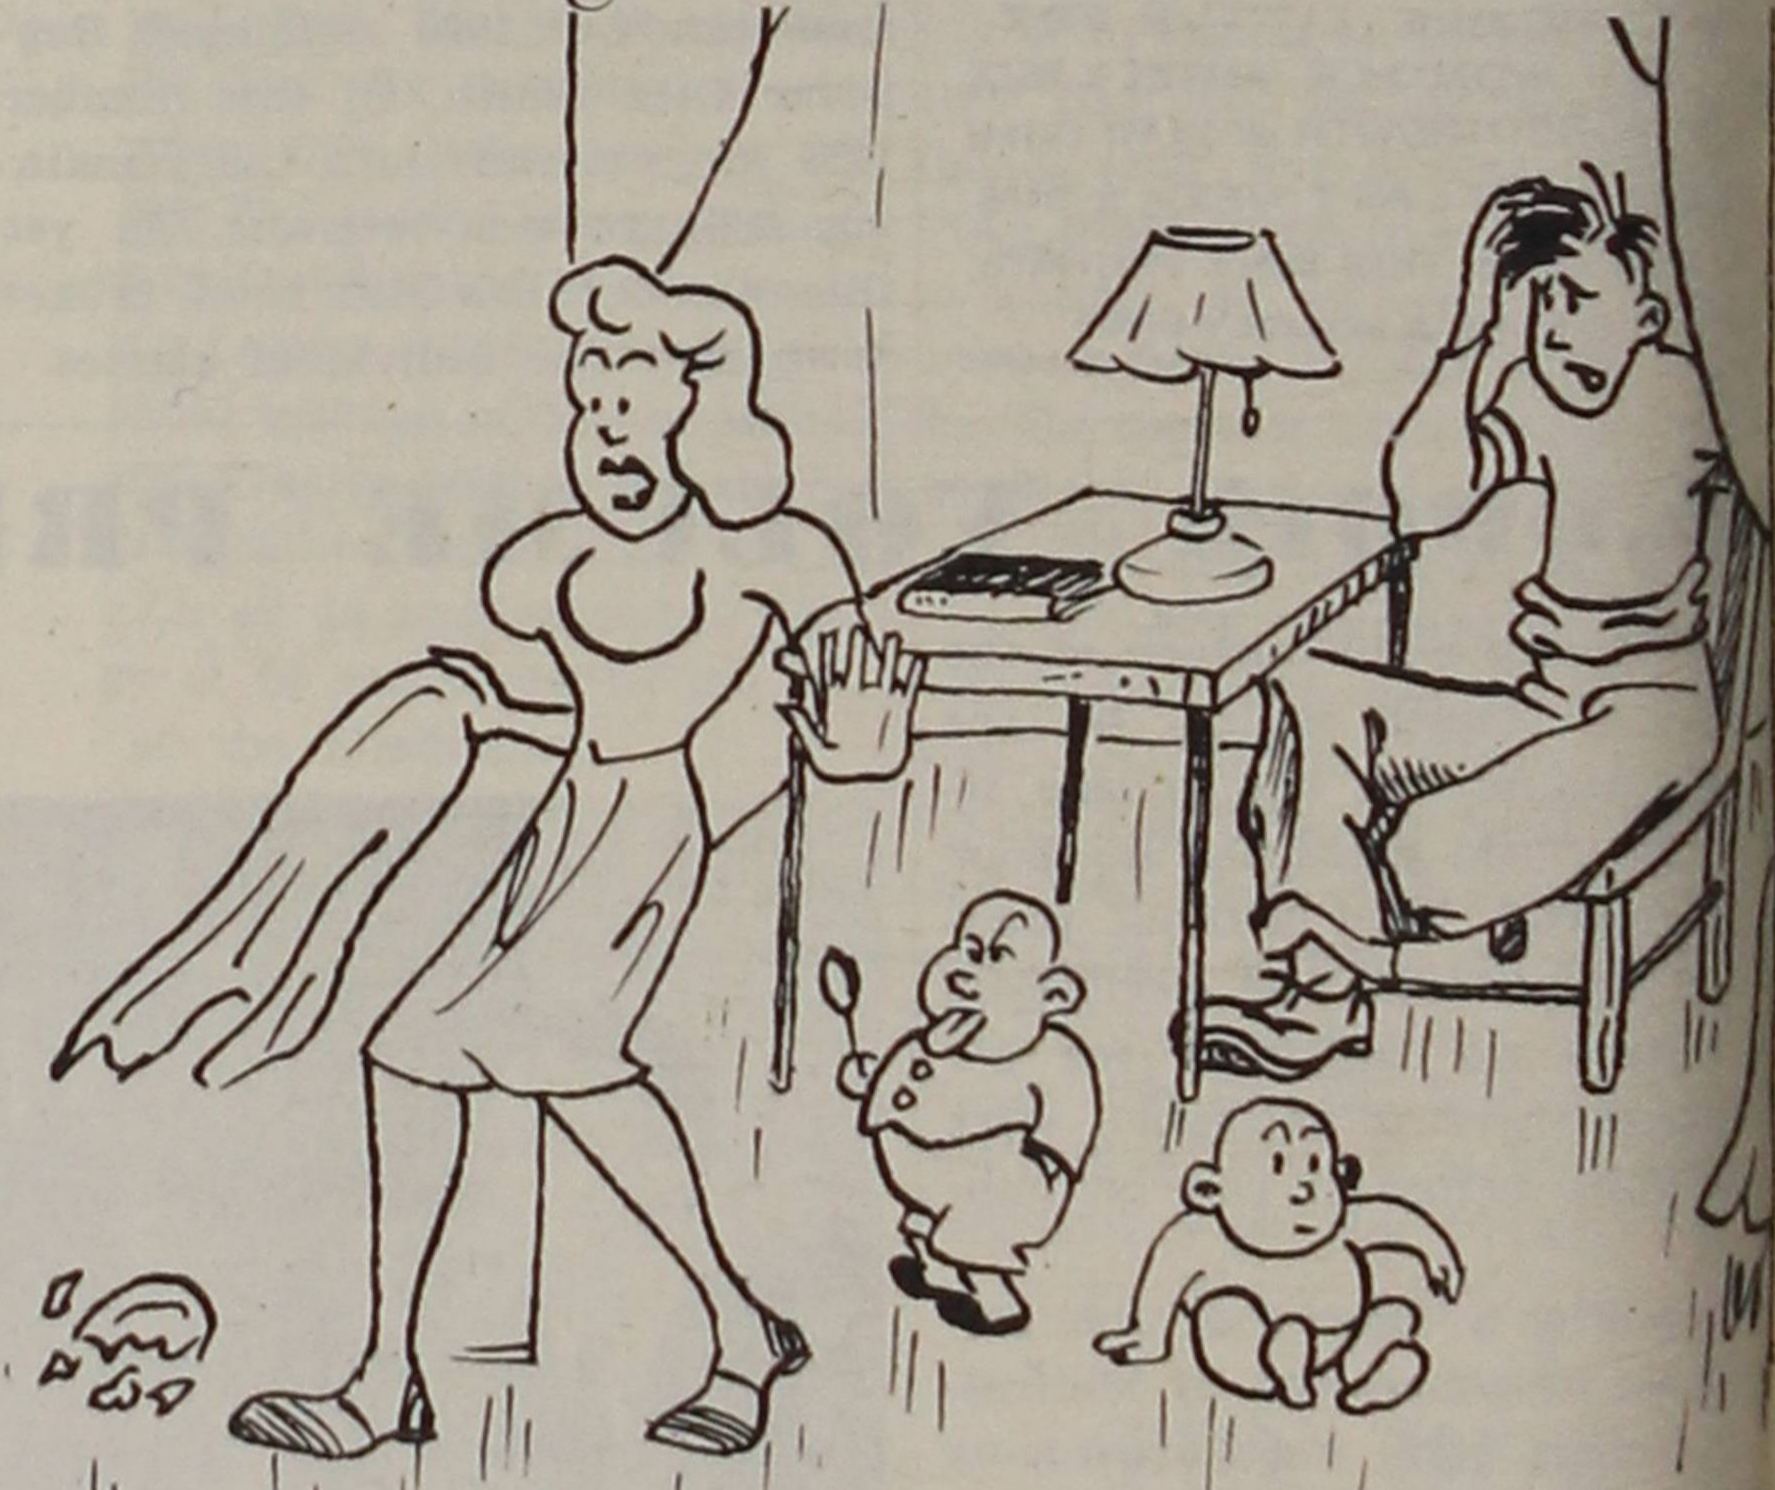

"Dull Evening" was the second play. This short play was a comedy also, and held the attention of the audience well. The arguments of the Chief and Gus called for many laughs and helped bring the audience to a good pitch for the rest of the evening.

The third play, a fantasy called "Maker of Dreams" was a little more on the serious side. The parts of Pierrot and Pierrette were handled very well and the Manufacturer did a fine job in his role. Although the story was more serious, the songs of Pierrot brought laughs from the entire audience.

For tense drama "The Drums of Oude" was the play chosen. The characterization in the play was very well executed, but although the play was well done, it was rather misunderstood by the audience. In a few of the most serious and crucial moments snickers were heard. This was a difficult play to present. The scenery, lighting and atmosphere was excellent. Perhaps next time they can find another bugler.

To close the performance was a comedy called "First Dress Suit." The audience was in one constant lather at the character of Teddy Harding. Perhaps the most outstanding thing remembered about Teddy will be his khaki-colored shorts. Next time you'd better wear colored ones, Teddy. There won't be any mistake.

Homecoming Dance Set

H-M-M, WONDER WHOM I SHOULD ASK TO THE HOME COMING BALL??

"To insure a successful homecoming at CPS we have appointed a large and capable committee to handle things," stated Clayton Anderson who is co-chairman with Bob Rinker for the event.

The Homecoming Ball committee has secured Bumps Blackwell's band for the dance. The committee took a survey of the fraternity houses at the University of Washington as to which band was best. They agreed on Blackwell. "Bumps" graduated from the Cornish school of music and has played at the Palladium besides accompanying the Mills Brothers on their Northwest tour.

The Homecoming Ball will be semi-formal, either evening or afternoon dresses, and will be held at the armory from 9 to 12 on October 25.

When it comes to nifty dressers we nominate Jack Erck for high honors. Even in the rain that ladies look fashionable.

Will someone tell Johnny Taylor that polite pledge prexies don't take their shoes off in class, especially with yellow plaid stockings under those loafers.

If you're interested in drum majorettes — and we noticed a lot of you Loggers are, especially when they shape up to be Gloria Ellexson — jot this down. You can watch her practice nigh around two each afternoon in back of the music building.

"Neatest campus in Tacoma." Could that be CPS? Guess not with all the cigarette droppers and paper crumblers enrolled in weekly classes. A student's mother, visiting the campus, remarked to her freshman daughter, "My, there are a lot of shady characters on these grounds."

Alpha Beta Upsilon pledges chose Annette Ogden, president; Natalie Hatcher, vice president; Donna Arnold, secretary, and Lorraine Anderson, treasurer.

Lambda Sigma Chi pledges elected Pat Hotes, prexy; Hazel Parsons, vice president, and Georgina Jeklin, secretary.

Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity elected John Taylor as pledge prexy. He is assisted by Joe Hedges, vice president, and Earl Smith, secretary.

Bob Angeline heads the Alpha Chi Nu pledges. Other officers are Frank Roe, vice president; Jim Fowler, secretary; and Gene Stevens, sergeant at arms.

Pledge president for Sigma Mu Chi fraternity is Ralph Wehmhoff. Jack Bennett is vice president and Ed Balarezo is secretary.

Barry Garland, one of CPS's heartiest world series fans, had a good excuse for listening to the games during class. He gets three hours' credit for listening to the air waves in radio production class.

Eileen Hill was caught draping her books in last year's University of California book covers. Brings back old memories.

Pledge Groups Elect Officers

Last of the pledge banquets was held Wednesday evening by Kappa Sigma Theta sorority at the Top of the Ocean. Pledge officers for the group are Gloria Green, president; Marian Sterne, vice president; Alice Palmer, secretary, Cynthia Harris, treasurer, and Carol Sue Petrich, sergeant at arms.

Alpha Beta Upsilon pledges chose Annette Ogden, president; Natalie Hatcher, vice president; Donna Arnold, secretary, and Lorraine Anderson, treasurer.

Lambda Sigma Chi pledges elected Pat Hotes, prexy; Hazel Parsons, vice president, and Georgina Jeklin, secretary.

Sigma Zeta Epsilon fraternity elected John Taylor as pledge prexy. He is assisted by Joe Hedges, vice president, and Earl Smith, secretary.

Bob Angeline heads the Alpha Chi Nu pledges. Other officers are Frank Roe, vice president; Jim Fowler, secretary; and Gene Stevens, sergeant at arms.

Pledge president for Sigma Mu Chi fraternity is Ralph Wehmhoff. Jack Bennett is vice president and Ed Balarezo is secretary.

Men to Vote Next Week

The five queen candidates for homecoming will be introduced to the men students at chapel October 14, 16 and 17. Immediately following each introduction the men will vote for the queen. Women are disenfranchised.

The Independents nominate Phyllis Hale, a blonde freshman from Lincoln. Phyllis is interested in dramatics and appeared in the freshman class plays.

From Kappa Sigma Theta comes Ruth Beer, a junior majoring in sociology and literature. She is secretary of the junior class and secretary of her sorority.

Natalie Hatcher, Alpha Beta Upsilon, hails from Clover Park as a freshman this year. Natalie was a yell queen in high school and is majoring in home economics at CPS.

Lambda Sigma Chi nominates Gerry Johnson, another freshman from Clover Park. Gerry has turned out for sports and is said to be especially fine at swimming.

When anyone mentions skiing to Clara Thompson, Delta Alpha Gamma's candidate for queen, she is all smiles. Clara is a second semester freshman from Lincoln.

That a fair election shall be held all men are asked to vote only one time.

Alumni Elect

At the annual election of the CPS Alumni Association, Dr. Somers R. Sleep and J. Donald Shotwell were elected as alumni representatives to the College Board of Trustees, for 3-year terms.

As a result of this election, a new class of five members was elected to the Alumni Board of Directors. Former board members reelected were Ethelyn L. Baker and Dorothy F. LeVeque. New members are as follows: Carl P. Klemme, Ted E. Vinyard and Russell Perkins.

Officers for the board of directors will be elected some time this month.

Gamma's Elect Officers

To replace two girls who did not return to CPS, Delta Alpha Gamma elected two new officers. They are Merillat Betz, inter-sorority representative, and Natalie Nicholson, corresponding secretary.

Traditional Candy Given by Engaged Coeds

Traditional candy passing was spotlighted this month when Gloria Gleason announced her engagement to Herbert Boyington at the Delta Alpha Gamma preference banquet in September. Herbert is now attending the U. of W., and is a former CPS Delta Kappa Pi. He recently pledged Theta Chi fraternity.

Doris Hoffman chose a Kappa Sigma Theta meeting to reveal her engagement to Roland Hoar, U. of W. student.

Dan Cupid scored a hit between a CPS couple when Mona Mae Huertz of Lambda Sigma Chi and Kenneth Willoughby announced their engagement.

A sorority-fraternity link will come when Anita Stebbins, Alpha Legge whose engagement was announced last spring.

Marion Sandal, president of Delta Alpha Gamma, has set November 22 as her wedding day to Harold Carlson.

Ballard Lutheran church in Seattle will be the scene of the Frances Swenson-Bob Anderson rites on November 14. She is a member of Alpha Beta Upsilon.

Two more Betas take the lead in wedding news. Evelyn Marshall will marry Everet Spring on November 26. The Betty Robinson-Dave Grandland rites have been set for the same date.

Kappa Sigma Theta summer brides include Mrs. Art Demers (Delores Klaiber), Mrs. Robert Seabloom (Joan Stapleton), Mrs. Clark Wilhelmi (Jane Parker), Mrs. Walter Farron (Barbara Hufford) and Mrs. Bernard Cole (Alice Ann Cross).

Beta Upsilon, and Wade Garland of Sigma Mu Chi fraternity pledge their troth.

No date has been set for the wedding of Marianna Shank and Merle

LOGGERS BREAK INTO WIN COLUMN

JV's Beat Army 13-6

The CPS Junior Varsity showing a complete reversal from the defeat by the Sand Point Naval Air Station bounded back to thump the Fort Lewis All-stars 13 to 6.

The game played on the soldiers' field saw the Loggers strike first pay-dirt when halfback Garry Hersey skirted left end on a reverse and raced 40 yards for a touchdown. The second Logger score came in the third period with Merle Corbin going the final 10 yards on an end around play.

The much improved Junior Loggers headed by Coach Don Dalquist will meet a real test this weekend when they head down Grays Harbor way to meet the Aberdeen Junior College eleven.

For last Saturday's game, the lineups were as follows:

DK's, Chi Nu's Split Openers

The intramural football race got off to a fast start with a pair of wide open contests in which the Chi Nu and DK teams split. The Chi Nu's A's won the opening League game, 26-7, but the Kap's B's bounced back to emerge victorious in the second tilt, 20-7.

Triple-threat Bob Angeline scored two touchdowns and passed to two more to lead the Chi Nu's in the A game. The lone DK tally came midway in the second half when Don Thornhill took a kickoff on his thirty and scampered the full distance. Dick Salatino and Norm Willard also shone for the losers.

The DK B's began what seemed to be a rout in the second game, scoring two quick TD's on passes from Stivers to Wolfe and Chase. But the Chi Nu Juniors struck back quickly to score on a pass from Skip Norton to Caddigan. They threatened again in the second half, driving to the two yard marker only to have a strong DK defense throw them back.

has had experience at Rochester University and with the Washington Redskins. He has built the visitors into a strong T-formation squad while the Patrick club boasts a single-wing attack.

The College of Puget Sound left half starting position is the biggest question mark with Mel Light named as starter. This position was vacated last Saturday as Harry Mansfield became the latest victim of the Logger injury plague.

Three players of the hosts will be in the limelight after their performances of last week; Dick Carlson earned a starting guard berth through his outstanding work against U.B.C., Jim Rice, three-year letter winner, who has been suggested for little All-American honors, and Mel Light who played a lot of ball out of the tailback slot last Saturday.

Pegged as standouts for the Californians are Harry Russell, deceptive halfback; Val Marchi, highly rated 245 pound tackle; and Jim Jackson, quarterback, who sparked the Spartans as they ended Hardin-Simmons 23 game winning streak last Saturday.

Junior Morgan
