HOMECOMING IN FULL SWING

Cast of 'Arsenic, Old Lace' Plans Three Performances

The Campus Playcrafters will present the 16th annual Homecoming play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," today at 3 p. m. for high school students and at 8:15 p. m. tonight and tomorrow night, at Jones Hall auditorium.

The cast of this melodramatic comedy includes:

Behind the scenes the production staff will be as follows:

Emily Harold; lighting, Robert J. Lyon; property chairman, Gretchen Swayze; scenery designed by Don Crabs.

Property committee: Carol Todd, Helen Caputo, Carol Caldwell, Patricia Schaller, Barbara Bell, Gloria Kristofferson, Jacqueline Craney.

Assistants on stage and scenery: Verner Hoggatt, Mel Gidley, Herbert Stark, Robert Anderson, Arthur Hansen, William O'Connell, Joyce Brynestad, James Crews.

Book held by Margaret Trimble. Assistants to the director: Cynthia Harris, Jeanne Miles. Publicity: Forrest McKernan. Make-up chairman: Juanita Baumgartner.

Make-up committee: Luba Ostofichuk, Barbara Bell, Jacqueline Craney, Helen Traub, Betty Prash, Mary Knicheloe, Patricia Meehan.

The program was designed by Helen Traub. Ushers will be The Spurs.

President's Message

The hum of activities on the campus foretells the greatest Homecoming Week ever. The professors, members of the administration and 1922 students, are all eager to extend a hearty welcome to our returning grads. We know they will catch the spirit of CPS in the events which have been planned. The student body is already in the midst of Homecoming with the election of the Queen, the black-faced comedians, and evidences of "Arsenic and Old Lace". We are ready to meet our traditional rival, Willamette on the gridiron tomorrow. The climax of all the events will take place at the Armory tomorrow night when we look forward to seeing our former students at the Alumni Ball. All signs point to an outstanding Homecoming which is characterized by the motto "I'm Puget Sound Bound."

Blackwell Featured at Homecoming Ball Tomorrow

With a huge poster stating "Welcome Home Alums" posted on the far wall, grads and students will dance under strings of alternating maroon and white crepe paper in the State Armory at 11th and Yakima Streets tomorrow night. Climaxing a four day celebration, dancing will be from 9 to 12 in a glow of red and white lights.

After many rumors concerning the orchestra to be featured, Co-

Chairmen Bev Johnson and Pates Pilant announced that Robert "Bumps" Blackwell and his orchestra would take over the band stand. The group has been heard on many Northwest programs and performed at the Palladium with the King Cole Trio. The vocalist, Jo Evans, has made several recordings on Black and White records. A few novelty numbers have been arranged to add to the enjoyment of the evening.

Ball goers may quench their thirst at big self-service barrels to be filled with punch. These will be placed near the front entrance.

Either long or short dresses will be appropriate at this semi-formal affair. Tickets are still available down stairs at the SUB, the ASCPS office and the basement of Jones Hall. The admission is $2 a couple.

Queen Announces Engagement

For the story of Queen Phyllis Hale's engagement to Herm McDowell, see society news on page 6.

In an impressive ceremony, Phyllis Hale was crowned Queen of Homecoming by Dr. R. Franklin Thompson. The coronation was held preceding the Minstrel Show in Jones Hall Wednesday evening. The men selected to escort the Queen and her attendants, Natalie Hatcher, Ruth Beer, Jerry Johnson and Clara Thompson, were Jerry Baker, Bill O'Connell, Jim Bell, Jim Hornstaff and Bob Robbins.

Martha Thompson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thompson, presented flowers to the royalty, Young Robey Banks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Banks, was crown bearer.

Among the privileges and duties of Phyllis will be to reign over the Homecoming tomorrow night at the Armory, and to ride in a float in the Homecoming parade tomorrow morning. As queen she is also entitled to the opportunity of being outfitted in an ensemble of the latest style by Lou Johnson, for a picture which will be taken by Turner Richards, and will appear in the next edition of The Trail.

The Beginning of Jones Hall - 1923

Our Jones Hall Today - 1947

We've Come a Long Way

The scene is the first floor of Jones Hall. The building is not complete and part of the auditorium is enclosed with canvas. It is June, 1924, and the small group of students gathered together comprise the first graduating class of the Puget Sound University. Classes had been held at 6th and Sprague but the graduation was in the new building at 15th and Warner Street.

The college was originated at a conference in Seattle in 1884. Bishop Fowler and Dr. David G. LeSourd were the moving spirits in the organization. It was first called the Puget Sound University and in 1903 changed to the University of Puget Sound. The first building was erected at South 21st and Yakima St. There were 88 students enrolled and about 10 on the faculty.

The building later was sold to the city school board and for a number of years sessions were held in the old Domo Apartments and the Imperial Apartments.

It found its next home at the campus at 6th and Sprague. In 1923 Jones Hall was under construction on the present location.

Today, as we celebrate Homecoming 1947, with approximately 2000 students enrolled, a faculty of about 65, a steadily improving campus, The College of Puget Sound has come a long way.

'Lil Abner Chases Daisy Mae?

Members of the Dogpatch society are due for a shock. It's a peaceful day on the campus with rain drizzling down the gutters, but what's this? There goes 'Lil Abner and he's chasing Daisy Mae! It can't be. Al Capp would give up his cartoons for life! How would it look for Pappy Yokum to bring in the wood and Mammy Yokum to relax with her pipe. It's positively against all ethics! Then why is it that the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance is not going to be a tolo?

In a recent speech, minus soap box, a CPS student was heard vigorously opposing this movement. The dance, to be held Nov. 7 at the Titlow Beach Lodge, is a traditional affair at the college and a great many students look forward to this informal gathering. It is customary for all attending to dress and behave strictly Dogpatch style. But how will it look with hick costumes of cut-up overalls, plaid shirts, shorts, and possibly Salome tied on a string to see 'Lil Abner shining up to Daisy Mae? It just isn't ethical!

Roomers Are Flying

The latest rumor on the new Todd Building picked up by a staff member while hitchhiking to school with one of the construction workers, is that they can't get some of the important materials until December. Don't let this bother you though; we hear the basement will be ready soon.

Homecoming Old Tradition

Beginning as a regular campus tradition in 1923, Homecoming has been one of the most important events of the school year. Starting as a two-day celebration, it grew to one of four days. One of the first traditional football games was played with the University of Washington. It was a CPS victory of 24 to 0.

In 1924, night shirts and pajamas were the popular garb for the big downtown parade. It was the custom to have a big bonfire built on the athletic field, the freshmen gathering wood. Into this fire the froshies would throw their green beanies.

As the parades became larger they became noisier and prizes were given to the people who had the most banging and rattling floats. A 1932 float winner was composed of an old Ford mounted on a trailer and pulled by a truck. The wheels of the car were jacked up and had paddles attached to the spokes. As the wheels turned the paddles banged against the large boilers placed before and behind the wheels.

In 1935 ten CPS football players were found stewing their Homecoming game opponents in a huge pot. A menu was posted offering a five-course dinner; each opponent being a certain dish. The players, of course, were dummies and a prize was given in this case for the most clever house decoration.

"If Homecoming is worked out and planned well, it is worthy of remembrance," commented Dr. Todd.

Girls in Dorm Need Rowboats

The rains came and Anderson Hall was caught in the deluge. Armed with buckets, brooms and shovels, the girls of the basement dorm fought the flood three times in three days.

Betty Harold's room was completely flooded and two hats were ruined by the water. Other than this the damage was slight.

The only casualty was Eleanor King who slipped on the wet cement and knocked herself unconscious while aiding the "water shoveling brigade." Masie Harold and Geneva Withers also helped stop the flood!

Several siphons were set up and the stream from the door to the shower was finally stopped.

Campus Trio Organized To Carry on Tradition

With one member from last year, the Campus Trio, composed of Anita Stebbins, Clara Bowe and Mary Lou Cooper, is ready to carry on CPS Trio tradition.

Frances Holt is understudying, and Nancy Newell is accompanist. First and second soprano are Anita Stebbins and Clara Bowe, respectively, with Mary Lou Cooper as alto.

Mrs. Herstrom New Adviser to Thetas

Mrs. Marian Herstrom, secretary to Dr. Thompson and a CPS alum, has been chosen as the new adviser to Kappa Sigma Theta. She was a member of Theta when she attended the college as a student.

Can You Help?

Due to the lack of books in academic courses, many students may be unable to complete semester studies. The Trail office will aid these students in a book seeking campaign. A list of students and the books they seek will be published each week if names are turned in at the Trail office in the Sub. Students having books listed can loan or sell them.

Loggers Risk League Lead

Basketeers Begin '47 Turn-out

With 19 years' coaching experience, John Heinrich started the 1947-48 basketball turnouts last Monday. With all of last year's team returning, with the exception of one player, and much highly touted freshman and transfer material, Coach Heinrich says he expects to have a very successful season.

Coaching at Bellarmine High, Stadium High, various semipro baseball organizations, and here last year, he has gained many records. At Bell High from '27 to '34, he coached all three sports, his football team beating Stadium two out of three years. Leaving Bellarmine, he then coached different semipro baseball teams, his teams winning the Timber League championship in '34 and '35. He continued this until in 1937 his team took the Northwest championship and placed fifth in the nation.

Coaching from '35 to '46, he introduced baseball in '37 at Stadium, his teams taking the state championship in '37 and '43. Coaching midget basketball from '35 through '37 at Stadium, his teams lost no games in the three years.

In football his best record was in the City League against Bellarmine and Lincoln, in which Stadium won 34 out of 36. His team won the Cross State championship in '37, '38 and '46. Starting in '36 and ending in '39 his teams went for 23 straight victories. Claims his 1937 football team to be the greatest he has ever coached.

Heinrich graduated from Stadium High, went to Ellensburg Junior College, and finally graduated from the University of Washington with a master's degree in '26. In '31 he received his life diploma, and in '42 he received his principal's credentials from the College of Puget Sound.

Jayvees Lack Sked

Coach Don Dahlquist's Jayvees were idle last week end since no games could be arranged. This Saturday they hope to snare a game with the Pacific Lutheran Junior varsity.

Don has coached his team into a well-organized grid machine, proving this by outplaying the Aberdeen Junior College for three and a half quarters in their last game.

One of the biggest features of the Homecoming week this year will be the tangle of the CPS Loggers and the Willamette Bearcats for the Northwest Conference lead. Starting at 2 p. m. in the Tacoma Stadium, the contest finds both teams possessors of two wins in two league starts.

Sparkplug of the Willamette powerhouse is Keith Sperry, 17-year-old freshman from California, who has scored thirty of the Bearcats' seventy-one points. Conversion expert for the visitors is Bill Reder who has kicked four conversions this season. Reder was chosen on the Northwest Conference second team at the end of last season.

Bob Douglas from the Willamette backfield also boasts a spot on last year's second league team. These are but two of the fourteen lettermen who bolster the Southern eleven.

Out of four starts Willamette has won three times and lost once. In her opener she dropped a stinging one to College of Pacific, 56 to 0, but has come back to win from Whitworth 19 to 0, College of Idaho 19 to 6, and British Columbia 33 to 0.

Scoring honors for the Loggers are divided between Sulenes and Wood who each have twelve points, while Ryan has six. Tom Ruffin has a perfect record with five points from five tries at placement.

Tomorrow marks the midway point in the Logger grid campaign. Always at this part of the season, students cast a critical eye towards the football team and its accomplishments, if any.

At CPS the situation is neither bright nor dark. Here is the overall picture at this time. The Loggers made a respectable showing against the Idaho Vandals in the season opener, although dropping a 27-7 decision.

In perhaps the most important game from a local standpoint, the anticipated CPS-PLC battle became a fizzle. It is not necessary to state the score of that contest.

The Puget Sounders followed with conference victories over UBC and Whitman, in each case by identical scores of 14-0. These wins have special significance. The Loggers have a better than average chance to cop the Northwest Conference crown. This honor has eluded CPS since 1933.

Tomorrow afternoon in the stadium, the Maroon and White clashes with Willamette. This is our homecoming game.

CPS Still Unscored On In League

Defeating the Whitman Missionaries last Saturday to the score of 14-0, the CPS Loggers maintained their unbeaten record in conference play in the Balesky Stadium in Walla Walla.

In the later part of the second half, the Loggers scored twice by recovering a Whitman fumble and an intercepted pass. Upon recovering the fumble on the 29 yard line, Fullback Warren Wood plunged from the 3-yard line to score, after seven plays, with Tommy Ruffin kicking the extra point.

Again in the fourth quarter Warren Wood came in to intercept a pass, and the ball returned to the Missionary 20-yard line. Martin moved the ball to the 5-yard line when Wood again went across for the second score. Ruffin, as usual, made his conversion to make the final score 14 to 0.

Ski Club Meets

The CPS Ski Club will meet today at noon in room 202, Howarth Hall. Coach Didi Rosellini is giving the call to last year's members and anyone else wishing to try out for the squad.

Chance to Ride Hayrack to Dance Now Offered

Something new has been added. A Hayride contest for the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance has been planned by the Independents organization for the dance which will be held Saturday, Nov. 8 at the Titlow Beach Lodge. The prize of the contest will be a hayride from Anderson Hall to the dance and back after the dance.

Any member of the college student body is eligible for entrance. The ten people who sell the most tickets for the Sadie Hawkins Dance and their dates will receive one round trip hay ride to the dance. Tickets may be obtained from an independent representative in the SUB beginning next Wednesday.

The contest ends 6 p. m. Thursday, November 6. All tickets and ticket receipts must be turned in to the representative at the SUB at that time. Winners will be announced in Friday Chapel, on all bulletin boards and at 4 p. m. in the SUB.

Ski Club to Plan Entertaining Meets

Ski Club has decided to eliminate all business at their future club meetings, and devote that time to entertainment and ski information. The officers and members of the ski board will meet separately to discuss the business of the club. Meetings will continue to be held during Thursday chapel in room 215 Howarth.

At the meeting last week Bob Church, president, announced that plans for an ice skating party, movies, and ski instructions were being made. These chairmen were elected: Program chairman, Don Purdue; publicity chairman, Richard Erskine; equipment chairman, John Lane.

Five more skiers were appointed to the board. They are C. A. Fellenberg, Robert Westbrook, Dick Stone, Jim Beyer, and Earle Beier.

Students' Opinions Revealed in Poll

In a recent poll taken by Dr. Tomlinson in his Contemporary Affairs classes, the following startling results were shown. These figures are a fair representation of the students' views on national and world affairs.

1. Government control of prices—yes, 86; no, 27.
2. Government control of natural resources—yes, 35; no, 75.
3. Socialized medicine—yes, 43; no, 61.
5. Is Russia out to conquer the world?—yes, 58; no, 49.
5. Is the United Nations succeeding?—yes, 65; no, 46.
6. Should we enforce democracy?—yes, 13; no, 100.
7. Will Britain survive?—yes, 78; no, 33.
8. Will the United States have a depression?—yes, 58; no, 54.
9. Is Communism a threat to the United States?—yes, 58; no, 55.
10. When will the next war be?—from two to five years—25; from ten to 25 years—61; no wars—23; within two years—5.
11. Will the veto work?—yes, 36; no, 73.
12. Is the U. N. weaker without Russia?—yes, 84; no, 26.
13. In favor of enforced military training?—yes, 67; no, 43.

New Books Added To Library Shelves

New books added to the library shelves recently include Stephen Foster, American Troubadour by John Tasker. This is an easy reading biography of the well known composer.

The Illustrated Encyclopedia of American Birds by Leon Hausman. Announcing for Radio by Bill Kilmer, a small book that hits high spots in elementary announcing.

Cities of America by George Sessions Perry featuring leading American cities of today and a portion of their histories.

Rhubarb by H. Allen Smith, a relaxing and amusing bit of fiction.

While Time Remains by Leland Stowe, an analysis of contemporary affairs.

Central Board

Because the wording of the school constitution which governs the student body is too lax, central board has decided to add a by-laws section covering all student activities. The by-laws will govern election procedures, use of the bulletin boards, extent of campaigning, and the functions of school organizations.

A Ways and Means Committee has been chosen to make up a list of by-laws. They are to be passed on by central board and then voted on by the student body before they become part of the constitution. Members of the committee are Hal Wolfe, Yvonne Battin, Pat Mason, Peggy Rough, Patee Pilant, Norm Schut and Walt Loewenstein.

Ron Tuttle, a freshman, and Walt Loewenstein, a junior, were introduced as new members of central board.

Sophs Win Bag Rush

Using two bags instead of the regular four, the sophomores defeated the freshmen, 6 to 1, in the annual bag rush. Played on a muddy clearing just north of the football field, the contest lacked the fight and enthusiasm shown in previous years.

Due to a swamping rain, mud played a slick part. Instead of last year's many aches and bruises, players this year suffered an acute case of muditis. Nobody needed hospital treatment — just a bath. Wayne Seamen, Earl Burnell, Frank Osborne, Hal Wolfe, Stan Langlow and Dave Pratt composed the conquering sophomore squad.

Grad Visits Switzerland

Shirley McDonald '39 left San Francisco on Sept. 23, for Switzerland, via Ireland and Paris. Shirley was accompanied by her husband, Martin, and her two-year-old daughter. They are visiting his Home town, Davos, a ski and skating center. Martin came to this country for a three months' visit when the war broke out and spent seven years as ski instructor in different resorts. They will attend the Olympic races at St. Moritz this winter.

Band Elects Officers; Plans Events for the Coming Year

With the entertaining of music educators who will attend the Western Regional Music Educator's Clinic in January as a highlight of the year, the band is also planning to hold a Christmas party with the Loggerettes on Dec. 12, an Armistice Day program and a spring concert in May announces President Beverly Johnson.

Loggerettes, Marching Band to be in Parade

Many theme floats from the college as well as noise floats will be in the big homecoming parade starting tomorrow morning at 17th and Broadway at 10:15 a. m. The parade committee, consisting of Jim Johnson, Lloyd Silvers and Bill Stivers, have numerous tricks up their sleeves.

The Phalanx will be cavorting around in their shirtless style, along with other sororities, fraternities and the independents.

Spearheading the parade will be the marching band directed by Professor O'Connor and the Loggerettes. Also in appearance will be many old cars and colorfully decorated cars competing for the many prizes.

Local high school and military bands will spark the parade at intervals.

Students May See Free Shows Friday

Free movies will be displayed Friday evening on the campus when major activities are not scheduled. The main auditorium and room 215 in Howarth Hall has been wired to accommodate 16 M.M. equipment and pictures to be shown will be both educational and entertaining according to the bursar's office.

If student demands, plus that of faculty members who can picture audio-visual methods as an aid to their lectures, slides and pictures can soon be made available upon request. They may then be used in individual class rooms.

Toothbrushes or Paint Brushes

Have you ever tried painting a room with a tooth brush? Well, neither had four girls of Anderson Hall until last Saturday night. The girls cleaned out the two single rooms on the third floor, mixed the paint, unrolled the wallpaper and discovered they were without paint brushes. Ingeniously, they thought of clothes brushes, hair brushes, and finally recruited their own tooth brushes. Although a little slow, the tooth brushes upheld the rough treatment miraculously, and the walls were completed.

The girls are seriously considering the advantages of becoming interior decorators, after the results were uncurtained this week. If you don't believe this seemingly fantastic tale, visit rooms 314 and 315 Friday night at open house. Isn't it surprising what you can do with a tooth brush?

Sororities and Fraternities To Entertain Their Alums

Homecoming is being celebrated with banquets, breakfasts and dinner parties by sororities and fraternities. Alums are invited to attend open house at the Sigma Zeta Upsilon and the Sigma Mu Chi houses after tomorrow's game.

DELTA KAPPA PHI

Delta Kappa Phi will hold open house this evening after the other campus activities. A smorgasbord dinner will be held after the football game Saturday from 5:30 to 8:00 p. m. at the DKP house for the alumni and their wives.

Donald Freet is the chairman for the dinner festivities, which include some festive decorations in honor of the occasion. Jack Bird is chairman of the active alumni.

ALPHA BETA UPSILON

Alpha Chi Nu and Alpha Beta Upsilon joined forces Thursday, Oct. 23, to sponsor a pledge day.

Entertainment was provided by pledges of both groups. Chairmen for the occasion were Annette Ogden, president of the Beta pledges, and Bob Angeline, president of the Chi Nu pledges.

Gwen Simmons and Clarence Nelson, respective presidents of Alpha Beta Upsilon and Alpha Chi Nu, have planned a homecoming breakfast for 8:00 a. m. Saturday, Oct. 25. After the breakfast, the two groups will enter their floats in the Homecoming parade. Mollie Schlegel and Jim Wornstaff are the co-chairmen of the breakfast activities.

DELTA PI OMICRON

Delta Pi Omicron will hold a house warming in the new "house" at 2911 North 15th. This event is to be held at 7:30 p. m., tonight.

Saturday evening the Alums, active members and pledges, will gather at the house before the annual banquet, which is to be held at the Steak House, on North 26th and Proctor.

SIGMA ZETA EPSILON

Sigma Zeta Epsilon is planning for the largest alumni meeting in the history of their organization. Open house all day Saturday, October 25, with tickets for all the Homecoming events for the alumni. After the football game, all Zeta alumni will meet at the house for a get-together, with a tour of the house to see new developments.

At 6 p. m. they will adjourn to Crawford's Sea Grill, where they will have dinner and hear a welcoming speech by the president of Sigma Zeta, Jack Slater.

Bernard L. Crowell is chairman of the event and Art Demers and Ken Kennel are assisting him.

ALPHA CHI NU

A luncheon with pledge entertainment was held yesterday.

Friday is Chi Nu open house day at the fraternity house.

Friday will see the climax of the Chi Nu "Welcome Home" activities when a banquet honoring the alumni will be held at the Top of the Ocean at 6:30 p. m.

A golf match will be held with the alumni versus the active members of Chi Nu Sunday morning, announces Chairman Jim Wornstaff.

Unknown Talent Hits Jackpot in Entertainment

Has another tradition for Homecoming been established? Will we have a minstrel show every year? These questions are being asked all over the campus and in the homes of those alums who were fortunate enough to see "Gentlemen Be Seated" last evening and Wednesday evening.

Professor John O'Connor presented some scintillating music that tickled the fancy of a packed house both nights. The arrangements and the orchestra were in perfect harmony with the individual artists throughout.

"Prestige to the wind and heart and soul to the show" was the thought for the evening. The end men: "Asbestos" Banks, "Macbeth" Cross, "Efus" Steele and "Chinchilla" Thompson were really in there pitching out comedy with both hands.

Many talented artists performed on the diversified program but outstanding were Ruth Webster as Madame Galli-Curci, Interlocutor Smith, Jazzbo Stell and Honeychile Storhow. Of course, the "Fabulous Four" must be given their just dues for some mighty purty low-down singing.

All in all, the alums really pointed the way for young-uns in college as to "really dishing up a neat bit of musical entertainment with much unknown talent in the show." "Unknown" is used recklessly.

Juniors Plan Dance

Members of the junior class will meet Wednesday noon, October 29, in room 111 of Jones hall. Plans for an all-college dance are to be discussed.

College officials met last Wednesday to discuss the proposed plan for two dances to be sponsored by the junior class each year.

Committees Work Hard To Make Homecoming Success

Co-chairmen Bob Rinker and Clayton Anderson are putting finishing touches on plans for Homecoming celebrations tonight and tomorrow.

Co-chairmen Clayton Anderson and Bob Rinker

Committee heads and their staffs have been of valuable assistance in planning this event of 1947.

Fraternities and sororities and their pledges are especially thanked for the cooperation they have shown. The Independents have offered their ideas and help and all contributions of brain and brawn were gratefully accepted.

The Lettermen's club will sponsor a coke dance this afternoon in the Sub. Dick Robinson is in charge of the event.

The parade through Tacoma tomorrow morning is being planned by Bill Stivers and Lloyd Silvers.

Bev Johnson and Pattee Pilant are co-chairmen for the ball tomorrow evening. They are assisted by Rex Adkins, Gene Brown, ticket chairman, and Buster and Bud Brouhitt.

Handling publicity are Art Nelson, Don Barnett, Yvonne Battin and Mal Stevens.

Art work is under the direction of Cathie Reed, Victor Zimmerman and Gene Bolstad. Special effects are being arranged by Harvey Wagner, Ed LaChapelle and Doug Baldwin.

Secretarial work is being handled by Jeanne Williams, Pat Mason and sorority pledges.

Pep rallies are being arranged by Gretchen Swayze, Les Erickson and Ray Fredericks. Graham Noyler is decoration chairman.

The beard growing contest held last Wednesday was under the leadership of Doug Baldwin.

Bob Rinker and Clayton Anderson have attempted to regain and renew the gala traditions of past Homecoming celebrations.

Greek Houses To Go National

"All hail to alma mater" will echo through CPS halls today as alums return to their old stampeding grounds to look over the campus. Wilmot Ragsdale was a visitor on the campus last week. When he was at CPS he was yell duke. Now he is an economy expert and former war correspondent.

It had to happen eventually and a staff reporter had to see it. The scene — Anderson Hall; the time — Wednesday around 11:25 p. m. The cast — two girls and two boys, of course. The plot — how to get into the hall through a second story window. The climax — it was done. Yes, the Zetes can do anything nowadays.

Dick Osborn says "Shucks, those fellows must be amateurs in getting girls into Anderson. Don't they know there is a window usually open and available for such occasions?"

Shiela Lamarr isn't too hep about cooking but she does know that she won't make the mistake of putting lemon in her coffee again.

Mothers' Clubs Open Fall Sessions

Delta Pi Omicron Mothers' club met this week in the fraternity house on North 15th. Mrs. W. C. Willoughby is president of the group.

Mrs. Frank Taylor is chairman for the November tea for members of the Sigma Mu Chi Mothers' club. She will be assisted by Mrs. N. W. Knapp and Mrs. Walter McCullough. Mrs. Henry Sally, Mrs. Kenneth Reese, Mrs. Ernest Ball and Mrs. Henry Wagner were appointed telephone committee for the year.

The Delta Kappa Phi Mothers' club met October 16th at 2 p. m. in What's all this about the list of eligible girls and their desirabilities the Alpha Chi Nu's have tacked up at the fraternity house? Well, boys, it's always well to be briefed.

Funniest thing of the week: Big Art Hanson knitting with all his heart and patience during his classes.

Dan'l Cupid is flying around again and February is still purty far off. Spied Pat Voshmik sporting Bruce Rector's Delta Kap pin. Sigma Mu Chi and Jim Bell claim Carol Huntington and Shirley Nielsen wears the D.K. pin of Tom Porro. 'Taint a brother and sister relationship as far as the Greeks go with Gretchen Swayze, Theta, and Bill Wilbert, Zete.

What sorority is grabbing a queen finalist as soon as the Homecoming campaign is over? After all, girls!

But most of you didn't know "Cindy" Harris was a candidate for the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi last year at WSC.

Splinters

Two ski club members are former high school champs. They are Weldon Howe and Stan Olsen. A local paper congratulated CPS on its good fortune in having these boys straight from Stadium With this Stan protests 'cuz he graduated a few years back, two to be exact.

A certain football player who is sporting a cast said, "What are you beefin' about? We are still undefeated, untied and unscored upon in league play."

Women Seeking Jobs Should See Miss Button

Ten positions for college women remain open according to the latest announcement by Miss Jean Button, assistant to the Dean of Women. Baby sitters are needed badly, while other jobs of office and house work are obtainable by recourse to Miss Button's office.

the fraternity house. The purpose of the tea was to acquaint members' mothers with those of the new pledges. Approximately 25 were present. The newly elected officers were: President, Mrs. Lewis; vice president, Mrs. Miller, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Sullens. Meetings will be held once a month. Keith Chase and Hal Wolfe were chairmen of the tea.

Queen Gives Bridal Scoop

Another jewel in the already dazzling crown of Queen Phyllis June Hale I is the solitaire on her left hand which is being worn for the first time today.

A wedding in the near future is being planned by Queen Phyllis and her fiancé, Herm McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. McDowell, Tacoma. Phyllis, in her coronation gown of white brocade, will be escorted by Herm to the Homecoming ball.

"I'm still terrifically surprised and awfully confused," said Phyllis on hearing of her election.

Queen Phyllis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hale, and the Independents' candidate, adds the Homecoming crown to a growing collection. She was Jubilee queen for the Y.M.B.C. and prom queen at Lincoln in 1946. Last summer she was elected queen for the graduating officers' class at Fort Benning, Georgia. At Stewart junior high she reigned as May queen.

Blond hair and blue eyes are major assets for this freshman beauty who graduated from Lincoln last June. She tips the scales at 127 pounds and is 5 feet 5 inches. Phyllis made her queenly arrival into the world April 15, 1929.

Skiing and swimming rate tops with Phyllis as does the dramatic department at CPS. Her intended major (as long as she stays, that is) will be dramatics.

Philomatheans Hold 1st Reunion

The first reunion of Philomatheans Clubs since 1930 will be held at 6:30 Saturday night at the Rose Room of the Towers.

The Philos were one of the first mixed literary groups on the CPS campus. They organized in 1905-1930, and dissolved when sororities and fraternities came on the campus. More than 250 initiations have been sent out to the members.

In the reception line will be: Dr. and Mrs. Todd, Dr. and Mrs. Thompson and Prof. and Mrs. Slater.

They met once a week at CPS and had a literary program and social functions.

The committee in charge of arrangements include: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Granlund, Ruth Hallin, Marion J. Myers, Mrs. Raymond Seward and Mrs. Lester Wehmhoff.

Sororities and Fraternities Take Steps to Nationalize

By BEVERLY BUTLER

That fraternities and sororities on the CPS campus are permitted to turn national is an old story to most students on the campus.

But the fact that three of them have already petitioned nationals and are waiting for acceptance is something new. A year ago they were not active.

Before 1943, nationals were not allowed on the campus but that year the restrictions were lifted and it was decided that they would be accepted after the commencement of '48. It was just recently that this ban was lifted and the local fraternities and sororities can petition nationals any time they are ready.

A joint committee of trustees and faculty formulates the procedure observed by the groups in petitioning the nationals. According to Dean Register, the local groups have been interested in nationalizing for many years but up until each step they take approved by the faculty and trustee committee. When they do decide what nationals they wish to petition they must have the vote of their entire fraternity and sorority.

"Also," Dean Register said, "the locals should keep the committee acquainted with decisions arrived at and nationals being considered."

"That the locals have their own houses is not necessary, or at least we have heard nothing of it," Dean continued. As for the alumni of the locals, every national has its own laws and methods governing this situation.

Women Pledged By Kappa Phi

Green and white pledge ribbons of Chi chapter of Kappa Phi, national Methodist women's organization, are being worn by 26 girls following an informal pledge ceremony last week.

Alpha Chi Psi Meets

Alpha Psi Chi, psychology club, held its first meeting last week. The next open meeting is set for Tuesday night, October 28, at 8 o'clock in room 116 at Howarth Hall. Speaker for the meeting will be Miss Starr, psychologist with the Tacoma Public Schools.
