Homecoming Plans Complete; 'Jungle Jive In '55' Is Theme

"Jungle Jive in '55" will be the theme of the College of Puget Sound's Homecoming festivities, co-chairmen Audrey Stenholm and Tom Martin have announced. Homecoming, scheduled for Nov. 3-5, will provide a three-day whirl of fun and festivities for students and alumni.

Candidates for Homecoming queen were nominated by the four sororities and the independents Monday evening.

Climax of the Homecoming festivities will be the annual Homecoming dance, to be held Nov. 5, from 9 p.m. until midnight in the Fieldhouse. Co-chairmen for the semi-formal affair are Bev Sale and Cecil Bell. Winners of the house decorations contest will be announced at the dance.

Bewhiskered males will be the order of the day as registration for the beard-growing contest opens Oct. 13. Registrants must be clean-shaven, contest co-chairmen Georgia Ames and Donna Moller stated.

The man with the longest beard will be crowned Homecoming King during intermission of a mixer in the SUB on the afternoon of Nov. 3. Making plans for the mixer are Dale Klint and Janet Timmons.

Coronation of the Homecoming Queen will take place Nov. 3 before the presentation of the Homecoming play. This year's play, "You Can't Take It With You," will be presented Nov. 3 and 4.

A torchlight parade to view the house decorations will be held following the Homecoming play Nov. 4.

The Logger football squad will tangle with Wilamette's Bearcats Nov. 5 to add the gridiron touch to the Homecoming celebration.

Working on Homecoming preparations are Don Moller and Evelyn Dodge, publicity; Pamela Parr and Spencer Stokes, buttons; Elva Straw and Maureen Prawitz, coronation; Barbara Gonia, alumni contacts; Paul Fitzsimmons and Nancy Wagner, alumni luncheon.

Chinook Plans Open House

The Chinook club is holding its annual open house at Deep Creek, for all students, on Sunday, Oct. 23.

Car caravans will leave from in front of the SUB at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. Students who are planning to attend are asked to sign the transportation list on the Chinook bulletin board in Jones Hall.

Students will have a chance to inspect the impressive twenty-three acres at Deep Creek, which lie only three miles away from Rainier National Park. Refreshments will be served.

The Chinook officers are Ray Tabor, president; Jim Ernst, vice president; and Charles Brown, Deep Creek manager. A new secretary-treasurer will be elected soon. Advisor is Dr. Robert D. Sprenger.

Director Dale Bailey Schedules Varsity Show Auditions Tomorrow

Dale Bailey, director of the College of Puget Sound Varsity Show, recently announced that try-outs for the show will be held tomorrow and Thursday between 1 and 4 in Jones Hall auditorium. The show will be held Nov. 18 and 19 in Jones auditorium at 8 p.m. There will be no admission fee.

Those students interested in trying out may sign up on slips posted in the Music building office, Jones, Howarth and the SUB. Auditioners should be able to fit their act into one of the four segments of the show — vaudeville, silent movies, radio and television. There's an especial need for comedians, and variety acts other than musical. Also needed are persons interested in working behind the scenes and in the make-up department.

Featured in the show will be Millie Bulatao, the Kord Kings, Gail Boden and Shelley Gerarden.

Working with Bailey on the show are: Mary Jane Hungerford, business manager; Ed Coy,

Northwest Artist Appears Tonight

Raymond Hill, well known exhibitor in the Northwest, will be present at the Tacoma Art league galleries this Tuesday on the third floor of Jones Hall.

Hill's paintings were on exhibit through Sept. 28 and several hundred people visited the display. He is a graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design and studied extensively in Italy, Spain, Tahiti, Panama, Hawaii, and Mexico.

Fabrics designed by Frank Lloyd Wright will be shown in another of the galleries.

Original Rembrandt Etchings from a private Portland collection can be seen in the third gallery.

publicity; Jane White, costumes; Holmes Anrud, sets; LeRoy Gruver, music director; Pete Schmitt, stage manager; Joan Walsh, Choreography; Bev Sale and Louie Dibble, silent movies and Kathy Bartell and Juris Macs, radio.

Greeks to Stage Dance Friday

The Greek ball, sponsored annually by the Interfraternity Council, will be held from 9 p.m. until midnight at Fellowship hall Friday, chairman Ron Hanson announced.

Music for the semi-formal affair will be provided by Jimmy Carbone's five-piece band. Refreshments will be served.

Admission is open to members of the college's Greek organizations and their dates. Cost is $2 donation.

Panhellenic is handling decorations. Decorations co-chairmen are Pat Smith and Nancy Quigley.

Sophomores Enforce Frosh Green Beanie "Tradition"

Green dye has been flying at the College of Puget Sound as the sophomores enforce the ancient tradition of freshman green beanies.

Tradition requires the freshmen to wear the green beanies on campus at all times. Likewise, it is the traditional duty of the sophomores to enforce the wearing of green beanies.

And what happens to the freshman who doesn't like to wear his green beanie? Green dye, applied to the hair (and at times to the face) by enthusiastic sophomore "vigilantes" is the result.

Predatory sophomores are likely to swoop down on unsuspecting, beanie-less freshmen at any time, although their favorite hunting ground is the SUB cafeteria. A towel is draped barber-style around the culprit's shoulders, and washable emerald dye is sprayed on with a windex bottle.

Freshmen may discard their beanies if they win the freshman-sophomore tug-of-war battle. Otherwise they will wear the detested caps until Homecoming, Nov. 3-5.

Rooms will be considered as sanctuaries, sophomore class President Don Moller said at a class meeting Thursday. The freshmen will have to wear their beanies all other places on campus.

Sigma Alpha Tea In Music Building

Sigma Alpha Iota, professional music fraternity for women, has announced Sunday, Oct. 9, 1955, as the date for its annual freshman tea. The tea is to be held at 3:00 p.m. in the faculty lounge of the Music building.

It is a "get acquainted" affair to which all women in a music course are invited. Alumnae and patronesses have also been asked to attend.

Pi Kappa Delta to Stage Kickoff Debate Banquet at Model Grill

The annual kick-off debate banquet at CPS will be held at the Model Grill at 7 p.m.

Miss Sheila Ryan, president of the Washington Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, which is sponsoring the banquet, will be toast-mistress.

Professor Gordon Bertram will present a ten-minute analysis of the guaranteed annual wage proposition which is the national college debate question this year.

Ronald Usher, Spenser Stokes,

Spirit Banquet Honors Grids

After an absence of a year, Spirit Night returns to the CPS campus Thursday night as the college honors its football team and coach. The Loggers are presently prepping for the Western Washington game Saturday at the CPS field. Kickoff time is 2 p.m.

Major feature is the Spirit banquet at 6 p.m. in the Student Union building. Present will be the football team and coach John Heinrich as honored guests.

Dr. Thompson Will Speak
Also in attendance will be Dr. Thompson, president of the college, and several other administrative dignitaries. The master of ceremonies will be ASCPS vice president Marjorie Casebier.

This year's banquet promises to be a gigantic success as the ticket sales for the dinner are going rapidly. Rheta Hill is in charge of tickets for the Thursday affair. Admission charge is 25c. Approximately 200 tickets will be on sale at the SUB.

After the dinner, a pep rally will be held in front of the SUB. CPS's new cheer leader squad will lead the rally.

Campus Parking Causes Problems

Campus automobile parking is a great problem this year because there are more students driving to CPS than during the 1954-55 school year. Anticipating a traffic increase this year, the college spent $8,000 enlarging and paving parking areas during the summer.

Every car must display a campus parking permit which can be obtained free of charge at the cashier's window in Jones Hall.

On campus parking offenses are: (1) parking in spaces reserved for faculty, (2) parking in restricted or "No Parking" zones and (3) parking in traffic zones. Preventing the violation of these rules is the job of Intercollegiate Knights. They try to be fair to all car owners but the rules must be enforced.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY MEETS

The chemical society will have its first meeting at 4 p.m. on Thursday, room 215, in Howarth hall. Dr. Sprenger, head of the chemistry department, will speak.

The society will also decide on a meeting time that will be convenient to most of the members. All chemistry students are welcome.

Frosh Responsibility-Spirit

One of the most taxing problems facing college life at CPS is the matter of school spirit. Because of the local students, differences in age, marital status and the stress of studies, CPS does have a tough time in bringing the old rah-rah spirit to a fever pitch.

For some time, our college has had a definite majority of students living in Tacoma, off the campus. With many Tacomans going to CPS, it presents a problem to hold their attention on campus activities. They're holding jobs which usually conflict in date with many of the activities. This is particularly true in the case of intercollegiate athletics.

Many veterans are now on the campus and are married and a great deal older than the high school grad who came directly to college. Since marriage takes up a considerable amount of the veteran's time, the student body should not and cannot look to the vets for help in raising spirit. Being older and toughened by military service, it is often difficult for the returning serviceman to adjust to the enthusiasm needed by our athletic teams.

Since studying and earning of a degree are uppermost in the minds of many collegians, it is sometimes tough to take time off and cheer the football team on to victory. This makes the problem of school spirit even tougher.

The answer to the problem? Trail does not profess to have a Salk-cure all solution. This paper, however, would suggest that the answer lies in the enthusiasm of the class of '59. Being youthful and very much interested and over 500 strong, the frosh class should take the lead in upping school spirit.

Lutherans Detest Walking; CPS Fears Food Bills

As of the date of the writing of this article, there doesn't seem to be too much enthusiasm from Pacific Lutheran college concerning the Trail's proposal for a 10-mile jaunt back and forth between CPS and PLC. Could it be that our great white sons and daughters from the South are somewhat hesitant regarding our proposal?

During the past few years, CPS has run rampant over the gridiron piling up a decided advantage over the Gladiators. Maybe this is why our "utefisk lovers" wish to remain in Parkland.

Actually, I can see only three groups benefiting from the suggestion: Shoe salesmen, corn plaster companies, and liniment sellers. Should this proposal go into effect, PLC students would have to walk 40 miles back and forth to CPS (losing, of course, in football and basketball); they would have two buffet dinners, courtesy of CPS, and our beloved institution would eventually go broke trying to pay the bills year after year.

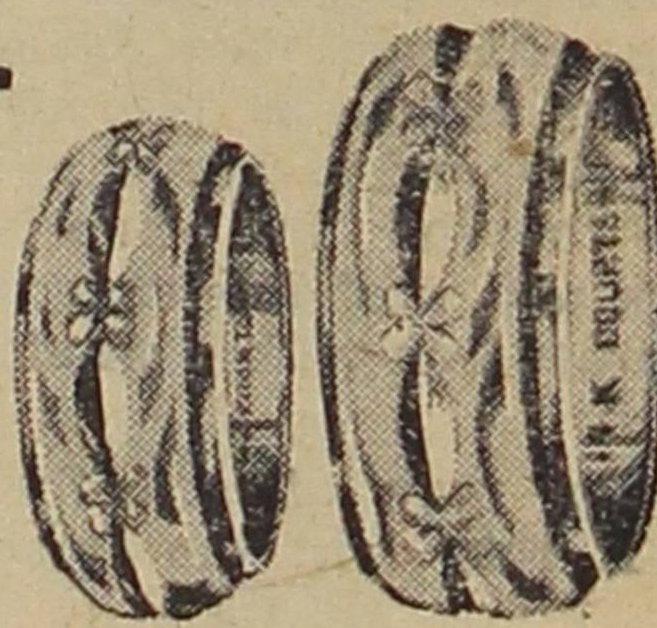

So far, at least one PLC man has had something to say. In an exclusive interview, Al Gubrud, varsity footballer, said, "We may have to walk to CPS after the November football game, but we'll be seeing you at PLC at the end of the basketball season."

Washington State and the University of Idaho have been doing this type of perennial perambulation for many years now with complete success.

When you stop to think of it, a 10-mile hike to Parkland would not be too bad, but as far as the buffet dinner goes—well, personally, I don't much relish Luteburgers.

Singing Sauers Attain Goal—Records and Television

By Shirley Larson

Starting first with spiritual songs; later going to popular songs, Joan, Susan and Nanette Sauer have finally reached an important goal in their singing career: recording records and singing on TV.

Susan and Joan, who are both freshmen at CPS, give their mother credit for their success as it was she who taught them all they know about singing.

Singing Since Grade School

When asked when they first started singing together, Susan replied, "Ever since I can remember. We sang through grade school and on to Clover Park junior and senior high." They also sang at the New Yorker, the Towers and various clubs in and around Tacoma.

Some of the highlights of their career are: Approximately nine years ago, they appeared on their first radio show, "Stars of Tomorrow."

Two years ago, the trio were winners on a talent show held at the Roxy Theatre and were awarded an expense paid trip to Hollywood, Calif., where they appeared on Betty White's television show. Said Susan, "We had a wonderful time."

step toward their singing goal was the trip they took this summer to Nashville, Tenn., where they met stars of the "Grand Ole Opry" show and recorded four songs. They now hold a contract with the Dot Recording Co. at Nashville, Tenn.

The girls are also well known in Tacoma for their singing and appearances on the Roy Gordon television show.

Both Susan and Joan are majoring in education and even though they are not taking music, their career and hobby will still remain singing. They will continue to record records and appear on television shows.

Loyal Logger Of Week

Earning distinction on campus for her outstanding services, combined with friendliness and wit is this week's Loyal Logger, Marjorie "Casey" Casebier.

Originally from Concord, Cal., this brown-eyed lass traveled to Richland, Wash., where she graduated from Columbia high school.

Since entering the College of Puget Sound three years ago, Casey has been active on numerous committees of all kinds besides participating in the Independents, Kappi Phi, the Methodist Student Movement and freshman stunt night at which, for the past two years, she has been engaged as a delightful mistress-of-ceremonies.

In addition this year Casey is very capably fulfilling the duties of ASCPS vice president and secretary of Otlah, senior women's scholastic honorary.

This busy girl has many outside interests to keep her from becoming idle. Sketching, dancing and collecting quotations and short sayings are relaxations as is conversing.

"Some of my happiest times have been sitting in a dorm room and talking with the girls (during study hours, of course!)"

Casey's interests also include this year's varsity show.

"I think the varsity show is going to be outstanding because it will represent a cross-section of the student body in talent and in spirit."

Rating top spots on Marjorie's dinner menu are steak and French fries. Her favorite music is semi-classical.

A person who is interesting to talk to and fun to be with are preferred traits for her ideal personality.

A pet peeve is "people who are too dogmatic."

With studies in sociology and religion, Casey plans to attend graduate school and perhaps eventually teach after graduating this June.

Loggers Host Western; Drop Eastern Savages 13-7

The College of Puget Sound Loggers will be at home for the first straight week-end Saturday when they host the Western Washington Wildcats from Bellham at 2 p.m.

Eastern, CPS's foe, took the measure of Western in a non-conference game two weeks ago when the Whitworth Pirates beat the Wildcats Saturday 13-0 in a surprisingly strong defensive effort.

In the last two outings between CPS and Western, the Loggers have won out by the lopsided scores of 33-0.

Loggers Tally Early
Two first-half touchdowns by CPS Loggers was enough to drop Eastern Washington 13-7 Saturday, as both schools opened their Evergreen conference campaign.

With four minutes elapsed in the first period, halfback Don Parsons cracked over from the 25-yard stripe to give the Loggers their first six-pointer. Parsons scoring opportunity was set up by a 24-yard Gary-Parson's pass play which carried the ball to the one. Parsons place-kicked for the extra point was good.

Blocked Punt
The front line defensive efforts of the Loggers paid off early in the second quarter when tackle Dick Hansen and center Bob Ehrenheim broke through to block Myron Rasmussen's punt on the Eastern five.

The ball bounced into the end zone, where end Babe Buholm recovered the second CPS touchdown. Parsons conversion try was wide.

Savages Spark
CPS threatened twice in the third quarter only to run out of gas and being forced to punt, which was handled nicely by end Phil Yant.

It was late in the third quarter before Eastern was able to get over the mid-field stripe. Quarterback George Foster looked like he might go all the way as he scooted around end for 26 yards before being tripped up by guard Wally Thompson.

In the fourth period Foster intercepted a Logger pass and returned it to the 38. Three plays later Rasmussen went the final 10-yards around left end for an Eastern TD. Ron Sullivan place-kicked for the extra point.

At this point the Heinrickmen buckled down. Receiving the Savage kick-off on their 15 they marched to the Eastern seven in 20 plays before time ran out leaving the final score 13-7. Rich Dodds, Wes Pruitt and Parsons did the heavy work in this 78-yard march, hitting the line for three, six, or eight yards at a crack.

Logger coach John Heinrick termed his squad's performance "most satisfactory," especially after their fourth quarter spirit and hustle.

'TALKIN' IT OVER'
By Don Nagley

After two week-ends of football action, only two Evergreen conference teams remain undefeated, Whitworth and CPS. Pacific Lutheran, victims of the Loggers in the Kings-X game and Central Washington are added to the undefeated list with only conference games taken into consideration.

Whitworth has taken the measure of Willamette, the Loggers home-coming opponents, and Western Washington in their two outings. Pacific Lutheran eleven blanked British Columbia Saturday to have a perfect record in conference play. The Central Washington Wildcats who host CPS for their home-coming have dropped two non-conference games to date.

CPS finished in second place last year behind the Whitworth Pirates from Spokane and shared the title with them in 1953.

Again this year Whitworth is favored to repeat as the conference champs by the boys with the crystal ball.

The Loggers and PLC are out to prove that the "experts" are looking through too much Tacoma fog for picking Whitworth to plunder the gold cup again.

COACH HEINRICK
of Puget Sound gridiron, and the Loggers, in step with a tradition started 30 years ago gave them a victory on his "birthday" day.

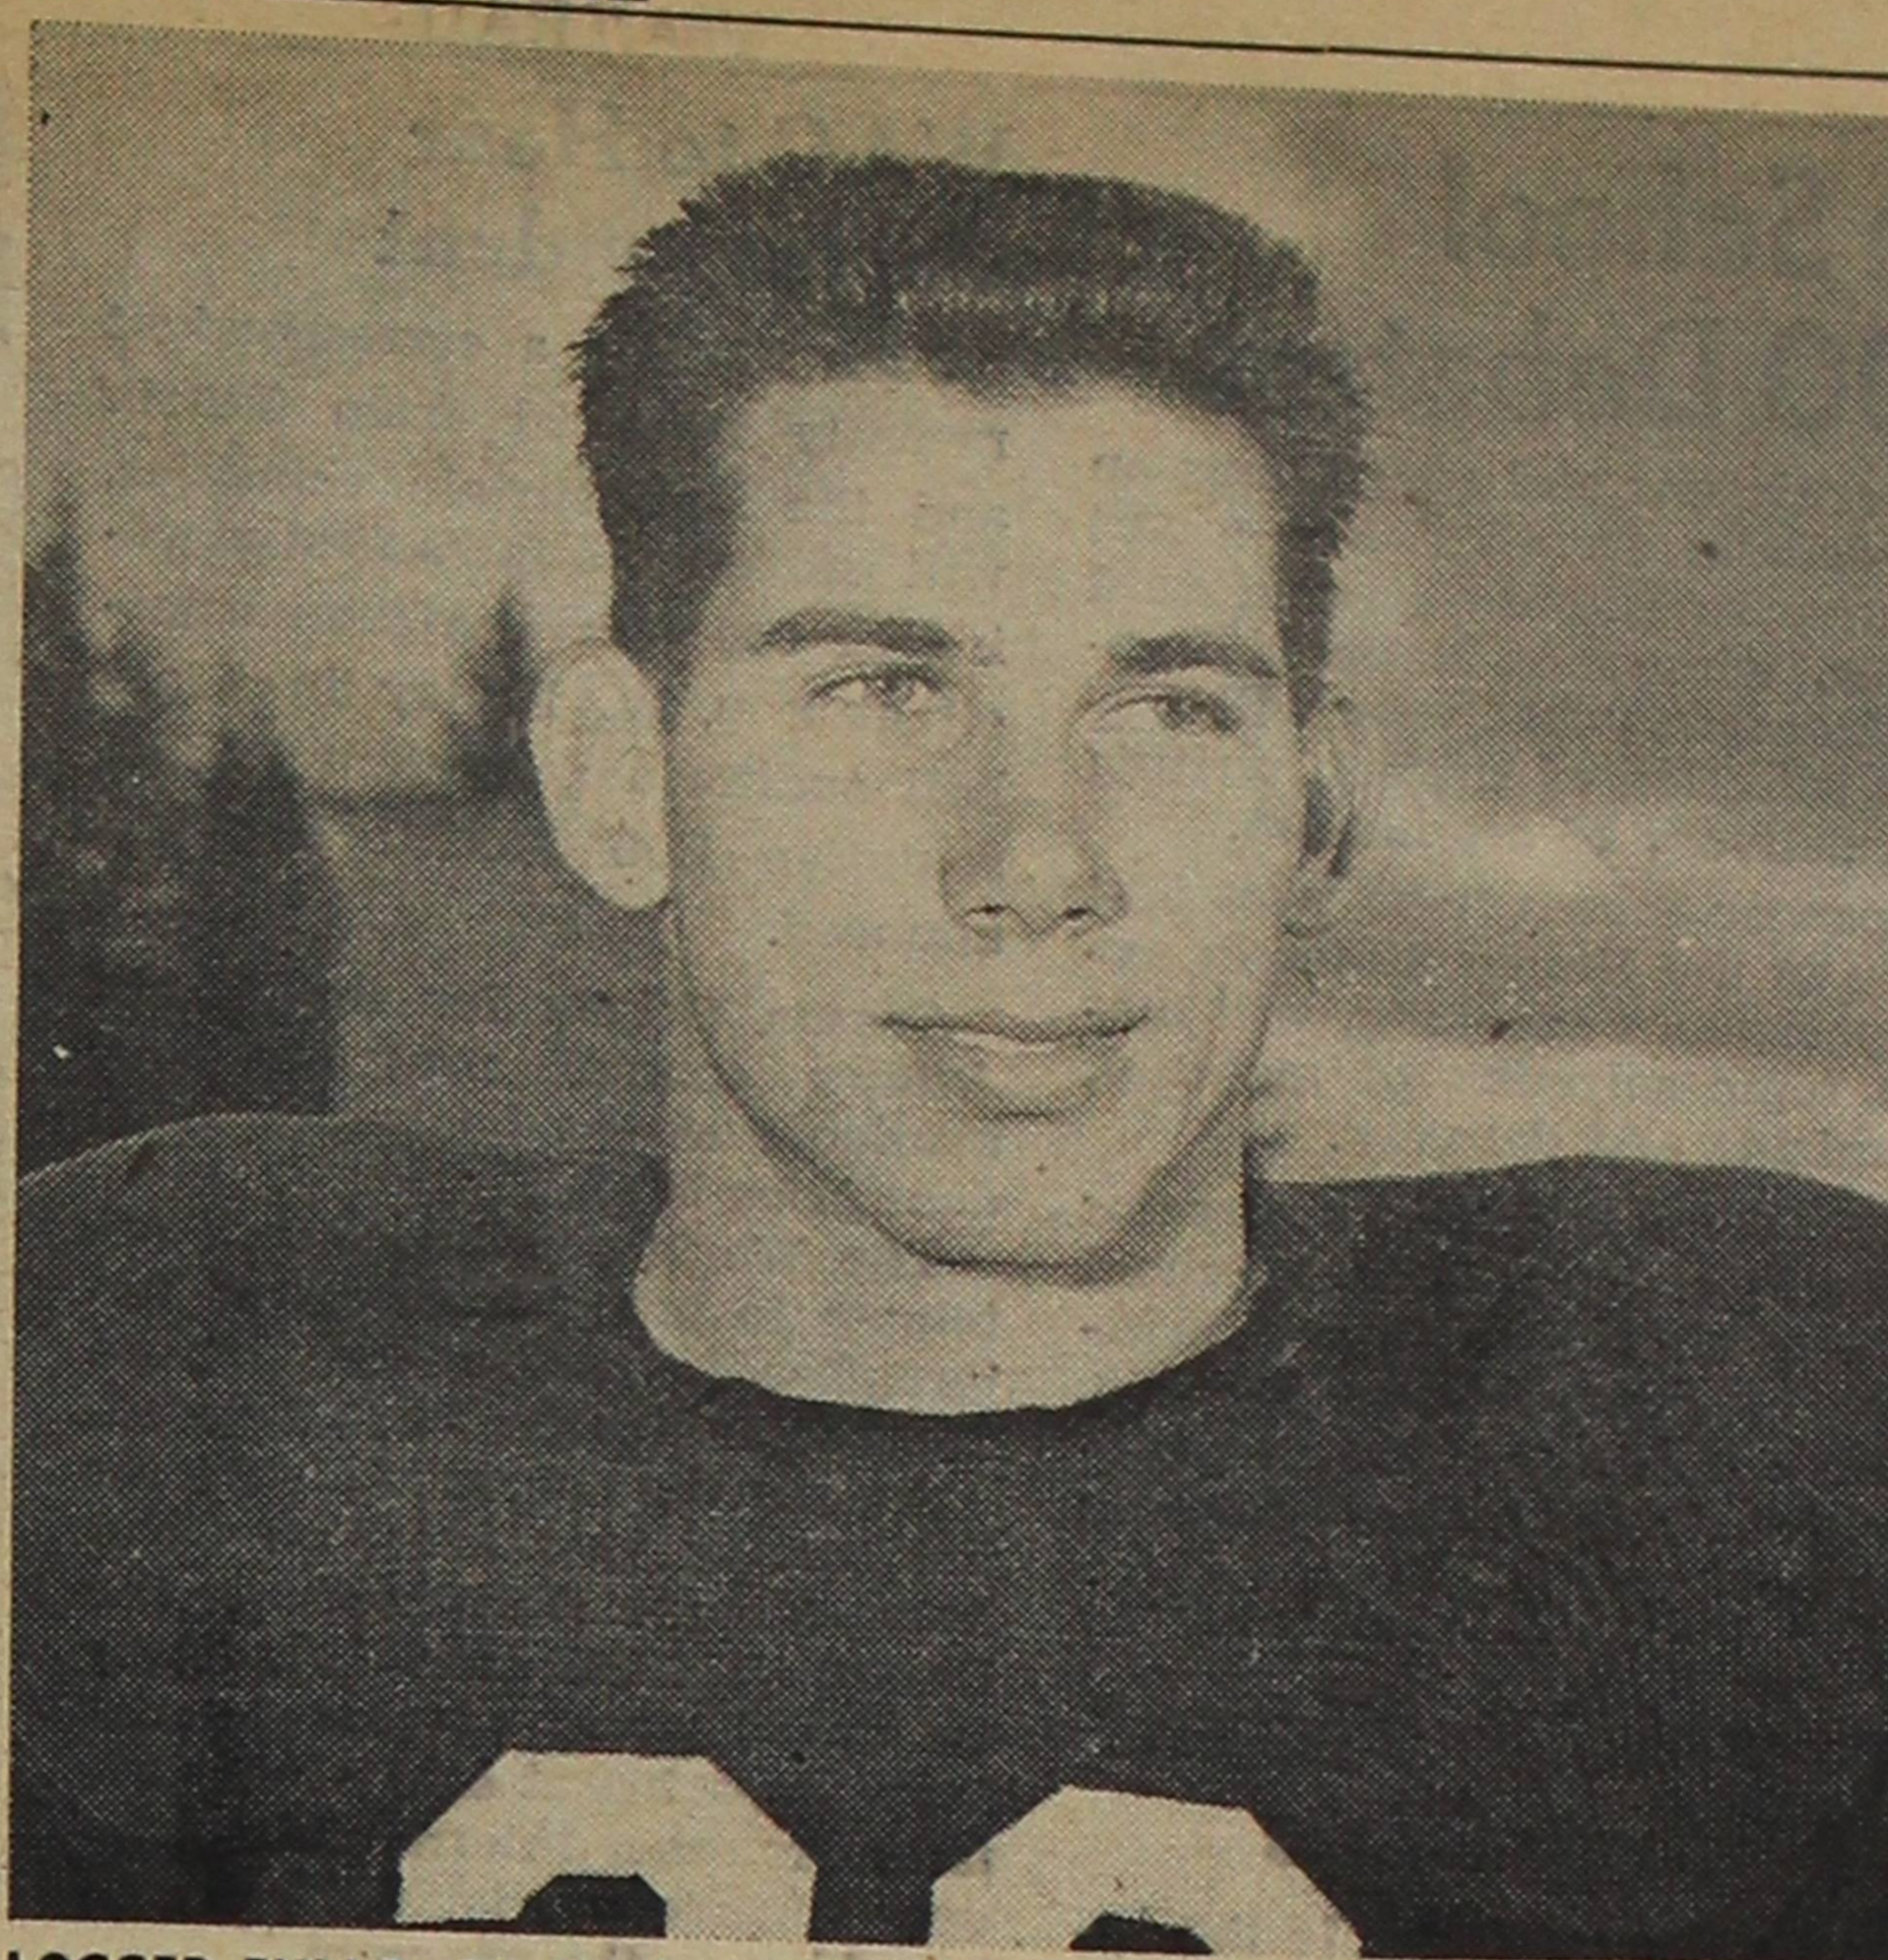

During half-time activities the Logger rooters cut forth with happy birthday coach," which drew a war smile, a rarity on the field, and a hearty salute to the well wishers.

LOGGER FULLBACK STAR—Rich Dodds (above), has paced the Loggers to victory in the first two games. The Centralia senior is the leading ground gainer on the team. Dodds, a bone-crushing linebacker, seems certain to make the All-conference team.

'MEETING the LOGGERS'

HEINRICK'S STARTING BACKS

Rich Dodds
Rich Dodds, the Loggers' 180-pound senior fullback is nothing but trouble for the opposing defense as his past records will prove. Rich is the "money" ball carrier on the club and its usually his number that's called when the Loggers need that plunge through the middle. Dodds packed the pigskin 14 times in the Kings-X game for 69 yards and it looks like he's headed for his best year yet.

Wes Pruitt
Wes came to CPS two years ago and right away proved himself a capable ball carrier. Pruitt at 184 pounds is fast and hits hard from his halfback spot. Last year he set an Evergreen record with his second half kick-off return of 97 yards against the champion Whitworth Pirates.

Pruitt prepped at Goldendale and wants to have a go at pro ball when he's through at Loggerville.

Don Parsons
Coach Heinrick has trouble finding things for "Pars" to do, it seems. Lettering as a freshman last year, he played both offense and defense from the halfback and fullback spots and also had time to snag passes and do some Logger punting. This year Parsons is doing the point after touchdown kicking and his two successful tries against Pacific Lutheran was the margin of victory in the Loggers 14-12 triumph.

Brines transfer from WSC last spring gives Heinrick a capable signal caller to replace All-Conference Joe Stortini. Gary is a fine passer and a deceptive ball handler from the "T" spot.

If John Heinrick was to single out his favorite high school in the state it would surely be Centralia since Dodds, Parsons and Brines all hail from this Southwest Washington school.

Grapplers Start Turnouts; Mick Pettey Captains Squad

Wrestling turnouts will begin today at 3:30 in the CPS Fieldhouse. All those interested in trying out for the grappling squad should report at the Fieldhouse or contact Jim Nelson or Captain Mick Pettey as soon as possible.

The grapplers have been active in Northwest circles for the past three years and are one of the few small college teams in this section. Their embarking on another tough schedule of matches, henceforth the need for more aspirants.

WSC Scheduled
Two matches are being scheduled with Washington State, one of the top powers in the country. Also the Loggers will face Portland State and Ft. Lewis and Whidby Island. Several other matters are tentatively being scheduled.

Returning lettermen from last year besides Capt. Pettey, are: Wally Simms, 191; Sid Sowers, 175; Juris Macs, 165; and Tony Corvin, 153. Several outstanding wrestlers from the high school ranks are Harold Algeo from Stadium, Tacoma; Fred Crothamel, Lincoln, Tacoma; and George Morford of Peninsula.

Grid 'Mural Race Starts

By Bob Woodke

Intramural football got off to a fast start last week as Kappa Sigma rolled to an impressive 54-0 victory over Todd Hall.

Bill Medin played a fine game for the winners as he threw two touchdown strikes and caught one of Jim DeVore's throws for another. The team played a fine game and look to be potential power in the league this year.

Sigma Nu showed it's strength Wednesday by downing Phi Delta Theta 19-7. Sigma Nu has a fine team this year and promises to make a bid for the championship.

The game of the week was a real defensive contest between Theta Chi and Sigma Chi. It was a real thriller that could of gone either way. Theta Chi finally emerged as the victor by a 2-0 count.

Sigma Nu continued it's winning ways Thursday downing Todd Hall 19-7.

Sixth Annual High School Clinic Attracts 300 Debaters

The sixth annual high school debate clinic at CPS will be held in the recital hall of the music building Oct. 8. A total of 300 debaters from 30 high schools are expected.

In the morning, the regional high school debate managers, under the direction of John E. Hansen, Consultant on Instruction Material's Services will meet in the faculty lounge of the Music building, from 10 o'clock until noon Saturday.

Bellevue high school presented a debate team forming the affirmative and Yakima high school will present a debate team forming the negative.

Miss Emmaline Slauch of Sumner and G. T. Allen will offer criticisms and suggestions on the debates. Dr. C. T. Battin will summarize the debates. Ronald Usher, winner of National honors in oratory last year will discuss selection of subject, writing and delivery of orientation.

Spencer Stokes, who won first place in the United States in extemporaneous speaking, will discuss topic selection of material, organizing and delivery.

Mrs. Glen Frierhood, director of drama at Kalama High School will explain and illustrate principles of interpretative reading.

This clinic is the first preparation towards the season's forensic program.

Largest Enrollment In Biology Class

Dr. James R. Slater is the instructor of a new section in Biology 101; necessary, as biology has the biggest class ever this year.

Miss Helen L. Van Gilden, assistant professor of biology, is back at CPS after a year of illness, which she spent most of the time in the Veterans' hospital. She is very happy to be back at CPS.

Dr. Kenneth M. Walker received his Phd. last June from Oregon State college.

Log Book Staff Requests Data

All campus organizations that have not yet elected their officers for the coming year should do so as soon as possible if they want their officers to appear in the Log Book, Co-editors Spencer Stokes and Dale Wirsing have announced.

The Log Book, prepared by the Intercollegiate Knights, contains campus information, college traditions, activity calendar, football and basketball schedule, the ASCPS constitutions and their officers, and a student and faculty directory, containing names, class standing, addresses and phone numbers.

The campus information and college traditions sections have been revised and rewritten.

Stokes and Wirsing urged all organizations to cooperate in getting the Log Book finished as soon as possible by turning in their lists of officers.

Snap Bidding Results Are Given

Snap-bidding continues until Nov. 18, according to Dr. Raymond L. Powell of the Education Department. The new list of men pledging the fraternities are:

Kappa Sigma: Claude Bailey, Vasilakis Basil, Gordon Boogaard, Ray Brady, Ronald Martin, Richard Headrich, Joe Ruff, Herb Richey, Dave Strong, Melvin Woodke and Fred Borovich.

Sigma Nu: George Dixon and Richard Baird.

Theta Chi: Monta Boston, Doug Verbonis, Walter Campbell, Robert Stohr, George Morford, and Valjene Power.

WAC to Hear Correspondent

John Morley, a correspondent recently returned from Russia and the iron curtain countries, will address the fall's first meeting of the World Affairs council at 8 p. m. Friday in Jones hall auditorium, Student Representative Bob McGill has announced.

Season tickets for the World Affairs council programs are available at the bookstore. Student price is $1.

The World Affairs council attempts to bring speakers of International importance before Tacoma audiences, McGill stated.

Among the speakers slated for the coming year are You Chan Yang, Korean ambassador to the United States, and Professor George Taylor, advisor to the State department on Chinese affairs. As other international fugures become available, they will be added to the program.

Chemistry Meeting Held at Camas

Dr. Fehlandt attended a chemistry meeting at Camas, Wash. the week of Sept. 12 to 16, as representative for CPS. It was held at their new $600,000 chemistry research laboratory.

Dr. Richard Lapore, one of the staff members at the laboratory, received his BS degree from CPS in 1948. He received his Phd. from Oregon State college.

First IRC Meeting Stresses Friendly World Relations

The International Relations club held its first meeting in the Faculty room in the Music building last Tuesday evening. The president, Bruce Berney, opened the meeting and gave a short talk on the meaning of I.R.C.

Then Bruce taught the group the song "Vive L'Amour" (Long Live Love).

The IRC meets the second and fourth Tuesday of every month. Members should meet in the SUB at 6:50 p.m. At 7 p.m. the group will be taken to a private home for the meeting.

Bob McGill spoke on the World Affairs Council of Tacoma. One of the club advisors, Professor Miller gave a welcome speech. The other advisor, Dr. Tomlinson, spoke about students from other countries. Dr. Register also welcomed foreign students to CPS.

For entertainment, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Glass sang three well known American folk songs, with Mr. Glass playing the guitar.

Tong Sun Park, a student, spoke on the importance of international relations.

FTA to Hold First Meeting

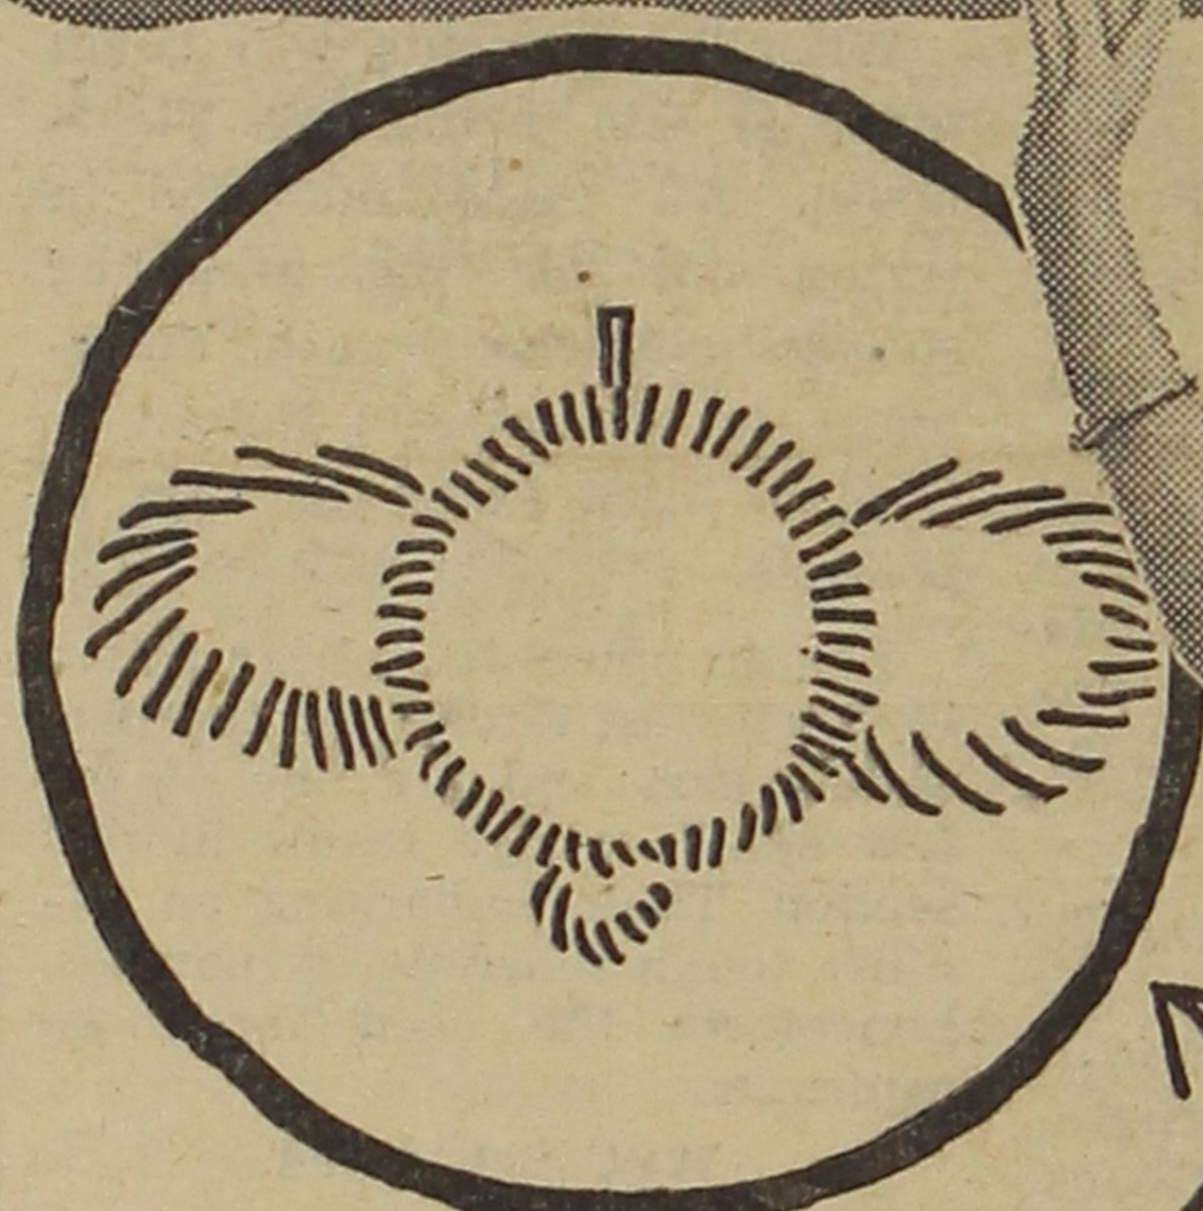

Future Teachers of America will hold their first meeting the year Thursday, Oct. 6 in the Music Building Lounge at 7 p. m.

Mr. Trygvie Blix, principal of the new Baker Junior High School, will speak on "American Dependent Schools Overseas." Mr. Blix has been principal of a school in France for the past two years and will give first hand account on the proceedings there.

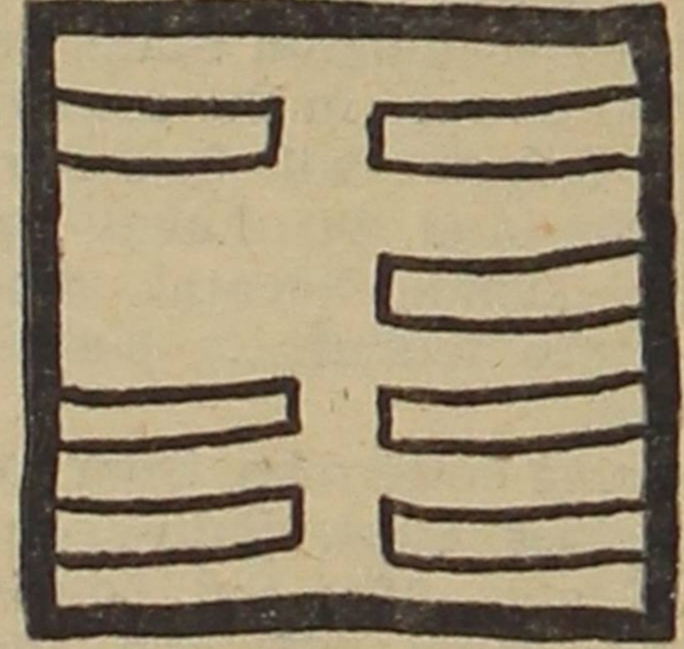

"All future teachers are urged to attend," according to Bob Renheim, president of FTA.

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph at right.

IF YOU'RE UP A TREE about what cigarette to smoke, there's a pleasant point of view in the Doodle at left. It's titled: Davy Crockett enjoying better-tasting Lucky as seen by b'ar in tree. Luckies taste better for a hatful of reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tar tobacco is toasted. "It's Toasted" — the famous Lucky Strike process — tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. So set your sights on better taste — light up a Lucky yourself!
